Official City and County Paper.

The Stratton Gazette by Chas. Love is the latest candidate for public approval.

The journalistic field in Hitchcock county is pretty well represented by six newspapers.

The People's Ticket was successful throughout in Hayes county. The herd law carried by a majority of 133.

RISLEY's cake was "muchly" dough, while Solomon's Sun shines forth with its accustomed brilliancy—since November 3d.

THE Republican ticket was elected in Furnas county, except the treasurer. Corbin's pole was too lengthy by about 175 votes.

"WAIT until we hear from Ohio" is an old cry of the past. The Buckeye State's constitution was changed at the last election, thus doing away with the last of the October States, a commendable move.

It was not a republican whirlwind in Iowa, Larrabee's majority now being estimated at between six and seven thousand. But it is enough for the present occasion. Prohibition has not particularly increased the party vote.

THE mugwumps will now go up on the back shelf of the curiosity shops and museums along with the mummies, mastodons and other distinct animals and things of the archaeological and paleontological periods—Journal.

THE Stratton Herald, last week, became the property of J. W. Burney. The editorial tripod will be held down by Friend Ashwill as before. D. W. Irwin, who retires from the Herald, will shortly launch another paper on the sea of journalism at Akron.

THE air is full of railroad projects for this state, the coming spring. The prospects are that with the opening of spring, the greatest activity will exist in railroad circles. Lincoln, Hastings, Red Cloud and other points on the tip toe of expectation.

THE legislatures of New York and New Jersey are both republican by good majorities, while Hills' stupendous majority has dwindled down from 30,000 to but a few thousand. It does not appear to have been such a tidal wave after all, and the probabilities are that the country is quite safe.

VICTORY perched upon the Republican banners in the following states, which voted November 3d: Pennsylvania, Illinois, Iowa, Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Colorado, Nebraska and Kansas. Dakota territory also elected the Republican ticket and selected Huron as the territorial capital. To the democrats belong New York, Maryland, Mississippi and Virginia.

THE President has discovered an insurrection in Washington territory. He has issued his proclamation warning the insurgents to disperse. There are communities nearer home that are displaying a good deal more lawlessness than anything we have heard of in Washington territory, and it might do some good for Mr. Cleveland to take notice of them also from time to time.—Journal.

FRIEND POWERS up in Frontier county feels pretty well over the late election. He illuminates the following head-lines with the conventional cook:

Hallelujah! We Crow for Republican Success in Frontier County. The Entire County Ticket Elected by Neat Majorities and Pluralities. Westgate Displaced by the Indignant Voters, Who Know Him Best. Franklin Triumphant Over Miles and Selby, While Sanders and Morris are to Hold Their Places Yet Another Term.

The metropolitan newspapers, a day or two after Ferdinand Ward was taken to Sing Sing, gave accurate descriptions of his appearance at work setting up stoves, the trade that had been assigned him. Everything was described circumstantially, and it was especially dwelt upon that Ferd took readily to the business and would soon turn out as good a day's work as any old hand. Now it is brought to light that he hasn't been in the stove room at all, but he has been making himself useful shovelling ashes from the pit under the boiler in the engine room. He is to be assigned to the stove room after a few days of probation in the ash pit.
