 Licenses to marry have been issued as follows by the judge since our last report: Minard J. Vinton and Mrs. Fannie L. McPherrin, both of Earl, Nebraska. John W. Smith and Lora Meguire, both of Stratton. They were married by the judge, July 4th.

Vernia H. Rogers of Herndon, Kansas, and Jennetta M. Akers of Danbury. The state of Nebraska vs. William Byfield on complaint of John F. Helm, trespass. Mr. Byfield was before the court, Thursday afternoon, to answer to the charge of cutting and destroying growing crops planted by Mr. Helm on school land, rented by Helm, last year, with an option to rent the same this year; but which was rented by Byfield after the crop in controversy had been sown by Helm. Byfield was assessed by the court $50 and costs. An appeal will be taken.

Reorganized the Department.
 The members of the fire department met in the city hall, last evening, and thoroughly reorganized the department. Officers were chosen, vacancies filled and everything gotten in shape to do more effective work than ever before. The different companies separated and chose their officers as follows:

Hocknell Hose Co. No. 1—Foreman, J. H. Dwyer; secretary, C. B. Gray. Line, plug and nozzle men were also named.

Race Co. No. 2—Foreman, George Elbert; secretary, George Leach.

Hook and Ladder Co.—R. J. Predmore; secretary, J. M. Starr.

The several companies then met as a department and elected the following officers: H. H. Tartsch, chief of department; C. B. Gray, assistant chief; Rufus Carlton, department secretary; C. G. Cogizer, department treasurer.

The fire boys have determined to get together for practice, and to place themselves in shape to merit the confidence and support of the people of the city and the city council; and all assistance possible should be extended to them to that end.

Every editor has received them. The postmaster sends them to the editor but he is not to blame; for instance there was a man by the name of well—say Tim Short, who sent us three notices to stop his paper; he didn't want it any longer. We wondered what was the matter. Upon investigating the subscription book we found he was short $10; he had never paid a cent, and had stopped the paper as a matter of economy—to us; he didn't want us to lose any more by him. A few days afterward Short was at church and his tenor rang out loud and clear "Jesus Paid it All." He might have been mistaken but his earnestness impressed us. So the next day we sent him a receipt in full, and begged his pardon for not knowing that he had made an assignment of liabilities to the Lord.—Ex.

BOX ELDER.

The grasshoppers are still among the living in this locality.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Louis Branscom, a son, June 21st.

We have been blessed with some refreshing showers, the past week.

Mrs. S. A. Warner of Chicago is visiting her sister, Mrs. Matt Stewart.

Mae Creasman is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Elza Ward, at Spring Creek.

Minnie Branscom was not expected to live, last Sunday, but is better now.

Corn is looking fine, and there will quite a harvest of wheat in this section.

Morley Piper and Ada Schoonover were guests of Lucius Branscom, last week.

John White and wife were guests of Dan Wildman and wife, last week one day.

Mrs. H. E. Barnes lost two turkeys and twelve old hens, one evening last week.

Box Elder escaped the heavy rain and hail on the 25th, receiving only a light shower.

Harvest is upon us. Quite a number are getting rye, which is making an average crop.

C. E. Masters and wife, and Isca Atkinson and wife were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Stewart, last Sunday.

Mrs. A. R. Clark started for Omaha, Wednesday morning, with her mother, Mrs. Teas, who has been visiting here.

The Fourth passed all very pleasantly at Box Elder. There was a delightful picnic in the grove and an able address by Rev. J. A. Bacon of McCook. The crowd was not so large as usual, as McCook drew many from this locality.

John Morsic and Mary Lakin were married in McCook by the county judge on the 28th. A wedding supper followed the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Lakin. The members of the families and a few friends were present. We extend congratulations.

In the death of Valentine Bogle, Tuesday evening of last week, Box Elder loses an exemplary neighbor and an earnest christian worker—he often filled the Box Elder pulpit during the absence of pastors, and his talks were always earnest and instructive. He leaves one son and an aged sister, who kept house for him. The remains were shipped to the old home of the deceased, Vinton, Iowa, for interment.

OFFICIAL—BY AUTHORITY.
Commissioners' Proceedings.

McCook, Neb., June 29, 1899.

Board of county commissioners met in special session. Present, James A. Robinson, Henry Crabtree and Stephen Bolles, commissioners, W. R. Starr, county attorney, and R. A. Green, county clerk. Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

The following resolution was introduced:

"WHEREAS, The county has lately acquired title to grounds, upon which a county court house is erected and partially completed, in which there are rooms completed, suitable for county offices,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, That the county officers remove their respective offices, with records, furniture, and all their belongings to said court house building in McCook, Nebraska, and into the rooms of said building to be designated, for each respective office, by the county commissioners. Said removal to commence at once, under the supervision and direction of the different members of the board of county commissioners."

On motion the foregoing resolution was adopted, Bolles and Robinson voting aye, Crabtree nay, giving as his reason for so voting that the commissioners have no authority to accept a court house, with any indebtedness on the same, without first submitting it to the people by vote.

On motion board adjourned sine die.

Attest: R. A. GREEN, County Clerk.
