William Baldwin, "Billy," as he is familiarly known to every one, has purchased a new No. 1 DeLaval hand cream separator and is very highly pleased with it. The machine cost $100, but it is claimed that the product of 10 cows will bring enough more money in one year to pay for the machine.

Last Saturday afternoon, the large farm-house of Jacob Cook, a Russian farmer living about five miles northwest of Culbertson, was destroyed by fire, together with all its contents. We failed to learn how the fire originated. Mr. Cook had $2000 insurance in the Farmers' Mutual Insurance Co. of Lincoln, Neb. We understand Mr. Cook's neighbors turned out, Tuesday, and built him a temporary dwelling place.

About 4 or 5 weeks ago we announced that A. A. Hayes and his son Fred, prominent farmers on the West Divide, had gone to the state of Washington to locate. This week, we wish to announce that Mr. Hayes and his son have returned again to Hitchcock county, satisfied that this is not the worst place on earth. Thus they go and thus they return and all admit that if they have to go in sections where they make a success of farming, they would succeed equally well here.

Have Been Married 65 Years.

The Kalamazoo (Mich.) Telegraph of February 8th, contains the pictures of an aged couple who have seen 65 years of happy wedded life. The brief sketch given is as follows. They are the parents of Mrs. John Whittaker, a former resident of Redwillow county and well known to many TRIBUNE readers:

"In the list published in the Telegraph of couples who have been married fifty years or over appear the names of Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson Cornwell of Lawrence, Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Cornwell are prominent residents of Lawrence and in fact are well-known throughout Southwestern Michigan. They celebrated the sixty-fifth anniversary of their marriage, last Saturday, February 1, on which occasion there was a notable gathering of members of the family and relatives to do honor to the event. Mr. Cornwell is 86 years old and his wife is 84 years of age. They have lived in Lawrence 42 years. As may be judged from their pictures which are published herewith, both are remarkably well preserved.
