

The Lion Retaliated.
An exciting scene was witnessed at Bourg a few days ago during a performance of lions in Saluator's menagerie. Three young men presented themselves and asked permission to play a game of cards in the lion's den during the representation. The request being granted, a table was brought in, on which cards and champagne were placed, and the strangers began their game. Presently one of the majestic brutes approached a player named Chauveau, and snuffed suspiciously at him. The latter, probably wishing to "show off," gave the animal a push. The beast, resenting the liberty, knocked the audacious stranger off his perch, and, seizing him with his teeth, rolled him over and over. Those present gave the young man up for lost, but the lion tamer seized the brute by the jaws, and forced his mouth open, thus allowing an opportunity for Chauveau to scramble out of the cage, fortunately more frightened than hurt, and on appearing in the ring later on he was received with loud acclamations by the spectators.—Paris Letter.

Morgan County, Colorado.
The success of the famous Greeley Colony is being repeated in the irrigated district surrounding Fort Morgan, Colo. Little more than ten years have elapsed since its settlement began but the results that have already been attained are far beyond the most extravagant hopes of the founders of the enterprise. Where they had aimed to plant a modest little colony are 500 splendid farms, surrounding several flourishing towns and supporting a system of schools, churches and societies unsurpassed anywhere. The territory embraced under the system of irrigation canals has been erected into Morgan County, Colo., and now has a population somewhat in excess of 5,000 souls.

Alfalfa, potatoes, wheat and oats are the staple products, but the possibilities in other directions are almost beyond belief. Mr. Starn, who in the western part of the county, this year raised 1,900 bushels of onions from 3 acres of ground, for which he will receive $1,350, while Mr. W. S. Simpson, whose 10 acre garden patch adjoins the town of Fort Morgan, cleared $850 from his bees alone. Fifty out of the 500 farmers in the county have had an average yield of 50 bushels of wheat to the acre and more than 100 exceeded 40 bushels. Alfalfa makes a larger crop than anywhere else in the country.

The price of land varies from $15 to $30 an acre, including perpetual water right. 80 acres is as much as one man can farm, and if he goes in for fruit raising or market gardening half that much will keep him busy. Detailed information about Morgan County is contained in an illustrated booklet issued by the Passenger Department of the Burlington Route and now ready for free distribution. A copy will be mailed to any one who will write to J. Francis, G. P. A., Omaha, Neb., for it. No one who is really in earnest in his desire to find a better location than his present one will fail to do this.

Quick Repairs for Pneumatic Tires.
A Chicago firm is introducing a "quick repair" method for healing a punctured tire. It consists of an addition of a thin film of rubber, which lies inside of the inner tube, next to the rim, adding, it is stated, only one and one-half ounces to the weight of the tube. A small metallic cup, to which is attached a straight nozzle, is provided by which to introduce cement into the tube through a puncture. The nozzle of the cup is inserted in the puncture, the cement is forced in, the wheel being turned so that the cement settles back on the orifice. It is then pressed down, which pressure attaches and cements the inside film firmly to the inner surface of the tube, the whole operation lasting only two minutes, and which the manufacturers say makes a permanent repair.

Map of the United States.
The wall map issued by the Burlington Route is three feet wide by four feet long; is printed in seven colors; is mounted on rollers; shows every state, county, important town and railroad in the Union and forms a very desirable and useful adjunct to any household or business establishment. Purchased in large quantities, the map's cost the Burlington Route more than fifteen cents each, but on receipt of that amount in stamps the undersigned will be pleased to send you one.

Henry M. Stanley, in an article on the "Development of Africa," which is to appear in the February Century, recalls the fact that troubles with the Boers in southern Africa first induced David Livingstone to travel to the north, and so led the way to the opening of Equatorial Africa. Livingstone, who was a missionary at Kolobeng, accused his Boer neighbors of cruelty to the natives. They resented his interference, and threatened to drive him from the country. He published their misdeeds in the Cape newspapers, and his house was burned in revenge. This led to his leaving southern Africa and going to a region where he could follow in peace his vocation as a missionary, unmolested by the Boer farmers.

THE NEBRASKA CLUB.

WITH GOVERNOR OF THE STATE AT ITS HEAD.

An Organization of All the People Willing to Stand Up for Nebraska and Keep It in the Front—Its President the Chief Executive of the State—Objects and Aims Set Forth by an Address From the Executive Committee.

A Purely Nebraska Movement.
The organization of the Nebraska Club is now perfected, the following officers for the ensuing year having been elected:—President, Governor Elias A. Holcomb; vice president, Senators Thurston and Allen and Congressmen Strode, Mercer, Hainer, Meikeljohn, Andrews and Kem; secretary, Charles E. Williamson; treasurer, Alfred Millard, cashier of the Commercial National Bank of Omaha, the latter two officers being of Omaha. The organization is strictly a state one, as it was formed by a body of men called together from every section of Nebraska and representing every interest. It starts out under very favorable circumstances, having the endorsement of Governor Holcomb and other leading official and business men as well as definite assurance of their hearty co-operation and substantial aid and support. Nearly twenty counties, or nearly one-fourth the entire number, were pledged at the organization meeting to immediately form auxiliary clubs, and this is to be done at once. Full information concerning plans for the foundation of auxiliary clubs may be had of the secretary at Omaha.

The president and the executive committee have jointly issued a formal address to the people of Nebraska, the substance of which is given below, and should and will be read to the end by every loyal citizen of the state. The proposition seems to be a broad one, in the interest of the whole state, freed from sectional bias or preference and political selfish motives. It will therefore appeal to the ready and substantial support and co-operation of all good citizens. The address, in substance, is as follows, limited space forbidding the publication of the full text, viz:

Recognizing the value and need of organization in the general interest of our state, a number of gentlemen, representative of all sections of Nebraska, met at Omaha, December 30, 1895, and incorporated the Nebraska club, the general object of which is expressed in the articles of incorporation, also the preamble and resolutions which were in the early stages of the movement adopted, first by the Manufacturers and Consumers association of Nebraska, and subsequently endorsed by the leading business and professional men, also state officials, mayors of cities, and others, forming a preliminary groundwork for the subsequent building of the completed structure represented in the Nebraska club now being formed. The preamble and resolutions referred to are as follows:

Whereas, The immigration of good citizens into Nebraska should be encouraged.
Whereas, Having in our great state a territory capable of supporting many times its present population, thousands of acres of as fertile soil as can be found anywhere in the world, one of Nebraska's greatest needs now is a more rapidly increasing population.
Whereas, An increase in immigration, more particularly upon our agricultural lands, would result in (1) an increased trade in the commodities handled by the jobbers and retail merchants of the state; (2) an increased consumption of the products of our home manufactures; (3) the employment of idle labor and increased activity in all the avenues of business and the professions; (4) an increase in the valuation of our farm land, city realty and other taxable property, thereby producing a higher general average of prosperity to all our people now here and to come; and

Whereas, There already exists among the people of the state, needing only to be crystallized and organized in order to become a live working factor in the general advancement of the interests of the state, a sentiment strongly in favor of keeping Nebraska to the front in an honest, earnest and effective manner, therefore, with an abiding faith in the great resources of our state and fullest confidence in the integrity of its citizens, be it Resolved, That we, the undersigned, and others who shall hereafter join with us, hereby agree to associate ourselves together and organize as association to be known as The Nebraska Club for the general purpose of securing the co-operation of all classes of people throughout the state in a systematic effort to promote immigration of good citizens and add to the population of the state by the year A. D. 1900, one million immigrants, being good settlers from other states and countries.

There are scores of ways and methods to be adopted and put into execution. To a very large extent they must be left to the Board of Directors and Executive Committee.

It is a fact not to be lost sight of that we have not only to induce immigrants, but to stay the tide of emigration, though small from Nebraska. We have to meet in a dignified and forceful way the misapprehension that has gained footing abroad by the circulation of slanderous statements derogatory to the good name of the state. There is no question but that it can be done by simple and persistent statement of facts. As expressed by a prominent citizen of the state, "We must start a back-fire against that which is injuring us so severely, or we shall be consumed." This must be done by giving the widest possible circulation in the proper territory to such editorial work for illustration as is being turned out day by day by one of the leading newspapers of this city, in which it makes comparisons from statistics with southern and other states which are attracting settlers from the country generally, as well as from Nebraska, and which show up very largely to the advantage of Nebraska. Much of the migration is blind and misguided and a large per cent will sooner or later return the wiser for the experience and better than ever satisfied with Nebraska. It will be one of the duties of the organization to thoroughly inculcate the doctrine given expression to by Hon. Chas. W. Irish at the recent State Irrigation convention when he said, "Stick by your farms and stay in Nebraska."

Statistics and other reliable information will be circulated at home, therefore as well as in those sections where any untrue and libelous items have been or may be given publication. The statistics compiled will bear chiefly upon matters of interest to the farmer, and it is proposed to give them absolute credibility.

There shall be a literary bureau or bureau of fact and figures. From such a bureau it is proposed shall constantly and regularly emanate by good and bright pens new and attractive matter. Great care will be exercised that it shall be first of all accurate and that it shall be most judiciously distributed on soil where it would naturally produce the best fruits.

This is an organization by the people of the state. It is theirs and they will be expected to entertain and manifest an interest in it in keeping with such a relationship.

Incidentally, but with emphasis, the people most sought after shall be the farmers, and the farmers' grown-up sons and daughters. This is a movement in which there must be no jealousies as between individuals, sections or localities, or as between the country and towns. It must be a common, united, harmonious effort, not of the classes, but of the masses of the people, by the people and for the people of Nebraska.

While it is the chief purpose of this statement to direct attention to the methods of applying the forces which will be mustered in this movement for the general good, nevertheless plans for developing and completing the organization will be of general interest. The articles of incorporation require that 5,000 shares shall be subscribed and paid before the club shall proceed to carry out the object for which it is incorporated.

As an example worthy of emulation, the Manufacturers and Consumers association of Nebraska is cited. This organization, a state one, with members all over Nebraska, has already by formal resolution of its board of directors requested its members, active and associate, in the various communities to take the initiative in this movement, make up the original five stockholders necessary and call a organization meeting in their different localities.

Volunteer organizers are called for and should be readily secured from every county in the state without delay. Over one hundred signatures were promptly added to the drafted preamble and resolutions, being those of representative citizens all over the state. The co-operation and assistance of the press is earnestly desired. Foreign corporations and individuals having interests in the state, and therefore in the work and success of the club are requested to subscribe to the common fund.

Every business firm, every farmer, and all others, regardless of vocation, politics or creed, are urged to join in the common effort. On the occasion of any and all general conventions, farmers' institutes, or other public gatherings of size and importance, it is desired and requested that the club be given a place on the program thereof and proper time for a due and full presentation of its principles and purpose and its claims upon the public interests and support.

The real estate men will naturally occupy a prominent place in the active work of the club and their earnest personal viziant support is desired. Traveling salesmen, insurance agents and companies, doctors, lawyers, clubs and fraternal organizations and all others are asked to interest themselves in this organization and the good work it proposes doing.

Built a House in a Bottle.
A few years ago the writer saw a genuine curiosity which had been made by a little blind boy in Chicago. It was nothing more or less than a miniature house, made up of forty odd pieces of wood, which was placed on the inside of a very common-looking, four-ounce medicine bottle. The general verdict of all who examined the wonder was that it would puzzle a man with two good eyes to put the pieces in the bottle, then, together so as to make them resemble a house.—St. Louis Republic.

A Very Desirable Calendar.
Calendars of all kinds and sizes herald the coming year. Many are to be had for the asking—many without asking—but to them as to other things the rule might be applied, that what costs the calendar we always welcome has just reached us. We refer to the one published by N. W. Ayer & Son, Newspaper Advertising Agents, Philadelphia. This issue seems if possible even better than its predecessors. Handsome enough for the library, and yet carefully adapted for every-day use, it is naturally a great favorite. The firm's well-known motto, "Keeping Everlastingly At It," brings Success.

This year in a new and very attractive form. The daily presence of this inspiring motto is worth far more than the price of any calendar. The date figures are so large and clear that they can easily be seen across the room. The reading matter on the flaps will also possess interest to the progressive. Those who have used this calendar in other years will not be surprised to learn that the demand for it is constantly increasing. Once introduced it becomes a welcome friend. Its price (25 cents), includes delivery, in perfect condition, postage paid, to any address.

GROW RICHER, EVERY FARMER.
The editor thinks it to be the wish of everybody to grow rich, not for the sake of the money, but for the good that can be done with the money. Now, there are three new cereals recently created that will make money for the farmer. One is Silver King Barley, the most wonderful creation of the age, yielding 90, 100 to 116 bu. per acre in 1895, and there are thousands of farmers who believe they can grow 150 bu. per acre therefrom in 1896.

Then there is Silver Mine Oats, yielding in 1895 299 bu. per acre. Every farmer who tested it, believes 250 bu. possible.

Then there is Golden Triumph Corn, which produced over 290 bu. per acre, and 250 bu. is surely possible.

And potatoes, there is Salzer's Earliest, which was fit for table in 28 days in 1895, yielding tremendously, while the Champion of the World, tested in a thousand different places in 1895, yielded from 8 to 1,600 bu. per acre.

Now, in Salzer's new catalogue there is a wonderful array of new varieties of wheat, oats, barley, rye, potatoes, grasses, clovers and forage plants, and the editor believes that it would pay every farmer a thousand-fold to get this catalogue before buying seeds.

If you will cut this out and send it with 10 cents postage to the John A. Salzer Seed Co., La. Crosse, Wis., you will receive, free, 10 grain and grass samples, including above and their mammoth catalogue. Catalogue alone, 5 cents postage. W. N.
