

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. Archer, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach."

CARLOS MARTIN, D. D., New York City.

Castoria cures Colic, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Eructation, Kills Worms, gives sleep, and promotes digestion, without injurious medication.

"For several years I have recommended 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so, as it has invariably produced beneficial results."

EDWIN F. PARDEE, M. D., 125th Street and 7th Ave., New York City.

BARTLEY BUDGET.

Lotus Duckworth of Indianola was looking over, Monday.

Miss Mary Kite was among those who were sick, first of the week.

Denver Taylor came down from Indianola to spend Sunday at home.

By way of diversion there was a lively fistic argument in town, one evening first of the week.

I. N. Clover left on Tuesday for Huntington, Oregon, with a view to changing his location.

J. H. Stephens returned, Wednesday, from a business trip through Frontier and Dawson counties.

F. G. Stilgebauer was quite sick, a few days first of the week, but is able to attend to business again.

J. B. Clover returned home from Omaha, Saturday morning, and left for Denver, Tuesday evening.

T. W. Leisure of Danbury and C. R. Gray of McCook were in town on Tuesday looking up things politically.

Our town is almost depopulated of young people, so many having gone away to school or to look for work.

Charles Hickman is able to be out again after being confined to the house by sickness for about a week.

W. S. Minnich of Cedar Bluffs, Kansas, was here, Monday, looking after his property interests and renewing acquaintances.

W. M. Taylor returned on Monday morning from Oregon, Mo., where he has been assisting in a protracted meeting for the past two weeks.

On account of sickness Milton Frost came home from McCook, last Friday morning, returning to his work in the shops, Monday evening.

After spending three weeks here with his brother Seward, M. L. Flannagan left, last Friday evening for his home, Pawnee City, Nebraska.

Owing to an accident which might have resulted seriously one of our lady cyclists appeared in a more abbreviated wheeling costume than heretofore.

John Reiter took his little son Joe to the "Messiah" at Denver to be treated for his almost helpless arm, and reports that member, much benefited by the visit.

A. E. Lang and wife returned, Sunday morning, from a visit to the "Messiah" at Denver, and Mrs. Lang claims that as a result her health has been greatly benefited.

In order to have a place to skate, this winter, the boys have devoted considerable time and labor in building a dam in the river on the north side of the big island south of town.

It seems that some of R. S. Baker's friends thought he was enjoying too much of a "snap" and owing to their influence the postoffice department is advertising for bids for carrying the mail between the postoffice and depot.

There was some talk about legal proceedings, the latter part of last week, on account of the theft of some corn from the field, but leniency on the part of the owner averted such an action and the matter has been amicably adjusted.

Some excitement was occasioned, Wednesday evening, by the non arrival of Miss Irene Flint, who teaches school in the Hickman district, six and one-half miles south of town. A party of young men was organized to look for her and they found her at Mr. Hickman's, the horse having run away and reduced her report to kindling wood. Their arrival and buggy was a great relief to Miss Flint's friends.

VAILTON.

Pretty chilly at this writing. J. W. Hupp of McCook was in our midst, this week.

Ed. Huber thinks of prospecting in the east, in a few weeks.

W. F. Esher is feeling better since his Denver trip. We sincerely hope he will fully recover.

The Driftwood ball one won the game with the Danbury nine at McCook, last Thursday.

David Carpenter bought the corn on the Welsh place. Mr. W. will remain in the east for the present.

Owing to some delay in forwarding their nomination certifying the Independents of this precinct will proceed by petition.

James Harris has returned from his Cripple Creek trip. Mr. H. has been testing some of the minerals here-a-bouts, since his return.

We are sorry to report the fact that Mr. Jones is troubled with asthma. A large number have found relief from that malady in the atmosphere of this section.

We have been wondering if there could not be great reform in our voting system. Our elections are too expensive under the present statute. However, we would not have the present law repealed, but somewhat altered.

RED WILLOW.

The Mulford family left for the east, last Friday. They will seek a less drouthy clime.

Sunday evening, Grandma Kummer fell down cellar, but fortunately escaped without serious hurt.

Wednesday evening, there was a pleasant farewell party at the Cowan home. They will make Missouri their future home.

On Saturday Mrs. S. L. Miller rode to town. At night she failed to return. But on Sunday morning the horse appeared, dragging a rope. Much alarm was felt by the family. But later developments proved that all was well with Mrs. Miller. The horse got loose, and left her.

Mrs. Elias Canaga invited her many friends to a rag sewing on last Thursday. A very pleasant time was had on the whole, but the company much regretted that Mrs. Jacob Longnecker was taken quite ill, and had to make a hasty departure. At this writing she is somewhat improved.

Rev. E. J. Vivian of Box Elder preached an impressive sermon in Red Willow school house, Sunday evening. Frank Crookford's horse became unmanageable as he was returning from the services, and he ran headlong into Mr. Mundy's buggy, tearing off wheels and causing havoc. Fortunately no one was seriously injured; and by borrowing a pair of cultivator wheels, Mr. Mundy was able to return to his home at Box Elder.

NOTICE.

William H. Boyd, defendant, will take notice that on May 7, 1895, Frank Carruth, plaintiff, filed in the District court of Red Willow county, Nebraska, a transcript of the proceedings had in an action begun before J. E. Kelley, a justice of the peace of said county, against defendant, the object and prayer of his petition filed therein being to secure the payment of a certain promissory note in writing, given by said defendant to the Citizen's bank of McCook, Nebraska, Sept. 29, 1894, for the sum of $40.50, due Dec. 29, 1894, drawing interest at 10 per cent. per annum from maturity, which note was duly sold and assigned to plaintiff before commencing this action and upon which there is now due plaintiff from the defendant the sum of $43.80, for which sum with interest and costs of suit the plaintiff prays judgment against said defendant. Plaintiff on May 7, 1895, caused a writ of attachment to issue from said district court against the property of defendant in said county, which the sheriff of said county, being unable to find any personal property of defendant subject to attachment, on May 9, 1895, duly levied upon the following described real estate, the property of defendant in Red Willow county, Nebraska, to-wit: The southeast quarter of section 11, and the southwest quarter of section 12, all in township 3, north of range 29 west. Due appraisal and return of said order has been made and filed in the office of the clerk of said court, the purpose of said attachment being to subject said land to sale for the payment of the amount found to be due plaintiff as above set forth.

You are required to answer said petition on or before Nov. 25, 1895.
FRANK CARRUTH, Plaintiff.

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION.

Notice is hereby given that the partnership existing between R. H. Taylor and Andrew Carson has this day been dissolved by mutual consent. The business of the Sunny Side dairy will be continued by Andrew Carson, who will pay all debts and collect all outstanding accounts of the firm.
McCook, Neb., Oct. 23, 1895.
ANDREW CARSON,
R. H. TAYLOR.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

The Darlington, Wis., Journal says editorially of a popular patent medicine: "We know from experience that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is all that is claimed for it, as on two occasions it stopped excruciating pains and possibly saved us from an untimely grave. We would not rest easy over night without it in the house." This remedy undoubtedly saves more pain and suffering than any other medicine in the world. Every family should keep it in the house, for it is sure to be needed sooner or later. For sale by McConnell & Co., druggists.

If your children are subject to croup watch for the first symptom of the disease—hoarseness. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse it will prevent the attack. Even after the croupy cough has appeared the attack can always be prevented by giving this remedy. It is also invaluable for colds and whooping cough. For sale by McConnell & Co., druggists.
