Harrison, Morton and Protection.
Our candidates are chosen, hear that Indiana cheer,
And New York sends it back again, to greet the list'ning ear!
From Maine to California, ring the chorus full and free,
With HARRISON and MORTON we've won the victory.
Floating no flag of anarchy, our leaders, brave and true,
But the colors brave men battled for, the old Red, White and Blue!
From ocean unto ocean, it waved triumphantly With HARRISON and MORTON, we won the victory.
Protection to the industries, that made our nation great,
Fair wages for the laborer in every town and state;
No Cooled Club enactments, like the Mills de formity.
With HARRISON and MORTON, we've won the victory.

Of Importance to Gentlemen.
It is of importance to gentlemen to know that on the application of the Kit Carson estate company Judge Dundy has appointed Ernest D. Webster receiver of the Harlem cattle company, to take charge of its property, personal and real. His bond is fixed at $20,000. The Kit Carson company is a Texas organization. The Harlem company was incorporated in Colorado, but has ranches and cattle in Hitchcock and Chase counties, Nebraska. The complainant's bill alleges that prior to February 24, 1888, the defendants became indebted to it in the sum of $22,015.56 for cattle, and at various times gave notes signed jointly by itself and E. M. McGillen & Co. of Cleveland, O. The defendant subsequently agreed to give a chattel mortgage, to be placed in Montana, but changing its plans as to the latter, it then gave a mortgage on its property in Nebraska. That property consisted of a herd of Polled Angus and a herd of Holstein, a herd of Hereford cattle, all thoroughbreds, and numbering about four hundred and fifty; also, a stock of graded and common cattle, and a stock of blooded and common horses.—Omaha Herald.

Ninth Volume of Alden's Manifold Cyclopedia.
Open at random at which page you will, or look for almost any subject you choose, and complete, accurate and valuable information meets the eye. Work each new volume one's surprise at the available knowledge contained in these handy and even elegant books is increased. There can be no doubt that the completed set will form one of the standard works of the generation. The small handy volumes are so much more convenient for consultation than the big unwieldy octavo or quarto or rival encyclopedias that one naturally refers to them much more often, and is gratified to find that except in rare cases the information afforded is fully as satisfactory as found in Appleton's, Johnson's, Chambers's, or the Britannica. The price is low beyond all precedent, placing it within popular reach—50 cents a volume for cloth binding, 65 cents for half morocco; postage 10 cents. A specimen volume may be ordered and returned if not wanted. JOHN B. ALDEN, Publisher, New York, Chicago, Atlanta, and San Francisco.

Ruskin makes the following observation concerning a popular and prevalent evil: But there is one way of wasting time, of all the vilest, because it wastes, not time only, but the interest and energy of your minds. Of all the ungentlemanly habits into which you can fall, the vilest is betting, or interesting yourselves in the interests of betting. It unites nearly every condition of folly and vice; you concentrate your interest upon a matter of chance, instead of upon a subject of true knowledge; and you back opinions which you have no grounds for forming, merely because they are your own. All the insolence of egotism is in this; and so far as the love of excitement is complicated with the hope of winning money, you turn yourselves into the basest sort of tradesmen—those who live by speculation. Were there no other ground for industry, this would be a sufficient one; that it protected you from the temptation of so scandalous a vice. Work faithfully, and you will put yourselves into possession of a glorious and enlarging happiness; not such as can be won by the speed of a horse, or marred by the obliquity of a ball.

Badeau has finally accepted the first offer made by the Grant family to pay him ten thousand dollars for his services as amanuensis for Gen. Grant at the time he was writing his memoirs. In accepting this, Badeau renounces his claim to joint authorship and a participation in the profits on the sale of the book. The Grant family has always been ready to pay the ten thousand dollars that the general promised Badeau for his services, though they say that Grant having become dissatisfied with him and discharged him, they do not equitably owe him the money. They pay it as a matter of honor so that nobody can have an excuse for going about accusing the Grants of repudiating a contract made by the dead husband and father. This is the last grab that Badeau can make out of the money of the Grants, who have supported him in one way or another since the close of the war. Hereafter he will have to live on what he has grabbed or work out his own salvation. The Grants will no longer support him.

"The state of sin and misery," remarks Walt Mason in an unexampled burst of confidence, "has gone democratic."

Heartrending Scenes caused by an exhibition of Heating Stoves at the Pioneer Hardware.
Pandemonium a Picnic, compared to the commotion caused by the dazzling splendor of the Sovereign Jewel base burner.

A Woman Burst into tears and declared she would have no other stove if she didn't have a new dress for a year.
One Woman Hung
about her husband's neck and besought him to buy her a Sovereign Jewel for a Christmas present.

Another Woman Melted into tears when she saw one going to her neighbors, and one woman Thought She'd Die
laughing for joy when she discovered that her husband had already secured one. But it was only a touch of happy hysterics and she is now feeling better than ever before in her life.

The Sovereign Jewel Base-Burner is guaranteed to do one third more heating with the same amount of fuel than any other stove on the market. We have just finished unloading

There's MONEY in Our MUSIC,
And our concert captivates customers because the silvery sound means sound silver saved to every mothers' son of them. We are willing to let COMPETITORS PLAY THE LYRE!
There's no denying that they are great on that instrument, and play with a good deal of vim, but the Lyre doesn't last like our instrument.

WE BLOW OUR HORN
To announce that we have added $4,500 worth of Fall and Winter Goods to our already mammoth Stock of Boots & Shoes,
And that we intend to sell them 20 per cent. below any firm that claims to compete with, or undersell us.

We Can Do It!
Because we buy direct from wholesale manufacturers' saving the jobbers' profit, which is 20 per cent. Because we pay cash for every dollars' worth of goods we buy and take a liberal discount. Come and see us.
