

OVER THE STATE.

MISCELLANEOUS STATE MATTERS.

A SIXTEEN year old boy named Recek was run over by the cars at Omaha last week and killed.

GRAND ISLAND has inaugurated a new departure in the matter of raising revenue for the city's support by imposing upon every class of business within its borders a license for the privilege.

The general assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States, commences at Omaha on the 19th of May.

A VERDANT young man from Ohio en route to Los Angeles, California, stopped off a day to see the sights in Omaha.

SIGNAL SERVICE telegrams are a thing of the past in Lincoln, owing to the lack of funds.

FREMONT calculates on 15,000 population by 1890. New dwellings are going up in all directions.

A JUVENILE temperance society is to be organized in Beatrice.

A GOOD deal of real estate is changing hands in Madison—enough, in fact, to give the town quite a boom in the dirt line.

FIVE school buildings accommodate the rising generation of Seward.

METHODISTS of Dakota City will put up a $2,000 church.

THE salt well work at Lincoln has been resumed after a cessation of six weeks duration.

ARTICLES of incorporation has been filed in the Hall county clerk's office of the Grand Island Canning company.

PENDER special: Saturday a prairie fire started in Farley's pasture, east of Logan creek.

THE people of Catherton are vigorously causing that part of Grover Cleveland's administration that is responsible for the carrying of the U. S. mails to and from Catherton.

IT took one hundred and fifty pages of legal cap paper to complete the bill of exceptions in the Shellenburger case.

THE G. A. R. boys of Hartington have already appointed a committee to attend to decoration day exercises.

THERE was recently held a meeting of business men and leading citizens of Napoleon to devise ways and means to continue prospecting for coal.

THE Methodist of Dakota City will erect a fine church this season.

THE auditor of public accounts has been sending out to the railway companies of the state blank assessment sheets.

THE following circular has been issued by the traffic department of the Union Pacific railway.

THERE are over 8,000 members of the G. A. R. in Nebraska.

JAMES GALVIN, an Omaha man confined in jail in that city last week, died a few hours after being locked up.

MADISON's board of trade was organized by twenty-eight of the leading citizens.

On the east side of Emerson is a ditch for draining land. The other day Helen Carbine, aged about eight years, was playing with other children above the bridge.

The people of Culbertson have on hand a canal scheme. The surveyors have run one line from a point north of town, sixty feet above the river, to the French, just seven miles west of Culbertson.

A SERIES of meetings under the auspices of the M. E. church of Western were well attended. Deep interest was manifested throughout and quite a number of conversions are reported.

At Wahoo Jansa's dwelling and saloon, including stock, on Lincoln avenue, were completely destroyed by fire.

An immense canning factory is being erected at Seward.

The Omaha Fair association will give $6,000 to speed contests at their September meeting.

A THIRTEEN year old son of Montgomery Pollock, of Dodge county, had a leg fractured. He was riding a horse when the animal fell with its weight onto the boy.

In 1886 there were 1,091 persons who made final proof on land in Holt county, aggregating 274,640 acres.

The government at Washington has granted a pension to Johnathan Potts of Beatrice.

J. W. HENDERSON, B. & M. agent at Angus, died very suddenly, last week, from hemorrhage of the lungs.

THE booming Platte river has proved disastrous to a good many bridges.

RUMORS are prevalent concerning the location of the bridge division of the Burlington & Missouri at Falls City.

PENDER special: Saturday a prairie fire started in Farley's pasture, east of Logan creek.

THE people of Catherton are vigorously causing that part of Grover Cleveland's administration that is responsible for the carrying of the U. S. mails to and from Catherton.

IT took one hundred and fifty pages of legal cap paper to complete the bill of exceptions in the Shellenburger case.

THE G. A. R. boys of Hartington have already appointed a committee to attend to decoration day exercises.

THERE was recently held a meeting of business men and leading citizens of Napoleon to devise ways and means to continue prospecting for coal.

THE Methodist of Dakota City will erect a fine church this season.

THE auditor of public accounts has been sending out to the railway companies of the state blank assessment sheets.

THE following circular has been issued by the traffic department of the Union Pacific railway.

THERE are over 8,000 members of the G. A. R. in Nebraska.

JAMES GALVIN, an Omaha man confined in jail in that city last week, died a few hours after being locked up.

MADISON's board of trade was organized by twenty-eight of the leading citizens.

LINCOLN, March 14.—HOUSE.—The house convened at 2:20 o'clock. After prayer the following petition was read:

Lincoln, Neb., March 14, 1887.—To Hon. N. V. Harlan, Speaker of the House of Representatives. I desire through you to make known to the honorable house of representatives of information which warrants me in making the charge that members of the house committee on judiciary, whose names I deem it improper to reveal at this time, have become parties to a criminal conspiracy to defeat the bill now in possession of said judiciary committee, senate file No. 98, an act to amend sections 214 and 215 of the criminal code.

The scene of to-day's awful calamity is seven miles southwest from Beacon Hill. Between the Forest Hills and Rosindale stations on the DeWitt branch, a South street makes a graceful curve and passes under the railroad, which also curves at that point. The bridge crossed over the highway at a height of forty feet and was 150 feet long.

LINCOLN, March 15.—SENATE.—The senate passed S. F. No. 150, relating to county and city bonds, also H. R. No. 19, which establishes a board of pharmacy and requires the registration of pharmacists.

LINCOLN, March 15.—HOUSE.—Mr. Russell chairman of the judiciary committee, moved that the resolution adopted yesterday providing for a secret investigation of the charges made by Mr. Rosewater against certain members of the judiciary committee be reconsidered.

LINCOLN, March 16.—SENATE.—The senate went into committee of the whole on the general bill, Mr. Brown in the chair. Bill 152, setting salaries of county officers was recommended to pass.

LINCOLN, March 18.—HOUSE.—The committee to investigate the charges of Edward Rosewater against certain members of the judiciary committee of the house, met at 9 o'clock this morning.

THE next number of The Century will contain an editorial on "Lincoln and Lowell," which alludes to some of the tributes paid to Mr. Lincoln by the leading American writers, but especially to Mr. Lowell's remarkable record on this point.

THIRTY PASSENGERS KILLED.

A Counterpart to the Recent Railroad Horror Occurring in Vermont—Four Cars Go Through a High Bridge.

Boston dispatch: The recent terrible disaster at the White River bridge, on the Central Vermont railway, was paralleled to-day, and with the exception of the fire feature, almost exactly duplicated, at Busey bridge, on the Delham branch of the Boston & Providence road.

The scene of to-day's awful calamity is seven miles southwest from Beacon Hill. Between the Forest Hills and Rosindale stations on the DeWitt branch, a South street makes a graceful curve and passes under the railroad, which also curves at that point.

LONDON, March 15.—The Russian embassy in London has received dispatches confirming the reports of a discovery of a plot to assassinate the czar and the arrest of the ring leaders.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 15.—It was semi-officially stated to-day that Sunday the police were informed that an attempt might be made on the life of the czar on that day, it being the anniversary of the assassination of his father.

LONDON, March 15.—The Russian embassy in London has received dispatches confirming the reports of a discovery of a plot to assassinate the czar and the arrest of the ring leaders.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 15.—It was semi-officially stated to-day that Sunday the police were informed that an attempt might be made on the life of the czar on that day, it being the anniversary of the assassination of his father.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 15.—It was semi-officially stated to-day that Sunday the police were informed that an attempt might be made on the life of the czar on that day, it being the anniversary of the assassination of his father.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 15.—It was semi-officially stated to-day that Sunday the police were informed that an attempt might be made on the life of the czar on that day, it being the anniversary of the assassination of his father.

QUEZELY LAID TO REST.

The Wife of the Condemned Anarchist Buried Without Any Unusual Demonstration.

Chicago special: It is estimated that between 20,000 and 30,000 people turned out to-day to witness the demonstration at the funeral of Mrs. Oscar Neebe, wife of the condemned anarchist.

From early in the morning until 1 o'clock p. m. hundreds of people crowded into the hall to gaze at the remains, and at times the rush was very great.

After the funeral services were concluded, a number of letters of condolence from labor organizations were read, and then the services in the hall were concluded.

RUSSIA'S RULER IN PERIL.

An Attempt to Take His Life on the Anniversary of the Assassination of His Father.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 15.—It was semi-officially stated to-day that Sunday the police were informed that an attempt might be made on the life of the czar on that day, it being the anniversary of the assassination of his father.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 15.—It was semi-officially stated to-day that Sunday the police were informed that an attempt might be made on the life of the czar on that day, it being the anniversary of the assassination of his father.

THE MARKETS.

Table with market prices for OMAHA and NEW YORK, including Wheat, Barley, Rye, Corn, Oats, Beans, Potatoes, Wool, and various other commodities.