THE Valley publishers propose to "excute" to the mountains, some time next month.

It is announced that the Imperial Republican will suspend publication about the middle of June. "There are only a few of us left."

THE Indianola Courier feigns accusing us of being an early candidate butcher. Not so, Joe. Our ambition is only to print the news, as is news.

THE McCOOK TRIBUNE was ten years old, last week; and, by the way, McCook is about the same age. Good sized ten-year-olds, both of them.—Hayes Co. Times.

It is truly beautiful to observe with what tender solicitude the railway managers are looking to the health and well-being of the young and vigorous alliance child.

THE McCOOK TRIBUNE celebrated its tenth birthday, last week. It is a bright, newsy paper and has been a potential factor in the growth and development of McCook and Red Willow county.—Lincoln Journal.

SENATOR INGALLS: "So far as I know there is no prescription for fame or fortune. A man may deserve both and obtain neither, or he may deserve neither and obtain both. The only way to be successful, so far as my observation goes, is to succeed."

DURING 1888-89 almost 500 trusts were organized in America. They control about every branch of industry. And include no less than two billion dollars of capital, considerably over two-thirds of the entire manufacturing capital of the United States.

ALL opposition among Ohio republicans to the re-election of John Sherman to the United States senate has disappeared. This is proof positive that Ohio republicans have recovered their wits entirely. It would hurt Ohio more than Sherman to retire him from public life.—Bee.

SEVERAL hundred Sicilians have returned to their native land from New Orleans since the 14th of March. They are evidently troubled by guilty consciences, and want to get out of the country in which justice sometimes breaks loose and causes inconveniences to murderers and other criminals.—State Journal.

ANOTHER irrigation company bobbed up Monday in the secretary of state's office. This time the Champion Valley Water Power and Irrigating company filed articles of incorporation, setting forth that it would do business at Champion, Chase county, with an authorized capital stock of $40,000. The incorporators are J. D. Shanahan and Thomas Scott, both of Champion.

THE Atlanta Constitution in a recent editorial: "As for the southern farmers, it is absurd to ask them to join a third party, and thereby destroy a political and social solidarity which is essential to the safety of their property and their institutions. The farmers here are satisfied with the democratic party in every particular, for they constitute a majority of its voters and have control of its organization. A third party in the south would be farcical in its conception and tragical in its results, for it would be in the nature of an invitation to ignorance to step in and take charge of affairs."
