Said Nell. "Thou: h it doesn't run up it does run down Its face is always healthy and round And it talks very prim and very precise When I am good it says, so nice 'Pretty-well!

Little-Nell" "But if I'm naughty, oh deary me! It's voice is as solemn as it can be! Solemn and sorry and dreadfully clear, And the more I don't listen, the more I hear 'Do's you'd-ou"hter, Little-daughter.' "Can't you guess it, you funny folks? Something that runs but never walks? Well, well!" Cried Nell.

"If you can't imagine, I'll have to 'splain, And I won't make such a hard riddle again. You must have a key before it will talk. Turn the key-and there's a-? -Youth's Companion

Lady Latimer's Escape. BY CHARLOTTE M. BRAEME.

CHAPTER X-CONTINUED. "We will go in at the side door, "Then I will get you to your room."

She made no answer. "Lady Latimer," I said, "you have still yourself to save. You must make an effort. Can you hear me? Can you see me? You must make one effort more, and save yourself. Remember those lines-'Don't tell me of to-morrow There is much to do to day, That can never be accomplish'd If we throw the hours away! Every moment has its duty. Who the future can foretell?

Then why defer to-morrow What to-day can do as well?" Quickly as loving, trembling hands could work, I took from her the black dress, the cloak and bonnet in which she was going to travel. I put them out of sight, and then I brought back | the blue velvet and pearls. She cried out at the sight of it, and waved it from her.

"You must put it on," I said. "I cannot," she replied. "I would rather wear a shroud." "You must," I said. "You must put it on. You must color your face and brighten your hair. You must have yourself to save."

"I-I can not," she cried in despairing tones.

"You must," I repeated. "You must do it to save yourself, even should you die directly afterward."

My strong will beat down her weaker one. I dressed her. I tried my best to make her look as she had done before, but it was as though I had tried to dress a dead woman. Then I fetched some brandy for her, and made her drink it.

A faint tinge of color came to her lips. She looked at me once with wild eyes. "I hate you!" she said; and the a dead body to the seaside.

words were like a hiss.

"Never mind," I answered, "if you can only save yourself."

I found her a large bouquet of fresh flowers, and told her to hold it before her face when she passed through the ball-room, so as to hide her colorless face. She did so; but when the time | your fault." came for her to return to the ballroom she could not walk.

"You must absolutely go," I said. "It is the only means of saving yourself. If ever the incidents of this night should be known, no one will believe one word if you are seen in the ball-room. You must go.

She went, leaning on my arm. I shall never forget the ordeal. She clutched my arm. I felt how she trembled. I feared, if anyone spoke to her, that she would suddenly collapse and fall on the ground: She would have done so, but, fortunately, no one came near us.

CHAPTER XI.

We walked slowly through the ballroom twice. I led her, as though she were blind and dumb, through the fall from the cliff here into the sea." conservatory and the picture-gallery; I was determined that every visitor should see her. If by any mischance it was rumored that she was seen in the park after 1 o'clock at night, a contradiction, for a hundred people place again." and more saw her in her own house.

arm dead, but at last I placed her one so changed as Lady Latimer. safely in her own room again, and rang for her maid.

The maid looked frightened at the said; but the woful eyes that looked | two years and a half after that terriinto hers had no expression in them.

all whom it concerned I made apolo- for her. I saw her coming toward me gies and excuses for Lady Latimer. I with a terrible look on her face. I told them she was exhausted and worn | was almost frightened. She wore a out, and that I had persuaded her to long white dress; her hair was unrest. No one seemed surprised, and fastened, her face white as death; her then I felt that the crisis was over. eyes had an expression I shall never

She was saved. "You look tired yourself, Miss me. Lovel," said Captain Fleming. "And what bad news this is about Colonel | Heaven has punished me."

"What is it?" I asked, trying to at Isandula was the name of Colonel carclessly, but with great Philip North.

"He has to leave suddenly and early to-morrow morning. He received a telegram this afternoon, but did not | death.' wish to tell us the news until the ball much."

"We shall, indeed," I answered, mechanically. "He is in the smoking-room; he has say good-bye to him, Miss Lovel?"

should never look on his face again. I coward's crime."

made some evasive answer. He looked hurt.

"I thought," he said, "that you woman weep before. liked Colonel North so much. Lady Latimer does. I believe he is the favored guest."

"What time does he leave in the morning" I asked, for the sake of death. showing some interest in him.

noon."

knew he would not.

I understood why he had returned smoking-room where most of the guests could see him. Then, when and generous help. the visitors were all gone. I went back to Lady Latimer's room. I found her and spoke no word. very ill. I told the maid that I would sit with her and read her to sleep.

"I do not like my lady's looks at life." all, Miss Lovel," said the maid. "I am afraid that she has overdone herself. I should not wonder if she has a bad illness." I sat with her the night through. | turned into stone.

She did not speak to me. She hardly seemed to know that I was present. and avoid the grand staircase," I said. She wept and mouned through the night in such a heart-breaking fashion He had been unusually irritable, and it made me ill to listen.

I heard—the quick galloping of a horse in the early morning. When it ceased I knew that Colonel North had gone. She was worse in the morning: for hurriedly. The visitors disappeared.

Lord Latimer was frightened to death.

"Brain fever," he said. "Why, brain fever only comes to those who have great trouble, and she has none in the world, absolutely none."

The doctor's opinion was that Lady Latimer had overtired herself with the Christmas festivities. "She had Colonel North to help her," said Lord Latimer; "I don't see how she can have done too much."

But there was no gainsaying the fact. She was ill for a long time, and I was her faithful, loving nurse; but the name of Colonel North was never mentioned between us from that night. It was New Year's eve when Lady come down stairs and show yourself Latimer fell ill, and the violets were in the ball room. Remember that you | in bloom before she was able to leave the house again.

"I want to go away from here. Audrey," she said to me one day. "I want to go out-of-doors, and I cannot here; I cannot endure the sight of this place, and the sound of the river makes me ill.'

"I understood, after that scene in the park; it was no wonder that she could not endure it.

I spoke to Lord Latimer, and he seemed pleased that she should have a change. We went to Brighton. I thought the life and brightness of that sunny watering-place would be good for her. I might as well have brought Once, and once only, terrible energy came to her. I was sitting on the cliff overlooking the sea, and she came to me suddenly, holding an open newspaper in her hands.

"I have been looking for you," she said. "I want you to read this; it is

I took the paper from her hands and read that war had broken out at the cape, and among others who had exchanged to be sent out there was that well-known and highly esteemed officer, Colonel North.

"That is your fault," she said. "Do you see the honorable mention of him as a brave soldier and a noble

"Yes, I do," she answered. "You may thank me for that," I said. "I saved him as well as you. English officers are men of honor, and if Colonel North had stolen the wife of his friend, they would not have associated with him."

Her face flushed and her head drooped. "I wish," said she, "that I could Decidedly, in those days, she was not the most pleasant companion in the world; but I knew the gnawing misery. "I wish," she said to me one day, "that Lord Latimer would leave Lorhundred voices would be raised in ton's Cray. I shall never like the Captain Fleming came once or It was a ghostly walk. More than | twice, but he did not remain long. He once I thought she would fall from my told me that he had never seen any

"When I think of her leading the cotillon on New Year's eve, in that "Lady Latimer is tired out," I said; wonderful dress of blue velvet and "she is completely exhausted. Get | pearls, and then look at her as she is something for her and let her go to now, I cannot believe she is the same woman," he said. It required a great calamity to arouse her, and, surely enough, one "You look very ill, my lady," she came. It was the month of August, ble New Year's eve, and I was sitting I went back to the visitors, and to out among the roses making some lace > forget. She held out a newspaper to "Look," she said, "and read.

I looked. In the list of those killed

"You see it," she said slowly." "Yes, I see it, Lady Latimer." "It was you who sent him to his

"Better the death of a good man was over. We shall miss him very than the life of a coward," I answered. long were you in your last place? "He has died,' she said slowly, "because he loved me."

soldier's death, and you may be proud gaging the new domestic jewel at United States and congress confirmed spent the greater part of the night of him. You can love him in death, once-Where did you last work? there. Would you like to see him and whereas you could not in life. You The Jewel-At the reformatory, may be proud of him, now he has re- mum. shuddered. Please heaven, I deemed by a hero's death what was a, N. B.—She was not engaged.—

She cried out that I was hard and cruel; she wept as Lhave never seen a

"I would go all the way to Isandula," she said, "to kist his face just once before they lay him in his grave." She was like a woman stricken with Captain Fleming came down in the "Quite early," he replied. "He same sunny month of August, and he has to be at the Royal horse guards by talked for hours about one who had beer the hero of the fight. He told a "He will come back, I hope." I hundred anecdotes of Colonel North, of his courage, his bravery, his kindness; how he was beloved by his friends, to the house, and had gone to the worshipped by the soldiers; how he was always ready with kindly words

She listened with a white, set face;

"I do not believe," said Captain Fleming, "that he had a blot in his

But we two women, who knew what a dark and terrible blot there had been, said nothing.

Another great event happened in that month of August. Lord Latimer died quite suddenly. complained of not being well, but She did not hear, poor child, what no one suspected that he was worse than usual. His valet, going to wake him one morning, found him dead in his bed, and the doctor said he had been dead some hours. There was no brain fever set in; the doctor was sent need for any inquest; he had died from heart disease from which he had suffered many years.

It was a terrible blow to Lady Latimer; not that she loved him but that it brought her sin and her sorrow so forcibly to her mind. "How strange it seems that he should have died first." she said to me one day. "Oh, Audrey," God has punished my sin."

Then Lionel Fleming became Lord Latimer, and master of Lorton's Cray. The old lord had left his wife a large

"I shall sperd it all in charity she said to me. "There is but one interest, one pleasure in life left, and that is doing good to others.' any woman tried to make up for a sin by charity and good deeds, Lady Latimer did. The new Lord Latimer begged of us to remain at Lorton's Cray for some few months. He did not want to take posession until the spring of the year, and he prayed us to remain there Lady Latimer consented, and we lived able. there in peace and seclusion until the Christmas snow was on the ground again and the New Year coming round.

[TO BE CONTINUED.] LIVING IN A CHURCH.

United States Senator Occupies One as a Residence. An ex-senator of the United States lives in a church in Washington, and seems to like it. The peculiar thing about it is that the church in question is still in a condition which would permit of the words of truth being uttered every Sunday from the sacred desk, and that the ex-senator is one of the wealthiest men in Washington, and could afford to dwell in the finest mansion in the city, with all the refinements of civilization. Everybody knows the picturesque and vine-clad little church on Massachusetts avenue, at the intersection of Eighteenth and P streets. Ex-Senator Van Wyck, his wife and young daughter have made it

Mrs. Van Wyck owns the property, it having been bought by her husband and presented to her as a little afterdinner favor the day they were leaving Washington for Nebraska, at the conclusion of the latter's senatorial career. It has been the scene of High Church Episcopal and Swedenborgian services, but lately has been idle. When Mr. and Mrs. Van Wyck came here to attend to repairs then in progress upon their own property, the former suggested that they camp out in their empty church. Mr. Van Eutter-Fair to good country. Wyck has a horror of mounting steps, and thought it would be a great scheme to live on the ground floor. So they moved to the church and divided off the auditorium by imaginary lines into a parlor, bed rooms, dining room and picture gallery. The pictures they had stored away here in plenty, and a shopping expedition quickly provided the necessary furniture. The vestry was turned into a kitchen, and the shining pipes of the organ and the decoration of the chancel helped out the art gallery. Rugs, lamps. small tables, easy chairs and sofas dot the space all around, and papers and books are in profusion.

With plenty of servants and every comfort possible, the household spends the days very enjoyably in its novel

Plety in Practice.

An American hostess who wished to make the best impression on an English lord instructed her old negro butler to address their guest without fail by his proper title. Uncle Josh, the butler, had never heard of any lord save his Creator, and the lady's feelings can better be imagined than described when she heard Uncle Josh say, "My God! Have a biscuit?"

The above deity proved to be a perfect fraud, and when Uncle Josh was told that his master had lost considerable through him, he was heard to say, "That's what they gits for followin" after strange gods."-Truth.

Mrs. Hoyt, engaging servant—How Applicant for Situation - Almost three years, mum. "No; that is wrong; he has died a Mrs. Hoyt, thinking strongly of en-

Truth.

CRESHAM AS FEACEMAKER.

Extracts from Letters to Bayard on the Venezuela Dispute. Washington, April 18 .- The published correspondence of the state department for 1894, made public yesterday, cont ins but two letters in reference to the Venezuelan boundary dispute. They are addressed to Ambassador Bayard at London and are dated July 13 and Dec. 1 last respectively. The first letter recites the efforts made to have the dispute settled by arbitration and England's gradually widening claims to territory and concludes with the opinion there are but two solutions of the question-arbitration or the creation of a new boundary line "in accordance with the dictates of expediency and consideration." The second letter is a reference to Britain's contention that the validity of her claim to territory in dispute shall be a condition precedent to the submission of the matter to arbitration and hopes Mr. Bayard will succeed in securing an honorable settlement of the difficulty

Lady Latimer was like a woman FIGHTING FOR THE OFFICES. Gov. Mosley of the Chickasaw Nation

Has His Hands Full. St. Louis, Mo., April 18 .- A special from Ardmore, I. T., says: "One hundred armed men are reported near Tishomingo, the Chickasaw capital. Gov. Mosely notified all sheriffs, constables and deputies to report at once to him for active duty. His intention is to disband the faction which is composed of Charles and Willis Brown and Noah McMill as leaders, and their followers. They claim to have been duly and legally elected as sheriffs for the Chickasaw country. The legislature, however, ignored their claims, and other officers were installed. This faction holds that the legislature had no authority to interfere, hence their determined effort to install themselves. Bloodshed cannot be avoided."

HEARING IOWA LAND CASES.

Settlers on Sioux City Railroad Grant Claim Title Through Forfeiture. Washington, April 18.-The United States Supreme court is hearing arguments in three cases to which various settlers in Iowa, on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad companies' lines, are parties. The cases involve the ownership of about 22,000 acres of And it was perfectly true. If ever land along the lines of these roads, which the Sioux City company claims was granted to it by the government of the United States in 1864. It is claimed on the part of the settlers that the railroad company failed to earn the land by a failure to build part of its line within the time specified in the act. The lands have all been settled and improved, and are considered valu-

> Trust Refineries Resume Work. Philadelphia, Pa., April 18.-Spreckels' sugar refinery, which has been closed for about two weeks by order of the sugar trust, has started up again. The resumption is looked upon as permanent. The plant is running on nearly full time, but with a reduced force. The refinery at Williamsburg, N. Y., which was closed by the trust at the same time, has also resumed work. The Mc-Cahan refinery, which is not controlled by the trust, is running full time.

> Wisconsin Arbitration Bill Passes. Madison, Wis., April 17.-The senate passed the O'Neill arbitration bill, which has passed the assembly. The bill provides for the settlement of labor disputes by a commission of three, who shall each receive $5 a day and expenses while actually engaged in their duties. They are not given the power to enforce their decisions. The law is in many respects similar to that in operation in Massachusetts. An assembly bill providing for licensing street car companies was concurred in by the senate. It provides that a license of 1 per cent on the gross receipts up to $250,000 be charged; above that 1½ per cent until the $500,000 mark is reached, when 2 per cent shall be charged. This license fee is to be paid in lieu of other

LIVE STOCK AND PRODUCE MARKETS

Quotations from New York, Chicago, St. Louis, Omaha and Elsewhere. OMAHA

	lioney-, er b 18	44	20
	Hens-Live, per 15 7	26	723
1	Lemons-Choice Messinas 3 75	66.4	25
ĺ	Oranges-Floridas, per box 2 50	@ 4	0.1
١	l'otatoes 15	115
1	Beans-Navy, hand-picked, bu 1 75	95-2
	Hay Upland, per ton 8 50	(E 9
į	Unions-Per bol 2:0	14 3
1	Carrots-Per bbl 1 50	66.7
	Cranberries-Jerseys11 50	(0.12
j	hogs-Mixed packing 4 75	66 4
1	Hogs-Heavy weights 4 87	16.4
	beeves-Stockers and feeders 250	65 4
1	Beef Steers 3 5)	@ 5
	Bulls 2 00	@ 3
1	11ags 2 81	11 3
ł	(aives 1 90	@ 5
	teers-Fair to good 3 60	95 5
j	tows 1 10	W4 4
	heifers 1 75	@ 4
1	Westerns 2 60	6.4
į	£heen-Lambs 3 25	19 5
1	Sheep-Choice natives 3 65	19 4	£0
1	CHICAGO.
1	Wheat-No.2 spring 00	5.6	62
1	Corn—Fer bu 45		45%
1	Unis- er bu 28	St.
j	Fork12 52	(r.12	35
į	Lard 6 95	65 6	97
1	Lard	5	00
l	Cattle-Shipping steers 4 15	2 3	25
J	theep-lam(s 3 (0	- 5	50
Ì	theep-Good to fancy 2 50	@ 5	00
į	NEW YORK
j		17.45

Wheat, No. 2, red winter..... 61 % Corn—No. 2 50 65 515 Cars—No. 2 52 62 52 Lore 13 65 13 25 Wheat-No fred, cash...... KANSAS CITY. Wheat-No. 2 hard..... 55 @ 5.5%

Decides Against Northern Pacific. Washington, April 18. - Secretary Smith has decided adversely to the laim of the Northern Pacific railroad to lands lying in Idaho within the limits of its grant, but which were subsequently withdrawn by proclamation and formed into a part of Coeur d'Alene Indian reservation. More recently the Indians ceded these lands back to the the cession.

hogs-Mixed nackers

Train Wreckers at Work. Cone, Texas, April 18 .- An unsuccessful attempt was made to wreck a Santa Fe passenger train on a bridge near here yesterday.

A Paternal Government.

The Gentleman's Magazine: Reguthe pace of the foreign train. However, ing horses. when an official is kept all day to let down the barrier and keep people back it is also thought necessary to put up an enormous cast iron notice requesting the public to "halt at the shut barrier." It is difficult to pass such a combination of obstruction, but one can do so by jumping over the barrier-a feat which causes as much surprise as if one were to walk on one's head in England. Not much is expected of the German traveler in the way of agility; he is warned in the trams that he "jumps off and on at his own peril:" another characteristic notice which they contain is the request "not to spit, out of consideration for fellow trav-

The rathway of the reformer is generally

It is right to fast, but it is wrong to look

A Good Law. There is a law in France in which lations and by-laws of all sorts appear the various forms of unsoundness to to add a zest to German existence; if which the horse is subject are dethere is a bridge or tollgate, the notices scribed, and which further provides there posted state that the officials in that a purchaser of a horse has nine charge will not have to pay anything days in which to return him to the when they go across. I have seen a seller should he be found to be sufferbridge with a special tariff for each an- ing from any of the forms of unsoundimal-so much for a horse to cross, so ness specified. Such a law in this counmuch for a goose or turkey! Level try would do much to protect buyers. crossings on the railways are very com- and it would also be welcome to the remon, but not very dangerous, owing to putable men who are engaged in sell-

Hegeman's Camphor Ice with Glycerine. Cures Chapped Hands and Face, Tender or Sore Feet, Chiblains, Piles, &c. C. G. Clark Co., New Haven, Ct.

A sermon may be very heavy and still not have much weight.

If any one man knew everything the rest of the world, instead of respecting him, would hang him.

When a married man talls sick his mother always blames his wife. After six years' suffering, I was cured by Piso's Cure.-Mary Thompson, 2914 Ohio Ave., Allegheny, Pa., March 19, '94. Religion and common sense mixed make an admirable compound.

Billiard Table, second-hand. For sale Apply to or address, H. C. Akin, 511 S. 12th St., Omaha, Neb.

The man who rules himself is a king, whether he wears a crown or not.

Spring Cleaning

Is such a trial that men say, "Let the and enriched, and thus sustains the nerves house take care of itself." But the con- and all the bodily functions. scientious wife feels bound to risk health "I take Hood's Sarsaparilla every spring, and strength in this annual struggle with and it is the only medicine I use through the dust and dirt. The consequence of her year. It enables me to do my house cleaning feverish anxiety over extra work is de- and farm work all through the summer. It pletion of the blood, the source of helped me very much for palpitation of the all life and strength, manifested in that heart. I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the weak, tired, nervous condition too prev- medicine for everyone and all who take it alent at this season and very dangerous will never be without it. I have also used if allowed to continue. What every man Hood's Pills and they are the best I ever and woman needs in the spring is Hood's tried." Mrs. F. H. Andrews, S. Wood-

Sarsaparilla. It keeps the blood vitalized stock, Ct. Get Hood's, because Hood's Sarsaparilla Is the Only True Blood Purifier

Very Latest Styles, By MAY MANTON:

LADIES' BASQUE. LADIES' BASQUE WAIST. LADIES' YOKE WAIST. DUCHESS OF YOKE COAT.

·COUPON. This coupon sent with an order for one or any of our 35 cent patterns is credited as 25 cents, making the pattern cost only 10 cents.

One cent extra for postage for each pattern. Give number of inches waist measure for skirts and number of inches bust measure for waists. COUPON PATTERN COMPANY. NEW YORK, N. Y.

of this paper we will mail an 8-page year (52 weeks) FREE on receipt of 25c to pay postage. Full of latest tel-

nish steel tanks

with covers, all galvanized after completion, in nests of ten, 8 to 12 feet high and 30 to 36 inches in diameter, at 25c. per gallon

They do not rust, shrink, leak, give taste to water, nor allow foreign substances to get in. They can be put in garret or barn and thus are protected from freezing. They take no setting up, are cheaper than wood. Tank substructures of all sizes made to order. Send for price list and designs for substructure and ornamental water supply.

AERMOTOR CO.

CHICAGO.

graph and farm news. Write at once. HOMESTEAD PUB. CO., Omaha. Douclas $3 SHOE IS THE BEST. 5. CORDOVAN, FRENCH & ENAMELLED CALF. 1.53.50 FINE CALF & KANGAROO. $3.50 POLICE, 3 SOLES. $250 $2. WORKINGMEN'S. EXTRA FINE. 2.$1.75 BOYS SCHOOL SHOES ·LADIES · $250$2.$1.75 BEST DONGOLA.

Over One Million People wear the W. L. Doug'as $3 & $4 Shoes All our shoes are equally satisfactory They give the best value for the money.
They equal custom shoes in style and fit.
Their wearing qualities are unsurpassed.
The prices are uniform,—stamped on sole.
From $1 to $3 saved over other makes. If your dealer cannot supply you we can.

NENSION Washington, D. C. Successfully Prosecutes Claims, ste Principal Examiner U.S. Pension Bureau, ers in last war, 15 adjudicating claims, atty since.

TREATED FREE.

Positively Cured with Vegetable Remedies
Have cured thousands of cases. Cure cases pronounced hopeless by best physicians. From first dose symptoms disappear; in ten days at least two-thirds all symptoms removed. Send for free book testimonials of miraculous cures. Ten days' treatment free by mail. If you order trial send for in stamps on my postage. DR. H. H. GREEN & SONS, Atlanta GR.

WELL MACHINERY Illustrated catalogue showing WELL AUGERS, ROCK DRILLS, HYDRAULIO AND JETTING MACHINERY, etc. SENT FREE. Have been tested and ell warranted. Sloux City Engine & Iron Works, cessors to Pech Mfg. Co., Sloux City, Iowa.

1217 Union Ave., Kansas City, Mo. Agents Wanted Onuncovered ground. Outfit free. One of ours earned $4200, many over $1000, in 94. P. O. Box 1371, New York PATENTS Thomas P. Simpson, Washington, D.C. No atty's fee until Patent obtained, Write for Inventor's Guide.

Did you ever stop to think how completely the Aermetor Co. made the modern windnell business? How it has menopolized this entire line of manufacture because of its ideas, inventions, designs, qualities and prices, or forced others to be literal and service imitators? Winces the steel wheel, the hack geared pumper, the high geared power mill, the steel towers, fixed and titing, the galvaning of work after completion, the grinder contributed feed, the improved irrigating and other pumps, the all attest calls are one of the mean neutral things we ever put out or work after completion, the grinder centrifugat feed, the improved irrigating and other pumps, the all steel pole are—one of the most popular things we ever put out—the steel storage and stock tanks. Everything we have touched we have bettered and cheapened. It is the thing we have delighted in and it has paid. We have established a core of branch houses, so as to have all these goods near those who want them. The Aerinotec Co. has but one more ambition. It wants to build and fill one more new building. It has 2 acres of hand at its present leading unoccupied by buildings. It expects to commence in June to cover that 2 acres with a single building. Tatories high. This will give it 14 more acres of floor space. Then when the public demand requires more goods than can be produced with this added space, it will refuse to extend further, or nake any effort. It will have done its share to supply that demand. It will then turn away all new conners. CHEMI FATHER OF MARKE MY STOPE. IT WILL HAVE COME ITS STATE TO SUPPLY THE WORLD WITH THE GREATER PART OF ITS WIND WHEELS, TOUSES, GRINDERS, FLED CITTERS, PUNDS, STEEL FREE ETZZ SAWS, STEED STORAGE AND STOCK TANKS, STEEL SUBSTRUCTURES, ETG. ETG., GALVANIZED AFTER COMPLETION. IT WILL COSTINUE TO DEAL MOST LISERALLY WITH THE PUBLIC, FURNISH REPAIRS AT A LOW PRICE, AND BE THE GREAT MODEL SQUARE-DEALING WIND POWER AND WATER SUPPLY ROUSE OF THE WORLD.

AERMOTOR CO., CHICAGO.

W. N. U., Omaha-17, 1895.

When answering advertisements kindly

