W. E. ANDREWS AGAIN

Renominated at Minden by Acclamation With Great Enthusiasm.

RESOLUTIONS FOR MCKINLEY

Black and Christy for Delegates-- Beaumont and Hoover for the Alternates.

The congressional convention for the Fifth district was held in Minden, Wednesday afternoon, as per call. It was a harmonious and enthusiastic convention throughout. Congressman Andrews was present and made one of his electrifying speeches. Randolph McNitt of Webster was temporary chairman and F. M. Kimmell of Red Willow was temporary secretary. The report of the central committee's committee on credentials was accepted by the convention.

A committee on permanent organization composed of T. O. C. Harrison of Hall, T. B. McClelland of Clay and J. B. Billings of Harlan, was appointed. Their report made E. D. Einsel of Phelps permanent chairman and continued the temporary secretary as the permanent one.

The following committee on resolutions was named: C. E. Adams of Nuckolls, L. W. Hague of Kearney, C. D. Fuller of Chase, S. L. Burson of Frontier, S. P. Mobley of Hall, to whom all resolutions were passed without debate.

Rev. J. M. Bell of the Red Willow delegation invoked the divine blessing and the regular order of business was then taken up. Congressman Andrews was renominated by acclamation amidst the greatest enthusiasm, and the congressman responded with a splendid and able speech.

The committee on resolutions then offered the following platform and resolutions, which were unanimously and enthusiastically adopted:

We, the Republicans of the Fifth Congressional district of Nebraska, in convention assembled, hereby reaffirm our allegiance to the national Republican party, whose administration of public affairs carried our country successfully through the perils of civil war, elevated its paper money to a parity with coin throughout the civilized world, decreased our war debt nearly $70,000,000 per year from 1865 to 1892, increased the volume of our money nearly $60,000,000 per year from 1861 to 1892, and gave to the people of this country the best opportunities ever enjoyed by the people of any nation known to human history.

Recognizing the leading forces which have produced such splendid results, we reassert our unwavering faith in the principles of integrity and protection, as against the principles of free trade which have wrought untold ruin for the people of this country and increased our interest-bearing debt $262,215,490 during the last three years; and we likewise reassert our adherence to the principles of practical bimetallism as against the populist principle of silver monometallism on the one hand or gold monometallism on the other, and that we have faith in the ability of the Republican party to formulate and maintain a plan that will insure this, and we heartily endorse the record of the present member of Congress from this district, the Hon. W. E. Andrews, and commend his fidelity to public duty, and especially his services in behalf of the veterans of the late civil war.

Resolved, that the Republicans of the 5th congressional district, in convention assembled, heartily and uncompromisingly endorse the candidacy of William McKinley of Ohio for nomination as the Republican candidate for president of the United States.

Resolved, that William McKinley, by his patriotic services to the country as a Union soldier, by his dauntless championship of the principles of protection to American industries, by his ability as a statesman, has proved himself worthy of the highest honors within the gifts of the American people, and the intense popular affection for, and confidence in him, points to him as the logical standard bearer of the Republicans in the great campaign of 1896.

And be it further resolved, that the two delegates selected to represent this district at the national Republican convention at St. Louis, Mo., are hereby instructed to vote for, and use all honorable means to secure the nomination of William McKinley at that convention.

J. P. A. Black of Franklin was unanimously chosen as one of the delegates to the St. Louis convention. He responded with a brief speech.

S. W. Christy of Clay and G. H. Thummell of Hall were named for the second delegate. On the first ballot the former received 126 votes and the latter 57, and on motion of Thummell the election of Christy was made unanimous. Both made made neat, brief speeches.

C. H. Beaumont of Perkins and J. S. Hoover of Webster were unanimously chosen as alternates to the St. Louis convention. These gentlemen each made short speeches.

J. L. McPheeley of Kearney was unanimously elected as the presidential elector for this district.

The following congressional central committee was chosen:

- Adams—J. H. Fleming, Hastings.
- Chase—H. B. Rowe, Imperial.
- Clay—T. B. McClelland, Edgar.
- Dundy—L. Morse, Benkelman.
- Franklin—W. H. Austin, Franklin.
- Frontier—F. C. Schroeder, Eustis.
- Gosper—W. R. Patrick, Elwood.
- Hall—R. R. Horth, Grand Island.
- Harlan—J. B. Billings, Alma.
- Hayes—J. H. Christner, Hayes Center.
- Hitchcock—A. H. Thomas, Trenton.
- Kearney—L. M. Copeland, Minden.
- Nuckolls—J. D. Stine, Superior.
- Perkins—B. F. Hastings, Grant.
- Phelps—H. E. Bush, Holdrege.
- Red Willow—F. M. Kimmell, McCook.
- Webster—B. F. Trunkley, Red Cloud.

Congressman Andrews was empowered to select the chairman and secretary of the committee, and the committee was authorized to fill any vacancies that might occur on the ticket.

CONGRESSMAN ANDREWS will succeed himself. He has made a fine record and his renomination is a fitting recognition of his excellent services.

THE TRIBUNE is in a position to commence with Governor McKinley on the A. P. A. question.

Nichols--Stroud.

On Wednesday evening, April 8, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stroud, in Southeast McCook, Rev. H. H. Berry united in marriage Mr. F. B. Nichols and Miss Mary A. Stroud. Over fifty friends and relatives were present to witness the marriage ceremony. After the ceremony was performed the guests were invited into the dining room, and seated at the table, which was beautifully decorated with flowers and loaded with the bounties of life. The honor of cutting the bride cake was conferred on Mr. E. L. Rohlf, and was done in an appropriate manner. After the repast the evening was spent in music and singing, and an enjoyable time by all the guests. Many elegant and useful presents evinced the friendship and goodwill of the guests. E. L. Rohlf presented an elegant fruit dish; Hannah and Knude Stangland, tablecloth and napkins; May and Gertrude Morrow, berry dish; Mr. and Mrs. Thad. Shepherd, fruit dish; Ira Huet, butter dish; Dr. and Mrs. Spickelmier, set of handsome plates; Miss Bell Tupper, card receiver; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Brady, bed spread; Mrs. Geo. Burns, table cover; Misses Bertha and Ella Burns, pair towels; Sophie Hanlin, salt and pepper shaker; J. M. Stroud of St. Louis, Mo., handsome silver tea set; Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Horral of Leadville, Colo., silk bedspread, sofa pillow and Bible cover; Mr. and Mrs. John Wentz, rug; Henry Sheerer, silver tea spoons; Mr. and Mrs. McClure, handsome parlor lamp; Mesdames S. M. Cochran and W. T. Coleman, nickel dinner set; J. P. Nodley and wife, salt dish and pepper box; S. M. Corbran & Co., cook stove; E. J. Wilcox, table cloth; Alta Nation, ornamental present; Susie Leonard, card receiver; Joe Spotts and mother, four towels; Denton and George Stroud, table cover; Nora Stroud, carpet rug; Cal. Throne and wife, set fancy plates; Fred Randall and wife, hen and chickens; A. J. Stroud and wife, carpet, window curtains, pillows, and many other useful and ornamental presents too numerous to mention.

DANBURY.

It is very dry and dusty in these parts.

Miss Ola Pew, at this writing, is very sick. Dr. Gage of McCook is the attending physician.

Miss Mamie Musgrove has been unable to attend school this week, on account of sickness.

Quite a number of Indianola people attended the funeral services of Roy T. Hendershot, Friday. Among the number were C. W. Beck and C. M. Roper.

Messrs. Harrison and Powell shipped three car loads of hogs from this point, Wednesday. Mr. Harrison went to Denver to look after the sale of his hogs and expects to be back Friday.

Miss Susie Thompson and Mr. James Nutt, one of Red Willow county's teachers, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Wednesday. It is the wish of their many friends that they may have pleasant sailing on the great ocean of life.

PROSPECT PARK.

Summer has come.

Rev. J. M. Bell preached to a large audience at the school house, Sunday.

J. H. Wade and wife drove down to Danbury, Friday, returning home Sunday.

R. M. Wade is very busy, now-a-days, cutting stalks, getting ready to list corn.

Eugene Dunham took in the Republican convention at McCook, Saturday. My, but we had a time.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Boatman and Clifford Dunham and Miss Mattie Shears drove down to the county seat, Saturday, on a visit to Jas. Boatman and family. They returned home, Sunday.

The City Election.

Tuesday's city election was one of the quietest in years, being almost entirely devoid of interest. There was practically but one ticket in the field, the petition ticket gathering but small force. The only contest that gave any promise of being close was over the clerkship, but even that proved disappointing, for Lowman's plurality was 33.

The day was absolutely devoid of incident, and the vote cast was about one-half the usual number, amounting to a total of 258 for mayor. A few women voted.

ABSTRACT OF VOTES.

There were but two voting places as a matter of economy.

ASH CREEK.

Many planted potatoes on Good Friday. Hattie Burns was on the sick list, last week. Sheriff Neel was out on the creek, Saturday. W. E. Burns and I. E. Neel are plowing for millet.

Mr. Kellogg has been working at the Hatfield ranch, the past week.

Reese Harrison and family from the Willow visited W. P. Burns over Sunday.

A fine hog belonging to C. E. Matthews, died at W. D. Williams', last Thursday.

Quite a number from this neighborhood attended the administrator's sale of effects of Solomon Shott, deceased, on Monday.

Mart. Nutt from Missouri Ridge precinct passed through this neighborhood, last Thursday, hauling corn to the Hatfield ranch.

Judd Gregg and family came down from McPherson, county, last week, to visit a couple of weeks with Mrs. Gregg's father, Joe Downs.

A. L. Miller and wife came over from the Willow, last Saturday, returning in the evening. Miss Hattie Burns accompanied them for a week's visit.

We think the two young ladies who walked to North Star, Sunday, will be sure as to whether there is to be meeting or not before they undertake the walk again.

People in this neighborhood are not afraid to farm on a large scale, even the old settlers. W. P. Burns planted twenty acres of wheat, Mr. Uerling and son Will one hundred acres, Mr. Broomfield sixty acres, and William McCallum of Indianola has one hundred acres planted.

COLEMAN.

Russell Corner is working for William Sharp.

Bert Wales is breaking up sixty acres for H. W. Cole, for two crops.

When a common every day man says "I will see that no Methodist class is ever organized at the Coleman school house" he has a mighty contract on hand.

At the meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E. at the Coleman school house on last Sunday evening between ninety-five and a hundred were present. That evening was the monthly consecration meeting. After these exercises closed a lengthy and enjoyable Easter program was carried out, which was very interesting and highly instructive. The society numbers nearly fifty now, and several have signified their intention of becoming members.

On last Monday, a minister in the Methodist church suggested that he might call at the Coleman school house occasionally on Sabbath evenings and talk to the people a short time. He was told the "Y. P. S. C. E. meets every Sunday evening, and when their meeting closed, if he had anything to say, he might say it". It is our unqualified opinion that if left to a vote of the society, nine in ten would vote for his coming, and would gladly and willingly divide time with him, and extend to him the right hand of good will and fellowship.

INDIANOLA.

Larry McEntee was a McCook visitor Tuesday.

Tony Haley spent Sunday with McCook friends.

Dr. J. A. Gunn of McCook had business here, Monday.

County Treasurer Meserve had business on his Brush Creek ranch, Tuesday.

E. J. Mitchell was a flying visitor to the county's metropolis, Saturday evening.

They do say that it only took $15 to take the Danbury News from the Populistic pasture into the Republican preserve.

J. E. Seeley, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., has been looking after his large interests in this section of Nebraska, this week.

W. R. Starr and F. A. Saxon attended the congressional convention, Wednesday. J. J. Lamborn and A. G. Dole also went from this part of the county.

We understand that G. W. Roper, Charles Goben and William Barber, with their families, will leave in a few weeks for Oregon, driving overland.

UNITED STATES MARSHAL'S SALE.

Public notice is hereby given that in pursuance and by virtue of an order issued out of the Circuit Court of the United States for the District of Nebraska, in the case wherein the H. B. Clafin Company is plaintiff and Louis Lowman & Son, et al, are defendants, bearing date March 28, 1896, and ordering the sale of the stock of goods taken under order of attachment issued in such case, I, Frank E. White, United States Marshal for the District of Nebraska, will, on Monday, the 13th day of April, 1896, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon at the store room on Lot Four (4), Block Sixteen (16), in the City of McCook, Nebraska, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in bulk or in parcels, as may seem best at the time, the stock of merchandise and fixtures taken under such writ of attachment as the property of the said Louis Lowman & Son, et al, and consisting of a general stock of merchandise such as is kept in country stores, which said stock of goods may be seen and examined the day before and the day of sale at the store in McCook, Nebraska.

FRANK E. WHITE, United States Marshal for the District of Nebraska.

Democratic County Convention.

A delegate county convention of Democrats will be held at the court house in the city of Indianola, on Monday, April 20, 1896, at 1 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing five delegates and five alternates to the state convention to be held in Lincoln, April 22, 1896, and for the transaction of any business that may properly come before the convention. The basis of representation will be one delegate from each precinct and one delegate for every 15 votes or major fraction thereof, cast for W. J. Bryan for U. S. Senator on Nov. 6, 1894. The different precincts will be entitled to the following representation:

| PRECINCTS | DEL. | PRECINCTS | DEL. |
|-------------|------|---------------|------|
| Alliance | 1 | Grant | 1 |
| Beaver | 1 | Indianola | 3 |
| Bondville | 3 | Lebanon | 3 |
| Box Elder | 2 | Mo. Ridge | 2 |
| Coleman | 2 | North Valley | 2 |
| Danbury | 2 | Perry | 3 |
| Driftwood | 2 | Red Willow | 3 |
| East Valley | 3 | Tyrone | 3 |
| Fritch | 3 | Valley Grange | 2 |
| Gerver | 1 | Willow Grove | 13 |

It is recommended that the different precincts hold their primaries on Saturday, April 18, 1896, and that no proxies be allowed; but that the majority of the delegates present cast the full vote of the delegation.

P. WALSH, Chairman Co. Cen. Com. A. J. RITTENHOUSE, Secretary.

THE past two or three years have taught us that we must not put our faith all in one kind of a crop, but to raise more of a variety of grains. When any one kind of grain is a good price every one seems to have a spreading desire to put in all he can of this one kind. So it is with the stock business. About eleven or twelve years ago every body was buying cows and heifers and paying prices that were out of reason, and shipping west to be used on the ranches, and now for the last four or five years the stock market has been flooded with this same kind of stock till the prices have gone below what they should be for profit in the business. The turning point in cattle is here, and horses are sure to be better in the near future. Why not every one try and help correct and regulate this error?—Nebraska Farmer.
