THIRTEENTH YEAR.

McCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY EVENING, DEC. 21, 1894.

NUMBER 31.

Tom Wilkinson was a Hastings visitor, Tuesday.

Mrs. B. V. Haley was an Omaha visitor, first of the week.

Four way cars were sent up to the Wyoming branch, this week.

C. W. Lindsay has gone to braking out of Alliance for W. E. Shriner.

Mrs. Cyrus Stayner visited her son, L. W., recently, on her way up to Palisade.

Otto Ballew, brakeman, left for his Missouri home, Monday, to spend the holidays.

Mrs. Hiram Thrailkill expects shortly to follow her husband who is now in California.

Auditor J. G. Taylor's mother, aged 73 years, died at Seward, Nebraska, on Sunday last.

Mrs. C. W. Bronson was called to Minden, Tuesday, by the serious illness of her sister-in-law.

T. R. Foster of Galesburg has been appointed division master mechanic at Billings, Montana.

Brakeman J. F. Custer was summoned to Blue Springs, Tuesday, by the serious illness of his father.

There is some talk of taking the stock extra of the St. Francis line on account of lack of business.

Conductor T. M. Munday went up to Denver, Monday night, returning home Wednesday morning.

Trainmaster Kenyon was a Denver visitor, Saturday night. He returned home Monday evening.

Fred W. Bosworth came down from Denver to attend the funeral of the late Captain John Archibald.

Mrs. B. V. Haley and Miss Lizzie Carroll were guests of Mrs. D. McPhee, at Arapahoe, part of last week.

H. G. Borneman and wife went up to Denver, Sunday night, returning home on No. 2, Tuesday morning.

J. H. Burns and O. S. Burnett have joined the fanciers of chickens, especially those of the game variety.

Conductor and Mrs. M. O. McClure left, yesterday morning, to spend a few weeks at his old home in Indiana.

Brakeman H. D. Carter and wife indulged in a trip to Hastings, Monday morning, returning home on No. 5.

Brakeman L. E. Smith has just returned to McCook. He says he has traveled over parts of nine different states, and finds no company more prosperous than the Burlington.

Sam Gilchrist was down from Akron, Wednesday. Sam recently lost two or three fingers in the Akron yard, on which account he has the sympathy of all the boys among whom he is popular as he deserves to be.

H. J. Crandall, brother of F. E. Crandall who was killed near Bloomington, last July, lost his left hand, this week, while coupling cars down in Missouri where he is railroading. Harry's many McCook friends will deeply sympathize with him.

Ed. Farrell was up from the neighborhood of Lebanon, Wednesday, for the purpose of making an eight year proof on his claim. He had not figured the time properly, however, and was not able to make proof as contemplated. He is preparing to go to California to engage in railroading.

Mrs. George E. Leming and sister Miss Sarah Knowles will spend Christmas with Red Cloud relatives and friends. The household goods will be shipped to Sheridan, Wyoming, tomorrow. The ladies will go on to Wyoming from Red Cloud. They carry with them the best wishes of many friends here for their prosperity and happiness in their new home.

Oscar Yarger, the genial superintendent, in his characterization of "Captain Tarpaulian" was an important character, and won liberal praise. His acting was up to the standard, and his singing was superb. He possesses a smooth, pleasant voice, and sang alone with fine feeling. His part was very much like that of Stewart Albright's as "Roy Sterling," another of Bonnie's admirers.—Red Cloud Argus.

Mrs. George Hartman of McCook visited relatives in Haigler, a few days this week. The B. & M. bridge gang are at work, this week, building snow fence along the line in this vicinity. There are now about thirty men, mostly Russians, employed on the ballasting gang working a few miles west of town. B. E. Ridgway, foreman of the east section, was transferred, Monday morning, to the foremanship of the Laird section. Wm. Rice, foreman of the west section, takes Barney's place and Jacob Sert, foreman of the ballasting gang, takes Rice's section.—Haigler News.

Engineer W. D. Trout writes from Sheridan that they are well pleased with that country since getting moved and settled. That living is a little cheaper than in McCook, except house rent, which is high. Dell, by the way, was running engine 290 which was in a wreck, the other day. He was heading into the side track at Como, for No. 41, when the engine truck wheels went down the main track and the drivers side track. Fortunately the engine did not tip over. The fact that they were going very slowly alone prevented serious wreck. As it was Dell was the only one injured and he but slightly, while the 290 just struck the side of engine 124 which was pulling No. 41, and the damage was light.

John Archibald Passes Away.

Tuesday morning at 11:30 o'clock, after a brief illness, the sturdy spirit of brave old John Archibald willingly winged its flight to Its Maker. To his surviving devoted wife and children his death was deeply sad, though not unexpected. The funeral took place Thursday afternoon at two o'clock, from the Methodist church, services being conducted by Rev. A. G. Forman, and interment following in Longview cemetery of our city. A large audience of sympathizing friends filled the church and followed the remains to their last resting place.

The floral offerings were charming; the anchor, ship and wreath being especially appropriate and lovely.

John Archibald was born in Fifeshire, Scotland, September 18th, 1823, and died in McCook, Nebraska, December 18th, 1894, aged 71 years, 3 months. From his Scottish parentage he inherited a magnificent physique and a noble mind, and the stirring events of his active life are an inspiration. At the age of seven he removed to Bristol, England, with his parents, going to sea at 15 and becoming an apprentice on a merchantman. He served in this vessel until the close of the West Indies, making numerous voyages and seeing many important cities of the world. In shipwreck once he was the only survivor. After seven years in the merchant marine, he joined the British navy and was commissioned an officer of the Hibernia, in which vessel he made a four year's cruise in the Mediterranean, and on the completion of which, for honorable conduct, he was given a revenue station on the southwest coast of Ireland. After four and a half years in this service, he was placed on Her Majesty's good flag ship, The Duke of Wellington, commanded by Sir Charles Napier. He served in this vessel until the close of the famous Crimean war, in which he was severely injured by having a tree shelled from under him while ashore on observation. At the close of this war he came to America, and his sea-faring life naturally drew him to the water, and for a quarter of a century he navigated the Great Lakes. He was captain of the Gertie, owned by millionaire George L. Dunlap of Chicago, for twenty years, only resigning when compelled by ill health. Three years since he came to McCook in the hope that his declining health might be benefited. Vain hope. His ragged constitution, impaired by so many years of service, was beyond the reach of even this atmosphere's potent influence; and his steps became less elastic and more feeble with each recurring day. About three weeks ago he was suddenly taken down upon what he recognized as his death-bed, and he was fully prepared for the last great change.

Captain John Archibald was a loving husband, a doting, indulgent father, and a sterling citizen. His pride in his family is illustrated in his own words, "I have never had cause to be ashamed of any of my children."

While in the revenue service in Ireland, at the age of twenty-seven, he married Miss Dora Bennett. There have been ten children born of this happy union, of which seven still survive, together with his faithful companion in life, namely: Mrs. Harry Tyler, R. B. Archibald and William Archibald of our city; Mrs. F. W. Bosworth of Denver, Colorado; Mrs. N. Morrell of Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Mrs. J. K. Ford of Ft. Howard, Wisconsin; Mrs. Ed. Skinner of Chicago, Illinois.

Thus has terminated an eventful, useful life, worthy of emulation. The bereaved wife and children have the deep and profound sympathy of the entire community.

Special Clearing Sale.
Your attention is especially directed to the "Special Clearing Sale" advertisement of C. L. DeGross & Co. appearing in this issue. They are announcing unprecedented bargains in Dry Goods, Clothing, Groceries and in fact of everything in their line. It is a marvelous money-saving sale. Call and investigate for yourself. This is no cheap clap-net, but business. Shelves must and will be cleared for the annual January inventory.

Tut, Tut, Colonel.
District court convened Monday, transacted some business and postponed more, adjourning Tuesday evening to January 20th, 1895. It was evident that the McCook contingent that attended considered this the last session of district court for Indianola. Wonder if His Honor don't wish it might be. We would think the traitor would feel like hiding his head in shame in the presence of honest men.—Indianola Courier.

Got It Very Bad.
Among the many things seen at McCook, Tuesday, while down there, was the ravages of the disease known as alfalfa fever. Strong men are broke up over it, and infants nurse it from the mother's breast. Col. A. S. Campbell, late steward of the Hastings asylum, now register of the land office, has it bad and sees alfalfa hay stacks like a man does snakes after him, continuous and prolonged jags.—Hastings Democrat.

The Calico Ball.
The calico ball and oyster supper in the Temple hall, last evening, was very largely attended and a most delightful affair. The ladies in their vari-colored garments of calico made a scene of amusing proportions. The crowd was large and gay. The music good. Supper ditto. Everybody had a happy time, and the Lady Maccabees are to be congratulated upon the success thereof.

Card of Thanks.
We feel truly grateful to all the friends and neighbors for their manifold kindnesses and never-tiring helpfulness during our late sorrow and bereavement.

Mrs. JOHN ARCHIBALD & FAMILY.
Best Fancy Patent flour at $1.00 per sack, $1.95 per hundred, at Knipple's.

Grandpa's Birthday.

The entertainment given in the church by the children of the Methodist Sunday school, last Saturday evening, was in every respect a gratifying success, about $16.00 being realized with which to provide a Christmas treat for the school. The cantata was preceded by the following literary and musical program, in which the several performers acquitted themselves very creditably and to the appreciation of the large audience present:

PROGRAMME.
Chorus..... School
Invocation..... Superintendent
Music..... Orchestra
Recitation..... Lida Sircoloumb
Song..... School
Recitation..... Frank Francis
Music..... Orchestra
Song..... Arvilla Olcott
Recitation..... School
Song..... Kenneth Welles
Music..... Orchestra

The cantata was indeed a very pleasing effort, replete with solos, duets, dialogues, etc., and in its entirety was presented brightly and happily, with good effect. There was a chorus of a score or more and the following cast of characters:

CAST.
GRANDPA..... W. D. Beyer
Little Maud..... Eva Mitchell
May..... Alberta Davis
Claude..... Charlie Magner
Lida..... Edna Yarger
Alice..... Ida McCarl
Clara..... Blanche McCarl

The extra number, a baritone solo by Mr. Adams, a commercial traveler from Omaha, was heartily enjoyed. The work of the orchestra was effective and enjoyable. Those directing and participating are entitled to much credit.

The Sneak Thief.
That contemptible specimen of the race which people in their looting have come to denominate the sneak thief seems to be putting in full time in this vicinity. About noon on Monday some scoundrel entered the dwelling of C. A. Dixon and stole a new pocketbook containing seven or eight dollars.

Two or three other robberies and attempted robberies are reported and suspected thieves are being shadowed by the police and others. This sort of business will be discouraged, if it takes a load of shot to accomplish the purpose.

A. O. U. W. Election of Officers.
On account of the charity ball to be given in the Temple hall on Monday evening, December 31st, the election of officers of McCook lodge 61 will not take place on that evening, but has been arranged for next Monday evening, December 24th. All members of the order will do well to remember this change of date.

McCook Has No Grudge.
The Curtis Enterprise apropos of the Red Willow county-seat removal case, assumes to state that McCook has a grudge against her sister town, the present county-seat.

No, siree, McCook is too generous and manly to entertain a grudge. She simply seeks the county-seat.

In a New Role.
THE TRIBUNE has it on good authority that our former and illustrious townsman, J. Byron Jennings, last spring married a Mormon lady and that during the past summer he was baptized into the Mormon faith and church. J. Byron evidently has some ambition to gratify.

AT THE CHURCHES.
The choir of St. Patrick's church is preparing some elaborate music for Christmas, with orchestral accompaniment.

Special services will be held in St. Patrick's church, Christmas day. There will be three masses in the morning. Special music is being prepared for the occasion.

The entertainment by the Congregational Sunday school will be given in the church on Monday evening. There will be a Christmas tree and a short miscellaneous program.

A meeting of the members and friends of the Congregational church will be held, next Sunday morning, after service, to consider the matter of pulpit supply for the coming year.

Regular services in the Congregational church, Sunday morning and evening. Morning subject, "A Burden-bearing Religion." Evening subject, "Room for Him." Endeavor Society meets at the usual hour. Topic, "A Message of Peace." Miss Maud McMillen, leader.

Services in the A. O. U. W. Temple hall Sunday evening, by Pastor McBride. In the evening the children of the Bible school will have a Christmas concert with the usual distribution of gifts. Everyone cordially invited. Christian Endeavor at 6:45. Boys' Brigade at 3 p. m., sharp. At the church service Sunday evening the following officers were appointed for the Boys' Brigade: Civil—C. T. Watson, president; William Myers, Secretary; James Bomgardner, treasurer. Military—Fred Brewer, captain; Earl Kelley, 1st lieutenant; Walter Boyle, 2d lieutenant; William Myers, orderly sergeant; Fred Irwin, 2d sergeant; Roy Miller, 1st corporal; Archie Utter, 2d corporal; James Irwin, 3d corporal; D. L. McBride, military instructor.

Engineer Harry Tyler had an exciting but fortunate runaway, yesterday afternoon. He was driving to Maddux's barn one of the carriage teams used at the funeral. Coming down Main avenue the horses ran away with him at a terrific rate of speed. He finally stopped the runaways out on east Dennis street, without damage or injury. Harry prefers driving an engine, anyhow.

Our advertisers have undertaken to edit the paper, this week, and the careful reader will readily observe and appreciate how fully they have succeeded.

Mass Convention.
An irrigation ditch is being surveyed in East Valley precinct. Ed. and Hiram Allen of Furnas county are the promoters, and it is stated that Judge Welty is interested in the project.

When it comes to enjoying a practical joke Troxel takes the cake—at least he took the one that came by express, Wednesday, paid the charges and then set 'em up to the boys. Hey, what.

The police had a plain unvarnished drunk in the cooler, on Tuesday night. Police Judge Berry let the individual go, next morning, with a strong admonition to forego the flowing bowl in future.

Noble's stock of queensware is admitted to be the finest in the Republican valley, and then, too, the prices are so reasonable that you just can't resist buying when you see the display and learn the figures.

Include THE TRIBUNE in the list of Christmas presents and in your New Year resolutions. If not a subscriber you ought to be. If you are in arrears drop a dollar or two in the editor's sock. It will come in handy just now.

The independent patriots of Red Willow county, as will be seen by Chairman Smith's little dodger, will meet in Indianola, next Saturday week, for the purpose of making a "ten-strike" for liberty. Go, and take your reason with you.

Will Sanders and sister, Miss Gertie, went to McCook, Tuesday. Will has been having considerable trouble lately caused by his attack of appendicitis and will have another operation performed by Dr. Waters of McCook.—Stoville Republican.

We understand that C. Armstrong of Culbertson has rented the south store room of the Temple building on Main ave. and will place therein a stock of general merchandise. There is nothing McCook needs so urgently now as a few more business houses.

The firm of Carson & West, proprietors of the Sunny Side Dairy, have by mutual consent dissolved partnership. The company in future will be made up of Andrew Carson and Horace Taylor, who will conduct the business from the old stand, Mr. West retiring.

The bureau of animal industry as a result of experiments finds the following the best remedy for the hog cholera and the swine plague: Wood charcoal, sulphur sodium sulphate, and antimony sulphide,—one pound each. Sodium chloride, sodium bi-carbonate and sodium hyposulphite—two pounds each; to be pulverized, mixed and dose given daily of a large tablespoonful for each 200 pounds weight of hogs. It may be used as a preventive and should be given a whole herd. They should be kept in dry quarters and away from drafts.

Snowflake flour at 75 cents a sack. In 500 pound lots, $1.40 per hundred, at Knipple's.

Good writing paper ten cents a quire at this office.

To Organize for Aid.

INDIANOLA NEB., Dec. 17, 1894.
A meeting of the citizens of the county was held at the council chamber at Indianola, December 17th, 1894, at 7:30 p. m., for the purpose of forming an organization for the purpose of distributing aid sent to Red Willow county. The meeting was called to order by C. J. Ryan. On motion G. W. Roper was elected chairman and C. W. Beck secretary. Moved that a committee of five be appointed to act as a county central committee, carried. On motion the county commissioners were elected three of such committee. On motion J. B. Meserve and J. H. Bayston were elected to complete the committee.

Committee met at the court house at the close of the mass meeting and elected the following officers: C. J. Ryan, chairman; J. H. Bayston, secretary; J. B. Meserve, treasurer. Adjourned to meet at the office of the secretary at 1:30 p. m., December 18th.

INDIANOLA, December 18, 1894.
Meeting called to order by the chairman. On motion the first and third Wednesdays were selected as the date of holding regular meetings. On motion the following named persons were elected as a committee of three from each precinct to distribute aid:

Alliance, J. E. Rishel, Rev. J. M. Mann, John P. Reiter; Beaver, A. P. Bodwell, Rev. Webster, Wm. Sullivan; Bondville, Nick Uhren, Joe Carter, Rev. Morris; Box Elder, W. X. Johnson, John Modrell, Rev. Vivian; Coleman, John W. Smith, W. M. Rozell, Sam McClain; Danbury, Sam Graham, H. W. Naden, E. M. Wood; Driftwood, J. H. Wade, Joe Schmidt, R. Grimes; East Valley, Ashbury Beyer, Jake Stenner, Arthur Miller; Fritch, John Barber, Joe Behnke, M. Rink; Gerver, John Gathercole, Henry Richardson, Dick Green; Grant, Frank Cain, Wm. Gold, August Wesch; Indianola, Rev. Crago, Geo. W. Burt, Rev. B. Sproll; Lebanon, D. A. Waterman, Nelson West, A. C. Bartholomew; Missouri Ridge, H. H. Hickman; Valley Grange, Rev. J. E. Terrill, Felix Will, H. H. Piekens; Willow Grove, H. H. Mitchell, Tom Ruggles, Rev. Deletke.

Other details were then attended to and the meeting adjourned.

The county committee is to work without pay and it is hoped that all the precinct committees appointed will take hold of the work for the good of the suffering needy. It is suggested that the precinct committee meet and organize immediately. A blank form of bill and receipt combined will be sent to each committee so that they can keep an account of the supplies given out.

J. H. BAYSTON, Secretary.

Well Hardly.
"Indianola people claim that No. 2 passenger is run through that town for the purpose of creating an unfavorable impression of the town, and a favorable one for McCook, says the Danbury News.

Well hardly. If for no other reason, for the very good and sufficient one that McCook can and does create her own favorable impression. Our Indianola friends are simply mistaken.

During the Holidays
L. Lowman & Son are making discounts extraordinary in Millinery and Cloaks, and a deep cut in fact on all goods in their establishment. See their advertisement on another page in this issue. The opportunity is such that no one can afford to let it go by unprofitably.
