Lesson For January 1, 1911. The Kingdom Divine. I Kings xii:1-24.

Golden Text—Who that walketh with a wise man shall be wise; but a companion of fools shall be destroyed. Prov. xiii:20.

(1) Verse 1—Whose son was Rehoboam and what was his general character?

(2) What king had just passed away and what had been the nature of his reign?

(3) Verses 2-5—Who was Jeroboam and what part had he previously played in Israel?

(4) Why was Jeroboam in Egypt and who called him home?

(5) What request did Jeroboam make to Rehoboam?

(6) How long should it take a man to decide on a matter of right and wrong?

(7) What is indicated as to the character of Rehoboam in taking 3 days to give his answer whether he would do the right thing? This question must be answered by members of the club.

(8) Verses 6-7—What was the advice and the moral quality which the old man gave Rehoboam?

(9) Verses 8-11—Is the advice of old men, concerning matters of right and wrong, or of wise policy, more likely to be right than that of young men? Why?

(10) Did the young men advise the king conscientiously, and what do you think of their advice?

(11) Is it moral or immoral, and why, for the Opposition to oppose a good Government measure simply for the sake of opposition?

(12) Verses 12-14—Wherein consisted the mistake of the answer of Rehoboam?

(13) What resulted from Rehoboam's answer and what would probably have been the result if he had granted the request of the people?

(14) When a moral sentiment of a majority of the people is known, how much reliance should we place upon it?

(15) This mistake of Rehoboam was irreparable: how may such mistakes be made today?

(16) Verse 15—See Chap. xi:11 and say how much God had to do with this act of folly of Rehoboam?

(17) In what sense, if any, was Rehoboam's answer "from the Lord?"

(18)—Verse 16—Why was Israel justified in rebelling against King Rehoboam, and why was the United States justified in rebelling against George III?

(19) Verses 17-24—What part of the original kingdom remained with Rehoboam, and what part rebelled?

(20) How did Rehoboam follow up his fatal blunder?

(21) Jeroboam was the popular choice of Israel for King what reason is there to think he was also God's choice?

(22) Did the people select Jeroboam because he was God's choice, why or why not?

(23) Did God select Jeroboam because he was the choice of the people or for some other reason?

(24) Does God always have His way in the choice of national rulers? Lesson for Sunday, Jan. 8, 1911. Jeroboam Makes Idols for Israel to Worship. I Kings xii:25—Xiii:6.

Observationists. "Observationists" are busy in Broken Bow of late. They observe where valious articles moveable, are during the day, and then sneak around in the dark of the night and "move the goods." Its very nice to know where your neighbors coal and kindling is and where the oil can is kept, and without his consent borrow these necessities and forget to return them, but once in a great while an accident befalls a thief in the night and for a few days at least his friends are informed that "Mr. Thief" has a bad cold, the lagrippe or is otherwise indisposed, anyway he is laid up for a while. If some of the petty thieves that infest all towns happen to read this, they will perhaps take the hint.
