

MONTHLY SUFFERING.

Thousands of women are troubled at monthly intervals with pains in the head, back, breasts, shoulders, sides, hips and limbs. But they need not suffer.

These pains are symptoms of dangerous derangements that can be corrected. The menstrual function should operate painlessly.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

makes menstruation painless, and regular. It puts the delicate menstrual organs in condition to do their work properly. And that stops all this pain. Why will any woman suffer month after month when Wine of Cardui will relieve her? It costs $1.00 at the drug store. Why don't you get a bottle to-day?

For advice, in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

MOTHER!

There is no word so full of meaning and about which such tender and holy recollections cluster as that of "MOTHER"—she who watched over our helpless infancy and guided our first tottering step. Yet the life of every Expectant Mother is beset with danger and all effort should be made to avoid it, so assists nature in the change taking place that the Expectant Mother is enabled to look forward without dread, suffering or gloomy forebodings, to the hour when she experiences the joy of Motherhood. Its use insures safety to the lives of both Mother and Child, and she is found stronger after than before confinement—in short, it "makes Childbirth natural and easy," as so many have said. SCHOOLS AND POLITICS.

A Scheme With Real Estate Trimmings That Won in Oregon.

"Speaking of schools in relation to politics," said the ex-boomer from Oregon, "always reminds me of a campaign in which I was interested some years ago. The Douglas county representative in the Oregon state legislature, realizing that his popularity was not exceedingly great, had been talking of building a new state normal school, presumably at Roseburg, the county seat and his own home. This caused great consternation among the 350 inhabitants of the little city of Drain, who had been profiting by the courtesy title of 'Drain Academy and Oregon State Normal school,' under which the school there had been run since 1885. The postmaster, who kept a drug store and sold school supplies, took counsel with his sister-in-law, who dealt in millinery and ran a boarding house for students, and she sought the mayor, at whose general merchandise emporium she was the principal customer.

"The mayor was a man who thought slowly, but to a purpose, and, having set himself the task of devising some way of circumventing the member from Roseburg, he passed the next three days in profound cogitation. He conceived a scheme whose various elaborations and ramifications were too diversified for him to handle alone, and he came to me for help. I had just gained considerable influence in the county through backing a projected railroad to the coast, and also as a real estate dealer and sawmill owner. With my business methods and the mayor's knowledge of the conditions confronting us our plans were soon put into operation. First, we suggested the candidacy of an ambitious young Drainite, a dealer in leather goods and hardware, for member of the legislature, taking all the wind out of his opponent's sails by heartily indorsing the talk in favor of a new normal school. Meantime we had a large grain field of the mayor's, which had begun to lose its fertility on account of overcultivation, surveyed into city lots, and as soon as our candidate had received the regular party nomination we put the town site of East Drain, with its streets named after conspicuous men of the state, on the market and gave one of its centrally located blocks for the new normal school.

"Well, everything came to pass exactly as we had planned. Our candidate was elected, and the building of the new normal school on the site we gave was authorized. We sold a sufficient number of East Drain lots to more than pay for the land and all expenses. The contractors on the new school were men who had aided the legislation authorizing it, and they got their supplies from the mayor, their hardware from the member and their lumber from me. My mill also supplied lumber for other buildings in East Drain, including a new boarding house for the milliner, who has prospered ever since. The postmaster's increased business soon warranted his moving into one of the two brick buildings in the city of Drain, and the former dealer in leather goods and hardware is still member of the Oregon legislature."—New York Sun.

Duration of Human Life.

That the human being is intended for greater length of life than is usually attained in our artificial existence is probable from the fact that he does not reach his full and complete development until his twenty-fifth year. The life of most of the low animals is reckoned to be about five times their maturity in a natural condition, and, although disturbing causes interfere with human life in the present day, yet within certain limits man is subject to the same laws as every other type of existence in either the animal or the vegetable kingdom.

Nature has assigned to him a certain period during which he should attain to a sound physical and mental maturity, and any attempt to curtail that period by early forcing is and must be necessarily productive of lamentable results. The boy or girl may be developed under a system of steady "cramping" into a highly accomplished man or woman, long before full age has been reached, but it may be accepted as an axiom in almost all instances that the earlier the development the earlier the decay. The lesson to be learned from the records of those who have lived to advanced years is that moderation in all things, whether physical or intellectual, is the secret of long life, and that it is easy by systematically violating this rule to produce an artificial old age.—Nineteenth Century

A Friendly Bar Examination.

A Georgia correspondent sends us this account of a young man's oral examination before a bar by a local committee before an old judge, who was also an old acquaintance of the candidate. Being asked, "What is arson?" he scratched his head and finally said, "I believe that's pizon, ain't it?"

On this the old judge, to help him out, says: "Tut, tut, Jim. Suppose I were to set fire to your house and burn it down, what would that be?"

With quick and emphatic reply Jim says, "I think it would be a dad dratted mean trick."

But although this answer was not technically accurate Jim was in the hands of his friends and was honorably admitted.—Case and Comment.

Walked Right Over Them.

"So your wife won that suit about her real estate?"

"Of course. You didn't suppose that such little obstacles as a judge, 8 lawyers and 12 jurymen could throw her off the track, did you?"—Detroit Free Press.

COLEMAN.

Bert Wales has a brand new buggy.

Only three scholars in the school of district 58, last Friday.

Laura Pickering of Gerver precinct was a recent visitor in this vicinity.

The Sunday-school at Coleman school-house will have a Christmas tree.

Ed. VanHorn pulled out, last December, and went to Kansas. He is back now and satisfied to stay.

Quite a number have been so busy sowing wheat and rye that they have not commenced to pick corn yet.

There is preaching regularly every two weeks in the Coleman school house at 3 o'clock p. m., fast time.

Mrs. John Beach and son Tom visited with Mrs. William Coleman, Saturday, coming down from Hayes county.

Mrs. William Divine and daughter, who went to Oklahoma in August, have returned, Elmer Divine coming with them.

Singing-school at the Coleman school-house has opened with twenty-five scholars. A singing-school was organized at the school-house in district 65, last Friday evening, with seventeen members.

Uncle William ploughed twelve acres of land in four days, recently, with two horses and a fourteen-inch plow, and it wasn't a riding plow either. Three acres a day is good work these short days, especially for a man who is sixty years of age.

There was a social in the school-house of district 58, one night recently, in which cakes, sandwiches and pickles played a particularly particular part. The price was ten cents and the proceeds provided curtains for the windows. The teacher, Anna Irvin, hung the curtains.

Mrs. H. B. Wales has a birthday every year. It came on the 30th day of November this year. She was not much surprised, as it had often come before on that date, but when, about half past seven p. m., the door yard suddenly filled up with teams, men, women, boys and girls, she was completely surprised, as she had not the least idea of such a surprise being planned. About twenty-five gathered to express their good will and best wishes. The visitors brought an abundance of good things for the inner man, and it was midnight before they started for home. Mrs. Wales will long remember the evening of November 30th, 1897.

A little child of J. R. Hays, living near Colquitt, Georgia, overturned a pot of boiling water, scalding itself so severely that the skin came off its breast and limbs. The distressed parents sent to Mr. Bush, a merchant of Colquitt, for a remedy, and he promptly forwarded Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The child was suffering intensely, but was relieved by a single application of Pain Balm. Another application of two made it sound and well. For sale by L. W. McConnell.

You can't cure consumption but you can avoid it and cure every other form of throat or lung trouble by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. A. McMillen.

Small pill, safe pill, best pill. DeWitt's Little Early Risers cure biliousness, constipation, sick headache. A. McMillen.

From the Lone Star State comes the following letter, written by W. F. Gass, editor of the Mount Vernon (Tex.) Herald: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy in my family for the past year, and find it the best remedy for colic and diarrhea that I have ever tried. Its effects are instantaneous and satisfactory, and I cheerfully recommend it, especially for cramp colic and diarrhea. Indeed, we shall try and keep a bottle of it on our medicine shelf as long as we keep house." For sale by L. W. McConnell.

WARNING—Persons who suffer from coughs and colds should heed the warnings of danger and save themselves suffering and fatal results by using One Minute Cough Cure. It is an infallible remedy for coughs, colds, croup and all throat and lung troubles. A. McMillen.

J. M. Thirswend of Grosbeck, Tex., says that when he has a spell of indigestion and feels hard and sluggish, he takes two of DeWitt's Little Early Risers at night, and he is all right the next morning. May thousands of others do the same thing. Do you? A. McMillen.

ADVERTISEMENT FOR BIDS.

The board of County Commissioners of Red Willow county, Nebraska, hereby advertise for bids for the rebuilding by contract of the bridge crossing the Republican river near McCook, in the Northeast quarter of Section 32, Township 3, Range 29 West 6th P. M. in said county.

The general character of the work to be performed consists of driving 36 twenty-foot piles to solid foundation and rebuilding said bridge thereon, either 2 inches higher or 2 inches lower than the present bridge, and to be of parts of the material now in said bridge to be indicated by said Commissioners, and other new material to be furnished by said County.

Said bridge to be rebuilt as of the present size, to-wit: 288 feet long, 9 benches, each 32 feet long, 8 stringers to each bench. Caps to be fastened by driving bolt through cap into piling; Piling to be braced by two braces bolted on; Stringers to be braced as in present bridge.

All material and pile driver to be furnished by the county.

Bidders are required to submit with their bids, plans and specifications of the work to be performed.

Said bids to be filed with the County Clerk on or before 12 o'clock noon, Saturday, December 4th, 1897.

The Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

It often happens that the doctor is out of town when most needed. The two year old daughter of J. V. Schenck, of Caddo, Indian Territory, was threatened with croup. He writes: "My wife insisted that I go for the doctor at once, but as he was out of town, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which relieved the child immediately." A bottle of that remedy in the house will often save the expense of a doctor's bill, besides the anxiety always occasioned by serious illness. When it is given as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. Thousands of mothers always keep it in their house. The 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by L. W. McConnell.

J. C. Berry, one of the best known citizens of Spencer, Mo., testifies that he cured himself of the worst kind of piles by using a few boxes of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. He had been troubled with piles for over thirty years and had used many different kinds of so-called cures; but DeWitt's was the one that did the work; and he will verify this statement if any one wishes to write him.
