

Has become a great newspaper in a very few years. It has secured wide circulation and commanding influence in so short a time that older newspapers marvel at its success. The record of its career is like that of Kansas City's wonderful great resulting fiction than cold facts. It is only eighteen years old, yet it is read and admired by the people of the great Southwest, now having over 2,000,000 population. Enjoying the advantages for quick delivery afforded by sixteen railroads, The Times is thoroughly distributed over an immense territory at an early hour. It has attained an unapproachable circulation among those whose favor is most zealously courted by judicious advertisers. Moderate charges for space and satisfactory results have popularized its advertising columns. The Times is always bright, newsy and entertaining, and is worth subscribing for now, bend for free premium list. Has become a great newspaper in a very few

Eight Pages--Fifty-Six Columns, With large Four Page Sunday Supplement.

Supplement.
The Proprietors of The Dally Nebraska State
Journal beg leave to announce many great improvements in the paper for the coming year, largely increasing its value as a commercial and news paper.
Arrangements are being perfected for increased telegraph facilities, which will place The Journal, second to no paper in the west as a general newspaper, while our special telegraphic service throughout Nebraska and the west generally will be more than doubled.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The coming session of the state legislature promises to be the most interesting one ever held in the state. and The Jounnal each morning will present a complete report of the proceedings in detail, and will be the only paper in the state that will publish such a report. With our new perfecting press, which will be in operation by the first of January, printing 15,000 complete copies of the paper an hour, we will be enabled to mail to all parts of the state on all early morning trains, reaching nine-tenths of the postofices in the state from two to ten ours in advance of any other morning paper.

STATE MATTERS.

THE STATE JOURNAL being published at the capital of the state, is enabled to give fuller reports of the Nebraska Supreme Court, U. S. District and Circuit Court proceedings, newsfrom the state departments and State University than all other papers in the state combined. THE LEGISLATURE.

combined.

MARKET REPORTS.

The completion of the two large packing houses and the stock yards will place Lincoln in the front rank as an important live stock market and The Journal will pay especial attention to giving accurate and reliable local stock market reports, besides the latest telegraphic quotations in grain, stock and merchandise from every market centre in the world.

Eight Pages--Fifty-Six Columns. THE WEEKLY STATE JOURNAL contains the cream of the local and telegraphic news from the daily edition, carefully condensed, accurate market reports, proceedings of congress and the state legislature and choice miscellany selected especially for the general reader, embracing agricultural, horticultural and educational news, matters of interest to the ladies pertaining to the household and the world of fashion, and items of general interest to all.

Judging from reports, it must be somewhat warmer in the southern part of Fountier county than in Red Willow, at least to three or four of the citizens of that section. Miss Scott, who has been spending the winter thus far with her aunt, Mrs. Turner, returned to her home in Missouri, on Wednes- Loan Broker and Accountant, day last. Rumor has it, that she will return e'er long and cheer the heart of some lonely bachelor. We hope so.

The Box Elder Literary Society is still in the full vigor of life. At their last meeting the question, "Resolved that the World is Growing Morally Worse," was discussed in a very able manner; after which the judges decided that it was growing better.

The ladies of the Box Elder M. E. Class will give an oyster supper on Wednesday evening, January 19th, for the benefit of the church at this place. Bring your girl and a VAILTON NOTES.

Fine weather again.

Our school house is nearly finished and school will begin, next Monday.

Our hunters have returned from the far west and report a good time, though gam appeared rather scarce.

Quite a number of our people attended the sociable, about five miles up the Driftwood, a few evenings since, and report a good time. Rev. Taylor, of Indianola, preached an excellent sermon to a crowded house at this place, recently, and seemed well pleased with the prospect for future work. Hurrah for the night-cap sociable at the school house, next Saturday evening, Jan. 15th, for the purpose of securing lamps, etc. Let all come out en masse for a general good RALPH.

Still on Earth.

severe attack of lung trouble. I tried a great many physicians, and they all told me I had quick consumption, and I was entirely given up, so weak I could hardly walk. I traveled all through Nebraska and Colorado to try and get relief, but without effect. Often times after a severe spell of coughing my friends would cover me up, expecting every moment I would breathe my last. I was then brought back home, and as a last resort, "like a drowning man catching at a straw," began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the result is, I am strong, healthy and well, attending to my business. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy I shall recommend as long as I live, for to that I owe everything." Sold by Wiley & Walker and McMillen & Weeks.

"THE great trouble with you. John, s," said a lady to her husband, who was suffering from the effects of the night before, you cannot say 'No.' Learn to say 'No,' John, and you will have fewer headaches. Can you let me have a little money this morning?" "No, said John, with apparent ease.
