Log rolling seems to be pretty general. Dark horses numerous.

THE Courier places in nomination George Burt for Sheriff, and Miss Ada P. Buck for Superintendent. Neither, we believe, have announced themselves as yet.

"AND still the villain pursued her." If Bro. Chapman of the Alma Times don't "let up" on that nonsense about Alma being the second best business town in the valley, we will ship our bouncer down there to thump him into a more veracious turn of mind.

AMONG the announcements in this issue is that of A. J. Johnson of Indianola for County Judge. Mr. Johnson, we believe, will be highly agreeable to the attorneys of the county, and will doubtless make a good judge, should he be the choice of the county convention. He is the only applicant to date.

DEAR, delightful, dashing Dick announces that in the saccharine subsequently he expects to occupy a prominent divan "NEAR the throne," (democratic throne we presume), "although he may possibly not have the pleasure of occupying the seat next to the Great Master." Richard seems to be entirely unmindful of the fact that "he who guides below and rules above," has very little interest in democratic politics, as we have the assurance that, "He will not afflict us above what we can bear," and we would not now be suffering the severe chastisement of an incompetent postmaster.

"STORIES learned on a mother's knee are never forgotten," suggests an exchange. It occurs to our mind, and it will readily be appreciated by others, that many other impressions were duly received on that appointed place, not easily effaced from "memory dear."

VAILTON NOTES.

Hurrah for our road and bridge prospects. Joe Smith reports a good time at the Reunion.

James Speer has entered a piece of land just west of his father's.

Our Sunday school picnic, last week, was one of the best we have ever attended, and this is the expressed sentiment from nearly all present. Before noon, it was estimated that nearly two hundred people were in the grove. Mrs. Harris' essay, entitled, "The Sabbath and Sabbath School," was historical in character and indicated close study and labor. Miss Lincoln's recitation was quite a treat. Miss L. is too well known in educational work to require comment here. Mr. Dungan cheered the audience with a few well-chosen, timely remarks. Come again. Then there was the grand dinner, croquet, swings, ball playing, driving, etc., all causing the day to appear too short. One word about the music, all of which was exceptionally good. The temperance anthem was very fine. Great credit is due Supt. Nettleton and others for making the day one of profit and pleasure, as this it surely was.

RALPH.

Is your life worth 25 cents? That is the price of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It has saved many lives and may yours yet if you have it at hand for use in case of an attack of Cholera Morbus, Dysentery or Diarrhoea. It will also cure Asiatic Cholera if taken in time. Sold by M. A. Spalding and B. & M. Pharmacy.
