TYRONE.

The day before Monday was quite windy. J. C. Moore and H. G. McCoy sold cattle to E. E. Smith, last Tuesday. Mrs. Frank Moore visited friends at University Place, several days, returning Monday. Rev. D. C. Hopsen, the new Methodist minister, is with us and will preach every Sabbath at 3 p. m., at the new church. The latest land deals are the Tupper farm sold to C. S. Blair for $1,300, and the Jenkin farm for $200 to C. A. Johnson. Rev. Hardaway held quarterly meeting here, last Sunday, followed by the sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

It Happened in a Drug Store.

"One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C. R. Grandin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In the course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I consider that a very good recommendation for the remedy." It is for sale by McConnell & Berry.

Education may furnish you a headlight, but only the grace of God can help you make steam.

Ends in smoke

The only sure test of the worth of a cigar is in the smoking. But bear in mind these words of warning: 95 per cent. of nickel cigars are impure; that is they are made of scraps of inferior tobacco and doctored. As a rule they are machine made, and no machine has yet been found that will make a cigar as well as the hands.

D. B. LONG & SON'S Sportsman

Best 5 Cent Cigar on Earth. is made of the best whole leaf, by the hands of the best American workmen, and without doctoring. There's not as much "margin" selling the Sportsman as selling other nickel cigars but that's in the smoker's favor. It means the best possible for the money.

Get the Sportsman. Stamped with the name and sold everywhere, NAYE & McCORD MERCANTILE CO., Distributors, St. Joseph, Missouri.

BARTLEY.

Cecil Mathews was a McCook visitor, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. We believe there will be more "scratched" tickets in this precinct, this year, than usual. Mrs. Della O. Mangus has returned from her visit and is again at the helm in the hotel. Mr. Weimkirch is erecting a commodious addition to his house, E. R. Moon doing the carpenter work. Messrs Starr, Boyle, Reed, Lincoln, Crab and Keddy have been in our midst, recently, shaking hands.

The river bridge is being put in place and it is hoped that nothing will transpire to prevent its rapid completion. James Farrell has brought over several loads of hogs from his farm near Lebanon and will feed them ready for market. Several car-loads of potatoes, apples and cabbage have been recently shipped into Bartley and those articles are sold at a price within the reach of all—viz: potatoes, per bushel, 60 to 70 cents; apples $1 to $1.25; and cabbage at $1.50 per hundred pounds.

As the election approaches party lines are being drawn tighter and many heated discussions between neighbors and friends occur. Sometimes they cause offense and estrangement and sever ties of long friendship. Correctly considered, this should not be the case. Men have a right to differ in their opinions, but should not offend purposely those who are of a different opinion. We will be glad when the election is over; and if the laws were so arranged that we have county elections once in four years, and presidential and congressional elections once in eight years, by direct vote of the people, it would be better, perhaps, for all concerned.

DIED—October 20th, 1900, Mrs. A. G. Keys, aged 57 years. Mrs. Keys has been a great sufferer for many years with asthma and tuberculosis of the lungs. Everything that kind friends, loving relatives and medical skill could do has been done to alleviate her sufferings, but death could not be stayed longer, and on Saturday last, the end of this life came. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. E. B. Crippen in the Methodist church, Monday, at 11 a. m. A large audience of her friends was assembled to pay the last sad rites to her whom all loved and respected. The funeral ceremony by the Eastern Star and W. R. C. of which she was a faithful member was very impressive. Mrs. Edna Price, her daughter, and husband of Diller, Neb., and Charles Keys, her son, and wife of Cambridge, Neb., were in attendance. Her son, Harlan Keys, who is in Des Moines, Iowa, was unable to attend; Mrs. Myrtle Keys, his wife, was here. Her daughter, Mrs. Della Cook, was at the bedside of her mother ministering to her wants during her last hours, but was so overcome with nervous prostration and heart trouble that she could not attend the funeral. Mrs. Cook is yet a very sick woman.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians and a general cemetery by the Eastern Star and Electric Bitters, to my great joy, the first made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c., guaranteed at McConnell & Berry's.

Mr. Ashcraft, a brother-in-law of E. A. Dodge, recently arrived from Bedford, Iowa, with a car of goods, and is stopping on the W. A. Holbrook farm until he can build on his farm in Valley Grove precinct. The Holbrooks have gone to spend the winter with their daughter, Mrs. C. E. Boatman.

"For three days and nights I suffered agony untold from an attack of cholera morbus, brought on by eating cucumbers," says M. E. Lowther, clerk of the district court, Centerville, Iowa. "I thought I should surely die, and tried a dozen different medicines but all to no purpose. I sent for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and three doses relieved me entirely." This remedy is for sale by McConnell & Berry.
