The Western Union telegraph company has issued an order making the hours for night work eight instead of seven and a half hours and allowing extra pay for Sunday work, but the extra wages are not given to the number of weeks in the month. This will increase the salary considerably.

An American resident is possibly the richest man of color in America. He was a large slave owner before the war and besides owning a vast tract of his property in New Orleans is in less than $50,000 a year. Besides this he has large personal estate, consisting of first-class securities. Mr. Maine is a prime factor in the financial world, one of the last institutions of Finance and has been almost out of sight.

We desire to warn our future friends to a list of swindlers who have been flattering the country west of him, allowing us last heard of them. They are working upwardly different schemes, the former one being the time honored highbrow red market. They promise to make a fortune and that they want to get a business started in your locality. Patience only those who want to know to be reliable, and give all others something a wise bed. -Tribune.
