An Ancient Spectre.

Imperialism is by no means a new issue. On the contrary, it is one of the most ancient bugaboos known in American politics. In fact, it has been resurrected by Mr. Bryan from the campaign of 1832. Andrew Jackson, the high priest and idol of Democracy, was the imperialist of that day, just as the Bryanites are endeavoring to make William McKinley an imperialist today. His opponents insisted that the re-election of President Jackson would put an end to the existence of the republic, as he was certain to make himself emperor or king and set up a monarchical form of government. Their attacks upon him along that line were almost identical with those made against President McKinley in the present campaign.

In order to arouse the people to the imaginary dangers threatening them, the anti-imperialists of 1832 scattered over the country posters representing President Jackson attired in his royal robes as "King Andrew the First," wiping his feet on the constitution of the United States and trampling on the bank of the United States. In a recent issue The New York Tribune reproduced a copy of one of these posters. Underneath the picture there was printed in large type the following terrible indictment of this eminent Democratic imperialist:

KING ANDREW THE FIRST
"Born to Command."

A KING who, possessing as much power as his Gracious Brother William IV, makes a worse use of it.
A KING who has placed himself above the laws, as he has shown by his contempt of our judges.
A KING who would destroy our currency, and substitute OLD RAGS, payable by no one knows who, and no one knows where, instead of good SILVER DOLLARS.
A KING born to command, as he has shown himself by appointing men to office contrary to the will of the people.
A KING who, while he was feeding his favorites out of the public money, denied a pittance to the OLD SOLDIERS who fought and bled for our independence.
A KING whose PRIME MINISTER and HEIR APPARENT was thought unfit for the office of ambassador by the people:
SHALL HE REIGN OVER US,
Or shall the PEOPLE RULE?

No doubt the able authors of that artistic piece of handiwork imagined that something terrible would happen if their warnings were not heeded. But the voters were just obstinate enough to go their own way. President Jackson was re-elected and—well, the republic is still here doing business at the old stand.—Geneseo (Ill.) Republic.

You can't afford to miss "Gentleman George's" speech in McCook, Wednesday, October 24th.

MR. SHALLENBERGER'S 'steen per cent a month sort of philanthropy can't appeal very strongly to the farmer's heart and win his vote. Not this year of grace and McKinley prosperity, on your life!

THE Fusionists in the Fifth district will have to do some swift changing of position, this fall. McKeighan and Sutherland have insisted for the past ten years that the greatest enemies of mankind are the bankers. Now they have nominated a banker on their ticket for congress.—Superior Journal.

W. S. MORLAN is not only a lawyer, he is a farmer—a successful farmer—as well. Being a farmer himself, he will, when elected, take a keen personal interest in forwarding in every possible way the agrarian interests of the Fifth district of Nebraska. On the other hand, we have Mr. Shallenberger, a banker and a man in no way in sympathy with the farmers.—Superior Journal.

HON. GEORGE D. MEIKLEJOHN
ASSISTANT-SECRETARY OF WAR.

MCCOOK, NEB., OCTOBER 24
OPERA HOUSE, 8 O'CLOCK P. M.

Send the news far and wide that Hon. George D. Meiklejohn will speak in McCook, next Wednesday evening, October 24th, at eight o'clock, in the opera-house. "Gentleman George" will ably discuss the issues of the day, and no one is better able to do so than he.

"They Will All Be Democrats After 1900."

The intention of the Democrats to replace the Pops with "straight Democrats" is clearly shown in the following letter of Mr. Bryan's. Also note the scheme to shut out Uncle John Powers.

"Committee on Ways and Means, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., March 7, 1892.

"I see that the Democratic convention in your Fifth district is set for May 10. Also read your editorial. You are right. McKeighan ought to be returned. It is either him or a Republican. He is with us on every vital question. Be sure and go to the convention and see that McKeighan is NOT nominated. It would kill him with Independents. They would nominate Powers and elect him. If that convention insists on nominating some one, nominate a weak Democrat, or one who would withdraw before election. We can't afford to have a Republican from that district. We may need some one to help carry tariff reform and free coinage if we elect a president.

"Our people all like McKeighan. He has done well and we must keep him here, at least until he can be succeeded by a straight Democrat. KEEP THIS CONFIDENTIAL. I have talked with McKeighan and know that he considers a Democratic nomination before he is nominated by the Independents as a fatal mistake, and liable to do him great if not irreparable injury. Have also read your recent editorials. All O. K.

Answer.
Yours truly,
"W. J. BRYAN."

YOU GOT IT, ALL YOU ASKED FOR.
[From the Colorado Springs Gazette.]
To the People of the United States,
Greeting:
Four years ago—
You demanded work for your idle sons.
You got it. You never had so many people employed as now.
You wanted your idle capital to be employed.
You got it.
You wanted to see the army of tramps mustered out.
They are gone.
You wanted your soup houses closed.
They are closed.
You wanted to get rid of the receivers of your railways and banks.
They are gone.
You wanted to see the smoke coming from the stacks of your smelters, mills and factories.
It came. Many have since been kicking about the smoke nuisance.
You wanted the savings bank deposits to increase.
Never so large in your history as at present.
You wanted to see interest rates decrease that your people could borrow more cheaply wherewith to develop your resources.
You got it. Interest has never been so low as now.
You demanded more money. The circulation must be increased per capita.
You got it. It has increased with marvelous rapidity for four years.
You demanded that one dollar be just as good as another.
You got it. That is the kind we have now, and you can get all the silver or paper you want at any bank.
You demanded the markets of the world for your surplus products and goods.
You got it. Got it so suddenly it almost dazzled you.
You wanted us to stop borrowing money in Europe.
We stopped it, and Europe is now borrowing money from us.
You wanted the government to collect every dollar of the Pacific railroad debt, instead of a PORTION, as Mr. Cleveland proposed.
Mr. McKinley made them pay every cent, principal and interest.
You wanted Cuba liberated.
It is done.
You wanted the rights of our people maintained at home and abroad.
It has been done.
What you really wanted the worst was what Mr. McKinley promised: "AN HONEST DOLLAR AND A CHANCE TO EARN IT."
You got both. Not from the Bryanites, but it was none the less acceptable to the man behind the dinner bucket.
If you want more things of this sort you can get them from the same source.
Yours devotedly,
AMMI PETTIGREW.

Rosewater at Orleans.

Special to THE TRIBUNE.—Edward Rosewater and Major Moores addressed the citizens of Orleans in the city hall, Tuesday evening, on the issues of the campaign, having a large and appreciative audience. Major Moores spoke briefly, and was followed by Mr. Rosewater, who for two hours held the wrapt attention of his hearers in the ablest address on the money question, anti-militarism and imperialism yet delivered in this place. His argument on the money question was historical, able and unanswerable, showing up the heresies of "Apostle John the Baptist Coin Harvey" and his disciple, Mr. Bryan, as delusive demagoguery—founded on imagination and appealing to the passions and ignorance of the unthinking. It showed deep research, and was a scholarly and logical address. On the "paramount" question of imperialism he produced facts that would convince anyone convincible and within redemption's realm. Mr. Bryan's arguments or heresies on imperialism were each and all ably and comprehensively answered, and all his bogies and misrepresentations were annihilated. He quoted facts to prove that the same party which is crying imperialism at President McKinley and slandering him used the same abuse on Abraham Lincoln. The heresy about "Government with the consent of the governed" was crushed by a weight of numerous authorities, court decisions and historical data presented by the speaker. Mr. Rosewater's speech was an intellectual treat, and was listened to by Fusionists with close attention. His style of handling the issues and his splendid arguments and able presentation of facts made him many friends and were productive of great good to the party and President McKinley's administration. * Orleans, Neb., Oct. 16th.

MR. SHALLENBERGER claims to be a stock-breeder, a farmer and a philanthropist, and THE TRIBUNE can prove it: As a breeder of bull pups, a farmer of the farmers and a purchaser of "fake" doctor notes, the trinity is complete.

WHAT is there in honorable banking that makes it necessary for a candidate for congress to deny his connection with a bank in which he owns 87 shares—a controlling interest. Certainly nothing but a demagogic effort on the part of a plutocratic Democratic banker candidate to throw chaff in the eyes of the Populist farmers! What superlative rot!

THE increasing popularity of the government's money-order system clearly forecasts the great success the government can achieve from a postal savings-bank system of an approved plan. Since the enlargement of the scope of the money-order system under President McKinley's administration, the money-order business of the McCook post-office has very noticeably increased. Three features are especially popular: The fact that money can be deposited; that money-orders of other offices can be paid, and the payment of orders without advices being on file. Money-orders thus have the practical value of bank drafts, and are more popular with the people, whose confidence in Uncle Sam is absolutely unlimited. The postal savings-bank system would greatly reduce Uncle Sam's interest account, and would be a winner from the start. And it ought to start.

Use McMillen's sarsaparilla for the blood.

Blood.

We live by our blood, and on it. We thrive or starve, as our blood is rich or poor.
There is nothing else to live on or by.
When strength is full and spirits high, we are being refreshed, bone muscle and brain, in body and mind, with continual flow of rich blood.
This is health.
When weak, in low spirits, no cheer, no spring, when rest is not rest and sleep is not sleep, we are starved; our blood is poor; there is little nutriment in it.
Back of the blood, is food, to keep the blood rich. When it fails, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. It sets the whole body going again—man woman and child.
If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you.
