

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

CONGRESSIONAL. Congressman—George W. Norris, McCook

STATE. Governor—John H. Mickey; Lieutenant Governor—E. G. McGilton; Secretary of State—George W. Marsh; Treasurer—Peter Mortenson; Auditor—Charles Weston; Attorney General—Frank N. Prout; Land Commissioner—George D. Follmer; Sup't Public Instruction—Wm. K. Fowler

LEGISLATIVE. State Senator—29th District—D. S. Hasty; Representative—J. E. Hathorn

COUNTY. County Judge—S. L. Green; County Attorney—C. E. Eldred; Commissioner—First District—D. A. Waterman

EVEN Jasper Phillips admits that Sidney Dodge did not place Redwillow county warrants at par. That ought to settle the matter.

STATE SUPERINTENDENT FOWLER is by all odds the most able man who ever filled that position during all the history of the state. The newspapers of the state can do no better thing for the state than to give Mr. Fowler's candidacy help. Mr. Fowler is doing for the common schools of the state what Chancellor Andrews is doing for the University of Nebraska—perhaps more. He is a successful worker and a man of tireless energy.—Geneva Signal.

JUDGE NORRIS will be the next congressman from the 5th district. He is a man of the people and is right in line with President Roosevelt's ideas on that subject. Let Nebraska elect a solid republican delegation this year to congress, and commence by electing Judge Norris. Now we know that the Judge sprung from the common people and as such will vote and work for them. He belongs to the rank and file of the party. Vote for him and thus give the 5th district a republican representative.—Red Cloud Advertiser.

LAST year there were in the state about 60,000 voters who did not go to the polls. It is believed that the turnout this year will be larger, although the season is backward, and many farmers are in their cornfields, or are engaged in threshing out their small grain. The feeling is abroad that a vote this year for the republican ticket means a vote to sustain Roosevelt and his splendid policies, and for that reason the farmers will be more ready than ever to sacrifice the hour or so necessary to cast their votes. With Roosevelt and Prosperity the issue there is little doubt that all good citizens will do their duty on election day.

D. S. HASTY, the Republican nominee for senator and to succeed Senator E. N. Allen, is so well known to Furnas county people that it would be improper and out of place for the Review man to attempt to introduce him. Everybody knows "Minn" Hasty. Mr. Hasty has figured conspicuously in politics in his own way ever since we can remember, always being loyal to his party and his principles and his friends. For many years he has been surveyor for Furnas county, and in all these years of service this is his first asking for an office to which there was attached salary and honor. Let us all stand with him and show our appreciation by giving him a vote or two ahead of the state and national tickets of two years ago.—Wilsonville Review.

THE voters of the First commissioner district will do the proper thing by retaining in office their present commissioner, D. A. Waterman of Lebanon. Mr. Waterman has acquired the practical experience necessary in that office for the prompt and intelligent transaction of the business of the county, and it would be folly to change for even a good man of inexperience. Commissioner Waterman's record will stand the closest scrutiny. No man questions his integrity. He is one of the fair and square men of the county and always seeks to do the right thing, the best thing for the interests of the people of the county. This is the record he has made. Nothing personal or factional should be allowed by the people to interfere with his reelection.

NORRIS, THE POOR MAN'S FRIEND.

The people of this judicial district have an opportunity now to reward a man who has stood by them in the time of adversity, and who by his honesty and square dealings has shown by his record that he is the best friend the poor man ever had in this judicial district. Judge Norris knows from his own experience and from his own life what it is to be poor; his sympathies run toward the man who earns his bread by the sweat of his brow. Many of the people of this judicial district are now living in homes clear of mortgage and owe this fact solely and entirely to the kindness and mercy of Judge Norris. When the mortgage-holders and money-lenders were foreclosing in the homes and hard times and short crops made it impossible for our citizens to meet their payments according to the technical terms of the bond Judge Norris stood between the farmer and adversity, and while not doing any injustice to those who held the mortgages he always protected the home and the fireside of our citizens. He is now asking the suffrage of our people as a candidate for congress. Would it not be right for us to come to his relief as he has come to ours and show by our votes that we are not unmindful of his fairness, his honesty and his mercy. By his fairness he has made it possible for many of us to remain in the country, and it rather seems to us that a grateful people while now enjoying the home and the fireside saved to them by his efforts, will on election day reward Judge Norris, the best friend we have ever had, by electing him to congress. This ought to be doubly true when we take into consideration the fact that his opponent belongs to a race of bankers and whose entire interest is centered in the corporations and trusts. Vote for Judge Norris, the poor man's friend, the protector of our homes, the impartial, honest and upright judge.

NORRIS STANDS WITH ROOSEVELT.

Judge Norris stands with Theodore Roosevelt, our president, as against the trusts and illegal combinations. He also stands for the protection of American labor and American industries, for a home market for the product of the American farmer, for success and for prosperity. Our friends on the other side claim to be opposed to the trusts, yet Mr. Shallenberger, their candidate for congress, is and always has been a banker and connected with the money-lending business, and his interests are along that line. He belongs to a family of bankers and corporation men, and while we do not feel inclined to find fault with him, yet it is a matter that the voters of this district ought to take into consideration. Our friends on the other side claim to be opposed to trusts. In one of the greatest trusts, recently formed in Chicago by the McCormick, Deering, Plano and Milwaukee Harvester Co. and all other companies engaged in the manufacture of mowing machines and harvesting machinery, Mr. Shallenberger has two brothers connected with this trust, and in a joint debate with Judge Norris this was brought out and Mr. Shallenberger was compelled to admit it. It is a fact that this great trust is using its influence in this district for the election of Mr. Shallenberger. One of his brothers has charge of the collection department of this great trust and the mighty power of this gigantic corporation is being used to pull into line their representatives of this district for the purpose of making votes for Mr. Shallenberger. If our opponents mean what they say and are opposed to the trusts they certainly cannot be consistent unless they vote for Judge Norris for congressman.

A POPULIST COMPARES THEM.

A comparison between the two candidates for congress will certainly lead the voters of this community to support Judge Norris for that position in preference to Mr. Shallenberger. Mr. Norris was born and raised on a farm; all his people were farmers; all his interests are with the farmers and always have been. From his own experience he knows how to do farm work and the labor incident to farm life. His father was a farmer before him. He started in life a poor boy and worked by the day and by the month among the farmers of his neighborhood. Mr. Shallenberger comes from a race of corporation men. His father was a lawyer and spent his life with men of that stamp. He himself is a banker and always has been. He has a brother who owns a bank at Elwood; another brother who owns a bank at Imperial; another brother who has charge of one of the departments of the stupendous trust composed of the different corporations manufacturing farm machinery in Chicago. None of them have any experience on the farm and none of them have any interest connected with the farm. The question arises which of these two has the most sympathy with the farmer and with the farmer's interest.—Trenton Register (Populist.)

A PLAIN DUTY TO PERFORM.

It is a matter of much satisfaction to the entire people that the coal strike has been settled, and a matter of much pride to Republicans that it was through the friendly intervention of President Roosevelt. To endeavor and to succeed in settling this unhappy strike as did the president and Republican leaders, is a much more commendable action than that of the Democratic leaders who strove to foment trouble and make political capital out of it. The people have a plain duty to perform at the polls in November, and that is to sustain President Roosevelt by electing a congress in sympathy with him. Vote for Judge Norris, the Republican nominee for congress in this district.—Alma Journal, 24th.

THE OLD RELIABLE

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure

THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

The Part of Wisdom.

THE TRIBUNE has not a thing of a personal nature against Sidney Dodge, but Jasper Phillips' attempt to make it appear that Sidney made a valuable county attorney is too amusing to be allowed to go seriously. THE TRIBUNE submits that Sidney did wisely when he was in office; he did absolutely the only wise thing he could have done; in fact he did more wisely than some wiser men than he, he did as nearly nothing as it was possible for him to do. The appearance of wisdom and the doing of nothing helped Sidney to appear to an advantage which an attempt at doing something would have destroyed entirely. In saying this THE TRIBUNE does Sidney no injustice, intentional or otherwise. Jasper's claim that Mr. Dodge should be credited with the method by which the county warrants were kept at par is also contrary to the record, which is that the commissioners did not depend upon Mr. Dodge for advice, but got it elsewhere when necessary. This is an incontrovertible fact. Jasper states that THE TRIBUNE can't show where the commissioners ever went wrong under Sidney's advice. This is true for the reason just stated above. The economical administration of the affairs of Redwillow county during the time Mr. Dodge was county attorney was another matter over which Sidney had no control. THE TRIBUNE stands firmly on its first statement, the best thing Sidney ever did for Redwillow county was to do nothing. We believe he should have credit for it. We also believe that the people of the county will do wisely when they elect C. E. Eldred to that office, next week, by an overwhelming plurality, as they certainly will.

Spell-Binders Useless in Congress.

There are those who regard Banker Shallenberger as a silver-tongued orator of commanding ability, who can "bind with a spell." There are others who insist that he has a few set speeches touching upon topics and issues of the day, committed to memory, and then when he gets away from them he is lost. However that may be, the people are beginning to appreciate the fact that orators are not the best men to send to congress. They waste time and accomplish little or nothing. The man who knows how to work, and is not afraid to work, is the one whose services are valuable as a congressman. Judge Norris is an excellent speaker, and when speaking is necessary he can give a good account of himself, but he has not that cheap fondness for ginger beer oratory that has filled the country with spell-binders. We need men of industry and keen business capacity in congress, and Judge Norris is such a man.—Webster County Argus, 24th.

The object of the post check currency is to make the transmission of money in small amounts easier and safer than at present is the case. Bills of the small denominations would be issued with a blank space on the face for the name of the payee. The scheme also includes fractional currency printed in the same way. Instead of making a journey to the postoffice for a money order, or enclosing coin in his letter, with the possibility of it falling out or being stolen, the sender of money under the system merely has to take a bill from his pocket-book, fill it out and enclose it just as if it were a bank check. A large number of the leading manufacturers and business men of the country are in favor of the new form of currency. Its creation would injure no one and would add to the facilities of trade for both seller and buyer. Congressmen should be asked to support it.—Post Dispatch, St. Louis, Mo.

EVEN the most radical opponents of Judge Norris are compelled to acknowledge that he has made a most unexceptionable district judge. And by the same token will he make the Fifth district a splendidly efficient congressman. It has been characteristic of Judge Norris that he gives a good account of himself in every public and private trust. He has the manly, energetic, brainy qualities, together with sympathies in harmony with the people, which go to make a faithful and able representative. Vote for him.

CITIZENS should request their representatives in congress to see that more convenient money is furnished.

They say that Jasper Phillips now regrets that he did not recognize his old friend and fellowtownsman, Dr. S. L. Green, Redwillow county's next county judge. Jasper got dreadfully out of touch with us up here in Redwillow county during his stay in Missouri. He forgot about everybody but Samuel Randolph and his prince albert.

MUST UPHOLD ROOSEVELT'S HANDS.

BOSTON, Oct. 27.—The Chickatawbut club, a Republican organization of Dorchester, ratified the state ticket, tonight, and listened to an address by Senator George F. Hoar, who spoke words of praise for President Roosevelt and Governor Crane, saying that in the national election we are to send men to either uphold the president's hands or men whose sole object, in the next two years, will be to hunt him from power. He said that the Democratic party during all its history has been a creator of grievances, never the redresser of them. Speaking of trusts Senator Hoar said:

- "The evils of the trusts are: 1. Destruction of competition. 2. The management of industries by absent capital. 3. Destruction of local public spirit. 4. Fraudulent capitalization. 5. Secrecy. 6. Management for the private benefit of the officers. 7. The power to corrupt elections and in some cases to corrupt the courts. 8. Indifference to public sentiment.

"If the first, fourth and fifth can be cured, the cure of the others, in my opinion, will follow.

"Now, is it not the duty of wise statesmanship to go slowly and carefully in this matter, so we can cure or prevent the evil without sacrificing or destroying what is good?" He said he would curb trusts, not destroy them.

Senator Hoar said in regard to the tariff revision that it should be made on the principles of the protective system. He favors reciprocity. The tariff will have to be revised, he said, again and again, and again, hereafter.

In conclusion Senator Hoar discussed strikes, saying if capital combined he could not see why labor may not combine. "I believe the sympathy of all true Americans is on the side of labor and its attempts to better its condition. Capital and wealth will in the end take care of themselves."
