Stationery, regret and calling cards at THE TRIBUNE OFFICE.

Oh, these "rays of sunlight" from the county officials et cetera!

You have no doubt noticed the fact, but "Noble fits us obliquely"—THE TRIBUNE.

The dance announced for last Friday evening, at the Menard, did not transpire, for lack of participants.

The reliable West Dennison street furniture dealers, Peck & Son, present a string of locals, in this issue.

"High Five"—next to poker, of course—is perhaps the most popular game with McCookites, nowadays.

It is to be desired that Ramsom's bill raising the test of oil from 100 to 129 degrees will become a statute.

"Come and settle" is the word Ludwick & Trowbridge are sending out to their debtors. See them before the 20th.

The supreme court has passed on the dual submission proposition and has established its constitutionality.

Canon City, and other grades of soft coal, and both Pennsylvania and Colorado hard coal at Bullard's lumber yard.

Bullard doesn't sell drugs; but it is a caution the amount of hard and soft coal he is weighing out, these chilly days.

Bullard has "the cream" of the coal trade. He keeps in stock a large supply of best grades of both hard and soft coal.

Is your coal bin empty? If so consult Bullard, dealer in "dusky diamonds" of best grades, at the Badger lumber yard.

We devote considerable space, this week, to the publication of another lengthy list of land patents, just received at the McCook office.

The Huddleston Lumber Co. is gradually extending their territory. The latest purchase is The Fries & Hoeknell Lumber Co.'s Bartley yard.

School books, blank books, scale books, letter copying books, legal and land blanks, pens, inks, pencils, tablets, etc., at THE TRIBUNE OFFICE.

With Bullard's filling your order for hard or soft coal? "He's all right." So is his large stock of coal. So are his figures. Give him a trial order.

The "Glucinum" pen is undoubtedly the finest pen in the market. Will outwrite three other pens. For sale at THE TRIBUNE Stationery Department.

The birthday of the "Father of His Country" was quite generally observed in McCook. Business was in a measure suspended and the school children enjoyed a holiday.

Improvements are still being made on the Commercial House. Host Johnston has in mind the best hotel in Western Nebraska, and, nothing short of that mark will satisfy him.

West McCook is preparing for quite a building boom. Five houses will be built as soon as weather will permit—among the number before one for Police Judge O'Donnell.

THE TRIBUNE'S handsome new window sign will of course be recognized as the work of Mr. Miller, undeniably the best artist in his line, in Western Nebraska, who will shortly locate in McCook.

Anniversary services at the Lutheran church next Sunday morning and evening by the pastor, J. W. Kimmel, who will give a review of the three years work in the Republican Valley. All are invited.

The greatest variety of tablets in this section of Nebraska may be found at THE TRIBUNE Stationery Department. The line has just been largely increased. Call and see the assortment and get prices.

We understand that Mayor McEntee contemplates making extensive improvements on his hotel, among them being steam heat. The McEntee is to be kept in the van of the McCook's improvement procession.

For the list of patents appearing in this week's Courier, printed at Indianapolis, this county, our esteemed contemporary is under obligations to THE TRIBUNE. The matter of proper credit was no doubt overlooked.

Word from Rev. D. S. Morris, pastor loci, conveys the news of the burning of the Wilsouville M. E. church, Sunday afternoon last, at about 3 o'clock. Defective fire the cause. The parsonage was saved by wind changing direction.

This week, the McCracken jewelry store was purchased by Messrs. McElwain & Dowers, who will continue the business at the old stand. Mr. Louis Fox will remain with the new proprietors for the present. THE TRIBUNE wishes them success.

We have for sale in our Stationery Department one hundred pounds of fine paper cut into various sizes for figuring pads. Every business man should have in a supply. Only 15 cents a pound. Don't forget us if you want any figuring pads.

Overstuffed, but bilious, contemporary at Indianapolis, this county, bears witness to the enterprise of McCook papers in this language: "The McCook papers are nothing if not enterprising." And it is said that the Record in Angel thereupon gave Bishop a red credit mark.

The persistent statements of our democratic contemporary, that the Democrat exclusively prints the news, reminds us of the traditional democratic Irishman, who remarked in the course of a campaign speech: "For spache making and the loikes I am not much, but for honesty and integrity I can bate the devil!"

Nothing, perhaps, short of the receipt of a commission as Register of the McCook U. S. Land Office, could have caused as much joy in the Majors home, as the arrival of that fine boy baby, Wednesday night. Mother and child are doing nicely and John hopes to be able to resume his clerical labors by the first of coming week.

On Wednesday, a deal was consummated whereby Mathias Droll, of Loda, Ill., became the proprietor of the C. E. Boyd half section in "Town Four," which consists of a deeded quarter and a timber claim. It was a cash in hand transaction. It is Mr. Droll's intention to move out at once and occupy his farm, which he will stock with some fine horses which he will ship from Illinois. We are looking for more just such settlers as Mr. Droll. Welcome.

Wednesday afternoon, the remains of Mrs. Carey, who died suddenly, the preceding day, on the farm, a few miles southeast of the city, were mingled with Mother Earth's in Longview cemetery, this city. The deceased leaves a husband and four small children, one an infant but two or three days old. The departed was comparatively a new settler. The case is a sad one and calls forth the profound sympathy of all kind hearts. We understand that the deceased is a sister of Mrs. John Calkins, nee Mrs. Susan Kneff.

A JOYOUS OCCASION.

A goodly company of friends participated in a delightful progressive euchre party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Babcock, Tuesday evening; and all unite in voicing it among the most pleasurable affairs of the winter. A new feature was introduced into the game, in that each table was known by the name of a state, while each of the four players at the various tables represented an important city in that state. Among the eager participants were: MR. AND MRS. C. T. Brewer, F. L. Brown, George Hoeknell, C. T. Green, B. B. Davis, Z. L. Kay, Emil Lindner, C. M. Noble, W. Franklin, P. W. Ludman, G. A. Noren. MRS. Samuel Strasser, Alex. Campbell, H. H. Troth, MISSES Ida J. Hollister, Mary Myers, Sara Lowman, Anna McManara, L. Ella Hart, MESSRS. E. E. Lowman, A. C. Ebert, G. A. Ebert, G. B. Berry, Caleb Clabber. The honors of the evening were carried off by Mrs. C. T. Brewer, who sustained the dignity of Des Moines, Iowa, in a becoming manner. While Mrs. Emil Lindner, who represented Toledo, in the "Sunflower" state satisfied her soaring ambition with the "booby prize." Refreshments were enjoyed at a convenient lull in the absorbing game.

Our New Plan.

We, the physicians of McCook, have been forced to adopt a NEW PLAN with regard to our collections for the following reasons:

1. We have found it impossible to collect more than a small portion of our accounts.

2. We have repeatedly found that our bills have been "left until the last," and we have thus frequently been compelled to borrow money from the banks to pay our running expenses.

3. This has been carried to such an extent that we are forced to stop practice unless our patrons appreciate our services in a more substantial manner. For the foregoing reasons be it hereby

RESOLVED, That hereafter we will do strictly a cash practice, and whenever anyone of our patrons becomes delinquent, he shall be notified, and unless satisfactory settlement be made within thirty days thereafter, he shall be put upon the delinquent list.

RESOLVED, That all accounts now on our books shall become delinquent, on Feb. 29, 1889, unless satisfactorily settled before that date.

RESOLVED, That we mutually pledge ourselves to refuse to answer all calls from those found on the delinquent list.

L. J. SPICKELMIER, Z. B. KAY, A. E. HALL, AND J. WILLEY, B. B. DAVIS.

TRUE TO NAME.

Those who appreciate the value of nursery stock, trees and plants true to name and in perfect condition, should write to Crete nurseries, Crete, Nebraska, for their catalogue and printed matter giving full description of such varieties as they have found best adapted to Central Nebraska, together with suggestions for planting the same. Their nurseries are located 30 miles S. W. of Lincoln on the main line of the B. & M., and in 17 years they have built up a large business. On large orders they pay fare both ways of customers to come and see them and examine their stock, by deducting travelling expenses from bill purchased. Everything ordered before March 25th will be delivered in McCook free of charge, as the Supt. has sold three-fourths of a car load, with which additional orders can be packed. No sale yard. Order early. Address, E. F. STEPHENS, Supt.

Unannounced, But Not Unwelcome.

A company of neighbors and friends dropped in upon Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Strasser, Monday evening, in an informal manner, and enjoyed a very pleasant evening with cards and chat and refreshments. The "surprisers" were: MR. AND MRS. C. W. Knights, F. O. Newman, F. L. Brown, J. C. Binsall, F. S. Wilcox, George Hoeknell, W. F. Lawson, S. P. Hart, Emil Lindner, H. W. Cole, B. B. Davis, Mrs. Z. L. Kay, Mrs. C. M. Noble, Mrs. S. Patton, Miss Grace Hammer, Mr. J. C. Allen, and Messrs. M. Stern and A. Loeb of Hastings.

Subscribers Pay Up.

It is not the habit of the publisher to do persistent dunning; but there is a tide in the affairs of men which taken at the flood leads on to glory; so there is a time in the life of the publisher when a little cash seems to be necessary, in addition to glory. An urgent invitation is extended our delinquent subscribers to call at once and settle up. In other words we must have some money.

A Card of Thanks.

The ladies of the Geometrical Society of the Congregational church, desire in this wise to express their thanks and appreciation to all those who aided the society in the preparation and serving of the recent Knights of Pythias banquet. By order of the society. SECRETARY.

Grand Millinery Opening.

Mrs. Barger will have an opening, Friday and Saturday, March 8th and 9th, and extends a cordial invitation to all ladies in the city and vicinity to call and see her on those dates. Her stock of spring millinery goods will richly repay inspection.

WANTED—250 Head of Cattle and horses to pasture, 1,500 acres best pasture in the county, 3 miles east of McCook. Will be responsible for loss. Have lived 14 years on same ranch and am here to stay. ALBERT W. COREY.

FOR RENT.

Two good office rooms. Inquire of Fries & Hoeknell Lumber Co.

His Honor, Police Judge O'Donnell, had a little scene, Tuesday, with some South McCookites of belligerent propensities. The Judge murmured something that sounded like—"So fine and usual trimmings."

Last Friday evening was the anniversary of Rev. E. J. Hall's birthday, his fiftieth anniversary, and his friends on the South Side commemorated the event for the reverend gentleman in a very pleasant manner, with a musical entertainment and a bounteous spread of refreshments, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Leser.

"As happy as a lark" is Ephraim C. Gaston, he having this week received official notification of the fact, (an encouraging fact to the old soldier), that he had been granted a pension of $14 per month, dating from August, 1858. Mr. Gaston was only extinguished the first of the year, and feels very grateful to Mr. J. H. Foxworthy, of Lincoln, for his promptness in pushing the matter through the pension department.

PERSONALS.

Supt. Knapp's family of Lincoln are Judge Coe's guests.

A. J. Kutenhouse had legal business in Indiana, this county, yesterday.

Carl Clark's family, we understand, contemplate moving to Denver to live.

J. Byron Jennings had legal business in Culbertson; the fore part of the week.

Dr. Critzer of the South Side has moved into the city and will practise his profession.

H. P. Waite and family moved to McCook, last Friday—Cambridge Kaleidoscope.

Representative Wilcox spent Sunday at home. He returned to Lincoln on Monday.

Mr. A. Loeb of Hastings has been visiting friends and relatives in the city, this week.

H. W. Cole had business in the state's metropolis, a number of days, the first of the week.

Messrs. Geo. Hoeknell and C. H. Meeker went into Lincoln, Tuesday evening, on matters of business.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Ballew have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Jack Laughlin for the past week.

Miss Maggie McAlpine is spending a few days with her brother and family in Indiana, this county.

F. L. Brown made a short business pilgrimage to Denver, the close of last week, returning on Saturday.

Miss Fay Doty of Waineta was in the city, Wednesday, on her way to Ottumwa, Iowa, on an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Oman, Family Fisher, G. H. Grubb, S. S. Smith of the county-seat, were city visitors, Wednesday.

E. E. Eisenhart, E. E. Capps and Wallace W. Neider were among the Culbertson visitors in the city, Wednesday.

Mr. George McNeal spent a few hours in the city, Wednesday, on his way to Waineta from a brief trip to Hastings.

Judge Harlow W. Keyes and father, M. Keyes of Mt. Vernon, Iowa, were looking over the city, Wednesday afternoon.

L. A. Hurlbut, the old man, who has been indulging in the luxury of an eastern visit, arrived home on the Saturday night passenger.

Manager Miller of the "Economy Store," Hayes Center, had business in the city which detained him here, Monday and Tuesday of this week.

Register and Mrs. S. P. Hart left the Tuesday morning train for Ainsworth, Brown county, where they will make a brief visit at their former home.

Judge Royal Buck, of "Forest Home," we are pleased to note, has so far recovered from his recent serious illness as to be able to be about the yard again.

M. Stern, owner of the Stern's addition, has been spending a few days in the city, this week, on real estate business. He returned to Hastings on Wednesday evening.

Mr. A. E. Harvey, the Orleans banker, stayed over in the city, Wednesday evening, on business. He was en route to Denver and resumed his journey on the flyer.

C. Treas. Goodrich returned from a two week's visit to Lincoln, Saturday evening. While there he closed up a deal by which he became the owner of about $20,000 worth of Lincoln real estate—Courier.

Messrs. Geo. Kaimo and Will Anderson (owner of The Fries & Hoeknell Lumber Co.'s yard at Bartley, last Friday, preparatory to turning over the same to The Huddleston Lumber Co., who have purchased that yard.

C. E. Shaw of the Nebraska Loan and Banking Co. of McCook was up from Hastings, Tuesday, on business. He reports that the company will open up on the first of the month, in the Franklin brick, upstairs, in rooms formerly occupied by the U. S. land office.

Miss Grace Hamner, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. F. O. Newman, during the past winter, took her departure, Tuesday morning, for her home in Poio, Ill. Miss Grace has become a general favorite during her short sojourn in McCook, and regrets at her departure are heard on all hands.

E. F. Stephens, Supt. of Crete nurseries, interviewed his friends in McCook, early this week, and sold Mr. Hoeknell a half car-load of trees for his fine block northwest of town, with liberal sales to many other gentlemen. Mr. Stephens regards this as the most enterprising town met in his round of trade.

Mr. G. W. Marquardt, the Des Moines, Iowa, wholesale jeweler, who has been in the city, the past week, on business connected with the sale of the McCook stock to McElwain & Dowers, took his departure for home, Tuesday. Mr. Marquardt is considerably interested in McCook, owning the Scott brick and valuable suburban property besides.

Messrs. J. C. Allen and H. H. Troth departed, Tuesday evening, for the east, and will be among McCook's representatives at the inauguration, next Monday. Mr. Troth will remain in the east three or four weeks, visiting in Jersey and Pennsylvania. Mr. Allen will also spend some time there, making purchases for his spring stock of goods.

Mr. Charles White, of this village, started, on Monday the 17th inst., for McCook, Nebraska, where he has accepted the position of examiner for the Nebraska Loan and Banking Company of that place. Mr. White is a good business man and will undoubtedly make a very efficient man for the company. He will probably move his family west in the spring.—Owego (N. Y.) Times.

Col. T. E. McCracken left on yesterday morning for Washington, D. C., to witness the inauguration of General Harrison, next Monday. The Colonel will spend some time at the national capital, and hopes to secure a position under the new administration, in which THE TRIBUNE hopes he may be successful. Secretary Lawson accompanied the same party, which set out from Lincoln, yesterday.

Wm. H. Gorrell has disposed of all his property in this place, and in a short time will move with his family to McCook, Nebraska, where he has purchased property. Mr. Gorrell has been station agent at Millersburg for twenty-eight years and is one of the most competent and courteous officials along the line of the road. In his removal from town, Millersburg loses one of her best citizens.—Holmes County (O.) Farmer.

Wm. H. Gorrell, our most efficient station agent, has returned from the west, where he has concluded to locate. He has bought property in McCook, Nebraska, and will move there in the spring. He saw James Anderson and his sisters Mollie and Mrs. Rejem, and says they are looking hearty, and are well pleased with the west. Mr. Gorrell has been agent at this depot for about twenty-seven years, and a better man for the place could not be found.—Holmes County (O.) Republican.
