

Republican County Convention.

The Republican voters of Red Willow county, Nebraska, are requested to send delegates from their several voting precincts to meet in convention in the city of McCook, Saturday, April 4th, 1896, at 2 o'clock, p. m., central time, to transact the following business, to-wit:

To place in nomination one candidate for each of the following offices:

Representative.
County Attorney.
Commissioner—1st District.

To select eleven delegates to attend the Congressional convention to be held at Minden, Nebraska, Wednesday, April 8, 1896, at 4 o'clock, p. m.

To select eleven delegates to attend the Republican State convention to be held at Omaha, Wednesday, April 15, 1896.

To select eleven delegates to the Republican State convention to be held in Lincoln, Nebraska.

To select eleven delegates to the Senatorial convention, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention.

The several voting precincts are entitled to representation as follows, being based on the vote cast for E. R. Banks in 1895, giving one delegate for each fifteen votes and one for each fraction thereof, and two at large:

PRECINCTS	DEL.	PRECINCTS	DEL.
Alliance	4	Lebanon	7
Beaver	7	Missouri Ridge	4
Bondville	4	North Valley	4
Box Elder	5	Perry	4
Coleman	4	Red Willow	4

Fritsch	4	Willow Grove, 2d pre.	7
Gervey	4	Willow Grove, 3d pre.	7
Grant	3	Willow Grove, 4th pre.	9
Indianola	5
Total	118

Recommended by the committee that no proxies be admitted to the convention, the delegates present be allowed to cast the full vote of the delegation of the precinct they represent.

E. L. LAYCOCK, Secretary.
E. A. SEIXSON, Chairman.

Republican Congressional Convention, 5th District of Nebraska.

The Republican electors of the Fifth congressional district of Nebraska are requested to send delegates from their several counties to meet in convention in the city of Minden, Wednesday, April 8, 1896, at 4 p. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination one candidate for representative in the congress of the United States, and to select two (2) delegates and two (2) alternates to the republican national convention to be held in the city of St. Louis, Mo., on Tuesday, June 16, 1896, at 12 o'clock noon; to select also one presidential elector, also a republican congressional committee for the ensuing two years, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention. The several counties are entitled to representation as follows, the appointment being based upon the vote cast for the Hon. W. E. Andrews, for representative in congress from the district in 1894, giving each county one delegate for each (100) one hundred votes so cast and the major fraction thereof:

Counties	Del.	Counties	Del.
Adams	20	Harlan	10
Chase	10	Hitchcock	6
Clay	10	Kearney	11
Dundy	4	Nuckolls	13
Franklin	9	Perkins	4
Frontier	9	Phelps	11
Furnas	13	Red Willow	11
Gosper	5	Webster	12
Hayes	4
Hall	18	Total	183

It is recommended that no proxies be admitted to the convention and that the delegates present be authorized to cast the entire vote of the delegation of the county which they represent.

By order of the republican committee of the Fifth congressional district.
R. O. STEWART, Chairman.
FRED RENNER, Secretary.

PROSPECT.

Our summer caught a bad cold, Tuesday.

Robert Barr has returned from his visit to Iowa.

One of Eugene Dunham's little girls has been quite sick.

J. S. McBrayer of McCook was in these regions buying cattle, one day last week.

J. M. Hammond, who has been quite seriously ill for some time, is able to be out again.

Quite a large acreage of wheat and oats is being put in, in this neighborhood, this season.

Those who attended the entertainment at the Fitch school house, last Saturday night, report a very pleasant time.

A. W. Dutcher and family from over on Spring Creek were over in this burg, Sunday, guest of J. H. Wade and wife.

RHODE ISLAND swings into line, this week, with the usual Republican plurality.

MARY COBB, treasurer of Lancaster county, has committed suicide. It is the sensation of the hour in Lincoln.

Awarded Highest Honors—World's Fair, DR.

If you are contemplating having some pictures made and desire something of superior quality, tasty and artistic in finish wait for BAILLIE and RODSTROM, who will open a studio, APRIL 13, in the Ganschow building, west side of lower Main avenue.

INDIANOLA.

J. J. Lamborn was home over Sunday.

J. W. Dolan was out of town, first of the week.

A. G. Dole of Bartley was in town, Monday.

G. W. Roper had business in McCook, Monday.

E. R. Banks had business in the metropolis, Tuesday.

I. M. Smith entertained guests from Trenton, this week.

Lulu Beardslee was visiting in McCook, first of the week.

Dennis Fitzgerald and wife were down from McCook, Sunday.

W. R. Starr was in Lincoln, Wednesday, on legal business.

Jacob Lerch was also a business visitor to McCook, Monday.

A. T. McCoy of Trenton has taken a position on the Reporter.

J. H. Goodrich was down from Wauneta visiting with Paul, Tuesday.

Colonel Phillips' admiration for the supreme court is something marvelous.

The kite-flying fever seems to have possession of the small boys, these days.

Michael O'Leary was down from McCook, last Friday, on a little business matter.

Messrs. Sutton and Pennell of McCook were down to attend the orchestra concert, last week.

Lena Hill, with a number of other young people, was over from Danbury, Sunday last.

John Beck came up from Orleans, Friday night of last week, and stayed over Saturday and Sunday.

Tuesday, Fred Woodcock left for Beatrice with Representative Lamborn's horse, Guy L, and others.

Judge Smith is in St. Louis, this week, on business. J. H. Bayston is running the county court, meanwhile.

Lamborn and Keyes get the Indianola delegation to the Republican county convention at McCook tomorrow.

JOB PRINTING—The most artistic work at the lowest figures. THE TRIBUNE, McCook. Write for prices. A trial order will settle the business.

Sheriff J. R. Neel drove up to McCook, Monday, on business of his office. John is carefully and faithfully filling the shoes of his popular predecessor, E. R. Banks.

R. A. Green, county clerk, was a McCook visitor, Monday, returning on the evening train. Dick's many friends over the county will learn with satisfaction that he is getting on in the clerk's office in good shape.

It having been charged in the papers that the wife of Judge Jones, the Republican nominee for mayor of Kansas City, is a Catholic, Mrs. Jones publishes a card in which she says she is not a Catholic. It is a queer condition of things when it makes any difference to the people of a community whether a man's wife is a member of a certain church or not, and the proper thing for Mrs. Jones would have been to tell them it was none of their business, if she saw fit to say anything about it.—Lebanon Criterion.

COLEMAN.

What about the fire guards? Are you safe?

It is time those early potatoes were planted.

Misses Ella Smith and Edith Coleman are working in McCook.

John Divine and his new wife are domiciled on the S. J. Shaffer farm.

If you have not sown any lettuce, radishes or onions, do so at once.

There is as much or more small grain than common being sown, this spring.

Sow some cabbage seeds in a box for early plants, and don't depend on buying the plants.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Cole joined the Star of Jupiter at McCook, Monday evening of last week.

The soil is in the best condition now that it has been in for five years at this season of the year.

The farmers up here are so busy that they haven't time to stop in the middle of the field to take a chew.

The Y. P. S. C. E. in this town, is increasing in interest and in numbers. Miss Clara Bixler led, last Sunday.

There will be preaching at the Coleman school house on next Sabbath. These preaching services will continue regularly right along, every two weeks.

Uncle Billy Coleman sowed about five acres of alfalfa about the first of July, last year, and it is coming on fine; some of it is over two inches high now. It was sown on upland, where it is over 200 feet to water.

A man can travel up here on the main road for five miles and not be able to borrow or beg a chew of tobacco, as no one living on that road in these five miles uses the weed in any shape or form, and it is the most thickly settled portion of this town.

A letter from Miss Gertie Coleman, from San Bernardino, Cal., brings the sad news of the death of Mr. Ed. Amend, which occurred in that city, March 21st. Mr. Amend leaves a young and loving wife, who is almost heartbroken in this her sad bereavement. She will be remembered by many of the young people of McCook in the person of Miss Edith Briggs. She attended school in McCook for a number of years and the sympathy of her school mates will go out to her in this dark hour of sadness. She was noted for her sweetness and gentleness of disposition. She is a grand-daughter to Uncle John Coleman. May a kind and loving Father comfort this young wife in this sad affliction.

RED WILLOW.

James Mott is removing his family to Kansas.

Nellie Myers is visiting Mrs. Everett Moore near Cambridge.

A delightful Easter programme is in preparation for next Sunday evening at Red Willow school house.

William Byfield and little son are about again, having quite recovered from the recent attack of pneumonia.

Rev. Vivian spent Saturday and Sunday on the Willow, preaching on Sunday morning at Red Willow school house.

Mrs. Nesbitt, nee Miss Etta Baker, is showing the new boy at the old home to the delight of parents and friends.

Last Friday evening was the occasion of Miss Sadie Woodworth's birthday, and in the evening her friends made her a surprise party which, it is needless to say, was a complete success.

A CARD OF THANKS.

To the kind friends who assisted us in our late sickness with help and sympathy we wish to express our heartfelt thanks and gratitude and pray heaven's blessing may rest upon those kind friends.

WM. AND HATTIE J. BYFIELD.

GLEAN UP.

All property owners are required to at once clean up all rubbish and filth about their premises and remove the same from the city, or the same will be done by the city authorities at the expense of such property owners, as provided by ordinance. This matter is urgent.

Ed. JORDAN, Marshal.

DANBURY.

Oscar Everist lost a valuable horse, last Tuesday.

Oscar Everist's new house is nearing completion.

The barn of a man by the name of VanVleet was recently burned down near here.

Ellis Divine, principal of our schools, visited McCook friends on Saturday last.

Our school board have adopted rules for the government of the teachers and pupils.

W. T. Henton, S. R. Messner and Frank Messner were McCook visitors, Saturday.

Frank Everist shipped two cars of hogs and one of cattle from this place, Wednesday.

A new play will soon be presented to the people of Danbury and vicinity. We will report concerning it later.

J. H. Everist and Mrs. Malinda Watson, both of this place, were married in Oberlin, Kansas, last Thursday, by Judge John Hayward of that place, and Father Everist passed around the cigars in celebration of the event later in the week. May their lives flow on in one continuous current of happiness, is the wish of their many friends on the Beaver.

Roy T. Hendershot, who has been sick with appendicitis for a number of weeks died on Thursday afternoon. The funeral occurred on Friday afternoon. The deceased leaves a young wife and a baby of a few weeks of age, to whom the hearts of this entire community go out in profoundest sympathy in the sad and untimely death of the husband and father in the strength of early manhood. Roy T. Hendershot was deputy under Treasurer W. T. Henton, and his many friends over the county will be profoundly shocked to hear of his death.

BOX ELDER.

All our invalids are now convalescent.

M. E. Piper was over the precinct on political business on Monday.

J. E. Moore has rented P. A. Wells' creek farm.

Jim Modrell is assisting S. C. King in his farm operations.

The special meetings closed on Sunday evening.

Kimball and Kinghorn have about three acres of onions planted.

Miss Clara Hanlein has returned from the Driftwood, where she has been visiting her mother, Mrs. I. P. Moore.

Secretary of State Alfred J. Piper graced our town, with his presence on Saturday and Sunday last, returning to Lincoln on Sunday evening.

Married, at the residence of William Doyle on Wednesday evening, William Moll and Miss Sarah Worth, Rev. E. J. Vivian officiating. The bride is a niece of Mrs. William Doyle. The young couple left for Denver, Thursday morning.

A. E. Blaine of Bozeman, Montana, arrived, last Saturday, and is the guest of your correspondent. Mr. B. has been traveling through the east for over a year in search of a desirable location. He expects to remain here during the summer.

VAILTON.

A little snow at this time of writing.

Rye fields begin to wear a bright green appearance in this locality.

Quite a few farmers are hauling corn from the Beaver country just south.

Alphonso McDonald has moved onto the Palmer farm.

David Carpenter is putting in a large acreage of wheat.

The active wind, last Friday, induced Austin Dutcher's windmill wheel to drop lightly down from the tower. No damage aside from a broken casting.

It is encouraging when those who blow the gospel trumpet feel constrained to declare the whole council of God instead of fleeing, Jonah like, to Tarshish.

Those who went to McCook from this locality, last Sabbath evening, to hear the temperance discourse, report a profitable time; in fact were quite enthusiastic over the manner in which this great issue was handled.
