SUNDAY'S SUBJECT.

'rom the Text, Sol. Song. 6: 8, as Follows: "There Are Three Score Queens" -Many Sympathies Silered and Memories Recalled.

(Copyright 1899 by Louis Klopsch.) So Solomon, by one stroke, set forth the imperial character of a true Christian woman. She is not a slave, not a hireling, not a subordinate, but a queen. In a former sermon I showed you that crown and courtly attendants, and imperial wardrobe were not necessary to make a queen; but that graces of the heart and life will give coronation to any woman. I showed you at some length that woman's position was higher in the world than man's, and that although she had often been denied the right of suffrage, she always did vote and always would vote by her influence, and that her chief desire ought to be that she should have grace rightly to rule in the dominion which she has already wor. I began an enumeration of some of her rights, and now I resume the subject.

In the first place, woman has the special and the superlative right of blessing and comforting the sick. What land, what street, what house, has not felt the smitings of disease? Tens of thousands of sick-beds! What shall we do with them? Shall man, with his rough hand and clumsy foot, go stumbling around the sick-room, trying to soothe the distracted nerves and alleviate the pains of the distressed patient? The young man at college may scoff at the idea of being under maternal influences, but at the first blast of typhoid fever on his cheek he says, "Where is mother?" Walter Scott wrote partly in satire and partly in compliment:

O woman, in our hours of ease, Uncertain, coy and hard to please; When pain and anguish wring the Brow. A ministering angel thou.

I think the most pathetic passage in all the Bible is the description of the lad who went out to the harvest field of Shunem and got sunstruck-pressing his hands on his temples and crying out: "Oh, my head! my head!" And they said: "Carry him to his mother." And then the record is: "He sat on her knees till noon, and then died."

It is an awful thing to be ill away from home in a strange hotel, once in | der one stroke of calamity, changed to a while men coming in to look at you, a heroine? Oh, what a great mistake holding their hand over their mouth for fear they will catch the contagion. How roughly they turn you in bed. How loudly they talk. How you long for the ministries of home. I know one such who went away from one of the brightest of homes, for several weeks' business absence at the West. A telegram came at midnight that he was on his death-bed far away from home. By express train the wife and daughters went westward; but they went too late. He feared not to die, but he was in an agony to live until his family got there. He tried to bribe the doctor to make him live a little while longer. He said: "I am willing to die, but not alone." But the pulses fluttered, the eyes closed and the heart stopped. The express trains met in the midnight; wife and daughters going westward-lifeless remains of husband and father coming eastward. Oh, it was a sad, pitiful, overwhelming spectacle! When we are sick, we want | called in your partners, and you called to be sick at home. When the time | in the most prominent men in your comes for us to die, we want to die employ, and you said: "We have got

at home. In our Civil War, men cast the can- | You could lardly make up your mind non, men fashioned the musketry, men to pass through the street and over cried to the hosts, 'Forward, march!" | on the ferry-boat. You felt everybody men hurled their battalions on the would be looking at you, and blaming sharp edges of the enemy, crying. you, and denouncing you. You hast-"Charge! charge!" but woman scraped | ened home. You told your wife all the lint, woman administered the cor- about the affair. What did she say? dials, woman watched by the dying Did she play the butterfly? Did she couch, woman wrote the last message to the home circle, woman wept at the solitary burial, attended by herself and four men with a spade. We greeted the generals home with brass bands and triumphal arches and wild huzzas; but the story is too good to be written anywhere, save in the chronicles of heaven, of Mrs. Brady, who came down among the sick in the swamps of the Chickahominy; of Annie Ross, in the cooper-shop hospital; of Margaret Breckinridge, who came to men who had been for weeks with their wounds undressed-some of them frozen to the ground, and when she turned them over, those that had an arm left, waved it and filled the air with their "hurrah!"-of Mrs. Hodge, who came from Chicago, with blankets and with pillows, until the men shouted, "Three cheers for the Christian Commission! God bless the women at home;" then | care." At the moment you were ex- | ket and displaying its contents to the sitting down to take the last message: "Tell my wife not to fret about me, but to meet me in heaven; tell her to train up the boys whom we have loved | There are sometimes women who sit | They've just been given me, but I so well; tell her we shall meet again | reading sentimental novels, and who | couldn't eat them all, you know, and in the good land; tell her to bear my | wish that they had some grand field | * * * so very hot * * * and. loss like the Christian wife of a Chris- in which to display their Christian really, if you would be so kind tian soldier"-and of Mrs. Shelton, powers. What grand and glorious * * *?" The basket was loaded with into whose face the convalescent sol- things they could do if they only had strawberries and he was quickly asdier looked and said: "Your grapes an opportunity! My sister, you need sured that his request was not an and cologne cured me." And so it was not wait for any such time. A crisis impertinence. He then turned to the also through all of our war with Spain | will come in your affairs. There will | little girl, who no sooner observed his -women heroic on the field, braving be a Thermopylae in your own housedeath and wounds to reach the fallen. hold where God will tell you to stand. basket side, and, seating herself within watching by their fever cots in the West Indian hospitals, or on the troopships, or in our smitten home-camps. Men did their work with shot and shel! and carbine and howitzer; women did their work with socks and slippers and bandages and warm drinks and Scripture texts and gentle strokings of the hot temples and stories of that land It is easier for a woman to be a Christand jumped out. "What a dear boy!" where they never have any pain. Men tian than for a man. Why? You say said one of the two friends. The litknelt down over the wounded and said, she is weaker. No. Her heart is more the girl looked wistfully after him. well. The sale is one of the largest the bond in full, through the resident "On which side did you fight?" Wom. responsive to the pleadings of divine "I have never," said the elderly lady, held for some time, and its results agent, Philip Potter. This sum, with en knelt down over the wounded and lave. She is in vast majority. The tightening her lips and turning to the pleased Mr. Terry, who feels that he is the $5,000 found in Copeland's private said, "Where are you hart? What nice fact that she can more easily become other two, "I have never been so em- building up one of the biggest horse box in the bank, makes the bank good Hogs-Mixed thing can I make for you to cat? What a Christian I prove by the statement barrassed in my life FALMAGE'S SERMON. makes you cry?" Tonight while we that three-fourths of the members of men are sound asleep in our beds, there will be a light in yonder loft; THE QUEENS OF HOME, LAST there will be groaning down the dark alley; there will be cries of distress in that cellar. Men will sleep, and women will watch.

Again: woman has a special right | here and say we are lost and undone to take care of the poor. There are without Christ. There is a man who hundreds and thousands of them all over the land. There is a kind of and say there will be a judgment day work that men cannot do for the poor. Here comes a group of little barefoot children to the door of the Dorcas Society. They need to be clothed and provided for. Which of these directors of banks would know how many yards it would take to make that little girl a dress? Which of these masculine hands could fit a hat to that little girl's head? Which of the wise men would know how to tie on that new pair of shoes? Man sometimes gives his charity in a rough way, and it falls like the fruit of a tree in the East, which fruit comes down so heavily that it breaks the skull of the man who is trying to gather it. But woman glides so softly into the house of destitution, and finds out all the sorrows of the place, and puts so quietly the donation on the table, that all the family come out on the front steps as she departs, expecting that from under her shawl she will thrust out two wings and go right up toward heaven, from whence she seems to have come down.

O, Christian young woman! if you would make yourself happy, and win the blessing of Christ, go out among the destitute. A leaf of bread or a bundle of socks may make a homely load to carry, but the angels of God and the aching side, and worn-out will come out to watch, and the Lord Almighty will give his messenger hosts a charge, saying, "Look after that woman; canopy her with your wings, and shelter her from all harm;" and while you are seated in the house of destitution and suffering, the little ones around the room will whisper, 'Who is she?" "Ain't she beautiful!" and if you will listen right sharply, you will hear dripping down through the leaky roof, and rolling over the rotten stairs, the angel chant that shook Bethlehem: "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good-will to men.'

talk about the silks and the ribbons and the fashions? No. She came up to the emergency. She quailed not under the stroke. She offered to go out of the comfortable house into a smaller one, and wear the old cloak another winter. She was the one who understood your affairs without blaming you. You looked upon what you thought was a thin, weak woman's looked at that arm there came into

gle and suffering all the way up. You will have to stand at your door, fight-Again, I have to tell you that it is a ing back the wolf with your own hand, woman's specific right to comfort unred with carnage. But God has a crown der the stress of dire disaster. She is for you. I want you to realize this called the weaker vessel; but all promorning that he is now making it, fane as well as sacred history attests and whenever you weep a tear he sets that when the crisis comes she is betanother gem in that crown; whenever ter prepared than man to meet the you have a pang of body or soul he emergency. How often have you seen puts another gem in that crown, until, a woman who seemed to be a disciple after a while in all the tiara there will of frivolity and indolence, who, unbe no room for another splendor, and God will say to his angel: "The crown is done; let her up, that she those business men make who never may wear it." And as the Lord of tell their business troubles to their Righteousness puts the crown upon wives! There comes some great loss your brow, angel will cry to angel, to their store, or their companions in 'Who is she?" and Christ will say, "I business play them a sad trick, and will tell you who she is. She is the they carry the burden all alone. He is one that came up out of great tribulaasked in the household again and tion, and had her robe washed and again: "What is the matter?" But made white in the blood of the Lamb. he believes it a sort of Christian duty And then God will spread a banquet to keep all that trouble within his and he will invite all the principaliown soul. Oh, sir! your first duty was ties of heaven to sit at the feast, and to tell your wife all about it. She, perthe tables will blush with the best haps, might not have disentangled your clusters from the vineyards of God finances, or extended your credit, but and crimson with the twelve manner she would have helped you to bear of fruits from the Tree of Life, and wamiefortune. You have no right to ters from the fountains of the rock carry on one shoulder that which is will flash from the golden tankards, intended for two. Business men and the old harpers of heaven will sit | know what I mean. There came a there, making music with their harps, crisis in your affairs. You struggled bravely and long; but after a while the celebrities of heaven, saying, "She there came a day when you said: suffered with me on earth; now we "Here I shall have to stop," and you are going to be glorified together." And the banqueters, no longer able to hold their peace, will break forth with congratulation, "Hail, hail!" And to stop." You left the store suddenly. there will be handwritings on the wall -not such as struck the Babylonian noblemen with horror-but fire-tipped fingers, writing in blazing capitals of light and love, "God hath wiped away all tears from all faces!"

DIFFERENCES IN WOMEN.

An Odd Illustration of the Customs of Different Generations.

It was a very hot afternoon on the Southeastern railway, says the Academy. In the carriage were two ladies who were young and happy, a lady who was elderly and apparently single, and a little girl. At Orpington there entered a tall, fresh, loose-limbed boy, arm holding you up; but while you of 19 or so, carrying surveying poles the feeble muscles of it the strength and a large basket, who took the seat opposite the two ladies, who were of the eternal God. No chiding; no fretting; no telling you about the young. As the train panted along and the carriage became more and more beautiful house of her father, from which you brought her ten, twenty, stifling, the boy was noticed to be or thirty years ago. You said: "Well, growing restless and nervous. Twice this is the happiest day of my life. I or thrice he made as if to speak and am glad I have got from under my each time thought better of it, and burden. My wife don't care-I don't then, suddenly reaching out the bashausted God sent you a Deborah to two friends, he gasped, indicating one meet the host of Amalekites and scat- of them with a timid eye: "Would ter them like chaff over the plain, you mind taking some of these? intention that she crossed over to the There are scores and hundreds of range of the fruit, saved him further households today where as much brav- trouble. To the elderly lady, howery and courage are demanded of wom- ever, he had to repeat his invitation. en as was exhibited by Grace Darling, Frigidly accepting it, she took two or Marie Antoinette, or Joan of Arc. strawberries from the basket with Again, I remark it is woman's right | much ceremony. At New Cross the | found ready sale to Iowa and Nebraska to bring to us the kingdom of heaven. boy gathered together his property

OVER THE STATE en. So God appoints them to be the Nebraska Prohibitionists.

churches in all Christendom are womchief agents for bringing this world back to God. I may stand here and say the soul is immortal. There is a man who will deny it. I may stand will contradict it. I may stand here after a while. Yonder is some one who will dispute it. But a Christian woman in a Christian household, living in the faith and the consistency of Christ's gospel-nobody can refute that. The greatest sermons are not preached on celebrated platforms; they are preached with an audience of two or three, and in private home life. A consistent, consecrated Christian service is an unanswerable demonstration

Lastly, I wish to say that one of the specific rights of woman is, through the grace of Christ, finally to reach heaven. Oh, what a multitude of women in heaven! Mary, Christ's mother, in heaven! Elizabeth Fry in heaven!

Charlotte Elizabeth in heaven! The mother of Augustine in heaven! The Countess of Huntington-who sold her splendid jewels to build chapels-in heaven! While a great many others, who have never been heard of on earth, or known but little, have gone into the rest and peace of heaven.

What a rest! What a change it was from the small room, with no fire and one window (the glass broken out).

eyes, to the "house of many mansions"! No more stitching until twelve o'clock at night; no more thrusting of the thumb by the employer through the work, to show it was not done quite right. Plenty of bread at last!

Heaven for aching heads! Heaven for broken hearts! Heaven for anguish-bitten frames! No more sitting until midnight for the coming of staggering steps! No more rough blows across the temples! No more sharp, keen,

Some of you will have no rest in this world. It will be toil and strug-bitter curses!

of God's truth.

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 16.-Prohibition workers assembled in this city in state convention. No candidate was put forward for supreme judge. For regents Charles E. Smith of Richardson and Ribert Fitch of Merrit, were nominated. The following platform mortgage record for August is: Seven was adopted.

"We, the prohibitionists of the state of Nebraska, in convention assembled, renewing our allegiance to Almighty God as the sovereign of all men, declare in favor of the following princ:ples, viz.;

"The absolute suppression of the traffic in alcoholic liquors for beverages purposes; the complete enfranchisement of women as an equal with man; the initiative and referendum."

Bond Question Resubmitted.

HASTINGS, Neb., Sept. 16 .- 'i ne city council passed an ordinance calling a special election on Monday, November 6 next, at which time the question of voting $20,000 for an electric light plant will be resubmitted to the people. This proposition was voted on some time ago and was carried by a big majority, but owing to insufficient advertising of the election it was found the bonds would not be legal if issued and the matter was dropped for the time being. Recently a petition was circulated asking the council to call another election, and it was upon this that action was taken.

Captain Forby's Body Here. OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 16.-The body of the late Captain Lee Forby of Company G, First Nebraska volunteers, who was killed in the Philippines, arrived in the city and was escorted from the depot to the armory of the Thurston Rifles, where it will remain until after the funeral services, which will be held tomorrow. Captain Forby was shot on March 25, 1899, and died two days later. When stricken down he was leading the charge on the Filipino trenches at San Francisco del Norte. a fortified town a short distance from Horses and Harness Stolen. PAWNEE CITY, Neb., Sept. 16.-R. R. Lepley, who lives just across the line in Kansas, was in town and reported that a good team of mares, six and seven years old, was stolen from his pasture. A set of work harness was also taken from J. M. Story's barn. A pair of bridles was taken from James Carrolls'. These places are several miles distant from each other, but the supposition is that all went together and the thieves are now driving rig out of this part of the country.

Omaha Physician Honored

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 16.-Dr. W. W. Purnell, a prominent colored physician of the city, has been appointed assistant surgeon of the Forty-eighta infantry, one of two regiments of colored men now being recruited. Dr. Purnell says he will accept the appointment and expects to receive orders at any time to report to Fort Thomas, Ky., where the troops are peing mobilized. Dr. Purnell was formerly in the Eighth immunes, stationed at Fort Thomas and later at Chickamauga.

Death of Joseph H Mallatica. LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 16.-Joseph

H. Mallalieu, recently appointed clerk of the district court to succeed Sam E. Low, died of heart failure, resulting from blood poisoning. Mr. Mallalieu had been confined at home several weeks, but none of his friends were and Christ will point you out, amid aware of the serious nature of his illness. The deceased was a young man of wide acquaintance.

> Footpads Working Chadron. CHADRON, Neb., Sept. 16.-Frank D'Neill, while under the influence of liquor, was robbed of his watch by an enknown man, and William Moffatt of Cheyenne, who stopped off here a day on his way to Hot Springs, S. D., was robbed in the rear of a saloon by unknown persons of quite a sum of money and a gold watch.

Judge Kinkaid's Sister Dies. CHADRON, Neb., Sept. 16.-Judge Westover left here to hold court at O'Neill for Judge Kinkaid, whose twin sister, living in West Virginia, died suddenly. A jury had been impanerer and the trial of a case was about to begin when the news came. Judge Kinkaid took the first train for the south

Reunion at Long Pine.

LONG PINE, Sept. 16.-The annual reunion of the old soldiers and W. R. C. in Brown, Rock, Cherry and Keya Paha counties will be held on the Chautauqua grounds September 25, 26 and 27. The program is now being arranged and it is the intention to make it the best ever held.

Has His Leg Amputated BLCCMINGTON, Neb., Sept. 16.-W. P. Stratton, who was kicked on the leg several years ago by a mule and later was injured by his team running away, has his leg amputated close to his hip. The operation was successful, but being 50 years old and in poor health, his recovery is doubtful.

Thieves Tie a Grant Merchant. GRANT, Neb., Sept. 16.-E. D. Eng-ler's general store was broken into by burglars and $18 taken. Mr. Engler was awakened by two men commanding him to lie still, enforcing their order by striking him with a revolver. Then they bound him and gagged him.

Horses Sold Well.

SOUTH OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 16 .-The Fred Terry Commission company's sale of range horses yesterday was considered a a success. There were nearly 800 of them in all and most of them farmers and stockmen. The drivers took well, and the unbranded colts markets in the country.

Mrs. Hockings Suicide.

HASTINGS, Neb., Sept. 15.-Mrs. Hockings, the woman who was burned Monday evening, died from the effects. It has developed that she had closed the doors and then saturated her clothing with gasoline and ignited it.

Valley County Mortgages.

ORD, Neb., Sept. 15 .- Valley county's farm mortgages filed, $15,787.50; six satisfied, $1,429.75. Two town mortgages filed, $500; two satisfied, $429.87. Ninety-three chattel mortgages filed, $37,808.91; thirty satisfied, $8,577.18.

Judge Ramsey Nomina ed. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Sept. 14.-At a joint convention of the democrats and populists of the Second judicial district held in this c., y Judge Bastl S. Ramsay was nominated by acclamation as the fusion candidate for district judge. Judge Ramsay addressed the Crops Bad at Wolbach. WOLBACH, Neb., Sept. 14.—Good rains have fallen here, but too late for the corn. The hot winds had done much damage and the grain will be light and chaffy. Pastures are in bad shape, while wheat is making from four to seven bushels to the acre and oats from ten to twenty-five. Small grain will not pay expenses and hay is a short crop.

Boys to Be Tried for a Wreck.

BEATRICE, Neb., Sept. 15.-Two boys, Craig and Wittowski, were arraigned in justice's court charged with attempting to wreck the Rock Island train near Ellis a few days ago by piling ties on the track. They were bound overd to the district court in $300 each. Two other boys suspected of complicity are still at large.

Hastings College Prospects. HASTINGS, Neb., Sept. 15.—Hastings college began its fail term this morning with an attendance of nearly President Pattison spore m chapel of many improvements soon to be made in buildings and grounds, and said it would be but a short time before the attendance would be doubled. There is no change in the faculty.

Preparing for Street Fair. HASTINGS, Neb., Sept. 15.-Hastings is busily preparing for the big street fair. Three band stands have been erected, a great number of booths are under construction, and concessions are being arranged for at a lively rate. The town is thoroughly alive to the fact that the biggest event ever to occur here.

Horse Thieves at Work.

PAWNEE CITY, Neb., Sept. 15. Reuben Lepley, living seven and onehalf miles south of here, just across the state line, had a very valuable span of mares stolen from his pasture Monday night. A buggy and harness were also stolen from Mason Story in the same neighborhood. The bloodbounds from Beatrice are expected here today. and it is hoped the thieves may be

Many Students From Oseco'a. OSCEOLA, Neb., Sept. 15.—Osceola is furnishing its quota of young men and women to the colleges. Departures of students to date are: To Doang college at Crete, Janie Pulver; to the state university at Lincoln, Edna King, Eva Hazlewood, Laura Whaley, Thomas Mills; to Wesleyan university Marie Mickey; to the Peru Normal Daisy Kunkell. A number of young people will leave for several training schoels next teek.

A Landmark Removed.

HASTINGS, Neb., Sept. 14.—Another of the city's old landmarks, upon which Father Time has had his clutches for several years has succumbed to the inevitable. It is the old frame livery barn which has stood at the corner of Danver avenue and Third street for twenty-five years. A gang of men went to work to demolish it and clear the land of the debris, to make way for the big pavilion where Her Majesty will hold the big opening ball of carnival week.

Will Be Brought Back. FREMONT, Neb., Sept. 14.-Sherifi

Kreader, after some days of detective work, found the whereabouts of Fred Hipke, the young man who is wanted on a charge of bastardy, Laura Anderson being the complainant. He is safely lodged in jail at Ida Grove, Ia. Hipke will be brought back on the charge of statutory rape, as he has refused to come without requisition papers. The girl who accuses him is only sixteen years old and is a very fragile creature, looking scarcely more than a child.

Victim of an Explosion. HASTINGS, Neb., Sept. 14.-The deadly gasoline explosion :laimed another victim here. Mrs. L. C. Hocking, wife of a Northwestern railway employe, went to light her gasoline stove to prepare the evering mea! when the can exploded and she was enveloped in the burning fluid. Neighbors extinguished the fire in her clothing, but the flesh on her face hands and arms was cooked to the bone and the attending physician thinks she cannot possibly live. The fire in the house was extinguished with only nominal loss.

Hunting of Copeland. OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 15.-A special gent of the American Surety company of New York was at last accounts in Baltimore, following up clues to Ned Copeland, the defaulting late Burlington teller of the Nebraska National bank of Omaha.

The American Surety company, were in great demand. The unbroken | which bonded Copeland, has paid the 2-year-olds, it is stated, sold fairly bank the sum of $5,000, the amount of for the $10,000 that he took.

IN GENERAL.

Officials in Washington regard the Venezuelan situation as critical.

A bust of ex-Speaker Reed is being executed in bronze for the Maine legis-

The war department has chartered the steamer Dublin, which will carry 550 animals to Manila.

General Miles has accepted an invitation to act as marshal of the Dewey parade at Washington, D. C. In the past eighteen months President McKinley has been the victim of camera fiends over three thousand An insane merchant of Berlin named Herman Bordasch has been arrested at a hotel in Leipsic for threatening to kill the king of Saxony. Mayor Buck of Portland, Me., a gentleman 75 years of age, has just completed the feat of walking to the summit of Mount Washington, N. H., and back again. The owner of Stonehenge, the old Druid monument on Salisbury plain, threatens to sell it to the highest bidder unless the British government will give him $625,000 for it. The directors of the Mergenthaler Linotype company has dectared the regular quarterly dividend of 2½ per cent and an extra dividend of 21/2 per cent payable September 20. Edward Bulwer Lytton Dickens, son of the novelist, has been appointed a rabbit inspector by the New South Wales government. He was formerly a member of the colonial parliament.

Experiments are about to begin in Louisiana for the manufacture of paper from refuse sugar cane. Paper made from sugar cane should be in great request for the correspondence of sweethearts.

The house in which General Sherman died in New York, has been sold by the heirs for about $35,000. It is situated on West Seventy-first street, and was purchased by the general a year before his death.

A platform car recently completed at the Boston & Maine railroad shops, in Salem, Mass., has a carrying capaciay of 100,000 pounds, 40,000 pounds more than any other car on the read. It is thirty-two feet long.

The celebrations of Old Home week in New Hampshire towns were so suc cessful this year, the first of its observance, that they are likely to be repeated annually hereafter, though the date may be changed.

Smallpox spread in Aitoona, Pa., and the town hoard of health ordered the killing of all dogs and cats in infected houses, that they might not distribute the germs of the disease. The bodies of the animals were burned.

One of Pension Commissioner Evans' critics recently accused that official of pulled oft in Central Nebraska is soon | having a "literary bureau." Mr. Evans replied emphatically: "Yes, I have, and it consists of every reputable newspaper in the United States.

The wooden belfry of famous Fancuit hall, Boston, has been replaced by one exactly similar of iron, and it is hopen that the work of altering and strengthening the historic building will be completed by the middle of September.

A hearing in the action of the state of New York to recover $1,500,000 in penalties from Armour & Co., of Chicago, for violating the anti-oleomargarine laws, was to have been held in Albany yesterday. It was adjourned until September 20.

Theodore Tilten, who spends his time between Paris and London, has lost none of his aptness for repartee. The other day a friend asked him when it is a man begins to feel oid. He replied at once: "I'll tell you when, it is when he is a sophomore in coilege,"

Twenty-eight head of specially fed Aberdeen-Angus cattle, 2-year-olds, raised in Indiana, near Terre Haute, by John McFall, sold in Chicago September 6 at $6.85, the highest price paid for cattle there since Christmas, 1892, and the highest in September since 1881.

The peculiar disease from which the czar is said to be suffering is known as aphasia, and in plain English is using one word when another is meant. If his majesty wants his hat and cant't remember the word "hat" he asks for something else, and he is unable to recollect the meaning of words when he reads them.

The report reaching Texas from York that Charles B. Loving has made his big cattle syndicate with $10,000,000 capital stock a success awakens much, interest in cattle circles, inasmuch as there is some opposition to the proposed syndicate among cattle men Those of Indian territory and Kansas, it is said, will join with the Texas cattle men in fighting Lovink's syndicate, making probable a temporary reduction in the price of meet on the hoof.

LIVE STOCK AND PRODUCE.

Omaha, Chicago and New York Market Ovotations.

Butter-Creamery separator.		17	50		18
Butter-Choice fancy country		16	91		18
Eggs-Fresh, per doz		122	Sie		1.1
Chickens Spring per lb		91	. 50		10
Pigeons-Live, per doz		91	40		522
Lemons-Per bex					50
Cranberries-Jersey, per bbl.
Apples-per barrel
Potatoes-New, per bushel		96			39
Sweet potatoes-Per bbl		69	12	2	27
Hay-Upland, per ton					0.3
SOUTH OMAHA
Hogs-Choice light	1	95	50	÷	36
Hogs-Heavy weights	4	17	160	4	24
Beef steers	4	$0	50	6	215

Bulls	(9)	14 3	50.
Stags 3	10	20 3	25
Calves 4	00:	50 6	25
Westerns 4	50	40 5	191
Cows 3	311	28 3	367
Heifers 3	675	69 4
Stockers and feeders 3	50	72 4	15
Sheep—Lambs 4	75	90 4
Sheep-Feeder wethers 3	65	91 3
	.00	17.00	1000
CHICAGO.
Corn—Per bushel Barley—No. 2 Oats—Per bushel Rye—No. 2 Timothy seed, per bu. 2 Pork—Per cwt. Cattle—Stockers and feeders i Lard	14 01 01 00 00 00 00 00 00 00 00 00 00 00	00.00.00.00.00.00.00.00.00.00.00.00.00.	55 新加州西西
NEW YORK MARKE
Oats-No. 2	24	10	281_{\odot}

Wheat-No. 2 red..... KANSAS CITY.

Corn-No. 2 red... Sheep-Muttons Cattle-Stockers and feeders 1 9 % 4 75