KENTUCKY BELLE'S REVENCE.

How a German Baron Was Made to Feel Little. This is a story of an international marriage that didn't take place. It failed twice, the first time for reasons

of the man in the affair, or his family, and the second time for reasons of revenge on the part of the once young woman, now three times married. It is safe to say that the German baron will not dally long again with a Blue Grass belle. It was half a century ago that Miss Marie Goodloe, one of the most beautiful girls in that state world famous for three beautiful productsgirls, horses and whisky-went abroad and formed the acquaintance of Baron Von Norde of Berlin, nephew of the late Prince Bismarck. They became engaged, and everything seemed to be going smoothly, when the parents of the young man announced that it could not be, and the affair was broken off. Miss Goodloe recovered, and in time became successively Mrs. Shreeve, Mrs. Ransom, and Mrs. Cuthbert Bullitt. The first two husbands died, and divorce separated her from the last one. Perhaps the old flame lingered in the heart of the baron, and it certainly burned with vengeance in the heart of the lady. Last summer they met in Chicago, and again he asked her to be his. The long-awaited hour had come. At last the proud Kentuckian had a chance to show the baron what sort of woman the Blue Grass country produces. She told the baron that she would consider the matter, and give him an answer in person at her home on Nov. 1. He came in advance of the date, and found Louisville society wide open. She gave a reception in his honor at Fountain Ferry park, and for two weeks showed him every attention. On the first of this month he knelt with becoming baronical grace at the feet of the beauty, and offered to share his castle on the Rhine with her. With an arise-sir-knight air she bade him regain his feet, and when he was sufficiently braced she remarked that she preferred a cabin in Kentucky to a castle in Germany. The baron quit America, and Mrs. Bullitt gave out the story. Thus was she avenged.

The Balloon" Painted by Julien Dupres

A MOST BEAUTIFUL PICTURE FOR THE HOME.

THIS masterpiece represents a family of peasants in the harvest field. It is noonday-no air is stirring, and away off in the distance where the villagers are holding their country fair a balloon hangs in the sky. They gaze in mute astonishment, wonder, awe and admiration, revealed in their faces and attitudes. It is the work of a master hand. This is reproduced in colors, 22x30 inches, in a marvelous oil painting effect. You could not buy one for $2.00.
