Two Souls Made Happy. M. E. Thurston, of Columbus, representing the Union Central Life Insurance Co. of Cincinnati, has been in the city, this week, on business, part of which being the settlement with Mrs. Caroline Barraclough of the policy held by her husband, Jabez Barraclough, whose demise, a few months since, in the prime and vigor of manhood, will be remembered by our citizens. ...

It is perhaps understood by all that McCook has a Reading Room open every afternoon and evening; that it is quite well supplied with reading matter, and is receiving a reasonable amount of patronage. Some say it will be a failure. That it is too great an undertaking and must necessarily fail for want of means to carry it on. It may be that those who have so earnestly tried to make a success of this effort will be obliged to abandon it at the end of six months or less than that, but even then we will not consider it a failure. ...

SCHOOL REPORT. The following pupils have neither been absent nor tardy since the opening of school, October, 1884. Edith Crane, Ida and Eva Hurd. King Alcohol's Victims. Again it becomes our sad duty to chronicle the death of another of our citizens, Adolph Fullgrabe, who died in South McCook, last night, a victim of that merciless destroyer of life and fiendish adversary of souls, King Alcohol, whose altar we have set up in our midst, and whom we worship and obey. ...

Another terrible warning comes to us from our neighboring town of Culbertson, where a harness maker by the name of J. H. League was frozen to death, last Thursday night, while in a drunken stupor. League was formerly a resident of Lincoln, and a member of Faragut Post G. A. R., and had but recently moved to Culbertson, where he was gradually building up a profitable business; but in a moment of weakness he drank too deeply of the "cup which doth intoxicate," and starting home, he miserably perished in sight of home and dear ones. ...
