Now for the free and unlimited coinage of prosperity—regardless.

The next congress will have a Republican majority closely approximating, if it does not exceed, that in the present house. The totals are: Republicans 252; Democrats 92; Populist, Fusionists and Silverites 11. Complete returns may change these figures slightly.

J. B. Meserve for State Treasurer.

For Poper-in-law.

For His "Pufferian Whiskers".

The three-year-old boy of J. A. Johnson of Lynn Center, Illinois, is subject to attacks of croup. Mr. Johnson says he is satisfied that the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, during a severe attack, saved his little boy's life. He is in the drug business, a member of the firm of Johnson Bros. of that place; and they handle a great many patent medicines for throat and lung diseases. He had all these to choose from, and skilled physicians ready to respond to his call, but selected this remedy for use in his own family at a time when his child's life was in danger, because he knew it to be superior to any other, and famous the country over for its cures of croup. Mr. Johnson says this is the best selling cough medicine they handle, and that it gives splendid satisfaction in all cases. Sold by L. W. McConnell & Co., Druggists.

Omaha Bee Concedes the State to Bryan and the Fusion State Ticket.
OMAHA, Nov. 5.—The Omaha Bee concedes the state to Bryan and state ticket by majorities, ranging from 5,000 to 6000. The Bee says: "Holcomb will run from 800 to 1,500 lower than Bryan, and the candidates on the fusion state ticket will not quite reach the vote for Holcomb. This is also true as regards the vote for MacColl and the Republican state ticket, as compared with the McKinley electors."
 "It is notable that the Republican strongholds, including Douglas, Lancaster, Gage, Pawnee and Saline counties, have all shown a very decided falling off, while the Democratic and Populist counties have not only held their own, but in many cases have exceeded their strength of two years ago."
 "The defections in the Republican congressional districts will defeat four out of the six Republican candidates for congress, Strode and Mercer being the only ones on that ticket who can read their titles clear."
 "From the returns thus far received it is manifest that the fusionists will control both houses of the state legislature. As near as can be ascertained the Republicans will have 11 senators and 41 members of the house, while the fusionists will muster 21 senators and 59 representatives, or nearly a two-thirds majority in each branch of the legislature."

Illinois.
CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—Returns from the state indicate that the Republicans will have a large majority in both houses of the legislature, which will elect a United States senator this winter to succeed John M. Palmer. The entire Republican state ticket is elected by majorities ranging from 100,000 to 125,000. John R. Tanner, for governor, will get about 25,000 votes less than McKinley. The indications at noon point to the election of Republican congressmen in all districts in the state except the Sixteenth, Eighteenth, Twentieth and Nineteenth. The last named district is still doubtful, both parties claiming it. The Chicago congressional delegation will be solidly Republican. In this city, out of a total of 343,708 votes, William McKinley received 201,434 and W. J. Bryan 142,274, giving McKinley a plurality of 57,339.

Populist Vote Not Considered.
INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 5.—Chairman Martin of the Democratic state committee received a telegram from the Democratic chairman of Marshall county, saying that in the estimate sent from that county the Democratic and Populist vote was not aggregated, which would make a difference in favor of the Democrats of over 300 votes. Telegrams from other parts of the state, Mr. Martin says, disclose a similar condition. As the Populist vote in the state amounts to 30,000 practically, all of which the Democrats claim, a further aggregation of the vote would offset a plurality for McKinley of many thousands. It will be some time before it can be determined whether the vote has been aggregated and pending such knowledge the state will still be in doubt.

South Dakota Very Close.
YANKTON, S. D., Nov. 5.—Thirty-six counties have reported complete returns. The indications are that McKinley's majority will be less than 1,000, and it may require an official count to determine the result. This also applies to the congressional and state ticket. The legislature has a Populist majority of 12 and will elect a free silver United States senator.
YANKTON, Nov. 5.—Out of 50,000 votes South Dakota gives McKinley 2,000 majority. Republicans claim this majority can be maintained to the end. Fusionists claim the state by 800.

Land-slide in New York.
ALBANY, Nov. 4.—With less than one-fourth of the election districts above the Harlem river to hear from and with the vote of New York city and Kings county complete, the plurality of McKinley over Bryan promises to exceed 300,000 in the state. One county in the state, Scheharie, which is the home of Chairman Danforth of the State Democratic committee, has given Bryan a plurality of 500. New York city has broken its political record of presidential elections. It has given a Republican plurality for president for the first time in its history from 1832 to 1896.

Pingree's Remarkable Run.
DETROIT, Nov. 5.—The remarkable run of Mayor Pingree, governor-elect of Michigan, is perhaps the most interesting feature of the Michigan results. In spite of all kinds of opposition, both within and without the party, the Detroit mayor's plurality will exceed that of the McKinley electors by 15,000 to 20,000 votes. The Detroit Tribune (free silver) announces that practically official returns from 67 of the 84 counties, with the remaining counties closely estimated, give Pingree a plurality of 65,939. McKinley, in the same counties, received 62,900.

Towne Charges Fraud.
DULUTH, Minn., Nov. 5.—Congressmen Towne, who ran for re-election, sent the following to Chairman Jones: "I am unquestionably elected by a good majority. The other side is sending out telegrams that I am defeated. They have a conspiracy to count me out. They are holding back returns and making preparations for extensive frauds. Every scheme is being worked to count me out."
Shouting Democrats.
CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 5.—The streets were wild here last night with thousands of shouting Democrats marching behind a banner on which was inscribed in large letters: "Bryan elected; we will not stand 1876 again."

Four to One for Bryan.
HELENA, Mont., Nov. 5.—Bryan carries the state by four votes to McKinley's one. The Democratic-Populist state ticket is elected. Hartman, silver, for congress is elected. Fusion candidates will control the legislature.
