Comfort to California.
Every Thursday morning, a tourist sleeping car for Salt Lake City, San Francisco and Los Angeles leaves Omaha and Lincoln via the Burlington Route.
It is carpeted, upholstered in rattan, has spring seats and backs and is provided with curtains, bedding, towels, soap, etc. An experienced excursion conductor and a uniformed Pullman porter accompany it through to the Pacific coast. While neither as expensively finished nor as fine to look at as a palace sleeper, it is just as good to ride in. Second class tickets are honored and the price of a berth, wide enough and big enough for two, is only $5.00.

UP TO THE SAME OLD TRICKS.
An Attempt to Palm Off Old Forgeries and Fake German Voters.
The Democratic state central committee of Nebraska has just put in circulation, at so late a day in the campaign that it was hoped the fraud would escape detection, a pamphlet printed in the German language which reprints all of the exploded forgeries and fakes of the campaign. Utterances of Lincoln, Grant, Garfield, Blaine, McKinley, and others, are garbled so as to misstate their position. Then the old Financial News forgery is trotted out again to do service in a new dress, and the Bismarck letter which was printed by the silver press under a forged translation, is put out as new and original and genuine.
Although the pamphlet is issued by the Democratic state central committee, the evidence exists that the expense of printing was borne by Guy Barton of Omaha, a life-long Republican until this year, and manager of the Omaha smelters, owned by the Omaha and Grant Smelting company, with smelters at Denver and Omaha. Mr. Barton's interest in the matter, and his unusual generosity, are explained by a conversation had with him by a close friend since the campaign opened. He was asked if he had "gone crazy" on the silver question. He replied that his company owned nearly one million ounces of silver; that if the price of bullion advanced under free coinage, the rise in value would be clear profit; that if it did not advance, the company could pay its employees in dollars costing but fifty-two cents; and that, figured from this standpoint, he would be "in it" either way.
The Democratic state central committee and "Silver Baron" Barton may be good teachers for the Nebraska voters, with their fakes and forgeries and stale chestnuts, and they may be able to fool a few of our German citizens, but the great mass of them are too intelligent to be caught in such manner.

Nebraska has never had a more careful, prudent or conscientious secretary of state than J. A. Piper, the present incumbent of that office and candidate for re-election. He is well equipped, both by education and experience, for the position, and the best proof of his ability and good character is shown in the fact that he was nominated for county clerk of Harlan county four times unanimously, and generally elected. He has given the state an economical administration. A part of his economies was the saving to the state in the publication of the constitutional amendments to be voted on at the approaching election. Under the law he could have printed the amendments so they would have cost about $80,000, this sum to be distributed among Republican newspapers, but he was prudent and careful in this as in other matters, the result being that the publication will cost the state about one-half of that amount. Under his pruning knife the incidental expenses of the last legislature were about $9,000 less than they would have been by following old precedents. As keeper of the "great seal" and the records of the state Mr. Piper has in every way proven himself worthy of a great public trust.

A Farmer's Political Speech.
Some Lancaster county farmers were recently discussing the money question and endeavoring to get at the cause of low prices of farm products. Captain Baird, himself an old farmer, listened for a long time and then joined in, as follows: "Boys, let's see if we can't get at the facts right here among ourselves, without calling in any evidence from outside of Lancaster county. Let's don't take anybody's word for anything that we don't know by our own observation. All of you remember that during the three years of drouth, covered wagons were moving out of the state, and some of the men who owned land began to be afraid that there wouldn't be renters enough. Renters around here thought there would plenty of farms to rent and so they didn't hustle for the leases. How did it turn out?"
It was remarked that land was scarcer than ever and that some farmers in the neighborhood hadn't been able to find a foot of land to rent for this season.
"Now what is the cause?" asked the captain. "Here we have all seen such a competition for land as we never saw before, and farming we all know isn't profitable. Why? Since the election in 1892 hundreds of men in Lincoln have been thrown out of work. They were busy before in building houses, making public improvements, working in factories and on the railroads. All at once they find there is no more work to do. They needn't go to other towns, for the same thing is true everywhere. They have to live, and so they have been flaxing around and renting farms out from under you renters out here. Horses are cheap, and they have fitted themselves out for farming, and here they are, competing with you for land and selling grain instead of buying, as they did when they were at work in town."
A hum of approval followed this telling point. One of the farmers said: "I have heard a lot of speeches about silver and everything, but nobody ever made the case so clear as Captain Baird." Others agreed with him that what the country needs is the opening of the mills and not the mints.

Cured by Racco-Curo and Gained Thirty Pounds.
From hundreds of testimonials, the originals of which are on file and open to inspection, the following is presented:
Clayton, Nevada Co., Ark., Jan. 28, 1898. Eureka Chemical & Mfg. Co., La Crosse, Wis.—Gentlemen: For twenty-five years of that time I was a great sufferer from general debility and heart disease. For fifteen years I tried to quit, but couldn't. I took various remedies, among others "No-To-Bac," "The Indian Tobacco Antidote," "Double Chloride of Gold," etc., etc., but none of them did me the least bit of good. Finally, however, I purchased a box of your "Racco-Curo" and it has entirely cured me of the habit in all its forms, and I have increased thirty pounds in weight and am relieved of all the numerous aches and pains of body and mind. I could write a quire of paper upon my changed feelings and condition.
