A LOSS TO THE BOERS

Their Great General Succumbs to Illness at Transvaal Capital.

STOMACH TROUBLE CUTS HIM OFF

Pretoria Plunged into Mourning Over the loss of The Leader-Hard Blow at the Burghers' Cause-England Gains by Death of Transvaal's Military

PRETORIA, March 29.—General Joubert died last night at 11:30 o'clock. He had been suffering from a stomach complaint.

The town is plunged into mourning for the true patriot, gallant general and upright and honorable gentle-

LONDON, March 29.-The Pretoria correspondent of the Daily Mail, telegraphing yesterday, says:

"General Joubert died of peritonitis. The funeral will take place tomorrow (Thursday). The government is pleading with the widow to allow a temporary interment here, with a state funeral. Joubert always expressed a desire to be buried in a mausoleum built on his farm. "His successor in the chief command will probably be General Louis Botha, now commanding in Natal."

All the morning papers print singularly kind editorials regarding General Joubert. They praise his military skill, uphold his chivalrous conduct and regret that so strong and moderate a mind should be absent from the final settlement of the dis-

Although some of the younger commanders thought the old soldier wanting in dash and enterprise, his raid into the country south of the Tugela i. considered the best piece of Boer leadership during the whole war. It is now known that he crossed the Tugela with only 3,000 riflemen and six guns, but so bold and rapid were his movements that the British commanders thought 10,000 Boers were marching on Pietermaritzburg. For a few days, although in the presence of greatly superior forces he isolated General Hildyard's brigade at Estcourt and at the same time threatened General Barton's camp at Mooi river. Then as British reinforcements were pushed up General Joubert recrossed the Tugela without losing a prisoner ei a gun.

General White's estimate of him, pronounced on Tuesday before he died, strikes the tone of all British

In connection with the announcement of the death of General Joubert, it is interesting to note that Sir George White, the British general who commanded Ladysmith, in a speech at Capetown vesterday evening, declared that General Joubert was a soldier and a gentleman and a brave and honorable opponent.

The afternoon newspapers today publish long biographies of General Joubert. Generally they are in a kindly tone.

The Pall Mall Gazette says: "Piet Joubert was the one contemporary Transvaal Boer except ex-Chief Justice Kotze whose death could call forth a sincere tribute of respect from Englishmen of all parties. He was the antipodes in the Transvaal world of Leyds and personally was honest, straight and clean-handed.'

PARIS, March 29.—The Paris press is unanimous in eulogizing General Joubert, whose death is considered a serious loss to the federals. All the papers agree in thinking that a change in the chief command is bound to have grave consequences for the Boer operations. Many think, however, that President Kruger is fully equal to the task and that, considering his military reputation, the resistance of the Boers is likely to become more stubborn than ever.

Socialist Labor and Social Democrats Trying to Unite.

NEW YORK, March 29 .- The committees of the socialist labor party and of the social democrats that were appointed at the recent convention of those parties for the purpose of effecting a union met in conference today. Most of the business done during the day was discussing the name of the new united party and where the headquarters of the national executive committee should be. It was agreed to submit the names of both parties. the social democrats and the "united socialist party," to a referendum vote of both parties. A long fight followed over the selection of a city for headquarters of the national executive committee. The choice finally narrowed down to New York and Springfield, and then there was a motion to refer tnese names to referendum vote of the two parties. If the two socialist factions unite Eugene V. Debs, it is said, will be the candidate of the united party for president and Job Harriman candidate for vice president.

Danish Purchase Incomplete.

WASHINGTON, March 29.-The state department adds its denial to that of the Spanish foreign office relative to the Paris story that the United States had completed the acquisition of the Danish West Indian islands. There are indications that the negotiations, which have for so long occupied the attention of the two governments at intervals may be attended by success at a reasonably early date, but it is certainly premature to anneunce their conclusion at this moment.

PARDON IS NOT RECOGNIZED.

Court Holds Governor Taylor Had No Authority to Grant It.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 28.-The fourth day of the examining trial of Republican Secretary of State Caleb Powers began with the court room cleared of all people excepting attorneys, newspaper correspondents and officers of the court. The court adjourned yesterday to meet at 9 o'clock, but it was nearly 10 when Judge Moore called for order. The atotrneys for the defense held a consultation and afterwards called County Attorney Pols-

Imediately after the consultation Governor Brown, for the defense, announced that no testimony would be introduced for the defense, and that they would waive further examination. The pardon issued to Powers by Governor Taylor was tendered by ex-Governor Brown as a bar to the prosecution, and he asked that the defendant be dismissed. Colonel Campbell said the commonwealth denied Governor Taylor's right to issue a pardon at the time the pardon was granted. Governor Brown moved that the prisoner be dismissed upon the evidence. The motion was overruled. Bail was asked for. Judge Moore said:

"It is not my belief that Powers fired the shot which killed Governor Goebel, but from the evidence it is my opinion that he was connected with the conspiracy to kill him. I shall therefore order that he be held over without bail to the Franklin county grand jury that the case may be further investigated." After the Powers case had been disposed of Judge Moore asked if the commonwealth was ready to take up one of the other cases, that of Captain John Davis or William H. Culton, who are also charged with being accessories to County Attorney Polsgrove asked that both cases be postponed until 2 o'clock this afternoon, the attorneys having agreed, and court adjourned until that hour.

SHERIFF PUTS UP A FIGHT.

Wounds Two Members of a Mob Before Giving Up His Prisoner.

BELAIR, Md., March 28.-Lewis Harris ,the negro who was arrested here day before yesterday, charged with a criminal assault upon Miss Anne McIlvaine, was taken from the jail last night and lynched after a brief struggle between the sheriff and the mob in which two men were to have been brought up for a hearing, but this was postponed until today and everything seemed so quiet last night that the suspicions of the sheriff were allayed, but he continued to keep close watch. Shortly before midnight it was announced that a mob was on its way from Aberdeen, a neighboring village, and a general movement toward the jail took place. Presently about twenty men appeared some of whom were masked, and an attack upon the jail began. A fusilade of shots was exchanged between the sheriff and his deputies on the one hand and the mob on the other, resulting in the wounding of Robert L. Bull of this place and one of the crowd from Aberdeen, whose name could not be learned.

A Girl's Queer Foresight. PEORIA, Ill., March 28.-Grace Holmes located another dead body in the Illinois river. Two months ago this wonderful little girl declared that the body of Mrs. Sommers was in the river and stuck to her story, although few people paid any attention. A week ago, while dredging, the body of the woman was found about 300 yards below where the girl at first declared it was located. She went out with a few men and was rowed to a point in the river, where she stopped the boat and said "the body is within 1000 feet of this point." Dredging was commenced and the body was found about sixty feet lower down.

Receives No Award Notice. WASHINGTON, March 28 .- This government has not yet been notified of the postponement of the award in the Delago bay arbitration, which was to have been announced today. The news from Berne to the effect that the arbitrators probably will refrain from a distribution of the award among the claimants, has created a disagreeable impression here, carrying, as it does, the inference that the result will be an indefinite delay in the settlement of the case. By adopting such course, the arbitrators will, it is said, place the re-

PRESUMPTION OF LAW

Extracts From Charge of Judge Adams in Horlocker Case.

An Act Produced by Mental Disease is Not a Crime--Insanity is Innocent Only Under Certain Circumstances-Other Matters in Nebraska.

HASTINGS, Neb., April 2.-Followng are extracts from the charge of Judge Adams in the Horlocker case:

"The law presumes that every person is of a sound mind until there is some evidence to the contrary. In this case the defendant is entitled to an acquittal if the evidence engenders a reasonable doubt as to the mental capacity at the time the alleged offence is charged to have been committed. Evidence rebutting or tending to rebut the presumption of sanity need not, to entitle the defendant to an acquittal, preponderate in favor of the accused. The presumption of innocence attends the accused step by step through the entire case, as well upon that of mental capacity as upon all others. The effect of the presumption of innocence upon the question of mental capacity is of such strength as to require that the evidence show soundness of mind teyond reasonable doubt, but it is not of such power as to require the state in the first instance and before the introduction of evidence tending to show mental incapacity, to prove the mental capacity have been in the normal condition usually possessed by ordinary

"Insanity is disease of the mind. An act produced by mental disease is not a crime. If the defendant had a mental disease which irresistibly compelled her to commit an act, if the act was the object of mental disease in her, she is not guilty; she is innocent, as innocent as if the act had been produced by involuntary intoxication or by another person using her hand against her utmost resistance. Insanity is not innocent unless it produce the committing of the deed. If the defendant had an insane impulse to poison Mrs. Morey and could have resisted it, she was responsible. Whether every insane impulse is irresistible is a question of fact. Whether in this case the defendant had an insane impulse to commit the act and whether she could resist it are questions of fact. "The jury is further instructed that you would not be warranted in inferslightly wounded. It had been expect- | ring that the defendant was insane ed that an attempt would be made to | from the mere fact of her committing hang Harris yesterday when he was the crime, provided you find that she did commit the crime, or from the enormity of the crime, or from the mere apparent absence of adequate motives for it, for the law assumes that there is a bad motive, that it is prompted by malice if nothing else appears."

Lang Relieved.

LINCOLN, Neb., April 2.-B. F. Lang of York, one of Governor Poynter's appointees, no longer holds the title of superintendent of the State Institutute for Feeble Minded Youth at Beatrice. He was relieved of this position by Governor Poynter, and Dr. W. H. Deering of Cass county was appointed as his successor. No change will be made at the institution, however, until about May 1, and Mr. Lang will remain at the head of the institution until that time. Governor Poynter issued a statement of the result of his investigation at Beatrice, exonerating Dr. Lang from all charges preferred against him, but that of being incapa-Lie of governing his subordinates.

APPEAL IN IRRIGATION CASE.

Board for Hearing.

LINCOLN, March 31.-D. E. Thompson has appealed to the State Board of Irrigation from the decision of Secretary Wilson in refusing to grant another hearing on his application for THOSE WHO ARE OF SOUND MIND water from the Platte river for an irrigation canal. Hearing on the appeal will be before the board Wednesday, April 4. The questions involved in the case as it now stands are of a legal nature, bearing upon the extent of authority and jurisdiction of the seccretary of the board. Mr. Thompson calims that the secretary exceeded his authority in making certain demands upon him in connection with his application for the right to use the water from the Platte river and that he was in error in refusing to grant a rehearing in his application.

The appeal of Mr. Thompson will probably reopen consideration of the claims of the Fremont Power and Canal company and the Seymour Park Power and Canal company of Omaha. The Fremont company proposes to construct a canal for power and irrigation purposes, from a point near Linwood, in Butler county, to Fremont. The route of Mr. Thompson's processed canal begins at the same point and terminates also at Fremont, but does not traverse the same territory. The Seymour Park company applied for permission to carry water still further down the Platte river. All claims but that filed by the Fremont company were rejected by the secretary of the Board of Irrigation. Mr. Thompson had filed a protest and was given a hearing before the claim was allowed, as were all parties interested in appropriating water from this particular section of the Platte river. A few days after his claim was rejected Mr. Thompson filed a motion for a rehearing, which was granted, the hearing being set for August 4, 1899. On that day Mr. Thompson did not appear and his motion was overruled.

Court Grants His Appeal. OMAHA, Neb., March 31.-Attorney General Smyth filed application for appeal in the habeas corpus case of the soldiers. Fair and Jockens, which was granted. The attorney general makes fourteen assignments of error, the principal alone being, first, The court erred in ruling that "an order given by a military officer to his private will be his full protection in a criminal prosecution, unless the illegality of such an order is so clearly shown on its face that a man of ordinary sense and understanding would known when he heard it read or given that the order was illegal."

The other paragraphs assign error in ordering the prisoners released from custody.

Sergeant Fair and Private Jockens both appeared before the court and entered into their personal recognizance in the sum of $1,000 for their appearance in case the appeal is decided against them.

THE EXPERTS TESTIFY

What They Say of the Mind of Miss Viola Horlocker.

SHE IS DECLARED TO BE CRAZY

Different Names Are Ascribed to Her Mental Disease, but All Are to the Same End-The Accused Regarded as a Physical and Mental Degenerate.

HASTINGS, Neb., March 29 .- A whole day was given in the Horlocker trial with testimony from medical experts. They without exception declared Miss Horlocker to be crazy as a bedi-ug, and not responsible for her actions. Doctors Cromwell, Norbury and Green were on the stand, the gist of their testimony being that the defendant was possessed of an 'insane irresistible impulse" to poison Mrs. Morey, and that her will power was insufficient to avert the act. The experts were unanimously of the belief that the defendant was born a degenerate, but had ascended the inclined plane of life in an orthodox and creditable manner until she reached the age of puberty, when nature's changes incuced a retrogression that had steadily continued ever since, and which would continue to the close of the chapter.

Dr. Annie Cromwell, the official head, and Dr. Frank P. Norbury, the medical superintendent, of the Jacksonville sanitarium, where the defendant has been the greater part of the time since the commission of the crime, gave their opinions. Dr. Cromwell testified that Judge Ragan called on her the last week in May and made the contract for the care of Miss Horlocker, also that the patient went under the name of Miss Viola Allen while there. She denied that the patient participated in social functions, but said "Miss Allen" accompanied her to church several times, and was practically one of the official family of the institution. She described the mental condition of the defendant as abnormal in many respects, and said that she was prone to sing sentimental songs of a pathetic zature. She was capricious, suspicious and given to hysterical, insane outbreaks. She was fault-finding, with an rbnormal craving for sympathy; was abnormally credulous and was deressed on an average five days out of

Witness regarded her as a physical and mental degenerate and, in answer to a hypothetical question, said the defendant was insane at the time of the ically and worse mentally than when witness first saw her the first of last

Dr. Norbury said he believed the defendant was sane until the age of puberty, when she developed a preponderance of sexual life, and that she was mentally unbalanced after that time. He took the crime itself into consideration when arriving at the conclusion as to her insanity, and could not have arrived at a positive conclusion on that point had it not been for the crime.

Capt. Culver at Home.

LINCOLN, Neb., March 29.-Captain J. H. Culver of the Thirty-second United States volunteers, who was injured two months ago in the Philippine islands, was in the city several hours yesterday. He left for his home near Milford and will remain there until he recovers from his wounds, which are of a very serious nature. Captain Culver was a month in the hospital at Manila, and is yet unable to walk without crutches. Captain Culver and his company were on guard duty in central Luzon during the movement of the insurgents' forces from the northern to the southern line, and it was while engaged in this work that he was thrown from his horse, a highspirited native animal, the fall causing a dislocation of the hip bones.

THE TEEMING WEST.

Western Canada Prairie Lands Being Filled with Excellent Settlers.

The salient fact that presents itself in taking a birdseye view of the Canadian West, is that of intense activity in every department. Whether the glance be turned upon the district east of Winnipeg, the Red River Valley south or north, the Dauphin and M. & M. W. district, the Southwestern, or whether it take in the great central division along the main line of the C. P. R., stretching away out to the Rockles and from there bending north and south to Prince Alberta and Edmonton, McLeod and Lethbridgewhether the examination be made in any of these directions the same activity, growth and hopefulness are observable.

The Canadian West is not only a good place to locate permanently, but it is also a good place to invite one's relatives and friends to come to. This is the spirit that seems to animate the West at the present time, and its effects are to be seen on every hand. To enumerate the towns where handsome and substantial blocks and residences have gone up this year would be simply to give a list of the towns and villages along the railway lines. And this movement has not been confined to these centers of population, but in many cases it has been overshadowed by the improvement in farm buildings.

So far as one can see, this is no passing phase, no repetition of any temporary boom following a period of good crops and fair prices. It is a movement more spontaneous, more general, more marked than anything that has gone before, and seems to indicate that the great West, like Samson, bursting the encompassing bands, has awakened to a period of activity and development that will surpass anything we have known in the past and which will only be paralleled by the opening out of some of the most fertile of the western states of the union Look at some of the figures. Over a thousand schools in Manitoba, and the number going up by leaps and bounds; something like 500 schools in the territories. Winnipeg as representing the gateway of the West, the third city in the Dominion in regard to bank clearings, postal business and probably in regard to customs, the customs return at Winnipeg running about 30 to 40 per cent greater month by month than in the fiscal year of 1897-8, the largest previous year for actual busicommission of the crime charged. She ness entries, when over $900,000 was said the defendant is better now phys- paid through the Winnipeg office for duty; the C. P. R. and Canada Northwest land sales together running over $1,500,000 for the year. These and a thousand more signs show how the West has leaped into new life. This is an inspiring and cheering spectacle, but it brings with it great responsibilities. The business men realize this, the banks realize it and have spread their agencies through every bustling little town clear out to the coast; the churches realize it, and one denomination alone has opened an average of about thirty new stations in each of the past two years, and will increase this in the year now entered upon; the government departments realize it, and there is talk of redistribution and additional members. The educational branches realize it, and new schools are springing up everywhere. Over 12,000 settlers came in from the United States alone last year, and these, with the people who came in from the East, prove the most rigcrous westerners. They lose no timo in developing their farms, in filling their grazing lands with stock, and in every district is to be found evidences of thrift and prosperity.

A Farmer's Friend.

During the great drought year J. J. H. Gregory, of Marble Head, Mass., sent unasked, to Nebraska and the Dakotas, tons of seeds for free distribution. It made scores of new friends for the popular seed house. This year Mr. Gregory wants to reach every one of these farmers and asks for present addresses. He will be glad to send his 1900 Catalogues to ooth old and new friends. Send on your name to him. Those who remember the farmer in periods of depression should be remembered by the farmer in the days of prosperity.

Senator Vest recently sent a newspaper clipping to the secretary to be read to the house. The latter got the wrong side of the clipping, and instead of an editorial on the money question, began: "Ridiculous! We are giving away these goods at half price-" "The other side!" cried Mr. Vest.
