Simon Elbert Dead.

Simon Elbert passed away at his late nome on the south side of town on Sunday last, at the extreme age of eighty years, his death being due to heart failure, caused by old age and a complication of troubles. He was born in Bavaria, Germany, January 6, 1821. He came to the United States in 1849 and, after spending some time in Peoria, located in Woodford county. He was united in marriage with Miss Gertrude Hufnagel at Peoria in 1855, and in 1875, with his wife and family, came to Charlotte township, where he lived until about five years ago, when he purchased property in this city, where he had since resided. Mrs. Elbert preceded him in death in November, 1893. He was the father of nine children, seven boys and two girls, all of whom survive, and all being present at the funeral. They are: Joseph of Cullom; George of McCook, Neb.; Simon of Peoria, Ill; August of Goodland, Ind.; Frank of Roberts, Ill.; Adam, John Lena and Susie, who reside here.
