

THE President's long and elaborate message to the senate in answer to the Edmunds resolution, appeared in yesterday's Journal and is the most respectable document issued by Mr. Cleveland since his candidacy for President began.

Under the constitution and the tenure of office law as it was modified under Grant, the executive has discretion to remove any federal officer whose appointment is in his hands, and an executive or judicial officer cannot be brought to look for the exercise of his lawful discretion except by way of impeachment and a trial before the senate.

In the "Hornets' Nest" at Shiloh.

From Colonel Lockett's article accompanying General Buell's account of Shiloh in the March Century we take the following: "I witnessed the various bloody and unsuccessful attacks on the 'hornets' nest.' During one of the dreadful repulses of our forces, General Bragg directed me to ride forward to the central regiment of a brigade of troops that was recoiling across an open field, to take its colors and carry them forward.

Any crowd of young bloods that will write an anonymous note, in a feminine hand, to a young married man, whose wife is away on a visit, ought to have the hose turned on them for the time being. We did not learn their names, but guess they did not get it on to Mac very badly.

COUNTY-SEAT ITEMS.

L. J. Starbuck was seen on our streets, last Saturday. Squire S. H. Colvin of McCook was in the burg, Tuesday. Thos. Colfer of McCook was in the county-seat, Monday.

Rev. Allen Bartley of York, Neb., was in our place, the latter part of last week. Ex-Judge H. M. Ashmore of our city graced the streets of McCook, for a short time Tuesday.

R. M. Snively, Esq., of our city, paid a flying visit to Lincoln, last week. He returned on Sunday. Ed. Beauvais, for some time "best man" in the Indiana Times office, has taken a change, and is now employed in the Courier office.

G. S. Bishop returned from Curtis, Saturday, where he has been superintending the founding of the "Record." He reports things booming. The delegation from McCook, Saturday, was a perfect success as far as McCook is concerned. They got the fair, by paying for it, and we can expect a good lay-out when we go to the McCook fair.

C. S. Quick, our genial banker, paid his father of Council Bluffs a visit, last week. He returned, Friday. During his absence his business was very successfully carried on by his neighbor, H. W. Keyes.

A building association has been incorporated in our town. Capital stock, $100,000, and is composed of all our reliable business men. At last reports they were trying to find someone who would act as treasurer.

"Chris," Halvorson, now a resident of Akron, Colo., returned to look after his business interests here, Tuesday. He drove through, making the trip in four days, and leaves his family on the "government domain."

Mr. Linderholm is here closing out his business, as it is to be moved to Ogallala immediately. The room has been rented, we understand, to a gentleman from Illinois, who intends putting in a large stock of goods.

Mrs. E. C. Ballow and Mrs. C. C. Tyler departed for Akron, Tuesday, where they will reside the necessary six months. C. C. Tyler is there and probably had things in readiness when they "arriv." He returns, this week.

The Garrick Dramatic Co. will present "The Flowing Bowl" to the hungry citizens of McCook, Thursday evening. Prof. C. H. B. Appleton (advance agent) was up billing the town and completing the necessary preliminaries, Tuesday.

W. D. Blackman of Ida Grove, Ia., a nephew of C. T. Blackman of Lebanon, arrived in our city, several days ago. He is a first-class printer, and was immediately engaged by the Times to help them finish the directory, which, by the way, speaks for itself.

Any crowd of young bloods that will write an anonymous note, in a feminine hand, to a young married man, whose wife is away on a visit, ought to have the hose turned on them for the time being. We did not learn their names, but guess they did not get it on to Mac very badly.
