LUZON YIELDS TO LAW

Provincial Government Is Set Up By the Commissioners at San Isidro.

ARMY ASSUMES CIVILIAN DUTIES

Judge Taft Explains to Natives the Wisdom of the Proposed System—Free Trade Will Add to Land Values—Much Business in the Province of Sorsogon.

MANILA, June 10.—The Philippine commission has returned to Manila from the province of Neuva Ecija, Luzon, having organized a provincial government, with Captain Jacob F. Krepes of the Twenty-second infantry as governor, Lieutenant Richard C. Day of the Thirty-fourth infantry as treasurer and Lieutenant De Witt C. Lyles of the same regiment as supervisor.

Judge Taft told the people that if no power was given to levy customs the expense of the central government would be provided by additional internal taxes. He pointed out also that if the decision of the authorities at Washington should result in free trade with the United States opening up such a great market the increase in land values would enable the people to respond to the increased internal taxes. The northern tour has been postponed.

The American astronomical commission has returned from Samartra and will sail for home shortly.

The report circulated in the United States that General Callias has surrendered is unfounded.

NEBRASKA DESERTERS ESCAPE.

Harry McGuire and John Winsip Drift Away on Raft.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Some time this afternoon two United States army prisoners, who were serving sentences on Governor's island for desertion, escaped. They embarked upon an improvised raft and drifted away from the island on the strong flood tide. It has been learned by the army officers that the men were picked up by a tugboat and landed in New York. A detail of six men, in charge of a corporal, were scouring the lower part of the city all tonight looking for them.

The prisoners were Harry McGuire, who was serving a term of eighteen months for desertion, and John Winsip, who was serving a term of two years for the same offense. It is understood that the men deserted from a military post in Nebraska. The men belonged to that class known as parole prisoners and as such were members of a squad of "trusty" prisoners, who gather ashes and refuse from the barracks and cart it away.

The body of the doctor was found in the bathroom of Miss Mary Short, the housekeeper, lying in a pool of blood, with a .38-caliber revolver lying on the floor. Dr. Foster, who was summoned at once, found the bullet hole in the temple and announced that death had taken place several hours before. Miss Short then remembered hearing a sharp report at about 7:30 a. m., but thought it was the quick closing of a window.

It was feared that the prisoner might suffer mental collapse.

MRS. M'KINLEY'S CONDITION.

The Improvement, if Any, is Thus Far Very Slight.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—The slight improvement in Mrs. McKinley's health which manifested itself the latter part of the week continues and hope begins to be felt that she may after all recover from the present attack. The improvement, however, is so slight as not to change materially the extreme gravity of the case. The usual consultation of the physicians was held and at its close the following bulletin was issued:

"11:15 a. m.—Mrs. McKinley's physicians report that she passed a very comfortable night and continues to improve."

The fact that Mrs. McKinley has more than held her own and that no unfavorable turn has occurred is considered in every way encouraging, but as this result is due partly to the constant use of powerful medicine the physicians fear the effect of reducing the stimulants and likewise have to cope with the effect on her system of constant administration of the only means of prolonging her life and making ultimate recovery at least a possibility. These stimulants and the complaint from which she suffered in California, which is now under control, have so weakened her powers of resistance that apprehension is ever present that a sinking spell may occur suddenly from which she cannot be rallied.

CUBANS LISTEN TO REASON.

Conservative Members Confident that Platt Amendment Will Prevail.

HAVANA, June 10.—The conservative members of the constitutional convention are absolutely confident that the Platt amendment will be accepted and that several radicals will join with the fifteen delegates who have heretofore voted in favor of acceptance.

The last few days seem to have brought about a decided change in the attitude of delegates who had been bitterly arraighing the Washington government for rejecting the convention interpretations of the amendment. The strong pressure from the outside brought to bear upon the convention to finish its business and to place the country on a settled basis has had an excellent effect on the radicals, inducing them to accept the inevitable, and some of them now argue that it would be perhaps better to accept the amendment, hoping for some form of independence, than to prolong the military occupation of the island.

WHEAT IS RUINED.

Tornado Sweeps Five Hundred Oklahoma Farms.

WICHITA, Kan., June 10.—A correspondent who arrived here tonight from the scene of devastation in Kay county, Oklahoma, says that the storm of Friday night ruined the wheat crop of 400 farms west and northwest of Blackwell. These farms are all in one body of territory.

The farmers, who had purchased twine and harvest machinery, are asking the local dealers to take them back, and the dealers have referred the matter to the factories. The loss of crops will cause no distress, as the farmers are in good condition financially, owing to a succession of good crops during the past five seasons.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., June 10.—Geo. East, formerly of this city but now a resident of Trinidad, and who owns large ranch interests in the "Strip," or "No-Man's-Land," is here today. MUST BE ACTUAL SETTLERS.

Judge Harrington Renders Important Decision Relative to Homesteaders.

ALLIANCE, Neb., June 10.—Judge Harrington handed down a decision which is far reaching and of great importance to the people of northwest Nebraska. It was in the case of Charles Tierman against Miller and Leith.

The plaintiff in his petition alleges that defendants procured twenty-nine colored people to file homesteads on government land in such a way as to completely surround his ranch and prevent his cattle from going to and from his watering place; that the entries were made in collusion and fraud; that the day the entries were filed the defendants procured the relinquishment of same and also leases to the land; that the defendants were about to fence in said land. The plaintiff therefore prayed that the court grant an injunction to prevent defendants from fencing said land until the matter could be investigated by the interior department.

To this petition defendants demurred. On the trial of the case several affidavits were read by plaintiff's counsel, R. C. Noleman, which bore out the allegations contained in the petition and in fact one or more of the entrymen made affidavits that the defendants hired them to make the entries $5 each.

Judge Harrington granted the injunction and in passing on the matter stated that there was no question that the circumstances surrounding the filing of the homesteads would tend strongly to verify the allegations contained in the plaintiff's petition, and if the entries were not bona fide the defendants were certainly trespassers and being trespassers they had no more right on the land than the plaintiff.

The decision puts a quietus on large corporations gobbling up the public domain, thereby preventing the small ranchmen, who have been in the country for years, receiving the benefit of the same.

BANK CASE IS ARGUED.

State's Suit Against the Omaha National Again Submitted.

LINCOLN, Neb., June 8.—Yesterday was argued before Commissioners Day, Hastings and Kirkpatrick of the supreme court the case of the state against the Omaha National bank and J. H. Millard, then and now president of the bank, and now United States senator from Nebraska. The suit is for the sum of $201,884. The legislature of 1895 appropriated from the general fund to the sinking fund the sum of $180,101.75. A warrant for this amount was drawn on Treasurer Bartley and sold through Millard to the Chemical National bank of New York, in whose possession it remained until October, 1896. It was then sent to the Omaha National bank, where, on January 2, 1897, Bartley made and executed to Millard and the bank his check for $201,884, payable to Millard, president, and in return received the warrant. The check was paid by charging that sum to the state treasurer's account and crediting the account of the Chemical National and an Atkinson bank with a like sum. The action is to recover from the defendants the amount of money eventually lost to the state as a result of the transaction.

The case has twice been tried in the lower court and the state beaten by direct instructions. The supreme court held, in the criminal case, that the diversion by Bartley of the state's funds to pay this identical warrant was conversion, and the state now insists that this ought to be final as determining the character of the action, the bank's attorneys insisting that it is one of trover, and therefore cannot lie except it be for the identical money taken.

What is left undisturbed is described as a poor stand. The rye crop is in fairly good shape and little of it has been converted into corn ground. Hoppers are plentiful, but thus far have done no damage. Some complaint is heard of chinch bugs.
