AKRON'S gold fever will be one of short duration.

HAVE you noticed that delightfully subdued "still hunt"?

It should not be forgotten that lands are a blessing to the people only if they are made as free as possible to actual settlers.

It would seem as though there would be no lack of candidates for congressional honors, this fall. The "woods is full of 'em."

JUDGE DAVID DAVIS, the giant of the independents, died at his Bloomington, Ill., residence, Saturday morning, of Bright's disease.

VAN WYCK is taking a "short cut" to immortality. He is having his "phiz" displayed in the society journals, through the medium of the bewitching wood cut.

THE question now agitating the newspapers of the district is, "Who shall be our next State Senator?" And incidentally from what county shall he be chosen?

THE royal family has been peremptorily ordered from France into exile. This arbitrary expulsion is simply an evidence of the government's weakness, and adds strength to the royalist cause.

THE legislature of this state, this fall, will be republican to the core, and the man who expects to receive the support of the republican caucus must be simon pure republican beyond the suspicion of a Van Wyck.

THE Democrats have settled the question in national finances, which existed under Republican rule, namely, "What shall we do with our surplus?" The Democrats have disposed of the point in a characteristic manner. They have swept the surplus out of existence.

WE understand that C. S. Harrison, of this place, has consented to the wish of his friends and will enter the race for congressman from this district. Mr. Harrison is a man with much ability and strength and with a clean record. He will make a hard fight.—Republican Valley Echo.

THE Helmet avers that Red Cloud has "more fast horses (but they were not entered for the June races) than any other town of its size in the state." The Red Cloud "boys" will remember, however, that McCook's phenomenal 3-year-old WAS entered for their June races, and that the other fellows hardly realized that they were in the race.

THE TRIBUNE rises to remark that Congressman Laird is loaded for such small game as Commissioner Sparks and Chairman Cobb of the committee on public lands. On Monday, Mr. Laird found it incumbent upon him to again, metaphorically speaking, wipe up the floor of the house with these worthies. And it is related that after "Our Jeems" had done with the yekept commissioner, little was left of him, officially, but a few old rags and an attenuated assortment of bones. While Cobb was so badly roasted by our congressman, that he was glad to sit down, a puffing, red-faced failure.

THE annual camp meeting, held under the management of the Nebraska State Holiness Association, will be held, this year, on their grounds at Bennett, Neb., commencing August 6th, 1886, and continuing ten days.

THE town of Akron, Colo., was visited by a wind and hail storm, Monday evening, which blew down a number of buildings, besides breaking scores of window panes, pelting the crops into earth, etc. This chilly breeze, coupled with the "gold" excitement, has bestirred Akron from centre to circumference. Oh, these advertising dodges!

WHILE candidates for county and state offices seem innumerable, there seems but one patriot who wishes to give Laird a chase for congress. The field is left, so far, to Gaslin and the present incumbent. The man who grapples with Laird must recognize the fact that he battles with one of the best politicians in the state.—Holdrege Republican.

HON. G. L. LAWS, the popular register of the McCook land office, is in the lead for Secretary of State. The Republican Valley will go solid for him. No worthier and stronger man could be selected from the republican ranks for that honorable position. Mr. Laws has filled every public office so far with credit and ability, and is known as one of the most polite and accommodating of public servants. He is dear to the hearts of all old soldiers as he served his country faithfully and left a leg on a southern battle field. His chances are very favorable.—Blue Hill Times.

THE opposition to Senator Van Wyck's return to the senate becomes stronger and more bitter as the time for electing his successor draws on apace, and the election of members of assembly will perforce thereof receive unusual attention all over the state. Granted that Van Wyck has ability. But this broad commonwealth contains others of equal, if not far superior ability, who can represent this progressive and growing state with greater credit. Others who are less tainted with the scurry of demagoguery. Give us a true blue republican, this fall, and relegate to private life the lofty tumbler and political acrobat. A return to old-time political honor and integrity will work a world of good for the party.

A PLAY IN THREE ACTS.

(THE CENTURY BRICA-BRAC.)
ACT I.
A hotel at the sea-side,
Some music, and a ball,
A partner for the lanciers,
A smile, and "Come and call."
ACT II.
A row upon the harbor,
A stroll a-down the pier,
A "Call on me next fall in town:
Now, won't you, that's a dear?"
ACT III.
A lofty brown-stone mansion,
A richly furnished room,
A servant girl who comes anon
And tells you, "Not at home."
—GEORGE WILLIAM OGDEN.
