Among the problems which remain to be solved by our legislatures none are so grave and pressing and none threaten consequences so disastrous to all that is sacred in our institutions as the American saloon system. The Republican party platform says (in its annex), "The first concern of good government is the virtue and sobriety of its citizens." This we all know is true. How to curtail and finally destroy this evil is the great problem of the hour. Its solution stands next on the world's calendar of progress. It has been called up for trial and it cannot be postponed or dismissed. The saloon has boldly entered politics and it has come to stay until vanquished or victorious. The malignant power has organized and massed its mighty forces for the conflict. This is the great battle of Armageddon that the people of this day are called upon to fight. On one side is Error supported by all the powers of darkness, on the other is Truth supported by all the armies of heaven. The saloon power has organized its vast forces from its political alliances and now conscious of its strength bids defiance to law and public sentiment. It has hoisted the black flag and proclaimed that all who will not swear allegiance to it shall politically perish. The time has therefore come when the issue must be met. Political parties cannot longer evade it. Private citizens must take sides openly for or against the saloon. Neutrality is henceforth impossible and indifference is a betrayal of the trust involved in citizenship as in revolutionary times and in the days of anti-slavery agitation every lover of freedom and of humanity must rush to arms. Not carnal weapons, this time, but you must grip on the sword of the spirit, the word of God's truth which is mighty to the pulling down of strong holds and for overthrowing wicked spirits in the high places. These wicked spirits in the high places of our land are entrenched in the licensed saloon, protected by the highest authority in our government. That they are wicked spirits is seen by their work: to maintain the right to get money by the wholesale destruction of life and health and property. It corrupts the ballot, bribes legislatures, tampers with juries and seeks to intimidate by arson and assassination. Not less than eighty thousand children are born to the drunkard's grave from the homes of our people. Alas! how terrible is this judgment of the saloons. Oh! that from every mountain and every valley, from every mountain and prairie, from lake to gulf, from sea to sea there might arise the voice of our sixty million of people in a solemn and united prayer for the removal of this cruel monster. As did our fathers when they resolved to throw off the absolute authority of a bad king. So let us give some facts to a candid public. This monster sitting supreme in the politics of this county has enacted laws to license slaughter houses in our towns and cities where men, women and children are destroyed without mercy. He is the cause of nine-tenths of all the woes that curse our people. He hides his deformity under forms of law enacted by his vassals over whose heads he cracks the slave driver's lash in the halls of legislation. He debauches innocent children, leads some to the arms of sorrowing mothers and sends them to dishonored graves. He wrings hot tears from the widows whose husbands he has sacrificed at the drunken shrine of Moloch. He governs courts of justice and makes masters of the law and legislation his servants. He marches annually eighty thousand of our citizens in a staggering procession to death and hell. His butcheries go on nightly and hourly in the sight of our homes. We can hear the shriek of his victims and the wail of the bereaved. Oh! for an uprising of righteous indignation, an aroused American conscience for patriotic devotion to home and country that will drive this monster from our land. Under all forms of license the work of ruin and death goes on. The prohibition of the liquor traffic is the demand of the people; it is in the air nothing can resist the onward march of a genuine reform for it is the Messianic purpose to set judgment in the earth. Dear friends, have we the courage to issue our declaration of independence and with a firm reliance on Divine Providence pledge our lives, our property and our sacred honor that from this time forth no word or act of ours may be construed into allegiance to this felon king. He must be driven from this place of power and utterly overthrown. The conflict is upon us and it will be a life and death struggle. Happy are they who espouse this most righteous cause for they shall be called faithful and true and at the last shall receive the crown of victory, which the Lord, the righteous judge will give all them that love his kingdom and appearing.

Then if endorsed by the people, the election is assured. Little Boys by a Little Girl.

From Chatter.

Boys is men that have not got as big as their papa; girls is young women that will be young ladies by and by. Man was made before woman. When God looked at Adam he said to himself, "Well, I guess I can do better than that if I try again," and then he made Eve. God liked Eve so much better than he did Adam that there has been more women than men in the world ever since. Boys are a trouble; they are very wearing on everything but soap. If I could have my way, half the boys in the world would be little girls, and the other half would be dolls. My papa was so nice to me that I guess he must have been a girl when he was a little boy.

Their Business Booming.

Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at A. McMillen's drug store as their giving away to their customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable article from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, croup and all throat and lung diseases quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size $1. Every bottle warranted.

CHAS. H. ROGERS,

Established in 1882.

THE PIONEER MERCHANT.

"Nearly Everybody Reads It."

The Merchant reads the Chicago Daily News because he must know what's going on in the great business centres of the world, and he can't waste time hunting for it in a "blankey sheet."

The Farmer reads the Chicago Daily News because he makes more than $3.00 a year—one cent a day—by keeping promptly posted on the variations of the market,—he doesn't wait for the slow weeklies any more.

The Mechanic reads the Chicago Daily News because he knows that even in matters of handicraft the more general intelligence a man has the more he'll earn. The workman can well afford his daily paper at "one cent a day."

Grandfather reads the Chicago Daily News because it gives all the news, and yet so condensed that it doesn't tire him out to read it. And then, the print is so clear.

Mother reads the Chicago Daily News because she likes its independent views or not, she wants to know the truth. He "supports" his particular party "organ," but when he wants cold facts he reads the CHICAGO DAILY NEWS.

Grandmother reads the Chicago Daily News because she still wants to know what's going on. And it's a comfort to see a daily paper in the family that's clean and pure,—one she's not afraid to have "the children see."

The Boys all want the Chicago Daily News because it gives the base ball news so fully,—to say nothing of all the other things boys enjoy. And this year even the boys don't skip the political news.

The Politician always reads the Chicago Daily News because it's an impartial paper, and whether he likes its independent views or not, he wants to know the truth. He "supports" his particular party "organ," but when he wants cold facts he reads the CHICAGO DAILY NEWS.

The Girls all read the Chicago Daily News because they're specially interested in its chatty gossip about fashions and home matters, to say nothing about the excellent serial stories always running.

The Post Office Review, says: "Nearly everybody who reads the English language in, around and about Chicago, reads the Chicago Daily News." Do you? It's a "short and to the point paper,"—made particularly for busy people, and it costs one cent a day. All newsdealers sell it, and all post-masters forward subscriptions for it at $3.00 a year, or $1.00 for four months. Address VICTOR F. LAWSON, Publisher The Chicago Daily News, Chicago.
