Ball playing every Saturday followed by horse racing.

The threshers report crops much better here than in Kansas.

The Danbury nine carried the day at the ball ground, last Friday.

Everybody is working the roads now and the best road to McCook will soon be completed.

Mr. Creager of Kansas was on the ball ground with a fine assortment of melons, last Friday.

Mr. Duckworth's horse made the fastest time on the track, last Friday, being 1/4 mile in 28 seconds.

S. B. Coltrain will make final proof on his claim, Saturday, his advertisement will be seen in THE TRIBUNE.

N. J. Johnson is getting to the front with haying. He has several large ricks and the finest meadow in the west.

Our Sabbath school is to reorganize, next Sunday. We hope everybody will come, as it is too soon to think of closing.

Mr. Farnsworth says that we have good crops as there are west of the Missouri River and we are in Red Willow county.

Several friends and relatives of Joe Selmit from Otoe county, this state, are out here looking for land.

Lloyd Hileman and family have moved back again. He is building a new frame house on his pre-emption.

Lewis Faus and Jim Henning have been indulging in the luxury of a few gentle bronchos. Jim has also purchased a new Jackson wagon.

It is wonderful how much cheek some people possess in this country. We know of a fellow who considers himself a pretty good man, who has been cutting hay from land he knew he had no shadow of a right to. One of the parties owning the hay has moved back east, so the gentleman thinks he can pursue his course there at least unmolested. UNO.

Miss Emma Hanlein returned from her visit to Kansas, the first of last week.

Crops are looking very well, still a little rain would help, especially the corn, as the ears are not filling as well as they ought.

We believe this part of the county is ahead as far as dancing is concerned. We manage to have at least one a week and often two or three up on this Divide. We hope they are all enjoyed.

Another one of those interesting and enjoyable surprise parties was held at the house of Wm. Johnson, in honor of Mrs. Johnson's 49th birthday. Everything passed off pleasantly and all went away feeling that they had been well entertained. JASON.

It would be for the interest of Chase County to make arrangement for a good representation in the way of agricultural products at the district fair held at McCook.
