

NEWS FROM AUSTRALIA.

United States Ahead--The Famous "Buckeye" Wins a Great Victory.

All patriotic citizens will join with Messrs. Aultman, Miller & Co., of Akron, Ohio, in general congratulations over the big victory which their "Light Draft Buckeye Folding Binder" gained at Shepparton, Victoria, Dec. 14, 1888, over various competitors, by which the great national gold medal was won.

The Argus says: "The field trial reapers and binders in connection with the National Show at Shepparton was held on Tuesday, the 14th instant, on Mr. Guthrie's farm, about two miles from Shepparton. Owing to the pressure of harvest work, crops in all directions being ripe, the attendance of farmers did not exceed 150, but great interest was taken in the proceedings. As at the late show, the judges placed the Horsby machine first, McCormick second and the Woods third; the "Buckeye" representative disliked being left out in the cold, and demanded a field trial as provided by the rules, the McCormick also sharing in the protest, so the prizes were held over pending the field trial. The crop was ripe wheat, and the land was so rough that none of the machines could show very low cutting, and the jolting over the hard clods was tolerably severe on horses, machines and drivers. Two o'clock was the hour fixed for the trial, but as the "Buckeye" was the only machine then ready, a delay was caused by the Horsby and McCormick experts giving their machines a preliminary run in the adjoining block of crop, and a start was not made until a quarter past three. The five judges gave great attention to their duties, and were ably seconded by the sub-committee appointed by the society and the secretary, Mr. Harold B. Turnley. About two acres were allotted to each machine, and they finished in the following order: "Buckeye," 1h 10 min.; Horsby, 1h 19 min.; McCormick, 1h 26 min. The two latter machines were drawn by three horses each, while two lighter horses worked the "Buckeye" binder with equal ease. The decision of the judges was based on the following scale of points:

Table with 5 columns: Machine Name, Points, and other metrics. Includes entries for Buckeye, Horsby, and McCormick.

The judges (Messrs. A. Kinkaid, H. Wilkinson, J. Grievie, J. M. Intyre and J. M. Guinness) thus awarded the "Buckeye" the first prize, with the maximum number of points, Horsby second, with 43, and McCormick third, with 37, adding that the work performed was the best they had ever seen, and their decision was cheered by the farmers present.

Sudden Riches.

How a Clothes Peddler Brought Wealth to a Capitalist.

Gabriel Karsky rang the bell. His business was that of a second-hand clothes-dealer and the bell was that of No. 10 Liberty street, where David Cohen, a capitalist, resided. Karsky kept a little stuffy shop at 335 Sixth street and often in the pursuit of his calling he took a turn in the fresh air and gathered up old garments to be furnished up as new. Gabriel had often rung the bell at No. 10 Liberty street and when he did so this rainy afternoon, about a month ago and Mrs. Cohen came to the door she said, pleasantly, "Nothing to sell to-day, Gabriel."

"I have thought said Karsky, drawing a crumpled paper from his pocket, 'I've got a Louisiana lottery ticket here and that is a coupon of ticket 73,987 and I want to sell it.' Mrs. Cohen, however, would have nothing to do with the coupon. Karsky insisted and the argument went on until Mr. Cohen impatiently shouted from the sitting room to take the coupon, give the man a dollar and let him go. The ticket and Mrs. Cohen's dollar changed places and Gabriel pocketing the piece went on his way in the quiet contentment of small profits.

On the 16th of February the list of prizes was published in the Chronicle, and Mrs. Cohen, looking over it with mild curiosity, saw with amazement that ticket No. 73,987 had drawn the first capital prize, and that her coupon was worth $15,000. She collected the money through Wells, Fargo & Co's bank, and remembering the circumstances of her purchase, sent Karsky $400.

This was not the only sudden fortune that came to San Francisco from New Orleans last month. Another tenth of the first capital prize was drawn here; $2,000 came in a lump to an old woman who held a coupon of No. 14,105, and two young men with Murphy, Grant & Co. have become $5,000 richer by holding a coupon of ticket 45,151, which drew the second capital prize.

The Effect of Captain Ed's Death. What effect the death of Capt. James B. Eds will have on the Tehuantepec railway project, of which he was the author and leading representative, is a matter of a moment. The plans are all drawn, and the most minute details as to construction and operation of the road has been mastered by those associated with and who worked under the great engineer. But it was his name and fame that gave life to the movement and warranted the expectation that abundant capital to complete the enterprise would be forthcoming. It remains to be seen, therefore, whether the taking off of the head of the enterprise will impair confidence in its successful inauguration.—New York Star.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

Rye Muffins—One pint of flour, on pint of rye-meal, too tablespoonful yeast; milk enough to make a thick batter.

Oil for Red Furniture—Take linseed oil; put into a glazed pipkin with a much alkali root as it will cover. Let it boil gently, and it will become of a strong red color; when cool it will be fit for use.

Good Suet Pudding—Chop finely six ounces of beef suet, add to it one pound of flour, half a tablespoonful of salt; mix with half a pint of milk and water; tie in a well floured cloth and boil two hours and a half.

Polish of Mahogany Color—Two ounces of beeswax cut fine, spirits of turpentine, one ounce; one dram powdered resin. Melt at a gentle heat, and add two drams of Indian red to give it a mahogany color.

Fifteen Minute Cake—Two cups sugar, three eggs, one cup of milk, three cups of flour, three teaspoonful of baking powder, one teaspoonful flavoring. Bake in four layers fifteen minutes and use any kind of icing you desire.

Curried Kidneys—Make one tea spoonful of curry powder, one of flour, a little pepper and salt, into a smooth paste. Split the kidneys, spread the paste over them, and fry in a little butter as possible. Serve hot on fried sippets.

Steamed Indian Pudding—One and one half cup sour milk, two eggs well beaten, one scant teaspoonful of soda dissolved in a little warm water; stir it into the mixture is a little thicker than for griddle cakes; then add fruit of any kind desired, and steam in a boiler one hour. Use sweetened cream for sauce.

Baked Indian Pudding—Boil two cups of corn-meal in a quart of water till it is almost like lumpy pudding. Add one tablespoonful of butter, two cups of sugar, three eggs, and spice accord to taste. Bake one hour in a slow oven.

Breakfast Fritters—One cup of cold boiled rice, one pint of flour, one tea spoonful of salt, two eggs beaten lightly, two teaspoonful of baking powder, stirred into the flour, and enough milk to make a thick batter. Fry light griddle cakes.

Potted Finnan Haddies—Cold boiled haddies, of any that is left from had dock at dinner, must be pounded fine with a little butter, cayenne pepper salt and an atom of mace, or sprinkle of curry powder. Serve in a mound, with hot, dry toast.

Graham Pudding—One cup graham flour, half cup milk, half cup molasses, half cup raisins or currents, chopped fine, one teaspoonful soda. Steam three hours and serve with either cream sauce or one made by creaming butter and sugar, and flavor with vanilla extract or wine.

To Bake Chicken—Dismember the joints in the same manner as for stewing; lay the pieces in a shallow dish, and pour over the meat sweet cream in proportion of one-half cup to each chicken; season to taste. Bake occasionally with the liquor formed by the cream and juice of the meat, and as fast as the pieces get browned turn them.

Oat Meal Gums—Take a cup of oat meal and soak it over night in one cup of water; in the morning add one cup of sour milk, one teaspoon of salaratus, one cup of flour, a little salt, they are baked in irons as other gums and muffins; if on the first trial you find them moist and sticky, add a little more flour, as some flour thickens more than others. Or use sweet milk and baking powder.

Wafers—One pint of flour (prepared is best), one cup of milk, one tablespoonful of butter and a teaspoonful of salt. Rub butter and salt into the flour, wet with the milk and roll out as thin as possible; cut into rounds with a cake-cutter and roll out again, this time surpassing the former "possible." They should be actually translucent. Transfer with care to a floured baking pan, and set in a quick oven until delicately browned. They will be deliciously plain.

Fruit Cake that Will Last a Year—Wash and drain well one pound of currants; chop coarsely one pound of raisins; chop, or slice, one-half pound of citron. Beat five eggs and two cups of brown sugar together; then add to them one cup of butter, one cup of molasses, one-half cup of sour milk, one teaspoonful of spices to taste. Stir into this mixture six cups of flour, reserving one half cup to mix with the raisins, to prevent their settling to the bottom. Add fruits last.

Resemblance and Difference. A sun is like a bank cashier, Not only 'cause it has its stock, But that it's apt, in going off, To generate a little shock; Herein, tho', is a difference, To which your reason will assent, The sun is often charged with shot, The cashier with embargement. —Jokers Gazette.

Esthetics in Hosiery. There are certain rules about dressing the legs that must be followed to secure a good effect. Now, in fancy stockings the lower part should be dark and the upper part light. That gives the effect of smallness at the ankle and plumpness at the calf. Reverse the position of the colors and the leg will look as straight and ungraceful as a stick. Then if the dark shade does not go all around the lower part it should be at the back and not in front, for in this case it gives the ankle a flat look. The hosiery that is figured with an imitator boot coming up to the swell of the calf gives a leg the best appearance.—Home Journal.

His Occupation. "What are you doing now young man?" asked a gentleman of a person whom he met at the theatre. "Oh, I have gone into the undertaking business." "Rather a grave occupation I should judge." "It might be so considered, when a man is undertaking to live on twenty dollars a week from ten dollars salary." —Carl Pretzel's Weekly.

Too Soon. One of the party had been telling how a certain rich silver mine had been discovered—by a prospector shooting at a man and clipping a piece of rich ore off a cliff—when an old fellow in the corner observed: "I came within an ace of finding a mine just that way." "How did you miss it?" "Why, the man I shot at turned around and put two bullets into me, and before I got out again the mine was discovered." [Wall Street News.
