

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Oklahoma will spend about $60,000 on her exhibit at the world's fair in St. Louis.

The sultan's brother, Mulai, has been proclaimed sultan of Morocco by the Rif tribes.

The railway bridge which connects Venice with the mainland is 12,950 feet long and has 222 arches.

A person usually begins to lose height at the age of 50, and at the age of 90 has lost at least one and a half inches.

J. B. Atherton, one of the richest and most influential men in the Hawaiian islands, died after an extended illness.

The forests of South Africa are composed principally of stunted and gnarled native trees, fit only for weapon making and fence building.

The Indiana supreme court has declared unconstitutional the law enacted by the legislature of 1899, providing for a weekly pay day.

The Illinois house has passed the bill appropriating $9,000 for the placing of a statue of Frances E. Willard in Statuary hall in Washington.

Large assemblies in Pittsburg and Allgheny, Pa., celebrated the anniversary of Lee's surrender to Grant at Appomattox thirty-eight years ago.

Old New York employes of the White Star line of trans-Atlantic steamships received about $50,000 as an especial gift for long and faithful service.

The amount of 3 and 4 per cent bonds actually exchanged to date for the 2 per cent consols under Secretary Shaw's recent refunding offer is $14,120,000.

Through service on the Siberian railway from Moscow to Dalny was begun on February 18, says United States Consul Miller, reporting to the state department from Niuchwang.

Charles McKim of Bedford, Ia., shot his wife four times and then shot himself, both will probably die. The shooting followed a quarrel with his wife at the home of her parents.

A conflict lasting for four days has taken place between the insurgents and Turkish troops in the district of Melsho, north of Macedonia. The village of Berovo was surrounded and burned.

The Tonopah Railroad company, with an authorized capital of $2,500,000, was incorporated at Trenton, N. J. The company is to construct a railroad from Rhodes to Tonopah in Nevada, sixty-three miles.

The will of Gustavus F. Swift, late president of the packing firm of Swift & Co., was filed in probate court. The estate is valued at $12,200,000. The principal feature of the will was a bequest of $250,000 to charity.

Mrs. Booker T. Washington was a guest of honor at a meeting of the State Federation of Women's Clubs held in Dorchester, Mass. Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, honorary president of the federation, was also present.

Governor Pennypacker of Pennsylvania has signed the bill prohibiting the sale of cigarettes or cigarette paper to any person under 21 years of age. The penalty for violation of the act is a fine of from $100 to $300.

During the week over 200 Washington shingle mills have closed and upward of 2,500 men have been thrown out of work. The cause is attributed to a dull market in the east and a surplus stock of shingles at the Washington mills.

The receipts of the Omaha post office for the month of March were $43,463, against $38,897 for the same period of last year, being an increase of $4,566. The receipts of the post office at Des Moines were $41,753, against $39,396, being an increase of $2,357.

Herr Von Holleben will not be obliged to return to the United States to present his letters of recall. Secretary Hay has been informed by Baron Sternburg, the present minister, that the ambassador has been retired by the German government and that Emperor William, as a mark of special favor, has bestowed upon him the Order of the Red Eagle.

Advices from northwestern Kansas indicate that the cattlemen of that portion of the state will bitterly resist the order of the interior department that their fences around government lands must come down. A contest is being waged between the cattle owners and farmers there, and up to this time the farmers have been unsuccessful in their efforts to have the fences removed.

The Hurd mills six dwellings the Queen Soap company's factory, Michigan Central railway house and a fleet of twenty pleasure yachts on the Kalamazoo river was destroyed by fire at Marshall, Mich., the losses aggregating $100,000.

The Washington Humane society has elected President Roosevelt an honorary member in consideration of his message to congress recommending the exercise of kindness toward cavalry and artillery horses of the army.

NEW NEBRASKA STATUTES

Additions to the Laws of the State Made by the Recent Legislature.

CONDENSATION OF THE WORK OF BOTH HOUSES

Measures Passed That Have Received the Governor's Signature.—Other Enactments That He Has Not as Yet Passed Upon, and Still Others to Which the Veto Power Has Been Applied.

HOUSE BILLS.

The bills passed by the legislature are as follows:

H. R. 22, by Wilson, appropriating $85,000 for the payment of members, officers and employes of the legislature. Approved January 28. Emergency clause.

H. R. 87, by Gilbert, changing the date of city elections in Omaha from the first Tuesday in April to the first Tuesday in May. Approved January 28. Emergency clause.

H. R. 67, by Gilbert, providing a method for the acquisition of a municipal water plant by the city of Omaha, requiring the mayor and council to carry the method into effect, and creating a municipal water board. Approved February 2. Emergency clause.

H. R. 69, by Wilson, appropriating $28,000 for the payment of the incidental expenses of the legislature. Approved February 13. Emergency clause.

H. R. 32, by Koetter, to make the free text book law to apply to schools in the city of Omaha. Approved February 25.

H. R. 42, by Burgess, removing the $720 limit on the salary of the secretary of the Lincoln board of education. Approved February 25. Emergency clause.

H. R. 279, by Good, transferring $10,000 from the unexpended balance of the board and clothing fund of the Norfolk asylum to the same fund of the Lincoln asylum. Approved February 24. Emergency clause.

H. R. 105, by Kittell, to repeal the law providing for a bounty on wolf scalps. Approved February 27.

H. R. 48, by Koetter, providing for the payment of the official treasurer of the Omaha school board by the school district. Approved March 6. Emergency clause.

H. R. 114, by Gregg, reducing the number of the printed reports of the state superintendent and regulating their distribution. Approved March 6.

H. R. 16, by Davis, to permit the establishment of county cemeteries in counties under township organization. Approved March 7. Emergency clause.

H. R. 49, by Thompson, providing that land leases, to be binding for more than one year, must be in writing. Approved March 7.

EXTENDING LAW COURSE. H. R. 8, by Perry, extending to three years the law course required to be completed in the state university to qualify for admission to the bar, and requiring a higher qualification for admission under examination. Approved March 11.

H. R. 18, by Douglas, to provide an official seal for county treasurers. Approved March 11.

H. R. 119, by Gregg, to require county superintendents to notify school district officers by the first Monday in July of their duty in submitting reports. Approved March 11.

H. R. 64, by Douglas, amending the law prescribing penalties for carrying concealed weapons to prevent a sentence of both fine and imprisonment on conviction of the second offense. Approved March 17.

H. R. 76, by Perry, to permit the signing of appeal bonds in justice court on separate papers, and not to require the presence of sureties in court when they sign the bonds. Approved March 17.

H. R. 88, by Douglas, providing that when appeal is taken from county or justice court the appellant must serve notice on the appellee in writing, either in person or by registered mail. Approved March 20.

H. R. 152, by Gregg, reducing the number of members of the Lincoln board of education to five. Approved March 21. Emergency clause.

H. R. 202, by Good, appropriating $2,536.44 deficiencies out of the Peru normal school and appropriating all matriculation fees paid prior to March 31, 1905, for the purchase of books for the library. Approved March 29. Emergency clause.

H. R. 132, by Rouse, appropriating $165,000 belonging to the state university agricultural experiment station fund, the "Morrill fund" and the university cash fund for the use and benefit of the state university. Approved March 25. Emergency clause.

GILBERT PRINTING LAW. H. R. 236, by Gilbert, the Omaha party primary law, which is to prevent fraud in primaries and to prevent persons from voting therein who do not affiliate habitually with the party. Approved March 25. Emergency clause.

H. R. 167, by Weberg, a joint resolution memorializing congress to submit a constitutional amendment to provide for the election of United States senators by a direct vote of the people. Approved March 25.

H. R. 100, by Hanna, appropriating $12,000 for the location of five junior normal schools in Western Nebraska under the direction of the state superintendent. Approved March 26. Emergency clause.

H. R. 271, by Riggs, the South Omaha school bill, heretofore explained, which places members of the board on a salary of $25 per month and requires them to give bond, and reduces the number to five. Approved March 27. Emergency clause.

H. R. 329, by Nelson, the Omaha charter bill, amending the present charter. Approved April 2. Emergency clause.

H. R. 27, by Loomis, to cure certain minor defects in the charters of cities of from 5,000 to 20,000 population. Approved March 31. Emergency clause.

H. R. 305, by Weberg, to permit the annexation of territory by cities situated in two or more counties. Approved April 2.

H. R. 134, by Gregg, limiting to a fixed amount the salaries of county superintendents in counties that are sparsely settled. Approved April 2.

H. R. 23, by Nelson of Pierce, appropriating $100,000 for rebuilding and repairing of the insane asylum at Norfolk. Approved April 2. Emergency clause.

H. R. 79, by Ramsey, requiring railroads to furnish sites and necessary facilities for the shipping of grain to all elevators costing $3,000 or more.

H. R. 102, by Cropsey, appropriating $100,000 out of the state university funds for the construction of new buildings on the state farm near Lincoln. Approved April 3. Emergency clause.

H. R. 136, by Davis, reducing the rate of interest on county money on deposit to 2 per cent; permitting the county treasurer to deposit such moneys outside the county, if necessary, and to permit the state treasurer to deposit money in depository banks at 2 per cent. Approved April 3. Emergency clause.

H. R. 344, by the special revenue committee, The general revenue bill, which becomes effective September 1, 1905, and the provisions of which have heretofore been explained.

H. R. 51, by Christy, making it the duty of road overseers, during April and October, to open all ditches necessary to prevent water from entering upon public roads. Approved April 6.

H. R. 116, by Christy, fixing the annual meeting of the state horticultural society for the third Tuesday in January, annually, at Lincoln. Approved April 6.

H. R. 157, by Jones of Otoe, to provide for the appointment of a matron of the state penitentiary. Approved April 6.

H. R. 448, by the committee on claims, repealing the law providing for the payment of a bounty of $1 each for the scalps of wolves, wild cats and coyotes. Approved April 7. Emergency clause.

H. R. 417, by Warner, appropriating $2,000 for the benefit and relief of the people suffering from famine in Northern Sweden. Approved April 7. Emergency clause.

H. R. 292, by Knox, to authorize and require cities, counties, precincts, townships, towns, cities, villages and school districts to compromise their indebtedness and issues bond in payment thereof, when unable to pay in full, after making a satisfactory arrangement with creditors. Approved April 7. Emergency clause.

H. R. 209, by McClay, appropriating $750 for the relief of General Victor Vignau for salary due as adjutant general during the Boy Interregnum. Approved April 7.

H. R. 440, by Rouse, to appropriate $4,163 out of the penitentiary fund to be devoted to the construction of the addition to the state penitentiary. Approved April 7.

H. R. 422, by Thompson, to permit county commissioners, in cases of emergency, to construct bridges costing less than $500 without advertising for the letting of contracts. Approved April 7.

H. R. 96, by Warner, to make the county surveyor ex-officio county engineer in Lancaster and Douglas counties. Approved April 8.

H. R. 331, by Kennedy, to permit the parking of streets in cities of the second class and in villages. Approved April 8.

H. R. 229, by Perry, to permit county boards to transfer funds in county sinking fund not levied for the payment of bonds, to the general fund, and empowering the board to pre-raise unexpended balances of funds collected in precincts for the payment of bonds to the several school districts of the precinct according to population. Approved April 8.

H. R. 297, by McClay, to permit county commissioners to install matrons in county jails at their discretion. Approved April 8.

H. R. 329, by Sears, appropriating $81 for the payment of the premium on the official bond of Lieutenant Governor McGilton. Approved April 8.

H. R. 24, by Jones of Richardson, making the town treasurer a member of the town board and removing the assessor therefrom. Approved April 8.

H. R. 23, by Koetter, to permit the Omaha school board to expend sums under $2,000 without requiring a written contract. Former limit was $500. Approved April 8.

H. R. 194, by Robbins, appropriating $3,000 for the payment of the cost of the official bond of ex-Treasurer Steuffer, and $250 for the payment of the cost of the bond of Treasurer Mortensen. Approved April 8.

H. R. 113, by Warner, to provide for indictment and summons against corporations in criminal actions. Approved April 8.

H. R. 178, by McAllister, to permit the transfer and sale of marks and brands. Approved April 8.

H. R. 186, by McClay, to provide for a board of examining plumbers in the city of Lincoln, and for the licensing and regulation of plumbers in Lincoln. Approved April 8.

H. R. 210, by McClay, to permit the city of Lincoln to levy not to exceed $20,000 annually for the purchase of a city hall and grounds. Approved April 8.

H. R. 157, by Perry, to authorize county boards to audit fees for justices of the peace, constables and sheriffs. Approved April 8.

H. R. 401, by Jouveant, to provide for the printing of the annual report of the state banking board. Approved April 8.

H. R. 7, by Jahnel, providing that in condemnation proceedings for right of way the land shall not be occupied until the appraised value has been paid. Approved April 8.

H. R. 231, by Rouse, appropriating $35,000 for a Nebraska exhibit at the Louisiana Purchase exposition, and for the appointment, by the governor, of three commissioners. Approved April 8.

H. R. 222, by Ten Eyck, to bring poultry under the protection of the cruelty to animals sections of the criminal code. Approved April 8.

H. R. 240, by Jouveant, amending the capital banking laws by fixing a minimum capital stock for the state banks at $5,000 to $50,000, according to the population of the cities in which they are located; in increasing the salary of the secretary of the board to $2,000, and placing state bank examiners on a salary of $1,000 and expenses. Approved April 8.

H. R. 356, by Shelby, to vest in the board of fire and police commissioners in South Omaha the power to issue liquor licenses. Approved April 8. Emergency clause.

H. R. 278, by Spurlock, to give the mayor and city council of cities of from 5,000 to 25,000 population the power to extend and decrease the city limits, the decrease to be when five-acre tracts or less, which have been platted, are used exclusively for agricultural or horticultural purposes. Approved April 8.

H. R. 212, by Nelson, to legalize oaths and acknowledgements heretofore taken before or administered by commissioners of deeds. Approved April 8.

H. R. 338, by Sears, to provide for the appointment by the governor of three citizens, at a salary of $10 a day, to act with a like body appointed by the governor of South Dakota as Nebraska-South Dakota boundary commission. Approved April 8.

H. R. 338, by Roberts, to create the department of architecture of the state of Nebraska, to be under the control of the board of public lands and buildings, the governor to be the chief of the department, and to appoint a deputy state architect at a salary not exceeding $2,000. Approved April 8.

H. R. 428, by Sears, to authorize pipe lines to exercise the power of eminent domain in the piping and conveying of petroleum and like oils. Approved April 8.

H. R. 1, by Warner, appropriating $50,000 for the establishment of a new normal school west of a point five miles east of the ninety-eighth meridian, to be located by the state normal board in some city donating above $10,000 in money or property. Approved April 8. Emergency clause.

H. R. 2, by Good, appropriating $42,569 for the building of a new chapel at the state normal school at Peru. Approved April 8.

H. R. 277, by Meredith, appropriating $15,000 from the temporary university fund for the establishment of an agricultural experiment station in Western Nebraska, to be under the direction of the board of regents. Approved April 8.

H. R. 473, by Douglas, to provide that in counties having less than 2,000 population the county attorney shall be appointed by the county board, and be allowed an annual salary not exceeding $300. Approved April 8.

H. R. 437, by the special revenue committee, to increase the maximum state levy from 5 mills to 7 mills for the purposes of this year's assessment. Approved April 8. Emergency clause.

H. R. 364, by McAllister, defining the power and duties of under assistants of irrigation districts, and providing a penalty for interfering with headgate or taking water from natural stream. Approved April 8.

H. R. 329, by Kennedy, to define and punish the crime of abandonment of wife and child. Approved April 8.

H. R. 259, by Jones of Otoe, to require the attendance of blind, deaf and dumb children at the state institutions, providing for their education, unless they are being otherwise educated. Approved April 8. Emergency clause.

H. R. 385, by Gregg, to prohibit and punish the sale or giving of tobacco or cigarettes to minors under 18 years of age. Approved April 8.

H. R. 28, by Deles-Dernder, to legalize and make valid foreclosures of tax liens not based on tax certificates, and to legalize sheriff's deeds, thus prematurely issued. Approved April 8. Emergency clause.

H. R. 58, by Shelby, to prohibit and punish desecration of the American flag by printing of devices of any kind upon it, or using it for advertising purposes. Approved April 8.

H. R. 137, by Ferrar, permitting library boards to control their own funds and issue orders for the payment of claims thereon. Approved April 8.

H. R. 488, by McClay, to authorize the board of public lands and buildings to bring on the state capitol grounds, application for the repaving of streets abutting thereon. Approved April 8.

H. R. 416, by Sears, to authorize the governor to appoint three men at a per diem of $10 to serve with a like number appointed by the governor of Iowa as a Nebraska-Iowa boundary commission. Approved April 8.

H. R. 105, by Loomis, to prohibit trapping of live birds. Approved April 8.

H. R. 306, by Ribble, appropriating $15,000 for the payment of rewards for the discovery of gas or crude oil, and $4,000 for the discovery of iron or coal. Approved April 8.

H. R. 282, by Ribble, to prohibit and punish the counterfeiting of railroad tickets. Approved April 8.

H. R. 311, by McAllister, to make possible the abandonment and disorganization of irrigation districts. Approved April 8.

H. R. 353, by Barton, to make assault with intent to do great bodily injury a felony punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for from one to five years. Approved April 8. Emergency clause.

SENATE BILLS. S. F. No. 19, by Senator Marshall, legalizing the issuance of bonds for the maintenance of a heating and lighting plant by the village of Syracuse. Approved January 29. Emergency clause.

S. F. No. 55, by Senator Pries, providing normal schools to issue teachers' certificates, must employ five or more teachers, and have an investment of $50,000. Approved February 2. Emergency clause.

S. F. No. 3, by Senator Sheldon, providing county boards shall establish boards of health, make and enforce quarantine rules, and shall have jurisdiction outside of towns and cities to prevent the spread of contagious diseases. Approved February 20. Emergency clause.

S. F. No. 34, by Senator Sheldon, memorializing congress to establish the true military status of the First Nebraska militia. Approved February 27.

S. F. No. 117, by Senator Sheldon, providing county boards shall keep roads open leading from bridges across streams dividing two counties, to the most convenient public road. Approved March 25. Emergency clause.

S. F. No. 117, requesting congress to oppose Senator Dietrichs land-lease bill. Approved March 25.

S. F. No. 304, by Senator Warner, fixing fees to be charged by the commissioners of public lands and buildings for copying instruments, certificate and seal, forfeiture of lease and contract, etc. Approved March 25. Emergency clause.

S. F. No. 63, by Senator Brown, making it the duty of land owners to exterminate prairie dogs infecting their premises, and in case they fail to do so, making it the duty of the road overseer to do so, and allowing that official $3 per day for so doing, the expense to be paid by the land owner. Approved April 1.

S. F. No. 145, by Senator Norris, providing a drainage district may be formed by a majority of interest of the resident owners in any contiguous body of swamp land for the purpose of draining and reclamation of swamp, overflowed or submerged lands. Approved April 2.

S. F. No. 51, by Senator Way, providing all persons engaged in generating and transmitting electric currents are granted right of way for poles and wires along public highways, and making such persons liable for damages which may result to private property, and fixing a penalty for interference with poles and wires. Approved April 2. Emergency clause.

S. F. No. 95, by Senator Brown, giving Nebraska insurance companies the right to do business outside of the state. Approved April 7.

S. F. No. 217, by Senator Anderson, fixing the deputy state treasurer's bond at $10,000, and providing he may perform all the treasurer's duties which he may be authorized by the treasurer to perform in his absence, and providing the treasurer shall be responsible for all his deputy's acts in the discharge of his duties. Approved April 7.

S. F. No. 218, by Senator Anderson, providing for the appointment of his private secretary by the governor. Approved April 7.

H. R. 422, by Thompson, authorizing county boards to make repairs and let contracts for making repairs to bridges, in cases of emergency, without advertising for bids for such repairs do not exceed the sum of $300. Approved April 7.

S. F. 5, by Senator Sheldon, fixing the fees to be paid by applicants for certificates to practice medicine, fee for registration $25, of which $5 goes to the state board of health to be used as a fund for the prevention of illegal practitioners, and the remaining $20 to be equally divided, as fees, between the four members of the board; also providing applicants shall be examined by the member on the board of the same school to which the applicant belongs. Approved April 7.

S. F. 31, by Senator Pemberton, for the purchase by the state of 500 copies of the compiled statutes, to be prepared by J. E. Cobby, at a total cost of $4,500. This bill was vetoed by the governor, but passed over his veto. Emergency clause.

S. F. 8, by Senator Marshall, providing that county commissioners shall be nominated by districts and elected at large. Approved April 7. Emergency clause.

S. F. 25, by Senator Marshall, providing cities of the first and second class may issue bonds, bearing not to exceed 6 per cent interest, for establishing and maintaining heating and lighting systems, and providing for the disposition of monies collected for the use of such systems. Approved April 7. Emergency clause.

S. F. 58, by Senator Saunders, to prevent the docking of horses' tails, and fixing a penalty of imprisonment in the county jail for not exceeding one year, or a fine of not less than $100, or more than $500, for violation. Approved April 7.

S. F. 120, by Senator Jennings, requiring lessees of school lands to pay delinquencies and costs of forfeiture for lease at public auction. Approved April 7.

S. F. 188, by Senator Sheldon, providing road tax in counties not under township organization to be paid one-half in cash and one-half in labor, and fixing the rate which shall be allowed for labor. Approved April 7. Emergency clause.

S. F. 125, by Senator Harrison, defining the form of registration books which shall be used in metropolitan cities and cities of the first class having more than 25,000 inhabitants. Approved April 7.

S. F. 237, by Senator Sheldon, providing a county commissioner shall be appointed to examine into the expediency of a proposed road leading to a wagon bridge, whenever such bridge has been erected across a stream which forms a dividing line between two counties. Approved April 7. Emergency clause.

S. F. 11, by Senator Hall of Douglas, providing that there shall be nine supreme court commissioners for the first year and three for the second year, and one stenographer for each commissioner. Approved April 8. Emergency clause.

S. F. 143, by Senator O'Neill, providing for the appointment of a state surveyor and draughtsman, by the board of public lands and buildings. Approved April 8.

S. F. 128, by Senator Warner, providing no person who holds a public office shall be permitted to practice law in the courts of the county in which he holds such office. Approved April 8.

S. F. 195, by Senator Howell, making it the duty of all insurance companies incorporated under the laws of this state to file a semi-annual report with the state auditor, such statement to be published in some newspaper in the city of Lincoln. Approved April 8.

S. F. 61, by Senator Saunders, providing insurance companies shall pay the following fees: For filing and examination of first application, $50; filing statement, $20; certificates issued to foreign companies or their agents, each $2; agent's certificates, home companies, 50 cents. Approved April 8. Emergency clause.

S. F. 221, by Senator Harrison, placing government of routine and home cooperative companies under control of state banking board. Approved April 8.

S. F. 55, by Senator Giffin, providing cities and villages of less than 5,000 may vote bonds of waterworks, also providing for the appointment of a water commissioner at a salary of $400. Approved April 8. Emergency clause.

S. F. 150, by Senator Way, permitting irrigation companies to use natural streams and providing how damages shall be assessed in cases of condemnation by such companies. Approved April 8. Emergency clause.

S. F. 96, by Senator O'Neill, providing for the appointment, by the auditor, public accounts, of an insurance deputy, and fixing his bond at $10,000. Approved April 9. Emergency clause.

HOUSE ROLLS VETOED. H. R. 46, by Friedrich, requiring notice to be given if attempt is to be made at annual school meeting to raise taxes for building a new school or for removing it to a new site.

H. R. 222, appropriating $2,000 to reimburse the general school fund for deducting to Russell L. Loomis of Red Willow county school land mistakenly pre-empted by him.

H. R. 57, by McClay, amending the law relating to the management of Wyuka cemetery at Lincoln, by making possible encroachments upon the plot laid aside for a soldiers' and sailors' burial ground.

SENATE FILES VETOED. S. F. 29, by Senator Warner, providing for the payment of fees to the commissioner of public lands and buildings. This bill was vetoed because it was unconstitutional in form.

Rich American Dies in London. John Temple Leader, an American by birth and very wealthy, has just died in London. He owned the castle of Vincigliata, near Florence, which is fitted up magnificently in the medieval style.

A book in the hard is worth two in the press.

LIVE STOCK BREEDERS. Attention is called to the advertisement of the Lincoln Importing Horse company. They have a large number of imported black Percherons, English Shires and German Coach stallions which they are offering a special inducement to buyers in the way of a discount of 20 per cent. This company has been in business in Lincoln for sixteen years with the largest and most convenient barns in the United States; one barn costing over $10,000. They own their own plant and their guarantees and statements are well fortified, both financially and morally. This is a rare chance to buy a first-class stallion at a low price. Visit their barns or write them at once.

<