THE use of cocaine has become very general for the purpose of producing local anesthesia, as it has been heretofore supposed that the effects did not extend beyond the part treated. Such being the case, difficult operations could be performed upon the eye and other organs which are especially sensitive, without the use of chloroform, which is very dangerous and always produces death in persons who are afflicted with any kind of heart trouble. The discovery of the uses to which cocaine could be put was a great relief to surgeons on this account. Now, however, comes the news that cocaine is not so harmless as supposed, but a heavy dose of it may produce paralysis of the heart and result in death. The application of the drug causes a deadening of the nerves in the part treated, and a very slight increase in the amount will have a tendency to produce death. Experiments have shown that its action is very prompt and uniform upon the heart. In large doses it effects the action of the vessels of the heart.

WHEN a Texan makes up his mind to marry he is terribly in earnest. A young Texan, of a poetic temperament, applied to an advertising agency for a wife.
Some scamp put up a job on him by writing him in the name of a girl in Erie, Penna. He responded to the letter with an impassioned epistle to the girl. She was soon to be married to a clergyman and threw the letter con-temptuously into the waste basket. Her younger sister fished it out and immediately wrote, signing her sister's name, accepting his offer and telling him to come on. The Texan invested in a boiled shirt and store clothes and came for his bride. The young lady was indignant and shut the door on him. Then he went to a drug store, purchased a package of arsenic and swallowed it on the lady's doorstep. She sent for a plumber and had him pumped out. Then he went home, a wiser but a madder man. Younger sisters do not want to fool with a Texas man.—Journal.

A YOUNG woman has started a paper down in Texas, and in her first number says she aims to reach aloft to the skies and pull down the stars to lighten the path of poor, plodding humanity, and having strung out a column of that sort of thing, asks for advice as to how she can best make her paper a success. It is with unwonted delight that we tender the dear young creature a sure cure for what's the matter with her, as well as an unerring recipe for making her paper prosperous and popular. All she need do is to marry some talented and industrious young printer, turn the office over to him and herself go to keeping the most pleasant little home in Texas.—Topics.

THE Galveston Daily News says that during the last six months ninety and nine gentlemen have, by order of Judge Lynch, unwillingly adorned various lamp-posts and tree limbs. This large number of what it is pleased to call "departed citizens" were guilty of murder or horse stealing, or incendiarism.

A LADY who had boasted highly at a dinner party of her little darling, addressed him thus: "Charley, my dear, won't you have some beans?" "No," was the ill-mannered reply of the petulant cherub. "No!" exclaimed the astonished mother, "no what?" "No beans."—Observer.

THE Christian at Work: Little foxes spoil the vines in jumping for the little grapes. It is little wounds that wran-kle, and little people that purposely inflict them. The blow of a giant falls but causes no pain. Nevertheless it is better to be stung by a wasp than hit by Achilles' club.

THE steady progress of the cholera in Spain goes on and the new cases and deaths increase daily. One thousand six hundred and twenty-nine new cases and 672 deaths was the terrible record for Wednesday.
