

THE M'COOK TRIBUNE.

F. M. KINNELL, Publisher. M'COOK, NEB.

ABOUT NEBRASKA.

Silk Culture in Nebraska.

One of the most interesting things that have come under the notice of the legislature...

STATE SETTINGS IN BRIEF.

The county surveyor of Clatsop county, with a force of eleven men, is busy making the survey for the proposed canal to connect the Dismal river with the Muddy and thus furnish a magnificent water power for Broken Bow.

The Chase County Champion announces that a number of the farmers are busily employed sowing wheat...

A Washington special says the Secretary of War has failed to recommend for purchase to the senate of the site at Bellevue selected for a fort by General Brooks and recommended by Generals Schofield and Crook...

A bill has been introduced in the senate by Norval to increase the salary of the supreme court judges to $4,500 per annum, and to make the salary of judges of district courts $3,500 each.

A 16-year-old girl named Stanley, who lived with her parents in a dug-out on the river bank just above Nebraska City, met with a fatal accident.

Senator Manderson was given a reception last week by members of the legislature and made a brief address.

Definite steps are being taken to make the Inter-State Chautauqua at Beatrice a success.

The independent believes that Grand Island this year will witness the greatest building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The Winnebago Indians are refusing to sign the petition to form the new county of Blackbird, with Pender for the county seat.

The new G. A. R. post organized at South Omaha has been named in honor of the late Dr. Livingston of Plattsmouth.

A large barn on the farm of Stephen Jones, who resides two miles south of Wood River, was burned with all of its contents, consisting of large quantities of oats, shell corn, hay, harness, farm implements, two cows and a team of horses.

A large and important property trade was effected in Ullyess last week, wherein George Smith, a prosperous stock raiser, exchanged 100 valuable at $12,000, including two valuable stallions and several imported mares, for city property in York owned by Mrs. De Payer, who is the principal owner of the York stock railway.

George W. Allen, of Hamburg, one of the largest Iowa stock shippers to South Omaha, was killed last week at Covington and thirty-six inmates were captured and fined $20 each.

Mary Lemons, a ten-year-old girl of Falmouth, Ky., has delivered several sermons in the field as a professional revivalist. Prof. Graham Bell says that the deaf mutes are increasing at a faster rate than the general population.

James C. Flood, of California, died at the Grand hotel at Heidelberg, on the 21st.

The city council of Lincoln propose to inaugurate reform, and will begin by cutting off part of the street lights.

A movement is on foot to organize a farmers' alliance at Inman.

A Lincoln dispatch says that the senate committee will report adversely on Linn's bill making life and endowment assurance policies non-forcible and annulling surrender value.

The senate committee on the bill to amend the act relating to the operation of railroads to keep public crossings in repair. Mrs. Gougar was granted the use of the hall one hour to make an address on municipal suffrage.

The 21st was the 40th day of the senate session, and on which bills may be introduced. There was a shower of such documents, and a big part of the morning session was taken up in reading and referring these bills.

A bill to provide for the maintenance of school lands was introduced. The bill as amended would provide for the sale of school lands in one lot, to be located either in the state or outside of the state.

The senate on the 19th held a forty-minute session and indefinitely postponed the house bill abolishing the state oil inspection.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

Edgerton gets after the president. He reads the riot act to the chief executive because of his removal.

Judge Edgerton, who was recently removed from the office of civil service commissioner, has written an open letter to the president.

Senate and House of Representatives. A Synopsis of Proceedings in the Senate and House of Representatives.

The senate on the 21st held a forty-minute session and indefinitely postponed the house bill abolishing the state oil inspection.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

Edgerton gets after the president. He reads the riot act to the chief executive because of his removal.

Judge Edgerton, who was recently removed from the office of civil service commissioner, has written an open letter to the president.

Senate and House of Representatives. A Synopsis of Proceedings in the Senate and House of Representatives.

The senate on the 21st held a forty-minute session and indefinitely postponed the house bill abolishing the state oil inspection.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

Edgerton gets after the president. He reads the riot act to the chief executive because of his removal.

Judge Edgerton, who was recently removed from the office of civil service commissioner, has written an open letter to the president.

Senate and House of Representatives. A Synopsis of Proceedings in the Senate and House of Representatives.

The senate on the 21st held a forty-minute session and indefinitely postponed the house bill abolishing the state oil inspection.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

Edgerton gets after the president. He reads the riot act to the chief executive because of his removal.

Judge Edgerton, who was recently removed from the office of civil service commissioner, has written an open letter to the president.

Senate and House of Representatives. A Synopsis of Proceedings in the Senate and House of Representatives.

The senate on the 21st held a forty-minute session and indefinitely postponed the house bill abolishing the state oil inspection.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

The independent believes that the Beechler building boom ever experienced there.

LIVE STOCK AND PRODUCE MARKETS. Quotations from New York, Chicago, Omaha, and Kansas City.