My little boy, when two years of age, was taken very ill with bloody flux. I was advised to use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and luckily procured part of a bottle. I carefully read the directions and gave it accordingly. He was very low, but slowly and surely he began to improve, gradually recovered, and now is as stout and strong as ever. I feel sure it saved his life. I never can praise the remedy half its worth. I am sorry everyone in the world does not know how good it is, as I do.—Mrs. Lina S. Hinton, Grahamsville, Marion county, Florida. For sale by L. W. McConnell & Co., druggists.

Since 1878 there have been nine epidemics of dysentery in different parts of the country in which Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was used with perfect success. Dysentery, when epidemic, is almost as severe and dangerous as Asiatic cholera. Heretofore the best efforts of the most skilled physicians have failed to check its ravages; this remedy, however, has cured the most malignant cases, both in children and adults, and under the most trying conditions, which proves it to be the best medicine in the world for bowel complaint. For sale by L. W. McConnell & Co., druggists.

Six weeks ago I suffered with a very severe cold, was unable to sleep. My friends all advised me to consult a physician. Noticing Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised in the St. Paul Volks Zeitung I procured a bottle, and after taking it a short while was entirely well. I now most highly recommend this remedy to anyone suffering with a cold.—William Keil, 678 Selby avenue, St. Paul, Minn. For sale by L. W. McConnell & Co., druggists.

We would like to warn all candidates in the Republican party not to send any liquor to the polls or send anyone who will peddle liquor, to work for you, or anyone that uses liquor. We have had all such work as this we want and are getting tired of such work, and any candidate known to send liquor or any one that drinks liquor will not be supported by the substantial Republican voters. We boast of one sober, decent election in 1894, and we are determined to keep a good name by keeping whiskey from the polls. And we would like to impress on the minds of candidates that there is a certain party in Box Elder that is trying to bleed the candidates by getting money to work for them. These parties do not belong to the party and will do anything for the money and whiskey they can get, and the same parties have been known to take money and cigars to work for the Republican party and worked for the other party. These parties have no influence and any Republican candidate these parties work for will not receive the Republican support.
