A SMASH UP.

Yesterday afternoon, while drunk, "Hank" Walker drove his lumber wagon into D. R. Carpenter's buggy, smashing a wheel. The damage was repaired in a few hours, and Mr. Carpenter was enabled to leave for Danbury. Mrs. Walker, we understand, agreed to make good the property injured. However, the bibulous "Hank" should have been promptly placed in the cooler. Life and property should be faithfully and firmly protected, regardless.

The gold wagon was side-tracked here, Monday afternoon.

F. W. Jeffries has been prompted to rank of engineer again.

Way-car 77 from Holyoke is now shopped for general repairs.

Engineer Tom Haley has been on the sick list for the past week.

John Stevens and wife are visiting friends in Chicago, this week.

Engineer Barney Lewis has purchased Chan. Belknap's residence.

Way-car 11 is out of the shops, having been thoroughly repaired; also, way-car 31.

Mrs. Sanford Lewis and children went to Plattsmouth, this week, to visit friends.

Engineer Snyder is comfortably located in his cosy new house on upper Macfarland St.

Engineer F. R. Allen went to Kansas City Wednesday, to visit his family for a few days.

William Smith, machinist, has purchased the Lee Hulburd dwelling on east Dodge St.

Mrs. Ed. Atkinson and daughter, of Burlington, Iowa, are the guests of Engineer and Mrs. J. H. Moore.

Engineer H. M. Tyler and family returned from their visit to Chicago, Saturday. Harry reports a good time.

Chas. Mulvey, machinist, was resigned from duty a few days ago. Another good job gone on account of the ardent.

Fireman S. G. Dulany, who was injured three weeks ago by falling on an engine coal gate, has returned to work.

Fireman F. C. Stuby returned, Monday, from Rochester, N. Y., where he went as delegate to the O. R. C. annual convention.

Will some one take mercy on a suffering public and tell a bigger fish story than the one now rehearsed by the boys who caught forty-one fish in two hours, on the Driftwood, a few days ago.

Wm. Irwin went down to Republican, Thursday, to take in the circus, owned by a former resident of McCook, Mr. F. J. Taylor, and see to some lodge business in connection with Roadmaster Josselyn's third trial with the goat.

W. P. Foreman, auditor of the B. & M., and route agent Wetzel were here Tuesday, checking out E. S. Stevens, who has resigned the agency at this place and has gone into the mercantile business with L. A. Hanning. It is needless to say they found everything correct and he leaves the employ of the railroad company with a spotless character. Gene has been with the company a number of years and will be greatly missed by the boys, but they one and all wish him the best success in his new venture. His place is taken here by Mr. E. L. Brown, of Stratton, whom we will welcome in our midst and hope that he may be able to please the public and the company as well as his predecessor.—Cambridge Kaleidoscope.
