Official City and County Paper.

With this issue THE TRIBUNE enters upon the fourth year of its existence. During the past two years, since the paper has been under its present management, the circulation of the same has increased largely, making THE TRIBUNE an excellent advertising medium. The paper has been enlarged to meet the demands of our growing city, and a job department second to none in the Republican Valley built up at a considerable expense. We now have a newspaper and job office able to meet all the demands of our town and county, and as the growth and improvement of McCook and Red Willow county shall be, so shall we attempt to keep pace—and in the van. We will maintain our present attitude on all vital questions, and hope to merit the continued support of our citizens.

Of the Waterspout Disaster in Richman Canyon Near Indianola.

Special to the State Journal.
INDIANOLA, NEB., May 28.—On Tuesday evening a party of seventeen Bohemians from Brainard, Neb., en route to Dundey county, camped in Richman canyon, about half a mile from the Republican river, and nine miles east of this place. At dark a heavy rain set in and about ten o'clock

A WATER SPOUT BURSTED a short distance above where the party was camped, flooding the heretofore dry canyon to a depth of fifteen feet. This came down the canyon in waves each rising a foot higher than the preceding one.

There were three wagons in which the party were asleep when

THE FLOOD CAME UPON THEM.

The one nearest the bed of the stream was occupied by John Macek, wife and son. The centre one by John Osmer, wife and four children and two children belonging to another man. The third wagon was occupied by Joseph Havelic, wife and three children.

When the flood struck their wagons Havelic was

THE FIRST TO AROUSE.

Jumping out he grasped the tongue and attempted to pull the wagon out of the water. As he swung it sidewise, fresh waves struck it twirling the tongue out of his hands and carrying the wagon and contents out into the raging flood. While this was transpiring Osmer had jumped out of his wagon and succeeded in pushing his way with four children to shore and started to return to the wagon for his wife and remaining two children, when he discovered by a flash of lightning that

HIS WAGON WAS GONE.

The first thing that Macek knew of the situation he was sailing down stream. Seeing a tree just ahead, he hid his wife and son cling to him and he would try and catch the tree. He succeeded in the attempt, but the shock caused by the sudden stop was so great that his wife and son let go and

WENT DOWN IN THE FLOOD.

Macek climbed into the tree and stayed there until rescued in the morning.

During all this time the rain was pouring down in torrents. After wandering around for some time, Osmer and Havelic found the residence of Samuel Jennings, a half mile distant, and as well as they could, made known what had happened.

A SEARCH PARTY WAS ORGANIZED at once, and watch was kept up until daylight.

Word was sent to Indianola, and by noon many hundred people were searching the canyon and river.

A LIST OF THE DEAD.

Those drowned were:
Mary Macek, aged forty-eight.
Frank Macek, aged twelve.
Anna Osmer, aged thirty-one.
Joseph Osmer, aged eleven.
Christine Osmer, aged three.
Fannie Havelic, aged thirty-two.
Michael Havelic, aged seven.
Poley Havelic, aged four.
Mary Havelic, aged two.

ONLY TWO BODIES RECOVERED.

Up to Wednesday evening only two bodies had been recovered, to wit, Mrs. Havelic and Mrs. Osmer.

The household goods were strewn for miles down the river. The wagons were all in pieces and two of the boxes were found four miles down the river.

Macek lost $600 in money. Osmer $100 and Havelic $50. The stock was on the side hill above the canyon and none were lost.

MR. VILAS has revoked the appointment of Meade, of Copiah county notary, to be postmaster at Hazlehurst. Fear had more to do with the revocation probably than conscience. But for once the mugwump organs refused to ratify, and the evidence that the discussion of Mead's character and antecedents when his name came up for confirmation would make an awkward holiday for the democracy, appears to have convinced the administration that it had better back down at once. The plea that they didn't know who Meade was when they appointed him at Barksdale's instigation, is very thin. They know who Barksdale was and had heard something about Hazlehurst and Copiah county. It was their business to know under those circumstances who Meade was before they made out his commission.—State Journal.

DR. MILLER went east last Sunday a week. Dr. Rosewater followed day before yesterday. As the Republican has had for three days no mention of musical talent and trowsers, it is fair to presume that Dr. Nye slipped out incognito about the middle of the week.—Topics.

M. E. Church Services.
