The McCook Tribune.

THE earth down South is a good deal like this administration—mighty shaky.

BRICK POMEROY, who is undoubted authority in the matter, says, "You could no more run a democrat in this city (New York) without whisky, than you could run h—l without fire."

WE see it stated that Supt. Thompson, of the B. & M., has withdrawn his objections to the "Order of Brake man," and that the course is liable to become general over the Burlington lines. This will place the order on much more favorable footing than heretofore.

IT is not a secret that the board of public lands and buildings disapproves of the conduct of affairs at the hospital for the insane. Its members are taking testimony in relation to recent occurrences, and at the meeting on the 6th, next Tuesday, some interesting developments are expected. It is a neat little row.—Lincoln Democrat.

IT is now pretty well settled that the blunders of Bayard in the Cutting affair were the result of a desperate intention to embroil the country in a war with Mexico on any pretext that might present itself, and that the reason the secretary took the back track at last, was not because he saw that his position was legally untenable, but that he saw in a few days that he had miscalculated the temper of the people and that he could not dragon them into a useless and unjust war with a friendly neighbor for purposes of conquests. The people of the United States want no more territory, peopled with a race unprepared for the institutions of this country. Such territory would be a source of weakness and not of strength. It would require a great expensive standing army to keep it in order, and be a source of endless trouble in carrying out the details of government, whether a territorial or state form was preserved in the conquered states.—State Journal.

IN criticising Hon. James G. Blaine's recent speech at Sebago, Maine, Harper's Weekly drops this morsel of mugwumpianism: "The speech certainly does not show, as its introduction suggests, that parties were never more earnestly and actually and irreconcilably divided than now. On the contrary, we believe that never for a generation, since the slavery issue became sharply defined, has there been so general and so intelligent a feeling of political independence as now. That independence does not deny the necessity of parties to enforce differing policies. But it denies that the parties now represent distinctive policies upon the questions which are really paramount."

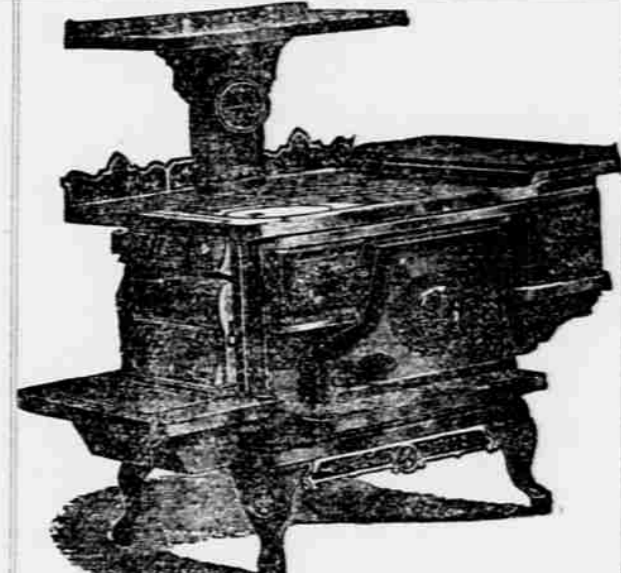

B. B. Burley, proprietor of the Burley House, Belle Plaine, Iowa, relates his experience as follows: "I have had the opportunity of testing the merits of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in several instances in severe and dangerous cases of cholera morbus. From my experience in the use of this medicine I can recommend it with pleasure. Every one traveling should have it and no family should be without it." Sold by Willey & Walker.
