How about the seive?

ONLY one Democratic ticket cast in this precinct, Tuesday, and the name of Savage was scratched on that one.

THAT was amusing, wasn't it. Drive eight miles to bring parties to vote THE TICKET, and have all of them vote the straight ticket.

WHERE, oh where, is the Republican boom for Ashmore? Not a single little boom do we hear .-- Courier Campaign Edition.

Haven't you hear "even a single little boomlet" as yet, Mr. Courier?

WHAT's the difference between "The Ticket" and the Republican Ticket, in this county? The former will smile on the day of its boom, and the latter will 'bile' on the say of its doom. See.— Courier Extra.

How about that smile, Bro. Bishop? Rather sickly, methinks.

WE present to our readers all the returns obtainable up to the time of going to press-noon. These figures are not official, but are in the main correct, as far as they go. The entire republican county ticket is elected. We also give the latest news from the elections held in the other states. Republican gains are reported throughout. The republican state ticket goes through with a hurrah. Colby probably defeated. We will give the official vote of this county next week.

"THE following candidates have fallen through the Courier sieve"-and HAVE TURNED UP in good shape after the election:

For County Commissioner, S. L. GREEN.

For Supt. Public Instruction, C. L. NETTLETON.

For County Judge, H. M. ASHMORE.

LATEST telegraphic reports indicate that France and China can hardly escape war. England will be so afflicted by a war between these powers that she is likely to intervene to protect her commerce. France has her war paint on and China is disinclined to be bull-dozed therefore we may expect a grand time should war be declared. This will be the biggest war of modern times and may and doubtless will involve other nations. France is in fighting trim, while the Chinese have unlimited resources so far as men are concerned and have learned much of late years in the way of military movements. What the end will be only time can disclose.

J. B. McCullagh editor of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat is engaged upon a play for Madison Square theatre. The incidents in the mysterious disappearance of Mary Churchill and that young girl's subsequent appearance in theatrical life as a famous actress with whom an actor associate is love, will constitute the plot of the piece, and it is said to be the purpose of the gifted author to demonstrate the close relationship which exists between the domestic cir cle and the stage. The whole will be a home picture, with a deep under current of passion, relieved here and there by that genial humor, apt wit and caustic sarcasm for which Mr. McCullah is justly famous. - Journal.

Connecticut—land of mysterious murders-still preserves her record. Another woman has been found dead, this time near Bridgeport, and not a clue to the mystery can be tound. Her throat was cut. "She was from twentyfive to thirty years old, plainly dressed, and fair looking"-and then the record stops. Now will come the usual column after column of theory and fact, the customary mystery of detectives and officials, with results probably as unsatisfactorily as in cases of Jennie Cramer and Rose Ambler. Connecticut is a very good state for young women to emigrate from while breath is yet in their bedies .- Gazett-Journal.

Cold Day for Dems.

Republican Victories Everywhere.

CONNECTICUT.

HARTFORD, Nov. 6 .- The Republicans claim the legislature by forty majority on joint ballot and probably nine out of the twelve senators. Republican sheriffs are elected in Hartford, Holland, Middlesex, Fairfield and New London counties.

KANSAS.

Sr. Louis. - A dispatch from Topeka, Kas., to the Associated press here says there be but meagre returns from Kansas to-night. Only county officers and judges to elect, but as there are three or four tickets in each county, it will take till morning to count the vote.

MISSISSIPPI.

MEMPHIS, Nov. 6.—Meagre election returns indicate a sweeping democratic victory. So far as heard from the election was quiet.

MARYLAND.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 6-Returns from several wards indicate that McLane's (dem) majority in this city will be

ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6 .- Complete returns from the city give Shepard (dem) for superior court judge 4,006 majority over Jameson (rep.) Returns from the country towns cannot overcome this, and the entire democratic ticket, except one county commissioner, is conceded.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Boston, Nov. 6, 11 P. M .- Indications at this hour are that Massachusetts has elected the reform governor by 17,000 majority, and three-fourths of the whole legislative machinery is republican.

Boston, Nov. 6.—The Globe, democratic organ, concedes Robinson's election by 10,000 majority. The Traveller claims 28,000. The Herald claims 20,000. The Traveler says Lieut. Gov. Ames is elected by 25,000 majority. The Republicans held an enthusiastic meeting in Fanueil hall. Revised footings of 200 towns and cities give Robinson a majority of 11,000.

MINNESOTA.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 6-Sixty-eight towns heard from in Minnesota up to 10 o'clock, outside of St. Paul and Minneapolis, give Hubbard (rep) for governor 2,044 majority over Bierman (dem.) In in this convention and who took part these towns much scratching is done | therein are willing to sanction such on the balance of the ticket, but show majorities varying very little from that for governor. The secretary of the republican committee estimates from present returns that Hubbard's majority will not be less than 12,000. Balance precinct, the home of Dr. S. L. Green. of the republican ticket, 18,000.

NEW YORK.

New York, Nov. 6 .- In Brooklyn only the secretary of state votes have been canvassed and 195 districts out of 212 comprising the city give Carr 1,150 over Maynard. The mayoralty is in great doubt and will not be known even approximately till a late hour. The republican state ticket is elected in New

NEW JERSEY.

TRENTON, Nov. 7 .- At 12:30 A. M. returns indicate Abbott's election by about 1,000 majority. The Republican state committe are still hopeful. The demoeratie state committee claim Abbott's election by a large majority, but give no figures. They also claim the legislature. Republicans probably have the senate by three majority, and democrats the house by four, giving them one majority on joint ballot.

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6, 11:30 P. M .-Only 24 counties out of 67 are heard from. These show a net republican gain of 4,164. This does not include the county of Philadelphia, the returns of which are coming in slowly.

Alleghany county gives an estimated republican majority of 8,000. The vote has been rather light, and republican gains are reported from all the dis-

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, Nov. 6, 10 P.M.-Indications are that the democrats have carried the state. The democratic majority in the state is larger than ever before. The following cities give democratic majorities: Portsmouth 35; Staunton 321; Alexandria 633; Fredericksburg 291; Lynchburg 406. Gen. Wickham is elected to the state senate over Col. Jones, readjuster.

Ike Stands Up.

ED. TRIBUNE:-I notice in the Courier Extra of Nov. 5th, an editorial, reading something like this.

"THE TRIBUNE is willing to concede that Ike Starbuck, alias The Republican County Convention has the right to nominate a ticket, but that we nominated 'The Ticket' without authority.' " I do not remember having seen any thing in the columns of THE TRIBUNE conceding that Ike Starbuck had the right to nominate a ticket or that his other name was "The Republican County Convention." But, Mr. Editor, if these things ARE conceded and such men as Senator Dolan, Thomas Clark, Dr. Bennett, Wm. Henton, S. R. Mesner, Vance McManigal, A. McG. Robb, E. H. McCormick and the twenty-eight other Representative Republicans of this county who were elected by their respective precincts to represent them concession; then, (but not until then) Mr. Editor, would I say that I am proud to father the child, and especially so since the returns are in from the county and especially from my own

IKE STARBUCK.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.—Complete returns from 28 out of 31 wards of the city show a republican gain for the state cicket of 7,875. The majority in the tity for the state ticket is about 20,000.
