

FOR CLEAN LIVES

ROOSEVELT ADDRESSES A RELIGIOUS SOCIETY.

THE NEED OF PURE LIFE

His Remarks Applauded by a Large and Enthusiastic Audience—Speech as Well as Conduct Important for All to Consider.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y.—President Roosevelt delivered the principal address at the quarterly meeting of the Society of Holy Name, of Brooklyn and Long Island, held here Sunday. "Decency of Speech and Conduct" constituted the theme of his address, which was enthusiastically applauded by an audience of more than 2,000 persons, chiefly men. During the afternoon special trains brought hundreds of member of the society to Oyster Bay from Brooklyn and western Long Island. As the president drove up to the stand in a closed carriage, accompanied by Captain W. H. Brownson, superintendent of the Naval academy, Secretary Barnes and a representative of the society, he was accorded an enthusiastic reception, a band the while playing "Hail to the Chief." After the audience had sung "America" Father Power, rector of St. Dominic's, introduced the president in a felicitous speech.

When President Roosevelt rose to speak he was greeted with cheers, and it was quite a minute before he was able to proceed. His address in part follows:

Very reverend dean, reverend clergy and you of the Holy Name society: I count myself fortunate in having the chance to say a word to you today, and at the outset let me, Father Power, on behalf of my neighbors, your congregation, welcome you here to Oyster Bay. I have a partial right to join in that welcome myself, for it was my good fortune in the days of Father Power's predecessor, Father Belford, to be the first man to put down a small contribution for the erection of the church here. I am particularly glad to see such a church as this flourishing, as your society has flourished, because the future welfare of our nation depends upon the way in which we can combine in our men—our young men—decency and strength. Just this morning, when attending service on the great battleship—Keearsarge, I listened to a sermon addressed to the officers and enlisted men of the navy, in which the central thought was that each American must be a good man or he could not be a good citizen, and one of the things dwelt upon in that sermon was the fact that a man must be clean of mouth as well as clean of life—must show by his words as well as actions his fealty to the Deity and to the Savior if he was to live aright.

We have good scriptural authority for the statement that it is not what comes into a man's mouth, but what goes out of it that counts. I am not addressing weaklings, or I should not take the trouble to come here. I am addressing strong, vigorous men who are engaged in the hard work of life, and life to be worth living must be a life of activity and hard work. I am speaking to men engaged in the hard, active work of life, and therefore men who count for good or evil and it is particularly incumbent upon you who have strength to set a right example to others. I ask you to remember that you cannot retain your self respect if you are loose and foul of tongue, that a man who is to lead a clean and honorable life must inevitably suffer if his speech likewise is not clean and honorable. Every man here knows the temptations that beset all of us in this world.

Lady Constance to Wed.

LONDON—The engagement of Lady Constance Mackenzie and Captain Fitzgerald of the Eleventh Hussars has come as a great surprise to society. Lady Constance has for the past three years set everyone wondering what she would do next. A year ago she created some excitement in the United States by riding astride along the sidewalks of Aiken, S. C. Her relatives could do nothing with her.

Shaw Visits His Mother.

MORRISVILLE, Vt.—Secretary of the Treasury Shaw came here Sunday for a few days' visit at the home of his mother.

Pope Receives Harty in Private.

ROME—The pope at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon received at a private audience in his apartments Archbishop Harty, who was on Saturday created archbishop of Manila, with whom he spoke at length on the situation in the Philippines. The pope said the efforts of the clergy toward the pacification of the archipelago and the triumph of Catholicism would always receive the warmest support at Rome.

ROOT WILL QUIT.

Will Resign Position Before Sailing for London.

WASHINGTON—Before Secretary Root sails for London to sit with the Alaskan commission he will place his resignation in the president's hands in order that a secretary of war may be appointed if necessary during his absence.

It is expected, however, that the resignation will not be acted upon until after congress meets. The appointment of Mr. Root's successor will depend somewhat on the length of time he is engaged on the Alaskan boundary commission.

It has been known for some time that Secretary Root intended to retire, but he did not wish to leave the department until the general staff was in operation. It is understood that the matter of his successor has been discussed, and while not officially announced it is thought the position will be tendered to Governor Taft.

While Secretary Root is in London he will remain in communication with the war department and matters pertaining to the staff and other matters will be referred to him. If the sitings of the Alaskan commission extend beyond December 1, it is likely the secretary's resignation will be accepted at that time.

It is believed here that there will be much delay in the consideration of the Alaskan boundary case and that the United States commissioners may be detained in London several months.

Secretary Root's decision to leave public life is based largely on personal grounds. His family does not like the life in Washington and the secretary also desires to return to his law practice in New York.

Many questions, relative principally to the islands and the establishment of a government in Cuba, have been settled during Secretary Root's administration. The reorganization of the army under the general staff plan is now under way and the secretary feels he has accomplished the work he was called on to do when he became secretary of war.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y.—Elihu Root will resign as secretary of war, the resignation to take effect about January 1. He will be succeeded, unless present plans miscarry, by Judge William H. Taft, now governor of the Philippines.

When Mr. Roosevelt became president Mr. Root expressed his desire to leave the cabinet within a year, but his friendship for the president, and his interest in pending questions before the department, caused him to remain for a longer period. Even now he has not indicated just when he may leave the cabinet, but he and the president have discussed the question several times and have a mutual understanding. It is not thought the secretary will present his resignation before he leaves for England to take up the work of the Alaskan boundary commission.

MILES IS NOT A CANDIDATE.

Does Not Want to Head the Grand Army of the Republic.

OMAHA.—The second section of the Chicago & Northwestern train, to which was attached the special car No. 403, conveying General Nelson A. Miles and party, arrived in Omaha about 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. A great throng welcomed him at the depot here. "I am not a candidate for the office of commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic," said General Miles. "On the contrary, I shall second the nomination of General John C. Black. General Black is a fine representative of the old soldiers and is entitled to the honor. The Grand Army was created for the common soldier and not for the professional. At any rate, I have had enough in the military line and have no ambition further in that direction. "The Grand Army of the Republic is very dear to me. I was active in its organization, assisting General John A. Logan. In 1868, when I was in command of a district in South Carolina, I organized Barbara Freitsche post and was for a long time one of the comrades of that post. I have since had my membership transferred to Lafayette post of the New York department, and there it now is. You must not think that I do not appreciate the distinction of being commander-in-chief, for I do. I think it is the highest honor that can come to an old soldier."

A man who is "so good" is real un-canny.

Wireless Telegraphy Contest.

BERLIN—The first international congress of wireless telegraphy adjourned, after resolving to keep its proceedings secret for the present. It is learned that the majority reached an agreement regarding the principles of the control of international communication by wireless telegraphy. A semi-official statement issued regarding the congress renders it probable that Germany will soon call a more general conference.

JEFFRIES WINNER

SUCCESSFULLY DEFENDS TITLE TO CHAMPIONSHIP.

VICTORY IN THE TENTH ROUND

Sponge Thrown Up to Save Corbett From Needless Punishment—Evidence that Jeffries Stands Alone in His Class.

MECHANICS PAVILION, SAN FRANCISCO.—James J. Jeffries, heavyweight champion of the world, played with Corbett for nine rounds and a half Friday night and then Corbett's seconds stopped the fight to save their man from needless punishment.

The end came shortly after the beginning of the tenth round, when Jeffries planted one of his terrific left swings on Corbett's stomach. The man who conquered John L. Sullivan dropped to the floor in agony and the memorable scene at Carson City, when Bob Fitzsimmons landed his solar plexus blow, was almost duplicated. This time, however, Corbett struggled to his feet and again faced his gigantic adversary. With hardly a moment's hesitation Jeffries swung his right and again landed on Corbett's stomach. Jim dropped to the floor and then it was that Tommy Ryan, seeing it was all over, motioned to Referee Graney to stop it.

The fight demonstrated beyond all doubt that Jeffries stands alone in his class. He showed remarkable improvement on both speed and skill. Corbett during the first part of the fight was almost outpointed and the few blows he landed on Jeffries were apparently without sting. Jeffries was never in better condition. He looked lighter than usual and the way he moved about on his feet and the frequency with which he countered Corbett's leads astonished everybody.

Corbett, in comparison with the big man opposed to him, looked light, but was really heavier than ever before. He appeared to have lost some of his old time speed and skill during the early part of the fight, but this may have been due to Jeffries' marvelous improvement.

Corbett's physical condition appeared to be all that he had claimed. He stood many of Jeffries' terrific blows without wincing and came back swinging left and right and landed frequently, but his blows hardly stunned Jeffries. Jeffries was not only stronger and cleverer than ever, but he used his head to better purpose and although Corbett would hit him hard enough to hurt an ordinary man Jeffries bore right in without noticing the blows and delivered telling hits that materially aided in deciding the fight.

At first Corbett was cautious and apparently was outpointed by Jeffries, but later he warmed up and showed some of his old time cleverness. From the first, however, it was generally regarded as a hopeless case for Corbett. He made a gallant fight, but he never stood a show to win.

After the fight was over Corbett quickly recovered, walked over to Jeffries and shook him warmly by the hand. He said: "Jim, you beat me fairly. You stand alone. No one can touch you."

CANNON AND ALLISON MEET.

Neither Will Discuss the Object of Their Conference.

CHICAGO, Ill.—Senator William B. Allison and Congressman Joseph G. Cannon of Illinois, slated as speaker of the next house, held a conference at the Auditorium Annex, but neither statesman would discuss the meeting. "I saw Senator Allen," said Congressman Cannon, "but there is nothing I can say about our meeting. I am on my way to Nebraska." Senator Allison remained but a short time in Chicago and, as he did not see any other politician during his visit, it is surmised that he came especially for the conference with Congressman Cannon.

King Bestows Honors.

LONDON.—A large number of promotions and appointments to the Royal Victorian order in connection with the king's visit to Ireland was gazetted on Tuesday. They include Lord Londonderry and Lord Dudley as Knights of the Grand Cross, and Lord Charles Beresford, the Rt. Hon. Horace Curzon Plunket, Sir Anthony Patrick McDonald and a number of Irish officials as knights commander.

Mrs. Nation Asks Damages.

SCRANTON, Pa.—Carrie Nation's summary conviction for selling hatchets in violation of a city ordinance was declared illegal by Judge Newcombe on Monday when her application for a writ of habeas corpus came before him. The writ was sustained on the ground that the magistrates record was defective. Mrs. Nation will bring suit against the city for $50,000 damages for false arrest and imprisonment.

APPEAL TO POWERS.

Macedonian Rebels Will Struggle Till European Intervention.

SOFIA.—The delegates of the Macedonian committee have addressed the following appeal to each of the representatives of the powers:

Your Excellency: The delegates of the Macedonian committee have the honor to bring to your notice the following declaration with the request that you communicate it to your government:

The Mussulmans' systematic persecution has compelled the Christians in Macedonia and the vilayettes of Adrianople to institute a general rising. They have had recourse to this measure after exhausting every measure to secure the intervention of Europe to enforce the provisions of the Berlin treaty. At the present moment intervention is the only means of remedying the evil and stopping bloodshed. The sporadic efforts of the powers to secure reforms have failed, they resulting merely in a recrudescence of Turkish fanaticism and government oppression.

It is evident that reform measures, to be efficacious, must include the appointment of a Christian governor general of Macedonia, some one who has never held office under the porte and who must be independent of the Turkish government in the exercise of his functions, and the further appointment by the powers of a joint permanent administrative board with power to deal with any disturbance.

Having exposed the foregoing facts to the civilized world and made public the causes which have driven the Macedonians to despair, the committee for the Macedonians now in arms proposes to continue the fight until the object of their uprising has been attained.

(Signed for the committee.)

DOCTORS TATARCHIAFF, CHRISTO, MATOFF.

DECLARES HIMSELF BEST MAN.

What Jeffries Said After the Fight Was Over.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Jeffries said after the fight here Friday night: "My fight will demonstrate to the public that I am a better man than I ever was and gives the lie to the reports which has been circulated in some quarters that I am a physical wreck, through drink and other dissipation. I trained faithfully for this fight and the result shows that I am the natural champion. I outboxed Corbett in every round and carried the fight to aim at every stage of the game. I must say, however, that Corbett put up a better fight than I thought he would. His punches had no steam, and when they did land, which was not often, they did not pheeze me. At no time was I distressed and I felt confident of winning from the first. I would have put him out in the fourth if my glove had not burst. The half minute's delay to replace the glove did Corbett a world of good and he was able to continue the contest. Although he knew I was his master and lost his old-time confidence, he occasionally showed his old agility. I fought harder with my trainers during the conditioning season than I did with Corbett and I finished the contest as fresh as when I entered the ring. "I have no plans for the future. Those matters are left to my manager and my trainer."

BIGGEST IOWA HAS EVER HAD.

Indications Are That State Fair at Des Moines Will Break All Records.

DES MOINES, Ia.—The Iowa state fair opens Friday of this week and the indications are that it will be the biggest fair the state has ever had. All of the departments will be full to overflowing and the directors of the fair are at a loss to know what to do with all of the entries that have been made. In the cattle department nearly 800 entries have been made, which is above last year's record. It will probably be necessary to house part of the cattle in tents, as the barns will not hold all of them and there will not be time to build more. The horse show will be one of the greatest ever held in the west. All of the leading importers of the central west have arranged to have their stables represented, and when it comes to judging horses, the best judges in the country will have all they can do to pick the winners.

Veterans Endorse Miles.

ROCHESTER, N. Y.—At the session of the Union Veteran Union national encampment a resolution was passed commending the administrative acts of Lieutenant General Miles. It has been decided to take no formal action in the matter of the factional troubles that have afflicted the organization since the bolt at the Des Moines convention in 1899. There is a large crowd in attendance and the veterans are enjoying themselves.

THE LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Latest Quotations From South Omaha and Kansas City.

SOUTH OMAHA.

CATTLE.—There was a moderate run of cattle, and as local buyers were all anxious for supplies the market ruled active and higher on all desirable grades. There were several cars of corned steers on sale, and in fact a larger percentage of the receipts than usual consisted of beef steers. The quality of several shipments was by far the best of any that have been here in some time past. Packers, though, all took hold freely, and as a result the prices paid were very satisfactory. There were only a few cows and heifers in sight and the market ruled active and steady to strong. There is nothing new to report regarding bulls, veal calves and stags. They have sold in much the same notches all the week. There were only a few bunches of stockers and feeders in the yards, and as is generally the case toward the close of the week many were wanted. It would not be safe to quote them any more than steady. There were not enough western cattle here to make a test of the market. From the way packers bought the cornfeds, however, it would be safe to quote grass beef strong.

HOGS.—There was not an excessive run of hogs in sight, and under the influence of a good demand the market here opened fully a nickel higher with trading quite active. A good many sales showed an advance of 5¢ to 10¢, but toward the close the demand was not quite as brisk, so that the late sales were a little weaker. Coarse heavy hogs had to sell as low as $5.10, but the bulk of the heavy hogs sold from $5.15 to $5.20, mixed went from $5.20 to $5.25 and lights sold from $5.25 to $5.37½.

SHEEP.—Quotations for grass stock: Good to choice lambs, $5.00@5.25; fair to good lambs, $4.75@5.00; good to choice yearlings, $3.50@3.75; fair to good yearlings, $3.25@3.50; good to choice wethers, $3.25; good to choice ewes, $2.90@3.10; fair to good ewes, $2.50@2.75; feeder lambs, $3.50@4.25; feeder yearlings, $3.25@3.50; feeder wethers, $3.00@3.25; feeder ewes, $1.50@2.50.

KANSAS CITY.

CATTLE.—Corn fed cattle 10@25¢ lower than week's best prices; cows and heifers and stockers and feeders steady; choice export and dressed beef steers, $4.75@5.40; fair to good, $3.75@4.75; stockers and feeders, $3.00@4.25; western fed steers, $2.95@4.85; Texas and Indian steers, $2.50@3.90; Texas cows, $1.55@2.85; native cows, $1.50@4.10; native heifers, $2.25@4.70; canners, $1.00@2.30; bulls, $2.00@3.30; calves, $3.25@5.75.

HOGS.—Strong to 5¢ higher; top, $5.55; bulk of sales, $5.30@5.50; heavy, $5.20@5.40; mixed packers, $5.20@5.45; light, $5.45@5.65; yorkers, $5.25@5.65; pigs, $5.40@5.65.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.—Market steady; native lambs, $3.00@5.60; western lambs, $2.90@5.35; fed ewes, $2.75@4.70; Texas clipped sheep yearlings, $2.80@4.75; Texas clipped sheep, $2.60@4.45; stockers and feeders, $2.45@3.50.

EARLY SESSION IS OPPOSED.

Many Members of Congress Will Be Engaged in October.

OYSTER BAY, L. I.—Financial legislation and other work of the proposed extraordinary session of congress were discussed Friday by the president and his callers, who included Secretaries Shaw and Hitchcock, Senator Cullom and Comptroller of the Currency Ridgely. Considerable opposition has developed to the idea of calling the extra session in October. The point is made that many senators and representatives will be engaged during October in their state campaigns, and that it would be politically unwise for them to leave their states at such a time. It was announced that no definite conclusion regarding the date of the extraordinary session has yet been reached.

OCCUPATION DAY AT MANILA.

Anniversary is Made a Festive Occasion by Veterans of Campaign.

MANILA.—Veterans of the Army of the Philippines celebrated Occupation day with a parade in which 80 men took part, clad in the old regulation service clothing—blue shirts and khaki. A banquet was afterward served, at which the story of the campaign during the stirring period, in the early occupancy of the territory, closed by the capture of the city of Manila, was told, and the battles fought over again around the festive board.

Commissioner Smith was the chief speaker of the evening. Two-thirds of the veteran soldiers of the campaign now serve in one position or another under the civil government.

Alaskan Boundary Commission.

WASHINGTON.—The state department was being informed by Ambassador Choate that the first meeting of the Alaskan boundary commission will be held on September 2, in the British foreign office.

Causes Failure of Another Bank.

DULUTH, Minn.—The alleged embezzlement of $45,000 of the funds of the Commercial Banking company, for which E. E. Johnson, a trusted clerk of the bank is under arrest, on Friday brought about the failure of the Merchants' bank of Duluth. President Smith said that the failure was due to a run on the bank, resulting from the closing of the Commercial Banking company's institution.

PLAYED DEAF AND DUMB.

But Even Then the Lawyer Did Not Get Silent Shave.

"Experiments don't always terminate as expected," said a Nassau street lawyer. "This morning I went to a strange barber shop, and for the purpose of heading off conversation I played deaf and dumb. As I entered I put my fingers to work and went through the motion of shaving with an affirmative shake of the head; gave the negative shake as I made the hair cutting motions, shampooing gestures, shoeblacking actions and application of hair tonic passes.

"Two idle barbers bowed in recognition of understanding me, and took positions at their chairs, waiting for me to make my selection, which I did by dropping into the first one.

"That fellow looks daffy as well as dumb," said the barber who wasn't putting soap in my mouth.

"I guess he's all right," answered the one who was rubbing in all the lather on one spot. "These dummies always do act queer."

"I bet he is too mean to give you a tip."

"He looks it," answered the shaver. "He will be a bald headed lobster inside of six months. It looks as though his wife had been playing ping-pong on his head."

"Sell him some hair tonic," replied the other. "I will write and ask him if he wants it."

"I'll be hanged if you do!" I cried out. "Go on with the shave, and let me get out of this."

"The shave was completed—after a fashion, and there wasn't a word spoken during the rest of the process. The tip was forgotten.—New York Herald.

WAS THIS DOCTOR A QUACK?

Cured a Patient of a Hallucination by a Clever Trick.

We recall the case of an unhappy wretch who came to Washington some years ago imploring the doctors to relieve him of a snake which he said he had swallowed while drinking at a spring and which, as he violently declared, was devouring the coat of his stomach. One by one the learned gentlemen examined him, satisfied themselves that there was no snake—as, indeed, there was not—and sent him away with the solemn assurance that he need not worry about it any more.

He continued to worry, however, and when at last he found a physician who cared more about results than etiquette he was on the verge of actual insanity. This great physician soon perceived that he had to deal with a hallucination, not a snake, and proceeded accordingly. He employed a colored citizen and a tin bucket. Two hours in Rock Creek park brought forth a garter snake of small size but great activity, and an earnest and industrious emetic did the rest. The victim saw the snake wriggling in the bucket and went home happy. It is part of the history of that period, however, that the physician who achieved the cure was loudly denounced as an outlaw, and consigned to everlasting odium for unprofessional conduct.

We never heard that he lost the confidence of the public on that account, however, and as the fame and the fortunes of medical men are made by their practical achievements and not by the approval of their fellow doctors we rather think he profited in the end.—Washington Post.

The Gospel of Must.

There is work in the world for the toiler or dreamer. And the work that's at hand is the work he should do; And whether the toiler's mechanic or schemer

The result is the crystallized thing that he knew. Let the thing be a good thing "world is the better."

If had 'tis a pity the tools did not rust. Good, bad or indifferent, man is the debtor (So he'll tell you at times) of the Gospel of Must.

"I just had to do it!" cries weak-kneed officer. "Gainst morality's laws, when he's called to account."

"I had to!" the borrower says to the lender— So do instances rise—there are any amount. Cruel fate's a most kind in providing excuses

For weak, foolish men who lie prone in the dust— And, while helping the wicked and foolish, traduces A great and wise message, the Gospel of Must.

The wise man must give of his wisdom to many; The man with great gifts always must pass them on.

The good man forbears doing evil to any— Always must do what's right, and bid evil begone.

Grim necessity cruelly tries every fellow Who walks "neath her banner. Ah, hearties her thrust! You must do right or wrong! You must be red or yellow—

So the weaklings are killed by the Gospel of Must! —Pittsburgh Dispatch.

His Debt to the Bible.

A frivolous visitor to the Fiji islands said to a Fijian chief: "It is really a pity you have been so foolish as to listen to these missionaries. No one nowadays believes in the Bible." The chief's eyes flashed as he said: "Do you see that stone? There we killed our victims. Do you see that oven? There we roasted their bodies for our feasts. If it hadn't been for the missionaries and the Bible you would have met the same fate."

Discourtesy

Madge—He tried to kiss me, although we are not engaged. Dolly—What made him think he could do it? Madge—I suppose it was because he had been in the habit of calling on you.—Judge.

Shame!

When a man's foot gets tangled up with a woman's under the table and she gets mad about it, you can make her madder by pretending you thought it was somebody else.
