The McCook Tribune.

M. CHEVREUL, the centenarian over whom they are making quite a fuss in Paris, never drank wine and abhors the mere smell of it.

NEW YORK CITY has, says the Graphic, 10,000 licensed saloons and 2,000 that are unlicensed. She has 1,055 bakeries, 2,015 meat markets, and 4,126 grocery stores. The inference is, that drinking is the essential business of the male sex in New York.

CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW says the principal American topic in the European papers while he was abroad, was the fight on the floor of Congress between Messrs. Laird and Cobb. These two persons were held up as leading American statesmen, and there were columns in the papers going to show that their meeting was typical of American civilization. Such is fame!

GOVERNOR LARRABEE, of Iowa, has acted promptly and properly in issuing a quarantine proclamation against Illinois cattle. The wide-spread existence of pleuro-pneumonia in Chicago is a menace to all the neighboring states. This contagious disease cannot be too carefully isolated. Governor Dawes will do well to follow suit in the interests of Nebraska stock raisers.

BRAGG of Wisconsin, who loved Grover for the enemies he had made, was retired from congress the other day by the democrats of his district, who do not love him for the friends he has made, namely, the administration. There are a good many worse men in the democratic party than Gen. Bragg. But the democracy is marking for slaughter every conspicuous friend of the president.

A RUMOR FROM SHILOH.

From the October Century.
"Endurin' of the war" it was not safe in Kentucky for Southern sympathizers to rejoice over Southern successes. A certain old "secesh" from the hills of Tate's Creek in Madison county had been frequently admonished by Judge Turner of Richmond, Kentucky, that if he was not more cautious he would land in Camp Chase or some other Northern prison. One day the Judge observed his old friend glancing anxiously into his office as he passed and repassed the door. Calling him in, the Judge asked him what was the matter. "Well," said the old man, "Jedge, if you'll lock yer door I'll tell you." After assuring himself that there were no listeners he proceeded.

"Jedge,—I hearn as the Rebils an' the Yankees has had a master fight. As I hearn it, the Rebils and the Yankees they net away down on the Mississippi River, an' they fit three days in and three days out, an' the een uv the third day cum John C. Brackenridge, Kentucky's noble son, an' axed fur the priverlige uv the fiel' fur fifteen minits, an'—Jedge—they do say he slew er hunderd thousand uv 'em."

Watch for it! The first symptom of true crop is hoarseness, and if Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given at once and the doses frequently repeated, the dread disease may be entirely prevented and all danger and anxiety avoided. Sold by Willey & Walker and M. A. Spalding.
