TWENTY-SECOND YEAR

McCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 6, 1903.

NUMBER 23

Charles L. DeGross Passes Away.

After a long and painful illness, during which time he underwent several operations for his relief and succor at different times, Charles L. DeGross, senior member of the Cash Mercantile Store of our city, passed away in a hospital at Philadelphia, last Saturday night about nine o'clock, from internal hemorrhage following an operation. The sad news arrived here on Sunday afternoon by telegram from the bereaved and devoted wife, who with the family had accompanied him to Philadelphia from Nebraska City, recently.

The deceased was for years a leading merchant of our city, coming here from Unadilla, and going from this city to Nebraska City, where for a few years he was the junior member of the wholesale grocery firm of Bradley, DeGross & Co., from which however he was not long since compelled to retire by continued illhealth. For the past year or two his has been a constant and ceaseless quest for health which was never to be realized. C. L. DeGross was a business man of the first class and a gentleman of high order. His sad and untimely death is sincerely regretted by many McCook friends, who entertain tenderest feelings and sentiments of sympathy for the bereaved, heroic wife and five young children.

At the time of his death C. L. DeGross was the senior member of the firm of C. L. DeGross & Co. of our city, one of the heaviest merchandising establishments in Southwestern Nebraska.

The funeral was held on Thursday, interment being made at Athens, Penn. Louis Suess, junior member of the firm, departed for the east on No. 6, Sunday night, to attend the funeral and pay a last tribute of respect to the memory of his late partner and ever true and trusting friend.

The establishment in this city was closed all day, Thursday, in honor of the deceased, who was buried on that date.

C. L. DEGROSS DEAD.

A telegram was received in this city last evening announcing the death of Charles L. DeGross, in one of the hospitals at Philadelphia, Pa., where he underwent a surgical operation. He was for many years a resident of this city and county, having conducted a store at both Syracuse and Unadilla and was for years one of the firm of Bradley, DeGross & Co., wholesale grocers, of this city. He has a store at McCook and has had for years. He was a most successful business man and accumulated a fortune. He had gone east for his health, which has been poor for the past four years. He was fifty years of age and leaves a widow and three children. His remains will be interred in the family burying grounds in the east. His death is deeply deplored by all.

Creamery Ice Supply.

It is said that the Burlington will build a new 1,000 ton ice house at Oxford, from which to supply the demands of the Beatrice Creamery company of Lincoln. The present ice house of the company at Oxford will also be enlarged. The demands of the creamery and of the railroad company could not be met from the supply at that place during the season just ending and more room is demanded.

A new 1,500 ton ice house is to be built at McCook, or rather an extension holding that amount will be added to the 1,300 ton house built at that place last year. The present supply at that place is held in houses estimated to hold about 3,300 tons.—Journal.

Sad Death of Eva Inglis.

Death entered the home of Engineer and Mrs. J. G. Inglis, Monday, under circumstances uncommonly sad and pathetic, taking from them their young daughter, Eva, and rendering a happy home desolate.

Eva was suffering with a sore throat and her mother gave her what she supposed to be a dose of cough medicine, Monday morning. But it seems that Eva had poured the contents of a bottle of carbolic acid into the cough medicine bottle without the knowledge of her mother, consequently the little girl, who drank the medicine from the bottle, took a swallow of carbolic acid before becoming aware of the nature of the terrible drug.

Medical sympathy was at once summoned and all possible was done to relieve the little sufferer, but without avail, Eva dying at about half past seven o'clock the same evening, after lingering in great agony.

The especially sad circumstances of the case have called forth from every tender heart in this entire community the deepest sympathy for the members of the bereaved family, more particularly toward the loving mother, whose burden is an almost overwhelming one.

Sarah Evelyn Inglis was born February 4, 1882; died November 2, 1903; aged 11 years, 8 months, 28 days.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. R. Betts in the Baptist church, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, many neighbors and friends attending. Interment followed in Riverview cemetery.
