Miss Flora Bell is visiting friends and relatives in this neighborhood.

The basket meeting held on Dry Creek, FAIRMONT last Sunday, was well attended.

J. O. Goodwin will soon be here to stay. He is a plasterer and will work at his trade in McCook. The best wheat raised on the prairie was on Mr. Dodge's farm. He also had a fine crop of timothy. Annie Relph had her arm thrown out of place and severely bruised, by falling from a Stephen Hopkins has the best sod corn in our part. It was drilled one grain in a place CITY :-: BAKERY at about eight inches apart. This prevented the gophers from digging it up.

BOX ELDER BLOSSOMS.

O, ye shining "dog star,"
Companion of the Sun,
When wilt thou cease thy spiteful glare,
Thy yearly day be done.

Give us a breeze from snowy steep, Or arctic's ice-bound shore; O let us from the shelter creep, And breathe afresh once more.

The boys have all returned from the railroad, fully satisfied with their experience.

Ten boys and five girls at a party! No wonder some of the boys reported a dry Register Dobbs, of the Beatrice land office, is sojourning for a few days at Box Elder, the guest of J. B. Piper.

It evidently pays to have the postoffice in this country, at least that is our conclusion, when we see the many improvements being made around the P. O. at Box Elder.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Moore have returned from their visit to New Jersey and intermediate points, and report a very pleasant trip. D. E. will open up his business at Bartly about the 1st of September. Another soul made happy, and this time it is Rev. Bogle, on account of finding water in his well at a depth of 125 feet. Mr. Bogle has put up a fine wind mill, much to the joy of many thirsty horses and cattle. On Thursday of last week, a number of young people gathered at the home of Rev. J. Long and spent the evening in a very pleasant manner. Music and games occupying the hour until the time of retiring. Notwithstanding the long continued drouth much of the corn in this section retains its fresh and green appearance, and is earing quite well, much better than could be expected-showing the marvelous character of the soil in standing dry weather.

MARRIAGE BELLS. At the residence of the bride's parents, near Box Elder, August 25th, Miss Etta King-horn, of Box Elder, and Mr. J. E. Brain-ard, of Buda, Illinois, were duly united in marriage. Justice Chrysler, officiating.

The couple took the evening train at Indianola for their eastern home. The best wishes of their many friends go with them. Miss Kinghorn had formed a large circle of friends since coming to this place, two years ago, all of whom regret to see her go. Especially will she be missed from our Sunday School, where she was a faithful and energetic worker. The wedding was a quiet one. only a few intimate friends being invited. Those present were, Misses J. and Ollie Long, Mattie Weygint, Loulou Moore, Lou Chrysler, and Messrs. T. Kinghorn, V. Bogle, F. Cogger, M. A. Stewart. The following presents were received by the bride: 1/4 dozen silver spoons, Mr. M. A. Stewart and Miss Mattie Weygint; set salt cellars, Aggie Kinghorn; pair Turkish towels, Miss Ollie Long; Quilt, Mrs. J. Long; 1/2 doz. napkins, Miss Loulou Moore; pair towels, Miss Lou

B. B. Burley, proprietor of the Burley House, Belle Plaine, Iowa, relates his experience as follows: "I have had the opportunity of testing the merits of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy in several instances in severe and dangerous cases of cholera morbus. From my experience in the use of this medicine I can recommend it with pleasure. Every one traveling should have it and no family should be without it." Sold

An exchange makes the timely remark that it wouldn't be a bad plan for the president to try his veto on the Adirondack mosquito bills.
