

THIRTEENTH YEAR.

Among the guests were.

14

McCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL. 26, 1895.

McCook Tribune.

NUMBER 49

A BIRTHDAY SURPRISE.	A nice variety of ink and pencil tab- lets at this office.	Field Day of Athletic Association.	I LUILL IVU KNOW.	"There was a girl in our town, The wheels her head did choke;	Bulletin No. 3, for Week Ending April 22d.
A Very Agreeable and Cleverly ' Managed Party.	A. P. Bodwell of Lebanon was granted	The following are the results of the contests of the Practice Field Day held by the Athletic Association of the Mc-	JOHN MAHANNA has returned to the city.	She'd speak so gol-darned awful fast You couldn't see a spoke."	The general rains of last week, supple- mented in most localities by showers
On last Saturday Mr. C. L. DeGroff passed another mile stone in life's jour-	a pension, this week. Victor and Crescent bicyles. C. A.	Cook Public Schools, on the McCook base ball grounds, Saturday afternoon, April 20th, 1895:		House for rent, cheap. W. H. Davis.	during the week just passed, have helped vegetables along well, although in many parts of the state the need of rain is be ey and the occasion was duly celebrated	Leach, exclusive agent.	Base Ball Throw-First, Abner Clark,		Consult Holmes Bros., the carpenters.	ginning to be felt.
y a surprise party engineered by Mrs.	Take a bottle of McConnell's Sarsapa-	105 yards. Second, John Mullen, 93 yards,	from California soon.	Buy a patent lever hose coupler from	The temperature has been above the normal, ranging from two degrees above eGroff, who was ably assisted in her reparations by Mesdames S. E. Taylor		2 feet. Putting the Shot-First, Michael O'-	REV. J. K. TYSON of Lincoln was a	Cochran & Co.	the average in the southwestern section
id H. H. Troth.	Screen doors and wire cloth, all sizes,	Leary, 39 feet, 7 inches. Second, Frank	city visitor, Wednesday.	Fresh milch cow for sale. Inquire of	eight degrees above in the northweste Invitations were out for 6:30 o'clock, and the guests were at once invited into	for sale by Cochran & Co.	Henderson, 38 feet, 2 inches, Throwing the Hammer—First, Michael	A. N. NETTLETON is on his way home from Longmont, Colorado.		section. There has been about the average amount of sunshine. Several from he dining room, where the guests were		O'Leary, 60 feet. Second, Knud Stange-		Try McMillen's Damask Rose Lotion	occurred during the week, but no da age is reported.
ated at small tables in groups of four			this week, for Longmont, Colorado.	for face and hands.	The precipitation has been less th y states. The several tables were pret- ly set with appropriate wares and nap-		Standing High Jump-First, James H. Fowler, 4 feet, 5 inches. Second, Michael	JUDGE RHEA of Holdrege was here,	A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. W.	normal, quite irregularly distributed a
y, a beautiful carnation occupying each	Cocuran & co. nandie the best Re-	O'Leary, 4 feet, 41/2 inches.	Tuesday, on business of his profession.		over considerable area entirely wanti
ate. The refreshments, which were	ingentors in the markets in inge stock	Running High Jump-First, Michael	W.W. FISHER and William Sims were		In the condition of crops and the p tractive and appetizing, were served	i now on nand.	O'Leary, 4 feet, 6 inches.	down from Wauneta, last Friday night.	For Insurance on Farms and City	gress of farm work the season is from Misses Ona Simon, Ethel Oyster,	the second se	Standing Broad Jump-First, Michael		property call on C. J. RYAN.	week to ten days earlier than usu aude Doan, Pearl Brewer and Addie		O'Leary. 9 feet, 234 inches. Second, J			Corn planting is generally under way
oan. During the serving, music both	parilla is the best thing to use.	H. Fowler, 9 feet, 1/2 inch.	was the guest of Miss Mary Walters over	The Quick Meal Gasoline Stove is sold	the southwestern section of the sta strumental and vocal, was produced in		Running Broad Jump-First, Michael	Sunday.	by Cochran & Co. They are the best on	and is begun in scattered localities o a adjacent parlor by Mr. F. A. Thomp-		O'Leary, 14 feet, 81/2 inches. Second,	J. M. BELL of Benkelman was down to	earth.	the state generally excepting in the we on, Misses Ellington Wilson, Florence	and a support of the second	Frank Henderson, 14 feet, 6 inches.	the metropolis, Tuesday, on some mat-	One car of Frontier county corn will	ern and northwestern sections.
hompson and Lillian Troth, which was	- A set of the set	100-Yards Handicap-First, J. H. Fow-	ters of business.	be shipped to and distributed from this	Small grain continues to grow w pleasing and unique feature. Miss		ler, time 1114 seconds. Second, Michael	GEORGE LEACH and others are pre-	station.	and shows a good stand. Grass 1
Vilson's vocal solo was especially praise-	Cochran & Co. carry in stock the Olds,	O'Leary.	paring a tennis court in the standpipe	An exchange claims that good driving	grown rapidly and is now sufficient orthy.	Charter Oak and Bain farm wagons.	50-Yards Dash-First, Frank Hen-	block, this week.	horses will be higher than a cat's back,	support stock. Alfalfa that was so High five was the game of the evening	There are none better in the market.	derson, time 61 seconds. Second, J H.		by next fall. Or cheaper than dirt.	in previous years has grown well and nd it was pursued with the usual inter-		Fowler.	F. H. SPEARMAN was out from Omaha,		unusual acreage put in this spring. E t and vigor until a late hour, when it	Refrigerators, gasoline stoves, screen	1/2-Mile Bicycle Race-First, Ray Mc-	last Friday and Saturday, looking after	The city marshal had to lock up a far-	ly planted potatoes are coming up.
as found that there were four candi-		Carl, time 36 seconds. Second, Fred	his large interests here.	mer named Ryan, for a while Saturday,	In Red Willow county fall grain
ates for the evening's honors, Mesdames	Cochran & Co.	Brewer.	OSCAR RUSSELL, T. M. Phillippi and	for being intoxicated and disorderly.	about a failure. Spring wheat is loo
. H. Easterday and H. P. Sutton and		1/2-Mile Bicycle Race-First, Ray Mc-	William Patterson expect to start for		ing green, but the acreage will be she essrs. Orville Burnett and F. M. Kim-		Carl, time 1 minute, 47 seconds.	Wyoming, first of next week.	Because a man writes an anonymous	Grass is doing exceedingly well.
	into a ditch district as provided by the	Owing to the wind only one heat of	GRANDMA BERRY left on 2, Wednes-	letter is no reason he should be filled	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · nd Mr. Burnett the gentleman's. Mrs.	Akers' irrigation law.	the 3/3-mile bicycle race was run.	day morning, for Chicago, Virginia, and	full of buckshot. Smaller ones will do.	County Teachers' Association trasser and Mr. Easterday respectively		LOUIS THORGRIMSON, Supervisor.	other Illinois points on a visit.	D	Following is the program of the B aptured the lady's and gentleman's		J. SPAAN, Manager of Athletics.		Deputy Collector Ballew celebrated	Willow County Teachers' Association
ooby prizes.	among the attractions of Decoration day				be held in Danbury, May 10, 1895:
A contract of the contraction and and a second second	will be some pretty swift biovole racing	The New Ball Nozzle	ger of Imperial came down the branch,	nne lot of shade trees about his premises.	FORFNOON SESSION

Messrs. and Mesdames C. F. Babcock,	This information is soon-but official.	The new "ball nozzle" is all the rage	Monday evening, on their way east.	Fifteen (15) cents will buy a box of	Music
Jacob Burnett, Frank Kendlen, F. M.	and the second sec	in the east. The force which holds a	BANKERS FRANKLIN of our city and	nice writing paper at this office, con-	Devotional Exercises
Kimmell, H. H. Troth, W. S. Morlan, J.	Tuesday, C. S. King traded a 70 acre	ball in the nozzle of a hose when the	Callahan of Benkelman went in to Lin-	taining 24 sheets of paper and 24 envel-	RecitationAltha McKee Address of WelcomePhilip Gleim
F. Kenyon, A. S. Campbell, Orville Bur-	tract of land in Iowa to S. R. Seamands	water is turned on, causing a beautiful	coln, Wednesday night, on business.	opes.	Instrumental MusicMiss Grace Curlee nett, Samuel Strasser, H. H. Easterday,	of Grant precinct for his quarter section	spray to be formed, is utterly confound-	JUDGE ABBOTT of the Hayes Center		AFTERNOON SESSION-1:30.
Patrick Gibbons, J.E.Allen, E. H. Doan,	of land over in that precinct. King is not faithless, but believing, in Red Wil-	ing the wise man. The fact that a ball	Republican had a little husiness here	The celebrated Charter Oak cooking	Music
J. W. Hupp, J. E. Kelley, C. T. Brewer,		would remain in the mouth of a nozzle	last might actuation house this meaning		"The Legal Relation of Teacher to
S. E. Taylor. Mesdames H. P. Sutton,	low county soil.	and refuse to fly out even under the		M. Cochran & Co. It is the best in the	Pupil and Patron",C. A. Whittaker Discussion, G. F. Godown, Wm Valentine
A. Campbell, G. W. Conner, W. C. La-	The and annual consist of the grand	highest pressure, was discovered by acci-	W. R. BUTLER, an Omaha traveling	market.	"How to Present Fractions", Miss Allison
Tourette and C. D. Lyon of Milo, Iowa.	The 23d annual session of the grand commandery, Knights Templar cf Neb-	dent, it is said, by a citizen of Des	man, spent the early days of the week	A portion of the Penner harness stock	Discussion Irvin Hopt, Fred Headley
It was in its every feature one of the	raska, convened on Tuesday afternoon in	Moines, who got a potato in the nozzle	in the city. Mrs. Butler accompanied	was attached, Tuesday, by eastern par-	Select Reading most unique and felicitous social affairs	the Omaha Masonic hall. There were	of his hose and could not take it out	him.	ties. The business continues as usual,	"How to Interest Boy or Girl in the Study of Good Books". J. H. Fowler held in the city in a long while.	about 50 delegates present, T. G. Rees,	until the water was turned off. Now	C. P. HUBBARD, L. H. Blackledge and	however.	Disc'n, Florence Moore, Lillian Welborn grand standard bearer, representing No.	these manufacturers are making the ball	G. G Eisenhart of Culbertson made a
The City Fathers.	16 of our city.	nozzles almost by the million, and they	business pilgrimage to our shores, last	The McCook Electric Light Co. put	At Cost. At Cost.
The council met in regular session,		are causing much wonder and specula-	Sunday.	up a new smoke stack, this week, re- placing the one recently damaged by the	For two weeks we offer the remainder
Monday evening, present full board ex-		tion wherever they go. The firemen are	T. G. REES went in to Omaha, Mon-		of our Clothing and Hats at cost. Now cept Councilman Pope. A resolution		already using them to put out incipient	day night, to attend the session of the		is the time, look them over.
was passed transferring $91.03 from the		fires. They say they can march through	Masonic grand lodge, of which he is a	we understand that the city authori-	In ordered clothing we are having a occupation tax fund to the general fund.	states that postmasters may observe as	a building sending a wall of spray before	-	ties have set the seal of official disap-	splendid run. Six suits on Monday for Bills as follows were allowed:	holidays January I, February 22, May 30,	them that drives out the smoke better	member.	proval on this raffling business, which	instance. Prices and quality tell.
	July 4, the first Monday in September,	than a draught of air. There is no back	MRS. C. D. LYON of Milo, Iowa, arriv-	is eminently correct.	Boneless ham, choice quality, we are
C. W. Barnes	known as Labor day December 25 and	pressure from one of these nozzies, a			having a big run on this, also on regular
Predmore Bros 1.60	and other dame on the president of	thing that is also very much of a mys-		Cochran & Co are receiving their stock	Winchester hams and breakfast bacon.
McCook Electric Light Co 100.00	such other days as the president of the United States or the governors of the	tery. One man can handle a hose	L. DeGroff.	of implements for the spring trade. Call	and Sharmon and the Sharmon and a second second second second second second Shares and the second second second
A. G. Bump 39.00 H. W. Cole 4.00		equipped in this way easier than two can	PRESIDENT HOCKNELL arrived home,	and inspect their line, which is the most	Creamery butter 20c per pound. We can fill all orders for this in a few days.
[. F. Ganschow 400	states in which they remain may any	without the new device.	from California, Sunday morning on No.	complete in the city.	Contract now for the season.
I. T. Benjamin 3 00	nate as fast or thanksgiving days or pro-		2. The family will not be home for a claim specially as holidays. On other	A Merry Ball.	few weeks yet.	At the post office they did not "catch	Hebron flour, three grade, all good.
L. R. Hileman	occasions their offices can be closed only	Last Saturday evening a large compa-	ien needs jeel	on" to the fact that Monday was a legal	"White Bread" now 75c per sack.
G. Orman	after permission obtained from the de- partment. On holidays postoffices must	ny of invited guests gathered at the com-	MR. AND MRS. C. L. BUSH of the Com-	holiday until afternoon. They did not	Give us a call. MCCOOK MERCANTILE CO.
O 111 D	partment. On nondays postomees must		mercial hotel departed, Thursday morn-	lose any time in the afternoon.	MCCOOK MERCANTILE CO.
	be opened sufficiently to meet fairly the public convenience.	Valley Grange precinct and enjoyed a	ing, for Union City, Penna., on a visit of	F. M. Kimmell has a prime new bi-	Are You Subsolling.
M a Shalding 200	Dublic convenience.	rancy orange precince and enjoyed a		F. M. KHUHEH HAS A DITURE HEW DIT
	•		two or three weeks.		No superior in informal and doubt for
T. M. Phillippi	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr.		cycle for sale at almost half price. See	No one who is informed can doubt for
T. M. Phillippi	It isn't the amount of religion a man	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulhol-	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly	cycle for sale at almost half price. See him without delay. The first responsi-	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to
T. M. Phillippi. 3 00 Charles Weintz 3 00 G. W. Starr 3 00 M. E. Horner 3 00	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulhol- land, who is a guest in the Dutton	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis-	cycle for sale at almost half price. See him without delay. The first responsi-	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep
T. M. Phillippi. 3 00 Charles Weintz 3 00 G. W. Starr 3 00 M. E. Horner 3 00 J. E. Spaan 3 00	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses.	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulhol- land, who is a guest in the Dutton household.	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home	cycle for sale at almost balf price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain.	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the
T. M. Phillippi. 3 00 Charles Weintz 3 00 G. W. Starr 3 00 M. E. Horner 3 00 J. E. Spaan 3 00 C. F. Heber 3 00	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulhol- land, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for	cycle for sale at almost half price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to
T. M. Phillippi. 3 00 Charles Weintz 3 00 G. W. Starr 3 00 M. E. Horner. 3 00 J. E. Spaan 3 00 C. F. Heber 3 00 A. L. Hall 3 00	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulhol- land, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours.	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home	cycle for sale at almost half price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the
T. M. Phillippi. 300 Charles Weintz 300 G. W. Starr 300 M. E. Horner 300 J. E. Spaan 300 C. F. Heber 300 A. L. Hall 300 W. H. Davis 300 J. H. Yarger 300	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min-	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulhol- land, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attract-	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time.	cycle for sale at almost half price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed
T. M. Phillippi. 300 Charles Weintz 300 G. W. Starr 300 M. E. Horner 300 J. E. Spaan 300 C. F. Heber 300 A. L. Hall 300 W. H. Davis 300 J. H. Yarger 300 C. T. Beggs. 300	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas-	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulhol- land, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attract- ive. There were a number of spectators	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the	cycle for sale at almost half price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just mention the fact. We'll make a pilgrim-	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to
T. M. Phillippi. 3 00 Charles Weintz 3 00 G. W. Starr 3 00 M. E. Horner 3 00 J. E. Spaan 3 00 C. F. Heber 3 00 A. L. Hall 3 00 J. H. Yarger 3 00 C. T. Beggs. 3 00 C. F. Lehn 3 00	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas- ant smile for all, including his wife and	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulhol- land, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attract- ive. There were a number of spectators and they seemed to enjoy the occasion	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the clerkship of the St. Charles hotel, first	cycle for sale at almost half price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to be solved; and nothing will so fully ac-
T. M. Phillippi. 3 00 Charles Weintz 3 00 G. W. Starr 3 00 M. E. Horner 3 00 J. E. Spaan 3 00 C. F. Heber 3 00 A. L. Hall 3 00 J. H. Yarger 3 00 C. T. Beggs. 3 00 C. F. Lehn 3 00 A. N. Allen 3 00	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas- ant smile for all, including his wife and children! who never swears or kicks the	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulhol- land, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attract- ive. There were a number of spectators and they seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as the dancers.	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the clerkship of the St. Charles hotel, first of the week. He went up to Wauneta, on	cycle for sale at almost half price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just mention the fact. We'll make a pilgrim-	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to be solved; and nothing will so fully ac- complish this indispensible requirement
T. M. Phillippi. 300 Charles Weintz 300 G. W. Starr 300 M. E. Horner 300 J. E. Spaan 300 C. F. Heber 300 A. L. Hall 300 J. H. Yarger 300 C. T. Beggs. 300 C. F. Lehn 300 A. N. Allen 300 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas- ant smile for all, including his wife and children! who never swears or kicks the dog when he ought to kick himself, who	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulhol- land, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attract- ive. There were a number of spectators and they seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as the dancers. The guests were:	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the clerkship of the St. Charles hotel, first of the week. He went up to Wauneta, on Tuesday morning, expecting a similar	cycle for sale at almost balf price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just mention the fact. We'll make a pilgrim- age to see it.	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to be solved; and nothing will so fully ac-
T. M. Phillippi. 3 00 Charles Weintz 3 00 G. W. Starr. 3 00 M. E. Horner. 3 00 J. E. Spaan. 3 00 C. F. Heber 3 00 A. L. Hall. 3 00 J. H. Yarger. 3 00 C. F. Lehn 3 00 A. N. Allen. 3 00 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous choice for president of the council.	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas- ant smile for all, including his wife and children! who never swears or kicks the dog when he ought to kick himself, who speaks well of people when their backs	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulhol- land, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attract- ive. There were a number of spectators and they seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as the dancers. The guests were: Misses Belle Spry, Lena McMurrin,	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the clerkship of the St. Charles hotel, first of the week. He went up to Wauneta, on Tuesday morning, expecting a similar position in a hotel there.	cycle for sale at almost half price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just mention the fact. We'll make a pilgrim- age to see it. McCook's base ball prospects have been temporarily crippled, at least, as one of the results of the late city elec-	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to be solved; and nothing will so fully ac- complish this indispensible requirement as deep plowing and subsoiling.
T. M. Phillippi	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas- ant smile for all, including his wife and children! who never swears or kicks the dog when he ought to kick himself, who speaks well of people when their backs are turned and under all circumstances	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulhol- land, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attract- ive. There were a number of spectators and they seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as the dancers. The guests were: Misses Belle Spry, Lena McMurrin, Anna Mnlholland, and Misses Lunkwitz.	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the clerkship of the St. Charles hotel, first of the week. He went up to Wauneta, on Tuesday morning, expecting a similar position in a hotel there. MESSRS. G. G. EISENHART, W. S.	cycle for sale at almost half price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just mention the fact. We'll make a pilgrim- age to see it. McCook's base ball prospects have been temporarily crippled, at least, as one of the results of the late city elec- tion. It is easier to tear asunder than it	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to be solved; and nothing will so fully ac- complish this indispensible requirement as deep plowing and subsoiling. Mrs. Modi Dead.
T. M. Phillippi. 3 000 Charles Weintz 3 000 G. W. Starr 3 000 M. E. Horner 3 000 J. E. Spaan 3 000 C. F. Heber 3 000 A. L. Hall 3 000 J. H. Yarger 3 000 J. H. Yarger 3 000 G. T. Beggs. 3 000 C. F. Lehn 3 000 A. N. Allen 3 000 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous choice for president of the council. The Mayor announced his appointment of Ed. Jordan as chief of police and Howe Smith as night policeman, and	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas- ant smile for all, including his wife and children! who never swears or kicks the dog when he ought to kick himself, who speaks well of people when their backs are turned and under all circumstances keeps an even mind—that man doesn't	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulhol- land, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attract- ive. There were a number of spectators and they seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as the dancers. The guests were: Misses Belle Spry, Lena McMurrin, Anna Mnlholland, and Misses Lunkwitz. Messrs.William Esher, Ernest Marquardt,	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the clerkship of the St. Charles hotel, first of the week. He went up to Wauneta, on Tuesday morning, expecting a similar position in a hotel there. MESSRS. G. G. EISENHART, W. S. Cornutt, J. A. Kirk and A. H. Miller of	cycle for sale at almost half price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just mention the fact. We'll make a pilgrim- age to see it. McCook's base ball prospects have been temporarily crippled, at least, as one of the results of the late city elec-	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to be solved; and nothing will so fully ac- complish this indispensible requirement as deep plowing and subsoiling. Mrs. Modi Dead. The many warm friends of that esti-
T. M. Phillippi	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas- ant smile for all, including his wife and children! who never swears or kicks the dog when he ought to kick himself, who speaks well of people when their backs are turned and under all circumstances keeps an even mind—that man doesn't have to die to go to heaven. He gets to	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulhol- land, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attract- ive. There were a number of spectators and they seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as the dancers. The guests were: Misses Belle Spry, Lena McMurrin, Anna Mnlholland, and Misses Lunkwitz. Messrs. William Esher, Ernest Marquardt, C. A. Leach, Charles Younce, Nicholas	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the clerkship of the St. Charles hotel, first of the week. He went up to Wauneta, on Tuesday morning, expecting a similar position in a hotel there. MESSRS. G. G. EISENHART, W. S. Cornutt, J. A. Kirk and A. H. Miller of Culbertson were down on a Masonic mis-	cycle for sale at almost half price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just mention the fact. We'll make a pilgrim- age to see it. McCook's base ball prospects have been temporarily crippled, at least, as one of the results of the late city elec- tion. It is easier to tear asunder than it is to build up.	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to be solved; and nothing will so fully ac- complish this indispensible requirement as deep plowing and subsoiling. Mrs. Modi Dead. The many warm friends of that esti- mable lady, in Red Willow county, will
T. M. Phillippi. 3 000 Charles Weintz 3 000 G. W. Starr 3 000 M. E. Horner 3 000 J. E. Spaan 3 000 C. F. Heber 3 000 A. L. Hall 3 000 J. H. Yarger 3 000 J. H. Yarger 3 000 G. T. Beggs. 3 000 C. F. Lehn 3 000 A. N. Allen 3 000 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous choice for president of the council. The Mayor announced his appointment of Ed. Jordan as chief of police and Howe Smith as night policeman, and	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas- ant smile for all, including his wife and children! who never swears or kicks the dog when he ought to kick himself, who speaks well of people when their backs are turned and under all circumstances keeps an even mind—that man doesn't have to die to go to heaven. He gets to feel happy all the time as a matter of	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulhol- land, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attract- ive. There were a number of spectators and they seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as the dancers. The guests were: Misses Belle Spry, Lena McMurrin, Anna Mnlholland, and Misses Lunkwitz. Messrs.William Esher, Ernest Marquardt, C. A. Leach, Charles Younce, Nicholas Snyder, P. A. Wells, Lincoln Cox, H. P.	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the clerkship of the St. Charles hotel, first of the week. He went up to Wauneta, on Tuesday morning, expecting a similar position in a hotel there. MESSRS. G. G. EISENHART, W. S. Cornutt, J. A. Kirk and A. H. Miller of Culbertson were down on a Masonic mis- sion, Tuesday evening. McCook is the	cycle for sale at almost half price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just mention the fact. We'll make a pilgrim- age to see it. McCook's base ball prospects have been temporarily crippled, at least, as one of the results of the late city elec- tion. It is easier to tear asunder than it is to build up. Chief of Police Jordan and a detach-	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to be solved; and nothing will so fully ac- complish this indispensible requirement as deep plowing and subsoiling. Mrs. Modi Dead. The many warm friends of that esti- mable lady, in Red Willow county, will be sincerely and deeply grieved to learn
T. M. Phillippi. 3 00 Charles Weintz 3 00 G. W. Starr 3 00 M. E. Horner 3 00 J. E. Spaan 3 00 C. F. Heber 3 00 A. L. Hall 3 00 J. H. Yarger 3 00 C. T. Beggs. 3 00 C. F. Lehn 3 00 A. N. Allen 3 00 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 00 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 00 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 00 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 00 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 00 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 00 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 00 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 00 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 00 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 00 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 00 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 00 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 00 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 00 Of Ed. Jordan as chi	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas- ant smile for all, including his wife and children! who never swears or kicks the dog when he ought to kick himself, who speaks well of people when their backs are turned and under all circumstances keeps an even mind—that man doesn't have to die to go to heaven. He gets to feel happy all the time as a matter of habit and takes all the dispensations of	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulhol- land, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attract- ive. There were a number of spectators and they seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as the dancers. The guests were: Misses Belle Spry, Lena McMurrin, Anna Mnlholland, and Misses Lunkwitz. Messrs. William Esher, Ernest Marquardt, C. A. Leach, Charles Younce, Nicholas Snyder, P. A. Wells, Lincoln Cox, H. P. Madison, Christian Nelson, Frank Fitch,	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the clerkship of the St. Charles hotel, first of the week. He went up to Wauneta, on Tuesday morning, expecting a similar position in a hotel there. MESSRS. G. G. EISENHART, W. S. Cornutt, J. A. Kirk and A. H. Miller of Culbertson were down on a Masonic mis- sion, Tuesday evening. McCook is the Masonic headquarters for the Upper	cycle for sale at almost half price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just mention the fact. We'll make a pilgrim- age to see it. McCook's base ball prospects have been temporarily crippled, at least, as one of the results of the late city elec- tion. It is easier to tear asunder than it is to build up. Chief of Police Jordan and a detach- ment of Russians have been preparing	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to be solved; and nothing will so fully ac- complish this indispensible requirement as deep plowing and subsoiling. Mrs. Modi Dead. The many warm friends of that esti- mable lady, in Red Willow county, will be sincerely and deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Andy Modi, which
T. M. Phillippi	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas- ant smile for all, including his wife and children! who never swears or kicks the dog when he ought to kick himself, who speaks well of people when their backs are turned and under all circumstances keeps an even mind—that man doesn't have to die to go to heaven. He gets to feel happy all the time as a matter of habit and takes all the dispensations of lufe with philosophical satisfaction —ex.	 masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulholland, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attractive. There were a number of spectators and they seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as the dancers. The guests were: Misses Belle Spry, Lena McMurrin, Anna Mnlholland, and Misses Lunkwitz. Messrs. William Esher, Ernest Marquardt, C. A. Leach, Charles Younce, Nicholas Snyder, P. A. Wells, Lincoln Cox, H. P. Madison, Christian Nelson, Frank Fitch, Roy Barnes, Michael O'Donald, John 	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the clerkship of the St. Charles hotel, first of the week. He went up to Wauneta, on Tuesday morning, expecting a similar position in a hotel there. MESSRS. G. G. EISENHART, W. S. Cornutt, J. A. Kirk and A. H. Miller of Culbertson were down on a Masonic mis- sion, Tuesday evening. McCook is the	cycle for sale at almost half price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just mention the fact. We'll make a pilgrim- age to see it. McCook's base ball prospects have been temporarily crippled, at least, as one of the results of the late city elec- tion. It is easier to tear asunder than it is to build up. Chief of Police Jordan and a detach- ment of Russians have been preparing for the deluge, this week, by flushing	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to be solved; and nothing will so fully ac- complish this indispensible requirement as deep plowing and subsoiling. Mrs. Modi Dead. The many warm friends of that esti- mable lady, in Red Willow county, will be sincerely and deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Andy Modi, which occurred at their new home in Missouri.
T. M. Phillippi	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas- ant smile for all, including his wife and children! who never swears or kicks the dog when he ought to kick himself, who speaks well of people when their backs are turned and under all circumstances keeps an even mind—that man doesn't have to die to go to heaven. He gets to feel happy all the time as a matter of habit and takes all the dispensations of life with philosophical satisfaction.—ex.	 masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulholland, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attractive. There were a number of spectators and they seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as the dancers. The guests were: Misses Belle Spry, Lena McMurrin, Anna Mnlholland, and Misses Lunkwitz. Messrs.William Esher, Ernest Marquardt, C. A. Leach, Charles Younce, Nicholas Snyder, P. A. Wells, Lincoln Cox, H. P. Madison, Christian Nelson, Frank Fitch, Roy Barnes, Michael O'Donald, John Sinsintaffer, Charles Watteyne, Andrew 	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the clerkship of the St. Charles hotel, first of the week. He went up to Wauneta, on Tuesday morning, expecting a similar position in a hotel there. MESSRS. G. G. EISENHART, W. S. Cornutt, J. A. Kirk and A. H. Miller of Culbertson were down on a Masonic mis- sion, Tuesday evening. McCook is the Masonic headquarters for the Upper Valley.	cycle for sale at almost half price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just mention the fact. We'll make a pilgrim- age to see it. McCook's base ball prospects have been temporarily crippled, at least, as one of the results of the late city elec- tion. It is easier to tear asunder than it is to build up. Chief of Police Jordan and a detach- ment of Russians have been preparing for the deluge, this week, by flushing the tile culverts, cleaning the gutters,	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to be solved; and nothing will so fully ac- complish this indispensible requirement as deep plowing and subsoiling. Mrs. Modi Dead. The many warm friends of that esti- mable lady, in Red Willow county, will be sincerely and deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Andy Modi, which occurred at their new home in Missouri, last week. She leaves two small child-
T. M. Phillippi. 3 000 Charles Weintz 3 000 G. W. Starr 3 000 M. E. Horner 3 000 J. E. Spaan 3 000 C. F. Heber 3 000 M. H. Davis 3 000 M. H. Davis 3 000 M. H. Davis 3 000 M. H. Varger 3 000 C. T. Beggs 3 000 C. F. Lehn 3 000 A. N. Allen 3 000 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 000 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 000 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 000 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 000 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 000 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 000 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 000 G. Ed. Jordan as chief of police and 4 000 Howe Smith as night policeman, and 5 000 both appointments were confirmed. 7 reasurer Gray read and referred to finance committee. Druggists' permits were ordered issued 10 L. W. McConnell & Co. and Albert McMillen. 000 <td>It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas- ant smile for all, including his wife and children! who never swears or kicks the dog when he ought to kick himself, who speaks well of people when their backs are turned and under all circumstances keeps an even mind—that man doesn't have to die to go to heaven. He gets to feel happy all the time as a matter of habit and takes all the dispensations of life with philosophical satisfaction.—ex.</td> <td> masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulholland, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attractive. There were a number of spectators and they seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as the dancers. The guests were: Misses Belle Spry, Lena McMurrin, Anna Mnlholland, and Misses Lunkwitz. Messrs. William Esher, Ernest Marquardt, C. A. Leach, Charles Younce, Nicholas Snyder, P. A. Wells, Lincoln Cox, H. P. Madison, Christian Nelson, Frank Fitch, Roy Barnes, Michael O'Donald, John Sinsintaffer, Charles Watteyne, Andrew Culbertson, Robert Cable. V. G. P. </td> <td>MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the clerkship of the St. Charles hotel, first of the week. He went up to Wauneta, on Tuesday morning, expecting a similar position in a hotel there. MESSRS. G. G. EISENHART, W. S. Cornutt, J. A. Kirk and A. H. Miller of Culbertson were down on a Masonic mis- sion, Tuesday evening. McCook is the Masonic headquarters for the Upper Valley. SPECIAL AGENT BECKER of Lincoln</td> <td>cycle for sale at almost half price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just mention the fact. We'll make a pilgrim- age to see it. McCook's base ball prospects have been temporarily crippled, at least, as one of the results of the late city elec- tion. It is easier to tear asunder than it is to build up. Chief of Police Jordan and a detach- ment of Russians have been preparing for the deluge, this week, by flushing</td> <td>a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to be solved; and nothing will so fully ac- complish this indispensible requirement as deep plowing and subsoiling. Mrs. Modi Dead. The many warm friends of that esti- mable lady, in Red Willow county, will be sincerely and deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Andy Modi, which occurred at their new home in Missouri, last week. She leaves two small child- ren. Andy has the profound sympathy</td>	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas- ant smile for all, including his wife and children! who never swears or kicks the dog when he ought to kick himself, who speaks well of people when their backs are turned and under all circumstances keeps an even mind—that man doesn't have to die to go to heaven. He gets to feel happy all the time as a matter of habit and takes all the dispensations of life with philosophical satisfaction.—ex.	 masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulholland, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attractive. There were a number of spectators and they seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as the dancers. The guests were: Misses Belle Spry, Lena McMurrin, Anna Mnlholland, and Misses Lunkwitz. Messrs. William Esher, Ernest Marquardt, C. A. Leach, Charles Younce, Nicholas Snyder, P. A. Wells, Lincoln Cox, H. P. Madison, Christian Nelson, Frank Fitch, Roy Barnes, Michael O'Donald, John Sinsintaffer, Charles Watteyne, Andrew Culbertson, Robert Cable. V. G. P. 	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the clerkship of the St. Charles hotel, first of the week. He went up to Wauneta, on Tuesday morning, expecting a similar position in a hotel there. MESSRS. G. G. EISENHART, W. S. Cornutt, J. A. Kirk and A. H. Miller of Culbertson were down on a Masonic mis- sion, Tuesday evening. McCook is the Masonic headquarters for the Upper Valley. SPECIAL AGENT BECKER of Lincoln	cycle for sale at almost half price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just mention the fact. We'll make a pilgrim- age to see it. McCook's base ball prospects have been temporarily crippled, at least, as one of the results of the late city elec- tion. It is easier to tear asunder than it is to build up. Chief of Police Jordan and a detach- ment of Russians have been preparing for the deluge, this week, by flushing	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to be solved; and nothing will so fully ac- complish this indispensible requirement as deep plowing and subsoiling. Mrs. Modi Dead. The many warm friends of that esti- mable lady, in Red Willow county, will be sincerely and deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Andy Modi, which occurred at their new home in Missouri, last week. She leaves two small child- ren. Andy has the profound sympathy
T. M. Phillippi. 3 000 Charles Weintz 3 000 G. W. Starr 3 000 M. E. Horner. 3 000 J. E. Spaan 3 000 C. F. Heber 3 000 M. H. Davis 3 000 M. H. Davis 3 000 J. H. Yarger 3 000 G. T. Beggs. 3 000 C. F. Lehn 3 000 C. F. Lehn 3 000 A. N. Allen 3 000 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 000 choice for president of the council. 3 000 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 000 choice for president of the council. 3 000 Howe Smith as night policeman, and 3 000 Howe Smith as night policeman, and 5 000 both appointments were confirmed. 3 000 Report of Treasurer Gray read and referred to finance committee. 3 000 Druggists' permits were ordered issued to 1. W. McConnell & Co. and Albert McMillen. Saloon licenses were ordered issued to	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas- ant smile for all, including his wife and children! who never swears or kicks the dog when he ought to kick himself, who speaks well of people when their backs are turned and under all circumstances keeps an even mind—that man doesn't have to die to go to heaven. He gets to feel happy all the time as a matter of habit and takes all the dispensations of life with philosophical satisfaction.—ex. The Bi-Metallic Club. The meeting of the club which was to	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulhol- land, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attract- ive. There were a number of spectators and they seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as the dancers. The guests were: Misses Belle Spry, Lena McMurrin, Anna Mnlholland, and Misses Lunkwitz. Messrs. William Esher, Ernest Marquardt, C. A. Leach, Charles Younce, Nicholas Snyder, P. A. Wells, Lincoln Cox, H. P. Madison, Christian Nelson, Frank Fitch, Roy Barnes, Michael O'Donald, John Sinsintaffer, Charles Watteyne, Andrew Culbertson, Robert Cable. V. G. P.	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the clerkship of the St. Charles hotel, first of the week. He went up to Wauneta, on Tuesday morning, expecting a similar position in a hotel there. MESSRS. G. G. EISENHART, W. S. Cornutt, J. A. Kirk and A. H. Miller of Culbertson were down on a Masonic mis- sion, Tuesday evening. McCook is the Masonic headquarters for the Upper Valley. SPECIAL AGENT BECKER of Lincoln was here, first of the week, on business	cycle for sale at almost half price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just mention the fact. We'll make a pilgrim- age to see it. McCook's base ball prospects have been temporarily crippled, at least, as one of the results of the late city elec- tion. It is easier to tear asunder than it is to build up. Chief of Police Jordan and a detach- ment of Russians have been preparing for the deluge, this week, by flushing the tile culverts, cleaning the gutters, etc. Now for the Celuge.	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to be solved; and nothing will so fully ac- complish this indispensible requirement as deep plowing and subsoiling. Mrs. Modi Dead. The many warm friends of that esti- mable lady, in Red Willow county, will be sincerely and deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Andy Modi, which occurred at their new home in Missouri, last week. She leaves two small child- ren. Andy has the profound sympathy of a host of friends here in his sad be-
T. M. Phillippi. 3 000 Charles Weintz 3 000 G. W. Starr 3 000 M. E. Horner. 3 000 J. E. Spaan 3 000 C. F. Heber 3 000 M. H. Davis 3 000 M. H. Davis 3 000 J. H. Yarger 3 000 G. T. Beggs. 3 000 C. F. Lehn 3 000 C. F. Lehn 3 000 A. N. Allen 3 000 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 000 choice for president of the council. 3 000 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 000 choice for president of the council. 3 000 Howe Smith as night policeman, and 3 000 Howe Smith as night policeman, and 5 000 both appointments were confirmed. 3 000 Report of Treasurer Gray read and referred to finance committee. 3 000 Druggists' permits were ordered issued to 1. W. McConnell & Co. and Albert McMillen. Saloon licenses were ordered issued to	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas- ant smile for all, including his wife and children! who never swears or kicks the dog when he ought to kick himself, who speaks well of people when their backs are turned and under all circumstances keeps an even mind—that man doesn't have to die to go to heaven. He gets to feel happy all the time as a matter of habit and takes all the dispensations of life with philosophical satisfaction.—ex. The Bi-Metallic Club. The meeting of the club which was to have been held Saturday evening last,	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulhol- land, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attract- ive. There were a number of spectators and they seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as the dancers. The guests were: Misses Belle Spry, Lena McMurrin, Anna Mnlholland, and Misses Lunkwitz. Messrs. William Esher, Ernest Marquardt, C. A. Leach, Charles Younce, Nicholas Snyder, P. A. Wells, Lincoln Cox, H. P. Madison, Christian Nelson, Frank Fitch, Roy Barnes, Michael O'Donald, John Sinsintaffer, Charles Watteyne, Andrew Culbertson, Robert Cable. V. G. P.	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the clerkship of the St. Charles hotel, first of the week. He went up to Wauneta, on Tuesday morning, expecting a similar position in a hotel there. MESSRS. G. G. EISENHART, W. S. Cornutt, J. A. Kirk and A. H. Miller of Culbertson were down on a Masonic mis- sion, Tuesday evening. McCook is the Masonic headquarters for the Upper Valley. SPECIAL AGENT BECKER of Lincoln was here, first of the week, on business for the Farmers and Merchants Insur-	cycle for sale at almost half price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just mention the fact. We'll make a pilgrim- age to see it. McCook's base ball prospects have been temporarily crippled, at least, as one of the results of the late city elec- tion. It is easier to tear asunder than it is to build up. Chief of Police Jordan and a detach- ment of Russians have been preparing for the deluge, this week, by flushing the tile culverts, cleaning the gutters, etc. Now for the celuge. The banks observed Arbor day with	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to be solved; and nothing will so fully ac- complish this indispensible requirement as deep plowing and subsoiling. Mrs. Modi Dead. The many warm friends of that esti- mable lady, in Red Willow county, will be sincerely and deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Andy Modi, which occurred at their new home in Missouri, last week. She leaves two small child- ren. Andy has the profound sympathy
T. M. Phillippi. 3 000 Charles Weintz 3 000 G. W. Starr 3 000 M. E. Horner 3 000 J. E. Spaan 3 000 C. F. Heber 3 000 A. L. Hall 3 000 J. H. Yarger 3 000 J. H. Yarger 3 000 G. T. Beggs 3 000 C. F. Lehn 3 000 A. N. Allen 3 000 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 000 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 000 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 000 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 000 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 000 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 000 Choice for president of the council. 3 000 The Mayor announced his appointment 3 000 Howe Smith as night policeman, and 3 000 both appointments were confirmed. 3 000 Report of Treasurer Gray read and referred to finance committee. 3 000 Druggists' permits were ordered issued 3 000 to L. W. McConnell & Co. and Alberd 3 000	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas- ant smile for all, including his wife and children! who never swears or kicks the dog when he ought to kick himself, who speaks well of people when their backs are turned and under all circumstances keeps an even mind—that man doesn't have to die to go to heaven. He gets to feel happy all the time as a matter of habit and takes all the dispensations of life with philosophical satisfaction.—ex. The Bi-Metallic Club. The meeting of the club which was to have been held Saturday evening last, was postponed until Tuesday evening of	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulhol- land, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attract- ive. There were a number of spectators and they seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as the dancers. The guests were: Misses Belle Spry, Lena McMurrin, Anna Mnlholland, and Misses Lunkwitz. Messrs. William Esher, Ernest Marquardt, C. A. Leach, Charles Younce, Nicholas Snyder, P. A. Wells, Lincoln Cox, H. P. Madison, Christian Nelson, Frank Fitch, Roy Barnes, Michael O'Donald, John Sinsintaffer, Charles Watteyne, Andrew Culbertson, Robert Cable. V. G. P.	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the clerkship of the St. Charles hotel, first of the week. He went up to Wauneta, on Tuesday morning, expecting a similar position in a hotel there. MESSRS. G. G. EISENHART, W. S. Cornutt, J. A. Kirk and A. H. Miller of Culbertson were down on a Masonic mis- sion, Tuesday evening. McCook is the Masonic headquarters for the Upper Valley. SPECIAL AGENT BECKER of Lincoln was here, first of the week, on business for the Farmers and Merchants Insur- ance Co. of that city in connection with	cycle for sale at almost half price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just mention the fact. We'll make a pilgrim- age to see it. McCook's base ball prospects have been temporarily crippled, at least, as one of the results of the late city elec- tion. It is easier to tear asunder than it is to build up. Chief of Police Jordan and a detach- ment of Russians have been preparing for the deluge, this week, by flushing the tile culverts, cleaning the gutters, etc. Now for the celuge. The banks observed Arbor day with closed doors and there was some plant.	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to be solved; and nothing will so fully ac- complish this indispensible requirement as deep plowing and subsoiling. Mrs. Modi Dead. The many warm friends of that esti- mable lady, in Red Willow county, will be sincerely and deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Andy Modi, which occurred at their new home in Missouri, last week. She leaves two small child- ren. Andy has the profound sympathy of a host of friends here in his sad be-
T. M. Phillippi. 3 000 Charles Weintz 3 000 G. W. Starr 3 000 M. E. Horner 3 000 J. E. Spaan 3 000 C. F. Heber 3 000 M. H. Davis 3 000 M. H. Varger 3 000 C. T. Beggs 3 000 C. F. Lehn 3 000 A. N. Allen 3 000 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 000 choice for president of the council. 3 000 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous 3 000 choice for president of the council. 3 000 Howe Smith as night policeman, and 3 000 Howe Smith as night policeman, and 5 001 both appointments were confirmed. Report of Treasurer Gray read and referred to finance committee. Druggists' permits were ordered issued 100 L. W. McConnell & Co. and Albert McMillen. Saloon licenses were ordered issued to Messrs. Samuel Strasser, Patrick Walsh two, and A. C. Clyde. 0f the license derived fro	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas- ant smile for all, including his wife and children! who never swears or kicks the dog when he ought to kick himself, who speaks well of people when their backs are turned and under all circumstances keeps an even mind—that man doesn't have to die to go to heaven. He gets to feel happy all the time as a matter of habit and takes all the dispensations of life with philosophical satisfaction.—ex. The Bi-Metallic Club. The meeting of the club which was to have been held Saturday evening last, was postponed until Tuesday evening of this week, when the permanent organi-	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulhol- land, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attract- ive. There were a number of spectators and they seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as the dancers. The guests were: Misses Belle Spry, Lena McMurrin, Anna Mnlholland, and Misses Lunkwitz. Messrs. William Esher, Ernest Marquardt, C. A. Leach, Charles Younce, Nicholas Snyder, P. A. Wells, Lincoln Cox, H. P. Madison, Christian Nelson, Frank Fitch, Roy Barnes, Michael O'Donald, John Sinsintaffer, Charles Watteyne, Andrew Culbertson, Robert Cable. V. G. P.	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the clerkship of the St. Charles hotel, first of the week. He went up to Wauneta, on Tuesday morning, expecting a similar position in a hotel there. MESSRS. G. G. EISENHART, W. S. Cornutt, J. A. Kirk and A. H. Miller of Culbertson were down on a Masonic mis- sion, Tuesday evening. McCook is the Masonic headquarters for the Upper Valley. SPECIAL AGENT BECKER of Lincoln was here, first of the week, on business for the Farmers and Merchants Insur- ance Co. of that city in connection with the loss on Dr. Z. L. Kay's household	cycle for sale at almost half price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just mention the fact. We'll make a pilgrim- age to see it. McCook's base ball prospects have been temporarily crippled, at least, as one of the results of the late city elec- tion. It is easier to tear asunder than it is to build up. Chief of Police Jordan and a detach- ment of Russians have been preparing for the deluge, this week, by flushing the tile culverts, cleaning the gutters, etc. Now for the Celuge. The banks observed Arbor day with closed doors, and there was some plant- ing ot trees by private individuals, which	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to be solved; and nothing will so fully ac- complish this indispensible requirement as deep plowing and subsoiling. Mrs. Modi Dead. The many warm friends of that esti- mable lady, in Red Willow county, will be sincerely and deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Andy Modi, which occurred at their new home in Missouri, last week. She leaves two small child- ren. Andy has the profound sympathy of a host of friends here in his sad be- reavement. $50.00 IN GOLD.
T. M. Phillippi. 3 000 Charles Weintz 3 000 G. W. Starr 3 000 M. E. Horner. 3 000 J. E. Spaan 3 000 C. F. Heber 3 000 M. H. Davis 3 000 C. T. Beggs. 3 000 C. T. Beggs. 3 000 M. Allen 3 000 M. P. Sutton was made the unanimous choice for president of the council. The Mayor announced his appointment 0 00 A. N. Allen 3 000 Howe Smith as night policeman, and both appointments were confirmed. Report of Treasurer Gray read and referred to finance committee. Druggists' permits were ordered issued to Druggists' permits were ordered issued to Messis. Samuel Strasser, Patrick Walsh two, and A. C. Clyde. Of the license derived from saloons Of each go into the schoo	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas- ant smile for all, including his wife and children! who never swears or kicks the dog when he ought to kick himself, who speaks well of people when their backs are turned and under all circumstances keeps an even mind—that man doesn't have to die to go to heaven. He gets to feel happy all the time as a matter of habit and takes all the dispensations of life with philosophical satisfaction.—ex. The Bi-Metallic Club. The meeting of the club which was to have been held Saturday evening last, was postponed until Tuesday evening of this week, when the permanent organi- zation of the club was effected by the	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulhol- land, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attract- ive. There were a number of spectators and they seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as the dancers. The guests were: Misses Belle Spry, Lena McMurrin, Anna Mnlholland, and Misses Lunkwitz. Messrs. William Esher, Ernest Marquardt, C. A. Leach, Charles Younce, Nicholas Snyder, P. A. Wells, Lincoln Cox, H. P. Madison, Christian Nelson, Frank Fitch, Roy Barnes, Michael O'Donald, John Sinsintaffer, Charles Watteyne, Andrew Culbertson, Robert Cable. V. G. P.	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the clerkship of the St. Charles hotel, first of the week. He went up to Wauneta, on Tuesday morning, expecting a similar position in a hotel there. MESSRS. G. G. EISENHART, W. S. Cornutt, J. A. Kirk and A. H. Miller of Culbertson were down on a Masonic mis- sion, Tuesday evening. McCook is the Masonic headquarters for the Upper Valley. SPECIAL AGENT BECKER of Lincoln was here, first of the week, on business for the Farmers and Merchants Insur- ance Co. of that city in connection with the loss on Dr. Z. L. Kay's household goods. But no settlement was arrived at	cycle for sale at almost half price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just mention the fact. We'll make a pilgrim- age to see it. McCook's base ball prospects have been temporarily crippled, at least, as one of the results of the late city elec- tion. It is easier to tear asunder than it is to build up. Chief of Police Jordan and a detach- ment of Russians have been preparing for the deluge, this week, by flushing the tile culverts, cleaning the gutters, etc. Now for the celuge. The banks observed Arbor day with closed doors, and there was some plant- ing ot trees by private individuals, which constituted the sum total of the day's	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to be solved; and nothing will so fully ac- complish this indispensible requirement as deep plowing and subsoiling. Mrs. Modi Dead. The many warm friends of that esti- mable lady, in Red Willow county, will be sincerely and deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Andy Modi, which occurred at their new home in Missouri, last week. She leaves two small child- ren. Andy has the profound sympathy of a host of friends here in his sad be- reavement. $50.00 IN GOLD. $50 in gold given to boys and girls be-
T. M. Phillippi. 3 000 Charles Weintz 3 000 G. W. Starr 3 000 M. E. Horner. 3 000 J. E. Spaan 3 000 C. F. Heber 3 000 M. H. Davis 3 000 M. H. Varger 3 000 C. T. Beggs. 3 000 C. F. Lehn 3 000 M. Allen 3 000 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous choice for president of the council. The Mayor announced his appointment 0 000 Mewe Smith as night policeman, and both appointments were confirmed. Report of Treasurer Gray read and referred to finance committee. Druggists' permits were ordered issued to L. W. McConnell & Co. and Albert McMillen. Saloon licenses were ordered issued to Messrs. Samuel Strasser, Patrick Walsh two, and A. C. Clyde. Of the license derived from saloons $700 of each go into the school treasury, the remaining $300 from each license go	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas- ant smile for all, including his wife and children! who never swears or kicks the dog when he ought to kick himself, who speaks well of people when their backs are turned and under all circumstances keeps an even mind—that man doesn't have to die to go to heaven. He gets to feel happy all the time as a matter of habit and takes all the dispensations of life with philosophical satisfaction.—ex. The Bi-Metallic Club. The meeting of the club which was to have been held Saturday evening last, was postponed until Tuesday evening of this week, when the permanent organi- zation of the club was effected by the adoption of the constitution and by-laws	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulhol- land, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attract- ive. There were a number of spectators and they seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as the dancers. The guests were: Misses Belle Spry, Lena McMurrin, Anna Mnlholland, and Misses Lunkwitz. Messrs. William Esher, Ernest Marquardt, C. A. Leach, Charles Younce, Nicholas Snyder, P. A. Wells, Lincoln Cox, H. P. Madison, Christian Nelson, Frank Fitch, Roy Barnes, Michael O'Donald, John Sinsintaffer, Charles Watteyne, Andrew Culbertson, Robert Cable. V. G. P. THE CHURCHES. [Under this head we invite the ministry of the city to contribute freely of any and all church news of interest to their various organizations.] Regular services at the M. E. church	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the clerkship of the St. Charles hotel, first of the week. He went up to Wauneta, on Tuesday morning, expecting a similar position in a hotel there. MESSRS. G. G. EISENHART, W. S. Cornutt, J. A. Kirk and A. H. Miller of Culbertson were down on a Masonic mis- sion, Tuesday evening. McCook is the Masonic headquarters for the Upper Valley. SPECIAL AGENT BECKER of Lincoln was here, first of the week, on business for the Farmers and Merchants Insur- ance Co. of that city in connection with the loss on Dr. Z. L. Kay's household goods. But no settlement was arrived at REPRESENTATIVE LAMBORN, who as	cycle for sale at almost half price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just mention the fact. We'll make a pilgrim- age to see it. McCook's base ball prospects have been temporarily crippled, at least, as one of the results of the late city elec- tion. It is easier to tear asunder than it is to build up. Chief of Police Jordan and a detach- ment of Russians have been preparing for the deluge, this week, by flushing the tile culverts, cleaning the gutters, etc. Now for the Celuge. The banks observed Arbor day with closed doors, and there was some plant- ing ot trees by private individuals, which	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to be solved; and nothing will so fully ac- complish this indispensible requirement as deep plowing and subsoiling. Mrs. Modi Dead. The many warm friends of that esti- mable lady, in Red Willow county, will be sincerely and deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Andy Modi, which occurred at their new home in Missouri, last week. She leaves two small child- ren. Andy has the profound sympathy of a host of friends here in his sad be- reavement. $50.00 IN COLD. §50 in gold given to boys and girls be- tween the ages of 5 and 15 years, for the
T. M. Phillippi. 3 000 Charles Weintz 3 000 G. W. Starr 3 000 M. E. Horner 3 000 J. E. Spaan 3 000 C. F. Heber 3 000 M. H. Davis 3 000 M. H. Varger 3 000 C. T. Beggs 3 000 C. T. Beggs 3 000 C. F. Lehn 3 000 M. Allen 3 000 H. P. Sutton was made the unanimous choice for president of the council. The Mayor announced his appointment 0 000 Mewer Smith as night policeman, and 0 000 both appointments were confirmed. Report of Treasurer Gray read and referred to finance committee. Druggists' permits were ordered issued to L. W. McConnell & Co. and Albert McMillen. Saloon licenses were ordered issued to Messrs. Samuel Strasser, Patrick Walsh two, and A. C. Clyde. Of the license derived from saloons $700 of each go into the school treasury, the remaining $300 from each license go into the occupation tax fund.	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas- ant smile for all, including his wife and children! who never swears or kicks the dog when he ought to kick himself, who speaks well of people when their backs are turned and under all circumstances keeps an even mind—that man doesn't have to die to go to heaven. He gets to feel happy all the time as a matter of habit and takes all the dispensations of life with philosophical satisfaction.—ex. The Bi-Metallic Club. The meeting of the club which was to have been held Saturday evening last, was postponed until Tuesday evening of this week, when the permanent organi- zation of the club was effected by the adoption of the constitution and by-laws of the club, which were presented by the	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulhol- land, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attract- ive. There were a number of spectators and they seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as the dancers. The guests were: Misses Belle Spry, Lena McMurrin, Anna Mnlholland, and Misses Lunkwitz. Messrs. William Esher, Ernest Marquardt, C. A. Leach, Charles Younce, Nicholas Snyder, P. A. Wells, Lincoln Cox, H. P. Madison, Christian Nelson, Frank Fitch, Roy Barnes, Michael O'Donald, John Sinsintaffer, Charles Watteyne, Andrew Culbertson, Robert Cable. V. G. P. Inter CHURCHES. [Under this head we invite the ministry of the city to contribute freely of any and all church news of interest to their various organizations.] Regnlar services at the M. F. church next Sunday morning. Quarterly meet-	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the clerkship of the St. Charles hotel, first of the week. He went up to Wauneta, on Tuesday morning, expecting a similar position in a hotel there. MESSRS. G. G. EISENHART, W. S. Cornutt, J. A. Kirk and A. H. Miller of Culbertson were down on a Masonic mis- sion, Tuesday evening. McCook is the Masonic headquarters for the Upper Valley. SPECIAL AGENT BECKER of Lincoln was here, first of the week, on business for the Farmers and Merchants Insur- ance Co. of that city in connection with the loss on Dr. Z. L. Kay's household goods. But no settlement was arrived at REPRESENTATIVE LAMBORN, who as cashier of of the State bank at that place	cycle for sale at almost half price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just mention the fact. We'll make a pilgrim- age to see it. McCook's base ball prospects have been temporarily crippled, at least, as one of the results of the late city elec- tion. It is easier to tear asunder than it is to build up. Chief of Police Jordan and a detach- ment of Russians have been preparing for the deluge, this week, by flushing the tile culverts, cleaning the gutters, etc. Now for the celuge. The banks observed Arbor day with closed doors, and there was some plant- ing ot trees by private individuals, which constituted the sum total of the day's observance in McCook.	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to be solved; and nothing will so fully ac- complish this indispensible requirement as deep plowing and subsoiling. Mrs. Modi Dead. The many warm friends of that esti- mable lady, in Red Willow county, will be sincerely and deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Andy Modi, which occurred at their new home in Missouri, last week. She leaves two small child- ren. Andy has the profound sympathy of a host of friends here in his sad be- reavement. $50.00 IN COLD. $50 in gold given to boys and girls be- tween the ages of 5 and 15 years, for the best set of drawings from copy furnished
T. M. Phillippi	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas- ant smile for all, including his wife and children! who never swears or kicks the dog when he ought to kick himself, who speaks well of people when their backs are turned and under all circumstances keeps an even mind—that man doesn't have to die to go to heaven. He gets to feel happy all the time as a matter of habit and takes all the dispensations of life with philosophical satisfaction.—ex. The Bi-Metallic Club. The meeting of the club which was to have been held Saturday evening last, was postponed until Tuesday evening of this week, when the permanent organi- zation of the club was effected by the adoption of the constitution and by-laws of the club, which were presented by the committee previously appointed to pre-	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulhol- land, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attract- ive. There were a number of spectators and they seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as the dancers. The guests were: Misses Belle Spry, Lena McMurrin, Anna Mnlholland, and Misses Lunkwitz. Messrs. William Esher, Ernest Marquardt, C. A. Leach, Charles Younce, Nicholas Snyder, P. A. Wells, Lincoln Cox, H. P. Madison, Christian Nelson, Frank Fitch, Roy Barnes, Michael O'Donald, John Sinsintaffer, Charles Watteyne, Andrew Culbertson, Robert Cable. V. G. P. THE CHURCHES. [Under this head we invite the ministry of the city to contribute freely of any and all church news of interest to their various organizations.] Regular services at the M. E. church next Sunday morning. Quarterly meet- ing services in the evening; sermon by	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the clerkship of the St. Charles hotel, first of the week. He went up to Wauneta, on Tuesday morning, expecting a similar position in a hotel there. MESSRS. G. G. EISENHART, W. S. Cornutt, J. A. Kirk and A. H. Miller of Culbertson were down on a Masonic mis- sion, Tuesday evening. McCook is the Masonic headquarters for the Upper Valley. SPECIAL AGENT BECKER of Lincoln was here, first of the week, on business for the Farmers and Merchants Insur- ance Co. of that city in connection with the loss on Dr. Z. L. Kay's household goods. But no settlement was arrived at REPRESENTATIVE LAMBORN, who as cashier of of the State bank at that place is now making his headquarters at Wil-	cycle for sale at almost half price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just mention the fact. We'll make a pilgrim- age to see it. McCook's base ball prospects have been temporarily crippled, at least, as one of the results of the late city elec- tion. It is easier to tear asunder than it is to build up. Chief of Police Jordan and a detach- ment of Russians have been preparing for the deluge, this week, by flushing the tile culverts, cleaning the gutters, etc. Now for the Celuge. The banks observed Arbor day with closed doors, and there was some plant- ing ot trees by private individuals, which constituted the sum total of the day's observance in McCook. It was not thought best to break into	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to be solved; and nothing will so fully ac- complish this indispensible requirement as deep plowing and subsoiling. Mrs. Modi Dead. The many warm friends of that esti- mable lady, in Red Willow county, will be sincerely and deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Andy Modi, which occurred at their new home in Missouri, last week. She leaves two small child- ren. Andy has the profound sympathy of a host of friends here in his sad be- reavement. $50.00 IN COLD. $50 in gold given to boys and girls be- tween the ages of 5 and 15 years, for the best set of drawings from copy furnished by L. W. McConnell & Co. For partic-
T. M. Phillippi	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas- ant smile for all, including his wife and children! who never swears or kicks the dog when he ought to kick himself, who speaks well of people when their backs are turned and under all circumstances keeps an even mind—that man doesn't have to die to go to heaven. He gets to feel happy all the time as a matter of habit and takes all the dispensations of life with philosophical satisfaction.—ex. The Bi-Metallic Club. The meeting of the club which was to have been held Saturday evening last, was postponed until Tuesday evening of this week, when the permanent organi- zation of the club was effected by the adoption of the constitution and by-laws of the club, which were presented by the committee previously appointed to pre- pare the same.	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulhol- land, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attract- ive. There were a number of spectators and they seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as the dancers. The guests were: Misses Belle Spry, Lena McMurrin, Anna Mnlholland, and Misses Lunkwitz. Messrs. William Esher, Ernest Marquardt, C. A. Leach, Charles Younce, Nicholas Snyder, P. A. Wells, Lincoln Cox, H. P. Madison, Christian Nelson, Frank Fitch, Roy Barnes, Michael O'Donald, John Sinsintaffer, Charles Watteyne, Andrew Culbertson, Robert Cable. V. G. P. THE CHURCHES. [Under this head we invite the ministry of the city to contribute freely of any and all church news of interest to their various organizations.] Regular services at the M. E. church next Sunday morning. Quarterly meet- ing services in the evening; sermon by Presiding Elder Hale.	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the clerkship of the St. Charles hotel, first of the week. He went up to Wauneta, on Tuesday morning, expecting a similar position in a hotel there. MESSRS. G. G. EISENHART, W. S. Cornutt, J. A. Kirk and A. H. Miller of Culbertson were down on a Masonic mis- sion, Tuesday evening. McCook is the Masonic headquarters for the Upper Valley. SPECIAL AGENT BECKER of Lincoln was here, first of the week, on business for the Farmers and Merchants Insur- ance Co. of that city in connection with the loss on Dr. Z. L. Kay's household goods. But no settlement was arrived at REPRESENTATIVE LAMBORN, who as cashier of of the State bank at that place is now making his headquarters at Wil- cox, spent Friday night in the city on	cycle for sale at almost half price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just mention the fact. We'll make a pilgrim- age to see it. McCook's base ball prospects have been temporarily crippled, at least, as one of the results of the late city elec- tion. It is easier to tear asunder than it is to build up. Chief of Police Jordan and a detach- ment of Russians have been preparing for the deluge, this week, by flushing the tile culverts, cleaning the gutters, etc. Now for the celuge. The banks observed Arbor day with closed doors, and there was some plant- ing ot trees by private individuals, which constituted the sum total of the day's observance in McCook. It was not thought best to break into the week by giving the children at the	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to be solved; and nothing will so fully ac- complish this indispensible requirement as deep plowing and subsoiling. Mrs. Modi Dead. The many warm friends of that esti- mable lady, in Red Willow county, will be sincerely and deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Andy Modi, which occurred at their new home in Missouri, last week. She leaves two small child- ren. Andy has the profound sympathy of a host of friends here in his sad be- reavement. $50.00 IN COLD. $50 in gold given to boys and girls be- tween the ages of 5 and 15 years, for the best set of drawings from copy furnished by L. W. McConnell & Co. For partic- ulars call at the drug store any evening
T. M. Phillippi	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas- ant smile for all, including his wife and children! who never swears or kicks the dog when he ought to kick himself, who speaks well of people when their backs are turned and under all circumstances keeps an even mind—that man doesn't have to die to go to heaven. He gets to feel happy all the time as a matter of habit and takes all the dispensations of life with philosophical satisfaction.—ex. The Bi-Metallic Club. The meeting of the club which was to have been held Saturday evening last, was postponed until Tuesday evening of this week, when the permanent organi- zation of the club was effected by the adoption of the constitution and by-laws of the club, which were presented by the committee previously appointed to pre- pare the same. It was decided to hold regular meet-	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulhol- land, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attract- ive. There were a number of spectators and they seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as the dancers. The guests were: Misses Belle Spry, Lena McMurrin, Anna Mnlholland, and Misses Lunkwitz. Messrs. William Esher, Ernest Marquardt, C. A. Leach, Charles Younce, Nicholas Snyder, P. A. Wells, Lincoln Cox, H. P. Madison, Christian Nelson, Frank Fitch, Roy Barnes, Michael O'Donald, John Sinsintaffer, Charles Watteyne, Andrew Culbertson, Robert Cable. V. G. P. THE CHURCHES. [Under this head we invite the ministry of the city to contribute freely of any and all church news of interest to their various organizations.] Regular services at the M. E. church next Sunday morning. Quarterly meet- ing services in the evening; sermon by Presiding Elder Hale. Stone are being delivered on the site	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the clerkship of the St. Charles hotel, first of the week. He went up to Wauneta, on Tuesday morning, expecting a similar position in a hotel there. MESSRS. G. G. EISENHART, W. S. Cornutt, J. A. Kirk and A. H. Miller of Culbertson were down on a Masonic mis- sion, Tuesday evening. McCook is the Masonic headquarters for the Upper Valley. SPECIAL AGENT BECKER of Lincoln was here, first of the week, on business for the Farmers and Merchants Insur- ance Co. of that city in connection with the loss on Dr. Z. L. Kay's household goods. But no settlement was arrived at REPRESENTATIVE LAMBORN, who as cashier of of the State bank at that place is now making his headquarters at Wil- cox, spent Friday night in the city on his way to Indianola, whither he went	cycle for sale at almost balf price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just mention the fact. We'll make a pilgrim- age to see it. McCook's base ball prospects have been temporarily crippled, at least, as one of the results of the late city elec- tion. It is easier to tear asunder than it is to build up. Chief of Police Jordan and a detach- ment of Russians have been preparing for the deluge, this week, by flushing the tile culverts, cleaning the gutters, etc. Now for the Celuge. The banks observed Arbor day with closed doors, and there was some plant- ing ot trees by private individuals, which constituted the sum total of the day's observance in McCook. It was not thought best to break into the week by giving the children at the public schools a holiday, Monday, Arbor	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to be solved; and nothing will so fully ac- complish this indispensible requirement as deep plowing and subsoiling. Mrs. Modi Dead. The many warm friends of that esti- mable lady, in Red Willow county, will be sincerely and deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Andy Modi, which occurred at their new home in Missouri, last week. She leaves two small child- ren. Andy has the profound sympathy of a host of friends here in his sad be- reavement. $50.00 IN COLD. $50 in gold given to boys and girls be- tween the ages of 5 and 15 years, for the best set of drawings from copy furnished by L. W. McConnell & Co. For partic- ulars call at the drug store any evening
T. M. Phillippi	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas- ant smile for all, including his wife and children! who never swears or kicks the dog when he ought to kick himself, who speaks well of people when their backs are turned and under all circumstances keeps an even mind—that man doesn't have to die to go to heaven. He gets to feel happy all the time as a matter of habit and takes all the dispensations of life with philosophical satisfaction.—ex. The Bi-Metallic Club. The meeting of the club which was to have been held Saturday evening last, was postponed until Tuesday evening of this week, when the permanent organi- zation of the club was effected by the adoption of the constitution and by-laws of the club, which were presented by the committee previously appointed to pre- pare the same. It was decided to hold regular meet- ings of the club each Tuesday evening,	masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulhol- land, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attract- ive. There were a number of spectators and they seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as the dancers. The guests were: Misses Belle Spry, Lena McMurrin, Anna Mnlholland, and Misses Lunkwitz. Messrs. William Esher, Ernest Marquardt, C. A. Leach, Charles Younce, Nicholas Snyder, P. A. Wells, Lincoln Cox, H. P. Madison, Christian Nelson, Frank Fitch, Roy Barnes, Michael O'Donald, John Sinsintaffer, Charles Watteyne, Andrew Culbertson, Robert Cable. V. G. P. THE CHURCHES. [Under this head we invite the ministry of the city to contribute freely of any and all church news of interest to their various organizations.] Regular services at the M. E. church next Sunday morning. Quarterly meet- ing services in the evening; sermon by Presiding Elder Hale. Stone are being delivered on the site	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the clerkship of the St. Charles hotel, first of the week. He went up to Wauneta, on Tuesday morning, expecting a similar position in a hotel there. MESSRS. G. G. EISENHART, W. S. Cornutt, J. A. Kirk and A. H. Miller of Culbertson were down on a Masonic mis- sion, Tuesday evening. McCook is the Masonic headquarters for the Upper Valley. SPECIAL AGENT BECKER of Lincoln was here, first of the week, on business for the Farmers and Merchants Insur- ance Co. of that city in connection with the loss on Dr. Z. L. Kay's household goods. But no settlement was arrived at REPRESENTATIVE LAMBORN, who as cashier of of the State bank at that place is now making his headquarters at Wil- cox, spent Friday night in the city on his way to Indianola, whither he went on No. 80, Saturday morning. He ap-	cycle for sale at almost balf price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just mention the fact. We'll make a pilgrim- age to see it. McCook's base ball prospects have been temporarily crippled, at least, as one of the results of the late city elec- tion. It is easier to tear asunder than it is to build up. Chief of Police Jordan and a detach- ment of Russians have been preparing for the deluge, this week, by flushing the tile culverts, cleaning the gutters, etc. Now for the celuge. The banks observed Arbor day with closed doors, and there was some plant- ing ot trees by private individuals, which constituted the sum total of the day's observance in McCook. It was not thought best to break into the week by giving the children at the public schools a holiday, Monday, Arbor day, so the usual sessions were held,	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to be solved; and nothing will so fully ac- complish this indispensible requirement as deep plowing and subsoiling. Mrs. Modi Dead. The many warm friends of that esti- mable lady, in Red Willow county, will be sincerely and deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Andy Modi, which occurred at their new home in Missouri, last week. She leaves two small child- ren. Andy has the profound sympathy of a host of friends here in his sad be- reavement. $50.00 IN COLD. $50 in gold given to boys and girls be- tween the ages of 5 and 15 years, for the best set of drawings from copy furnished by L. W. McConnell & Co. For partic- ulars call at the drug store any evening
T. M. Phillippi	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas- ant smile for all, including his wife and children! who never swears or kicks the dog when he ought to kick himself, who speaks well of people when their backs are turned and under all circumstances keeps an even mind—that man doesn't have to die to go to heaven. He gets to feel happy all the time as a matter of habit and takes all the dispensations of life with philosophical satisfaction.—ex. The Bi-Metallic Club. The meeting of the club which was to have been held Saturday evening last, was postponed until Tuesday evening of this week, when the permanent organi- zation of the club was effected by the adoption of the constitution and by-laws of the club, which were presented by the committee previously appointed to pre- pare the same. It was decided to hold regular meet- ings of the club each Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock, in the rooms in the A. O.U.	 masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulholland, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attractive. There were a number of spectators and they seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as the dancers. The guests were: Misses Belle Spry, Lena McMurrin, Anna Mnlholland, and Misses Lunkwitz. Messrs. William Esher, Ernest Marquardt, C. A. Leach, Charles Younce, Nicholas Snyder, P. A. Wells, Lincoln Cox, H. P. Madison, Christian Nelson, Frank Fitch, Roy Barnes, Michael O'Donald, John Sinsintaffer, Charles Watteyne, Andrew Culbertson, Robert Cable. V. G. P. THE CHURCHES. [Under this head we invite the ministry of the city to contribute freely of any and all church news of interest to their various organizations.] Regular services at the M. E. church next Sunday morning. Quarterly meeting services in the evening; sermon by Presiding Elder Hale. Stone are being delivered on the site 	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the clerkship of the St. Charles hotel, first of the week. He went up to Wauneta, on Tuesday morning, expecting a similar position in a hotel there. MESSRS. G. G. EISENHART, W. S. Cornutt, J. A. Kirk and A. H. Miller of Culbertson were down on a Masonic mis- sion, Tuesday evening. McCook is the Masonic headquarters for the Upper Valley. SPECIAL AGENT BECKER of Lincoln was here, first of the week, on business for the Farmers and Merchants Insur- ance Co. of that city in connection with the loss on Dr. Z. L. Kay's household goods. But no settlement was arrived at REPRESENTATIVE LAMBORN, who as cashier of of the State bank at that place is now making his headquarters at Wil- cox, spent Friday night in the city on his way to Indianola, whither he went on No So Saturday morning. He ap-	cycle for sale at almost balf price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just mention the fact. We'll make a pilgrim- age to see it. McCook's base ball prospects have been temporarily crippled, at least, as one of the results of the late city elec- tion. It is easier to tear asunder than it is to build up. Chief of Police Jordan and a detach- ment of Russians have been preparing for the deluge, this week, by flushing the tile culverts, cleaning the gutters, etc. Now for the Celuge. The banks observed Arbor day with closed doors, and there was some plant- ing ot trees by private individuals, which constituted the sum total of the day's observance in McCook. It was not thought best to break into the week by giving the children at the public schools a holiday, Monday, Arbor	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to be solved; and nothing will so fully ac- complish this indispensible requirement as deep plowing and subsoiling. Mrs. Modi Dead. The many warm friends of that esti- mable lady, in Red Willow county, will be sincerely and deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Andy Modi, which occurred at their new home in Missouri, last week. She leaves two small child- ren. Andy has the profound sympathy of a host of friends here in his sad be- reavement. $50.00 IN COLD. $50 in gold given to boys and girls be- tween the ages of 5 and 15 years, for the best set of drawings from copy furnished by I. W. McConnell & Co. For partic- ulars call at the drug store any evening between 6 and 7 o'clock. For Sale or Lease .
T. M. Phillippi	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas- ant smile for all, including his wife and children! who never swears or kicks the dog when he ought to kick himself, who speaks well of people when their backs are turned and under all circumstances keeps an even mind—that man doesn't have to die to go to heaven. He gets to feel happy all the time as a matter of habit and takes all the dispensations of life with philosophical satisfaction.—ex. The Bi-Metallic Club. The meeting of the club which was to have been held Saturday evening last, was postponed until Tuesday evening of this week, when the permanent organi- zation of the club was effected by the adoption of the constitution and by-laws of the club, which were presented by the committee previously appointed to pre- pare the same. It was decided to hold regular meet- ings of the club each Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock, in the rooms in the A. O.U. W. temple block recently vacated by	 masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulholland, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attractive. There were a number of spectators and they seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as the dancers. The guests were: Misses Belle Spry, Lena McMurrin, Anna Mnlholland, and Misses Lunkwitz. Messrs. William Esher, Ernest Marquardt, C. A. Leach, Charles Younce, Nicholas Snyder, P. A. Wells, Lincoln Cox, H. P. Madison, Christian Nelson, Frank Fitch, Roy Barnes, Michael O'Donald, John Sinsintaffer, Charles Watteyne, Andrew Culbertson, Robert Cable. V. G. P. THE CHURCHES. [Under this head we invite the ministry of the city to contribute freely of any and all church news of interest to their various organizations.] Regnlar services at the M. E. church next Sunday morning. Quarterly meeting services in the evening; sermon by Presiding Elder Hale. Stone are being delivered on the site for the foundation for the new Episcopal 	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the clerkship of the St. Charles hotel, first of the week. He went up to Wauneta, on Tuesday morning, expecting a similar position in a hotel there. MESSRS. G. G. EISENHART, W. S. Cornutt, J. A. Kirk and A. H. Miller of Culbertson were down on a Masonic mis- sion, Tuesday evening. McCook is the Masonic headquarters for the Upper Valley. SPECIAL AGENT BECKER of Lincoln was here, first of the week, on business for the Farmers and Merchants Insur- ance Co. of that city in connection with the loss on Dr. Z. L. Kay's household goods. But no settlement was arrived at REPRESENTATIVE LAMBORN, who as cashier of of the State bank at that place is now making his headquarters at Wil- cox, spent Friday night in the city on his way to Indianola, whither he went on No. 80, Saturday morning. He ap-	cycle for sale at almost balf price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just mention the fact. We'll make a pilgrim- age to see it. McCook's base ball prospects have been temporarily crippled, at least, as one of the results of the late city elec- tion. It is easier to tear asunder than it is to build up. Chief of Police Jordan and a detach- ment of Russians have been preparing for the deluge, this week, by flushing the tile culverts, cleaning the gutters, etc. Now for the celuge. The banks observed Arbor day with closed doors, and there was some plant- ing ot trees by private individuals, which constituted the sum total of the day's observance in McCook. It was not thought best to break into the week by giving the children at the public schools a holiday, Monday, Arbor day, so the usual sessions were held, morning and afternoon.	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to be solved; and nothing will so fully ac- complish this indispensible requirement as deep plowing and subsoiling. Mrs. Modi Dead. The many warm friends of that esti- mable lady, in Red Willow county, will be sincerely and deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Andy Modi, which occurred at their new home in Missouri, last week. She leaves two small child- ren. Andy has the profound sympathy of a host of friends here in his sad be- reavement. $50.00 IN COLD. $50 in gold given to boys and girls be- tween the ages of 5 and 15 years, for the best set of drawings from copy furnished by I. W. McConnell & Co. For partic- ulars call at the drug store any evening between 6 and 7 o'clock. The butcher shop and tools on West
T. M. Phillippi	It isn't the amount of religion a man has that makes him good and fits him for heaven, it is the amount he uses. Long prayers and loud professions do not count, but the man who loves his fellow men and fellow women; who min- isters to the afflicted and wears a pleas- ant smile for all, including his wife and children! who never swears or kicks the dog when he ought to kick himself, who speaks well of people when their backs are turned and under all circumstances keeps an even mind—that man doesn't have to die to go to heaven. He gets to feel happy all the time as a matter of habit and takes all the dispensations of life with philosophical satisfaction.—ex. The Bi-Metallic Club. The meeting of the club which was to have been held Saturday evening last, was postponed until Tuesday evening of this week, when the permanent organi- zation of the club was effected by the adoption of the constitution and by-laws of the club, which were presented by the committee previously appointed to pre- pare the same. It was decided to hold regular meet- ings of the club each Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock, in the rooms in the A. O.U. W. temple block recently vacated by Dr. L. J. Spickelmier.	 masquerade ball given in honor of Mr. P. A. Wells and of Miss Anna Mulholland, who is a guest in the Dutton household. The music was fine and the dancing was continued until the wee small hours. The costumes were wonderfully attractive. There were a number of spectators and they seemed to enjoy the occasion as much as the dancers. The guests were: Misses Belle Spry, Lena McMurrin, Anna Mnlholland, and Misses Lunkwitz. Messrs. William Esher, Ernest Marquardt, C. A. Leach, Charles Younce, Nicholas Snyder, P. A. Wells, Lincoln Cox, H. P. Madison, Christian Nelson, Frank Fitch, Roy Barnes, Michael O'Donald, John Sinsintaffer, Charles Watteyne, Andrew Culbertson, Robert Cable. V. G. P. THE CHURCHES. IUnder this head we invite the ministry of the city to contribute freely of any and all church news of interest to their various organizations.] Regular services at the M. E. church next Sunday morning. Quarterly meeting services in the evening; sermon by Presiding Elder Hale. Stone are being delivered on the site for the foundation for the new Episcopal church, to be located immediately north of the Lutheran church. 	MISS LILLIE G. MASTIN will shortly leave for her home in Stanberry, Mis- souri. She has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Edwards, for some time. RAY MCCALLUM retired from the clerkship of the St. Charles hotel, first of the week. He went up to Wauneta, on Tuesday morning, expecting a similar position in a hotel there. MESSRS. G. G. EISENHART, W. S. Cornutt, J. A. Kirk and A. H. Miller of Culbertson were down on a Masonic mis- sion, Tuesday evening. McCook is the Masonic headquarters for the Upper Valley. SPECIAL AGENT BECKER of Lincoln was here, first of the week, on business for the Farmers and Merchants Insur- ance Co. of that city in connection with the loss on Dr. Z. L. Kay's household goods. But no settlement was arrived at REPRESENTATIVE LAMBORN, who as cashier of of the State bank at that place is now making his headquarters at Wil- cox, spent Friday night in the city on his way to Indianola, whither he went on No. 80, Saturday morning. He ap- pears as though legislating agreed with him.	cycle for sale at almost balf price. See him without delay. The first responsi- ble man with the cash gets the bargain. If you can find anything sportier or nattier than Sylvester Cordeal in that light hat and those light pantaloons just mention the fact. We'll make a pilgrim- age to see it. McCook's base ball prospects have been temporarily crippled, at least, as one of the results of the late city elec- tion. It is easier to tear asunder than it is to build up. Chief of Police Jordan and a detach- ment of Russians have been preparing for the deluge, this week, by flushing the tile culverts, cleaning the gutters, etc. Now for the celuge. The banks observed Arbor day with closed doors, and there was some plant- ing ot trees by private individuals, which constituted the sum total of the day's observance in McCook. It was not thought best to break into the week by giving the children at the public schools a holiday, Monday, Arbor day, so the usual sessions were held, morning and afternoon.	a moment that subsoiling is the thing to be practiced in connection with deep plowing each season. Moisture is the great want of all growing plants, and to store all moisture deep down in the earth where it will be kept until needed at the surface is the greatest problem to be solved; and nothing will so fully ac- complish this indispensible requirement as deep plowing and subsoiling. Mrs. Modi Dead. The many warm friends of that esti- mable lady, in Red Willow county, will be sincerely and deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Andy Modi, which occurred at their new home in Missouri, last week. She leaves two small child- ren. Andy has the profound sympathy of a host of friends here in his sad be- reavement. $50.00 IN COLD. §50 in gold given to boys and girls be- tween the ages of 5 and 15 years, for the best set of drawings from copy furnished by L. W. McConnell & Co. For partic- ulars call at the drug store any evening between 6 and 7 o'clock. The butcher shop and tools on West Dennison street. Inquire of S. M. Coch-

once. There is a great bargain for a man strictly non-partisan course, the object Connell hall, next Sunday morning at days, close of last week, in Arapahoe, in of Arapahoe as president, R. D. Ressler with the ready money-almost half price, of the organization being simply to fur- II o'clock and in the evening at 8 o'clock connection with John Stephens, prepar- of Hendley as secretary and treasurer. For Sale Cheap. ther the cause of the free coinage of gold by Rev. T. K. Tyson of Lincoln, Neb. ing an abstract or transcript for an ap- There are ten banks in the association. A fine 1150 pound Morgan mare and a L. W. McConnell & Co. have had their heavy top buggy in good order. Apply and silver at the rates of 16 to 1 as prior A cordial invitation is extended to all. peal to the supreme court in the suit for There was a heavy frost, Monday at THE TRIBUNE office. store room handsomely papered, this to 1873, and for the instruction of all the damages of Kellogg against the Burling-Regular services at the Congregational ton, in which the company wes mulcted morning, ice forming to a thickness of members in the science of money. Quite week. church next Sunday morning and even-Lawn Sprinklers and hose and hose a fund of literature is being provided to in the sum of $9,000 damages. Kellogg half an inch, and in all probability dam-The strongest light wheel made-The ing. Morning subject, "The Call of was formerly an agent for the company aging the fruit considerably, as cherries, Eagle, sold by C. A. Leach on very easy COCHRAN & Co. this end. Christ." Evening subject, "Foolishness couplings. at Bertrand. In 1892 sometime he was plums, apricots, apples, peaches and P. A. Wells has consented to deliver payments. and Wisdom." Sunday School at to Good writing paper ten cents a quire injured. This spring he brought a suit pears are all out in bloom in a more or a free coinage address at the club rooms Lawn Sprinklers and hose and hose o'clock. Endeavor society at 7 o'clock, at Holdrege against the company for less advanced stage. at this office. on next Tuesday evening, April 20th, at J. F. Forbes, leader. couplings. COCHRAN & CO. $20,000, but the jury assessed the dam-McConnell's Sarsaparilla. 8 p. m. The public are cordially invited age at $9,000. The case is thus appealed Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder Take a bottle of McConnell's Sarsapato attend and all who wish will then be Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria, given an opportunity to join the club. World's Fair Highest Modal and Diplome. to the supreme court. Awarded Gold Medal Midwinter Pair, San Francisco. rilla for a spring medicine.