The McCook Tribune.
 POWDERLY'S suggestion to the Knights under his banner, who can't be happy unless they show their power by boycotting somebody or something, that they commence by boycotting whisky, seems to be sound. The beauty of boycotting whisky is that it don't necessitate any expense for printing circulars or hiring patrolmen to distribute and explain them.
 DR. TALMAGE avers that there never has been but one perfect pair, and that they unfortunately broke the record by taking a slide down the banks of paradise together. The learned doctor might have further observed that an over-weening spirit of emulation has ever since been the heritage of every mother's son and daughter. This latter record remains unbroken.

THE czar has been making a speech of a war-like nature which has greatly alarmed Austria and excited Germany. He seems to think that for the benefit of the Russian empire, it will be necessary for him to make war in the east about next fall. Single-handed against the combination, the czar came very near success the last time he pitched onto Turkey. Now, if he can induce France to make common cause with him, he may after all dictate to Europe from Constantinople. This has been the ambition of the Romanoffs since Great Peter's time.
 THE great convention of the Knights of Labor at Cleveland is likely to be of great benefit to the future work of the order. Powderly is there, and so are a dozen other leaders in the movement to organize labor on a basis which will drive the hot heads and fire brands to the rear, and place the organization in the hands of men who will use it for the objects and aims for which it was created. The striking season now over has taught some timely lessons to the Knights and they will probably be enforced by legislation at Cleveland which will prevent the recurrence of costly mistakes and ill-timed movements which were doomed to failure from the start.
 Willey & Walker the McCook Druggists, positively assert that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is the safest and best treatment for griping pains, diarrhoea, cholera morbus or summer complaint, and they know! It is not only recommended but guaranteed, and is just such a medicine as should be kept in every house.
