COMMISSIONER SPARKS has made an elaborate report to the Secretary of the Interior concerning the celebrated Maxwell land grant claim. The company claims 1,700.000 acres, but the Commissioner says that the patent was obtained by fraud, and that the company is not entitled to more than 100,000 acres. The report recommends that the Attorney-General be instructed to enter suit to recover the land. There are some 1,200 settlers on the tract, and suits of ejectment are pending against many of them.
