BOX ELDER BERRIES.

J. A. Pinkerton returned from Hayes Co. on Sunday last.

The festive rattlesnake, with nine rattles and a button, is being killed daily.

The mother and sister of Mrs. Brower from Iowa, are visiting friends at Box Elder.

The usual crop of mangled horses and colts is being harvested from barb wire fences.

Miss Eva Dole, one of Bartley's students, attended church in Box Elder, on Sunday last.

A smart young hail storm passed over Box Elder, Wednesday morning, doing very little damage.

We understand Mr. Brower and A. W. Campbell are going into the sweet potato business on a large scale.

A. W. Campbell has rented his farm to Mr. Abbott of Frontier Co., and will devote his entire time to his farm and garden.

We are having fine weather for growing crops, and both corn and small grain are looking well, despite the cool weather.

There is complaint of great scarcity of money among the farmers, but for the prospects of good crops better times are looked for in the near future.

Fishermen on the Willow are complaining that somebody has a sein in the creek below here, in consequence of which no fish are caught hereabouts.

We have some very old people around here, too old to attend Sunday school and church yet they are on hand bright and early to go to town or to engage in other business, and they are church members too.

The 3rd Quarterly Conference of the Box Elder charge was held on June 2nd, Rev. I. N. Clover, presiding, who preached an excellent sermon on Saturday afternoon, also Sunday morning to a crowded house. Buvis.

BANKSVILLE and VICINITY.

A typographical error occurred in last week's items, wherein George Eckley was substituted for Gus Eckley. Please notice.

Mrs. Jacob Williams anticipates a trip to Ohio, to visit relatives there and take a much-needed rest and regain her declining health.

J. B. Farnsworth has just finished cultivating the trees on his timber claim, and to say that they look fine is a mild way of putting it.

Mr. Joe Dodge has fitted up the old Winsor house and gone to housekeeping with his estimable wife. He is farming the Winsor place.

Farmers are cultivating their corn in good earnest. The crop is a good stand and is in a thrifty condition, with promise of an abundant yield.

After the ball game, the afternoon of the 2nd, a horse race was participated in; and in consequence one of the boys is $5 poorer. There are sure investments for loose change than risking it on the precarious issue of a horse race. Don't do it boys.

The longevity of the republican party depends upon how well it manages to keep itself post themselves. If they are reading, thinking; men; keep well informed of current issues; they will always remain republicans. The better informed upon the political issues of the day a man keeps himself, the stronger a republican he makes, from the simple fact that the republican party is the only one that works indelibly for the benefit of the American people. It is a deplorable fact that there are more illiterate, immoral men in the democratic camp than in any party in existence. Don't take the word of republican journals for this, but read their own, make a special effort to inform yourself on this point and you will arrive at the same conclusion, that we have, viz: That the democratic party is sincere in neither thought, word or action. Cure of Cancer and Ulcers.

Judge T. C. McLendon writes to the Swift Specific Co.: "About three years ago, Jerry Bradley had a cancerous sore on his face, near the right eye. It caused him a great deal of pain, and he lost the sight of the eye, but was finally cured by the use of Swift's Specific. This case is well known in Wilkes Co., Ga., where he lives."

Mr. L. Cox, of Arizabulla, Tata Co., Miss., writes: "I suffered a great deal from old ulcers for years. Your medicine was recommended, and after using six bottles I was completely cured. Your medicine does even more than you claim for it. I have known it to cure cases which were thought hopeless."

Mrs. A. M. Goldsmith, No. 674 Warren St., Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "I commenced using S. S. S. about three years ago. I had suffered from a sore throat for over a year. I used a great many other remedies with no good results. My little girl, also, had sore fingers; it commenced from the quick, and then the nails would come off. We doctored her for over two years, and when I commenced using S. S. S. I thought I would see what it would do for her. I am thankful to say that it entirely cured her. It is the best remedy I know of for the blood. I really believe it was the means of saving my life. The doctor told me I had a throat disease similar to Gen. Grant's. I cheerfully recommend it to all suffering from disordered blood."

A Plea for the Boy and the Home.

TO THE VOTER:

I do not know what you think of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, but if you want to know what a boy is worth, go and ask his mother. By the time she goes into the very jaws of death to give him birth and then puts him into her days of love and nights of care, and he stands before her strong and clean and tall at 21, she can tell you what he is worth from the crown of his head to the sole of his foot; and when the legalized dram shop takes hold of him and tears him down fiber by fiber, and puts oaths upon the lips she used to kiss, and crushes out his mother's hopes, it is no wonder she makes an outcry. If you want to know what a home is worth, go ask a loving woman, who has kept herself pure as God's fires for her marriage, when, with the greatest shine in her eyes, she puts herself over into the hands of one man for better or for worse, for richer or for poorer, until life's end. And when the dram shop, with its fearful curse, crosses the threshold of the home they built together, and takes down her strong tower of hope, and stones by stone, and degrades the father of her children, it is no wonder woman makes an outcry. What is the Woman's Christian Temperance Union? It is a long smothered sob breaking into a cry; it is a midnight prayer coming abroad at noonday. You men sometimes say to us, as we stand in places like this, "Home is your kingdom." We do not dissent. We know it better than you know it, but it was our kingdom that was outraged. You say to us, standing ballotless and defenceless before this vampire of our civilization, "You do not need the ballot, we defend you by love and by law." Do you, when for eighty-five years of well license legislation is worth more than that cannot protect its woman and babies. And grand as you are, and strong as you are, you will never be able to protect your woman and children and the dram shop at the same time. Oh, in shame, in very shame, either get up and strike down this enemy of the home and of wifehood and of childhood, or else put the ballot into the hands of your woman for their own protection.—Mary T. Lathrop.

THE VERDICT UNANIMOUS.

W. D. Sult, druggist, Rippon, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of rheumatism of 10 years standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Belleville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 year's experience, is Electric Bitters. Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at A. McMillan's drug store."

It is mind, soul and heart—not taste or art—that makes men great.
